WELCOME TO 2017

Dear Media Member,

Thank you for your continued coverage of the New England Revolution.

The Revolution communications staff has prepared the 2017 Media Guide to assist you with your coverage of the New England Revolution and Major League Soccer in what is now the league's 22nd season. Please note the information and records represented in this book have been updated through the beginning of the 2017 MLS season. All biographical information for club management, coaches, and players is accurate as of February 2017.

This guide is a reference tool for media and includes:

- Team and league media reference information.
- Biographical information for club management, coaches, and players.
- Year-by-Year club history featuring all-time results, statistics, lineups, and box scores across all competitions since the club's inception in 1996.
- A comprehensive record book with all-time honors, notes, and both individual and team records.
- An all-time registry of Revolution coaches and players with statistics for every current and former member of the team.
- Information on the team's all-time opponents with series results, statistics, and player information.

To access the New England Revolution 2017 Media Guide digitally, please visit the team's website at www.revolutionsoccer.net/history. On the website, you will also find up-to-date biographical information, current Revolution news and features, a directory of club staff, and much more.

Following this introduction, you will find a directory of Revolution and MLS personnel, including contact information for the team's communications staff, all of whom may be helpful in aiding your coverage. We hope this information helps expedite any requests you may have. Please don't hesitate to contact us with any requests, questions, thoughts, or concerns.

Thank you again for your coverage and support of the New England Revolution. We look forward to working with you in 2017 and beyond.

Sincerely,

The New England Revolution Communications Staff

2017 REVOLUTION MEDIA POLICIES

The New England Revolution communications staff is pleased to assist you in your coverage of the team. Please review this section for specific media policies of which you should be aware as you prepare to cover the Revolution and MLS in 2017.

2017 SEASON CREDENTIALS

To request a 2017 season credential or parking pass for Revolution matches and other club events, please complete and submit the credential application at revolutionsoccer.net/2017-media-credentials. Please note that media parking passes and season credentials are non-transferrable and distributed at the discretion of the Revolution communications staff. Any questions or issues during the submission process should be directed to the communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net.

Media members who submit credential applications after the deadline will not receive a season credential and will be required to submit individual requests for each match or event he or she wishes to attend. All those who are issued credentials, including season credentials, are asked to notify the communications staff of any requests or coverage plans prior to a match or training session. In all credential requests, please include the media members' name(s), outlet, contact information, and the specific details of the request to media@revolutionsoccer.net.

GAME DAY CREDENTIALS

For all media members without 2017 season credentials, requests for game day credentials may be submitted online at revolutionsoccer.net/2017-media-credentials or emailed to the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net no later than 5:00 p.m. on Thursdays for weekend matches and no later than 5:00 p.m. on Mondays for weekday matches. All requests will be reviewed and media will be notified if they have been approved for credentials no later than 24 hours before kickoff. Single-game parking passes will be distributed via email to all credentialed media prior to the game.

GENERAL SECURITY POLICIES

Due to security procedures in place at Gillette Stadium, any member of the media who wishes to attend a training session MUST inform the Revolution communications staff by the close of business the day before the session. All media who have alerted the staff of their planned attendance will have their names left at Security Command for check-in. We cannot guarantee admittance to the stadium grounds if we do not receive advance notice of any intentions to attend training.

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

All media who have been issued credentials or who are granted access to the team are expected to follow the guidelines set forth in this document, as well as the instructions of the Revolution staff, stadium employees, and security, or risk limitation of access or revocation of credentials.

Media access is issued with the purpose of providing access to interviews and written, audio, and visual accounts of the team, as appropriate. No member of the media should use this access for autographs, personal photographs, or commercial requests. Doing so will automatically result in the permanent revocation of credentials to cover the New England Revolution.

At all times, those granted media access must abide by the conditions set forth on the back of their MLS and/or Revolution credentials.

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICIES

The New England Revolution does not allow media members to correspond with players on social platforms without prior arrangement or permission. Any credentialed member of the media who communicates or corresponds with Revolution players via social media channels will have their credential status reviewed. However, media are encouraged to appropriately tag players in social media posts related to their coverage of the team.

REVOLUTION MEDIA SERVICES

Press Releases and Alerts: Requests to be added to the media distribution list should be addressed to media@revolutionsoccer.net.

Official Website: www.revolutionsoccer.net is the official website of the New England Revolution. All content posted on the site by the team, including video, may be republished in its entirety by media outlets, with credit cited as "New England Revolution." Note that user-generated content, including user comments, photos, and videos, MAY NOT be republished without explicit permission.

Media Guide: For the digital version of the 2017 Media Guide, please visit revolutionsoccer.net/history.

Game Notes and Postgame Recaps: No fewer than 48 hours before each MLS match, the communications staff will distribute a comprehensive game guide complete with updated rosters, statistics, opponent information, and relevant notes. This document also includes the team's injury report for the upcoming match.

Following each contest, the communications staff will distribute a recap of the match featuring lineups, the box score, and statistical notes and milestones. Postgame quotes and b-roll will also be made available following each match.

Training Report Quotes and B-Roll: The Revolution communications staff will release b-roll footage and transcripts from the head coach and various players on a regular basis throughout the season. To request additional b-roll or pre-taped interviews, please email media@revolutionsoccer.net.

High-Resolution Photos: The New England Revolution maintains an extensive database of high-resolution action and candid photos of the team from matches, training sessions, and team events. To request specific photos, including headshots, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net. All credit for images provided by the club should be attributed to "New England Revolution" unless otherwise noted.

CHECKING IN AT GILLETTE STADIUM

All media members who attend a Revolution training session at Gillette Stadium must check in at Security Command, located at the south end of the stadium (through the doors under the red awning), unless otherwise indicated. All members of the media who have RSVP'd with the Revolution communications staff will be on a list at the check-in window. Please have proper forms of ID available, which can include Revolution or MLS credentials if one has already been issued.

Media are asked to arrive promptly on or before the suggested time as noted on the Weekly Schedule. When media access is set to begin, a member of the Revolution communications staff will meet media at Security Command and escort them to the training field or interview area.

Under no circumstance is a media member permitted inside Gillette Stadium or at the training facilities without an escort from the Revolution communications staff. Failure to follow this rule could result in the immediate revocation of training access or season credentials.

MEDIA PARKING

Media will be issued parking passes prior to game day. For all matches, media parking is located in Lot 5B, 6A, or as directed. Please follow the instructions of parking attendants and Gillette Stadium staff, and also be mindful of special restrictions due to other stadium events.

Media parking for training sessions will be in Lot 6B unless otherwise noted. Once parked, media should immediately proceed to Security Command to check in.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media Will Call opens two hours before kickoff and is located inside Security Command at the south end of the stadium (through the doors under the red awning). This is for press and photo credentials only.

MEDIA WORK AREAS – GAME DAYS

All non-broadcast Revolution media will work out of the Blue Level Press Box at Gillette Stadium on game days. The Red Level Press Box will be open to media for the media meal and halftime snack, though media are encouraged to remain on Blue Level at all other times. Photographers will have space and Wi-Fi access in the Photo Work Room, located at field level at the north end of the stadium.

Press areas will be open beginning two hours before kickoff (generally 5:30 p.m. for a regularly scheduled 7:30 p.m. game), and the press areas will close approximately three hours after the final whistle. Media who are filing on deadline and expect to need more time should make arrangements with the Revolution communications staff.

A press meal will be served in the Red Level Press Box two hours before kickoff through the first 15 minutes of the game. A snack will be made available to media at halftime. Throughout the game, water and soda are available on Blue Level, while additional beverages and coffee are available on Red Level. Boxed lunches will also be provided in the Photo Work Room for still photographers.

MEDIA WORK AREAS - NON-GAME DAYS

If media members need to work and file from Gillette Stadium on a non-game day, please inform a member of the communications staff in advance so the appropriate arrangements can be made.

TRAINING ACCESS AND MEDIA AVAILABILITY

The club offers media access and media availability at every first-team training session. The communications staff will distribute a Weekly Schedule at the beginning of each week during the season, typically on a Monday. Media wishing to attend a training session are required to RSVP via email to media@revolutionssoccer.net by the close of business the day before to the session.

Most Revolution training sessions will be open for a viewing period of at least 15 minutes to media ("media access") unless otherwise noted by the Revolution communications staff. Specific elements of training, particularly tactical elements such as set pieces, may be subject to video and photography limitations. Media availability typically takes place immediately following training, either on the training field or in the tunnel outside the team locker room. If there are changes to this access period, media who have RSVP'd will be notified.

In coverage of training sessions, we ask for cooperation in observing the following practice policies. Failure to do so could result in the revocation of media credentials.

- Please do not report on match strategy deployed at training. This includes describing specific formations, personnel groupings, set pieces, and combinations.
- Please do not quote, paraphrase, or report comments made by coaches, staff, or players during a training session while they are on the training field.

PLAYER AND STAFF INTERVIEWS

All requests for interviews for Revolution players, coaches, executives, and staff must be submitted to and approved by the Revolution communications staff. Contacting players or team management directly – including through social media platforms – could result in the revocation of credentials and future access.

Training: Unless otherwise noted, player and staff interviews will be conducted on the side of the training field at the conclusion of the session. If weather conditions preclude outdoor access, interviews will take place inside the tunnel outside the Revolution locker room. If a request requires an alternative space such as a private suite, please include this information when submitting the request.

As a courtesy to the players' and coaches' time, the Revolution communications staff requests that any interview requiring an excess of 10 minutes be arranged well in advance so appropriate accommodations can be made.

Game Days: Per MLS policy, players and coaches will be available to rights-holding broadcast media up to 60 minutes before advertised kickoff of an MLS regular season match. All other interviews must be coordinated with team communications personnel in advance. Please note that players and coaches can decline non-broadcast interviews at this time, so media are encouraged to submit requests in advance.

No media except for broadcast rights holders and MLS Digital will have access to players and coaches for interviews during the match or at halftime.

Following the final whistle of each game, the home and visiting coaches will each conduct a press conference. At home games, the Revolution head coach will be available in the media work room. Locker rooms will be opened to media following the conclusion of the 15-minute cooling off period afforded to the teams.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS

Training: Still photographers are permitted to shoot a minimum of 15 minutes of a training session. Shooting may need to be temporarily suspended if the team is working on set pieces or other tactical elements. All photographers must remain off the playing field and maintain a safe distance from the boundaries of the field. Please note that any tri- or mono-pod device must be kept on the longer grass around the field and not on the manicured parts of the field.

Game Days: Only photographers who are shooting for an accredited media outlet or wire service will be credentialed for games. Freelance photographers will not be credentialed per organizational policy. All photographers must obey the direction of the photo marshalls on the sideline, as these marshalls are an extension of the Revolution communications staff.

All still photographers will be issued an appropriately colored photo bib upon checking in at media will call. Failure to wear the bib while in the stadium could result in removal from the sidelines, dismissal from the stadium, and/or the revocation of future credentials.

To shoot starting lineups and team photos, photographers should meet at the midfield sideline prior to the game. At the conclusion of those opportunities, all photographers must adhere to the following photographer guidelines:

- No photographer is permitted in or between the technical (bench) areas at any time, including warm-ups.
- No photographer is allowed to shoot directly behind the goal. All photographers must be positioned on either side of the goal stanchions.
- No still photographer with a PHOTO credential is allowed in either the home or visiting team locker room, as still photography is not permitted in the locker rooms. Only video photographers with that credential will be afforded access, per MLS rules.

The Photo Work Room is located at the north end of the field-level service tunnel. Photographers can access this room by walking the length of the service tunnel past both locker rooms, or directly from the field at the north end of the stadium under the bridge. The Photo Work Room is equipped with Wi-Fi and any necessary passwords will be posted.

In addition to the first-come, first-serve desks, carrels and tables throughout the Photo Work Room, there are several offices and desks decided specifically to certain local news outlets. Only media members from those specific outlets are allowed to work in those dedicated locations. Any mis-use or mistreatment of these dedicated areas could result in dismissal from the stadium and revocation of future credentials.

VIDEOGRAPHERS

Training: Video cameras will be allowed for a minimum of 15 minutes during each training session, as directed by Revolution communications staff. During this access period, videographers may be instructed by a member of the communications staff to cease shooting if the team is practicing set pieces or other tactical elements.

Game Days: At games, local ENG and news crews are allowed to shoot the first 15 minutes of each half. At the 15- and 60-minute marks, all video cameras not belonging to broadcast rights holders must be turned off.

SOCIAL MEDIA PERSONNEL

Any media members or club personnel capturing content for social media channels should follow guidelines for videographers and still photographers when applicable. While the club understands social media is a fluid medium, any media member anticipating a need for access beyond what is allowed by a photographer or videographer credential should alert the Revolution communications staff well in advance.

Robert Kraft is the founder, chairman and CEO of the Kraft Group, based in Foxborough, Mass. The Kraft Group is the holding company of the Kraft family's diverse business interests comprised of companies in sports and entertainment, the paper and packaging industry, real estate, and private equity investing.

As Investor/Operator of the New England Revolution (Major League Soccer) and chairman and CEO of the New England Patriots (National Football League), Kraft has cultivated a championship culture in New England by delivering a combined 13 conference titles and five league championships between the two teams. In addition to building a pair of championship-driven franchises, Kraft has committed the resources necessary to transform an undeveloped parcel of land that he purchased in 1985 into Gillette Stadium – a premier concert, entertainment, and event venue that both franchises call home.

Kraft's long-standing support of soccer in the United States dates back to the early 1990s. That's when he secured Foxboro Stadium as one of the nine host venues for the 1994 FIFA World Cup. The success of the 1994 World Cup paved way for a new era of New England sports. On June 6, 1995, the Kraft family became the founding Investor/Operator of the Revolution, joining Major League Soccer (MLS) as one of its 10 charter clubs for its inaugural season in 1996.

Under Kraft's leadership, the Revolution have made five MLS Cup appearances and celebrated both a U.S. Open Cup and a SuperLiga title. Foxborough has also played host to MLS Cup three times, including the 2002 Final between the Revolution and LA Galaxy, which was played at Gillette Stadium in front of the largest crowd in MLS postseason history (61,316).

The United States Men's and Women's National Teams have also enjoyed tremendous support from the Kraft family and soccer fans throughout New England. Since 1990, Foxborough has hosted 33 international matches involving U.S. national teams at Foxboro Stadium (1990-2001) and Gillette Stadium (2002-present). In addition to hosting matches during the 1994 FIFA World Cup, Foxborough was a host city for both the 1999 Women's World Cup and the 2003 Women's World Cup. In 1999, more than 50,000 fans watched the U.S. Women's National Team defeat North Korea, 3-0, in the Women's World Cup. In 2011, the Men's National Team played before a New England-record crowd for a soccer match of 64,121 fans at Gillette Stadium against the then-defending FIFA World Cup champion Spain.

A native of Brookline, Mass., Kraft attended public schools before matriculating to Columbia University on an academic scholarship. Upon graduation, he received a fellowship to Harvard Business School, where he earned a master's degree in business administration.

Kraft began his business career with the Rand-Whitney Group, Inc. of Worcester, Mass., a company that converted paper into packaging for various industries. He later acquired the company. In 1972, he founded International Forest Products, a trader of paper commodities that now does business in more than 90 countries. Together, Rand-Whitney and International Forest Products comprise one of the largest privately-owned paper and packaging companies in the United States.

In addition to running the Kraft Group, Kraft serves on the board of directors for Apollo Global Management, the Apollo Theater and Carnegie Hall. He is also on the executive committee of the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, where he established the Robert K. Kraft Family Blood Donor Center. A trustee emeritus at Columbia and Boston College, Kraft has also received honorary degrees from several colleges and universities, most recently from Yeshiva University in New York City. He has been honored with the Theodore Roosevelt Award, which is presented annually by the NCAA to a distinguished citizen of national reputation with outstanding accomplishments. Kraft has also been inducted into the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the Broadcasting and Cable Hall of Fame and the Congressional Medal of Honor Society's Patriot Award.

Over the past five decades, the Kraft family has been one of New England's most philanthropic families, donating hundreds of millions of dollars in support of local charities, civic affairs and health care. In 2011, the Kraft family pledged $25 million to Partners HealthCare to launch the Kraft Center for Community Health, an initiative designed to improve the leadership of and access to quality health care at community centers in Massachusetts. The Kraft family also committed $20 million to Harvard Business School to establish an endowment for the advancement of precision medicine. In 2015, Kraft and the Patriots partnered with Massachusetts Attorney General Maura Healey to launch a high school anti-violence education initiative. In its pilot year, the Game Change program provided training in violence prevention for students, faculty and coaches in nearly 100 high schools statewide. More than 1,100 individuals have received formal training to lead anti-violence programs in their schools.

JONATHAN KRAFT

INVESTOR/OPERATOR

Jonathan Kraft is the President of the Kraft Group a private holding company comprised of companies in sports and entertainment, the paper and packaging industry, real estate, and private equity investing. As President of the Kraft Group, he oversees the day to day operations of all the group's companies while maintaining a focus on driving the growth and diversification of the group.

In sports and entertainment, the group's holdings include the five-time conference champion New England Revolution and the five-time Super Bowl champion New England Patriots, as well as Gillette Stadium, the premier concert, entertainment, and event venue that both franchises call home.

As an Investor/Operator of the New England Revolution, Kraft has guided the organization from its infancy to its present position as one of the most successful and respected teams in Major League Soccer (MLS). In 1995, Kraft was involved in securing the Revolution as one of MLS's founding clubs and was principally responsible for bringing MLS's inaugural championship game to New England in 1996. Since then, the Krafts have hosted two more MLS Cup championship games in Foxborough, including the 2002 final between the Revolution and the LA Galaxy, which was played in front of the largest crowd in MLS Cup history. Kraft oversaw the Revolution's first domestic trophy triumph, the 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Championship, as well as the club's first international trophy, the 2008 North American SuperLiga Championship.

With the growth of the league, Kraft is currently one of five MLS ownership representatives serving on MLS's expansion committee, which aims to identify the best candidates for future MLS teams.

In 1999, Kraft developed the creative private-financing strategy to gain approval for the construction of Gillette Stadium. Throughout the stadium initiative, no one was more involved in each phase of the project, including the planning, construction, opening, and on-going operation and development of Gillette Stadium. Kraft worked closely with stadium designers to create a world-class sports and entertainment facility that would highlight features indigenous to New England. His team delivered on the promise of a fan-friendly facility, on time, and under budget.

Kraft and the project team also drew praise for innovative environmental practices. In June of 2001, the Environmental Business Council presented the Kraft Group with the Environmental Award for Corporate Leadership. In May of 2002, the Kraft Group received New England's Environmental Merit Award from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for the development and construction of Gillette Stadium.

Gillette Stadium, now known as one of the world's premier sports and entertainment facilities, opened on May 11, 2002 with a match between the New England Revolution and the Dallas Burn. One week later, the U.S. Men's National Team made its first appearance at Gillette Stadium. On Oct. 20, 2002, the MLS Cup returned to Foxborough for the third time in seven years, with the Revolution vying for the league's top honors in front of an MLS Cup record crowd of 61,316 fans.

A Williams College graduate, Kraft is a trustee emeritus and chairs the school's investment committee. He earned an MBA from Harvard Business School, where he currently serves on the Dean's board of advisers. Additionally, Kraft is on the board of trustees for Belmont Hill School, Dexter Southfield, and Massachusetts General Hospital, where he also chairs the Finance Committee. Furthermore, he serves as a member of the Partners Healthcare finance committee and is a member of the advisory board for the Billie Jean King Leadership Initiative.

Kraft is active in youth athletics and has coached youth soccer, Pop Warner football and Little League baseball in the greater Boston area. Kraft and his wife, Patti, have three children.

BRIAN BILELLO PRESIDENT

12th season with Revolution
6th season as President

Brian Bilello is in his sixth season as President of the New England Revolution. He assumed his current position in November 2011 after serving six seasons as the Revolution's Chief Operating Officer.

As President, Bilello oversees all aspects of the club's operations, including its business activities and soccer operations. He is responsible for establishing the club's strategic vision, fostering its implementation, and reporting directly to ownership. During his tenure, Bilello has served on several MLS committees, including the Business Development Committee, On-Field Technology Sub-Committee, and Digital Commerce Task Force.

Prior to joining the club's front office, Bilello was a dedicated fan and Revolution season ticket holder, which gives him an inside track on the team's fan experience. He enjoys working directly with supporters to ensure the club continues to prioritize their experience and every touch point they have with the club.

Bilello joined the Kraft Sports Group in 2003 and has served the Revolution, the New England Patriots, and Gillette Stadium in a variety of operational and strategic roles. As Director of Quality and Operational Control, he worked to improve the fan experience across all areas of Gillette Stadium. He has also overseen the stadium's concessions and retail operations, and provided strategic advice to the Kraft Family on a number of issues related to their sports ventures, in particular, soccer, MLS, and the Revolution.

Before joining the Kraft Sports Group, Bilello was a management consultant at Bain & Company in the company's San Francisco and Boston offices where he worked with clients in the sports, retail, consumer products, and entertainment industries. His start in sports came through his work at Bain & Company, when he worked with a client on a team's analytics project. As President of the Revolution, Bilello continues to integrate statistical and soccer analytics into the day-to-day operations.

An avid soccer player himself, Bilello played varsity soccer at MIT, where he studied engineering and economics. He continues to play and coach organized soccer in his free time. He lives in southern Massachusetts with his wife, Vanessa, and two daughters. He is a member of the Board of Directors for AmericaSCORES Boston, serves on Cradles 2 Crayons' Corporate Advisory Council, and was named to Boston Business Journal's "40 Under 40" in September 2012.

MICHAEL BURNS GENERAL MANAGER

20th season in MLS (7 as a player)
18th season with Revolution (6th as General Manager)

Michael Burns is in his 13th season with the New England Revolution and his sixth as the team's General Manager. He was promoted to his current role in November 2011 after four seasons as the club's Vice President of Player Personnel.

As General Manager, Burns leads all aspects of the club's soccer operations, which includes oversight of the coaching staff, player acquisitions and scouting, the youth development program, and the team's day-to-day operations and management.

Since Burns assumed his role ahead of the 2012 season, the club has amassed a 65-67-38 record, improving upon its five-win campaign in 2011 with a core of burgeoning, explosive players. The Revolution made three consecutive playoff appearances from 2013 through 2015, a run that included the Revs' fifth trip to MLS Cup in 2014.

The former Revs defender and team captain returned to the club at the start of the 2005 season as Director of Soccer before earning a promotion to Vice President of Player Personnel in 2008.

A mainstay in New England soccer circles, Burns was born and raised in nearby Marlborough, Mass., and was named Massachusetts High School Player of the Year in 1987. After a standout career at Hartwick College (1988-91), Burns became a regular for the U.S. Men's National Team, earning 75 caps including two starts for the USMNT in the 1998 FIFA World Cup. He was also a member of the 1994 U.S. World Cup squad.

Burns was the first player in U.S. Soccer history to represent the United States at every level of FIFA-sanctioned tournaments: Under-16 World Cup (Canada 1987), Under-20 World Cup (Saudi Arabia 1989), Olympic Games (Barcelona 1992), and World Cup (United States 1994, France 1998).

Burns was allocated to the Revolution in 1995 at the inception of MLS and he played for – and captained – New England from 1996 to 2000, before finishing his playing career with the San Jose Earthquakes (2000) and the Kansas City Wizards (2001-02). Overall, he made 169 appearances, scored three goals, and totaled 21 assists. Burns also played for Viborg in the Super League in Denmark in 1995 before joining MLS.

In addition to his day-to-day duties with the Revolution, Burns serves on MLS' Technical Committee and its Combine Committee. Prior to returning to the Revolution in a management capacity, Burns served on the MLS Disciplinary Committee and was also a member of U.S. Soccer's Board of Directors and the U.S. Soccer Athlete Counsel.

Burns holds a USSF "A" coaching license. He also is a member of the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Club of MetroWest that includes Marlborough, Hudson, and Framingham.

Burns lives in the suburbs west of Boston with his wife, Jen, and their three children: Kayla, Trevor, and Garrett. Burns graduated from Hartwick in January 1993 with a degree in business management after taking the spring semester of his senior year off to prepare for the 1992 Olympics.

JAY HEAPS HEAD COACH

17th season in MLS (11 as a player)
15th season with Revolution (6th as Head Coach)

Jay Heaps enters his sixth season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution after becoming the sixth head coach in club history on November 14, 2011. The Nashua, N.H. native and Longmeadow, Mass. product has led the Revs to three MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including a trip to MLS Cup in 2014, and to the 2016 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final.

With his appointment in 2011, Heaps brought his hallmark qualities that fans and teammates appreciated during his playing days to the bench: spirit, energy, charisma, toughness, and passion. He is the first former Revs player and the only New England native to coach the club.

In 2016, Heaps led the Revolution to the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final – the 10th major tournament final in club history. In regular season play, Heaps oversaw the implementation of Designated Player Kei Kamara, who was acquired in a midseason trade, and helped players such as Juan Agudelo, Kelyn Rowe, and Brad Knighton flourish. After Heaps instituted a 4-4-2 formation late in the season, the team won five out of seven MLS games to close the season.

Heaps was named head coach after an 11-year MLS playing career that included nine seasons with the Revolution. He anchored the club's defense from 2001-09, making 243 appearances and 238 starts, both the third most in club history. After his retirement, Heaps remained close to the club as an ambassador and color analyst on both its television and radio broadcasts, while also working in the investment banking industry.

HEAPS AT A GLANCE:

- New England native and former Revolution defender enters sixth season as head coach with a 65-67-38 record in the regular season.
- Led Revolution to three consecutive MLS Cup Playoff appearances from 2013-15, including a berth in MLS Cup in 2014.
- Contributed in all three of the Revs' U.S. Open Cup Final appearances, once as a head coach and twice as a player, helping win the Open Cup trophy in 2007.
- Anchored club's defense from 2001-09 and ranks in the top five in club history in games played (243), games started (238), and minutes played (21,619).

After earning MLS Rookie of the Year honors with the Miami Fusion in 1999, Heaps returned to his hometown club in June 2001 through a trade. During the next nine seasons in New England, he cemented his legacy as not only a fan favorite, but also a driving leader on the field and in the locker room during the team's run of four MLS Cup appearances (2002, 2005-07). He is one of three Revolution players to start in each of the club's first four MLS Cup appearances and was also a member of the Revolution squads that won the 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and the 2008 North American SuperLiga titles. Heaps has participated in all but one of New England's 10 final appearances as a player or coach, including all three of its Open Cup Finals.

At the time of his retirement in 2009, Heaps held the distinction of being the longest-tenured Revolution player in the team's history. When he left the team, Heaps was the club's all-time leader in games played (243), starts (238), and minutes played (21,619). He also ranked fifth on the Revs' career assist chart (26) and had totaled nine career goals. In MLS record books, Heaps was ranked eighth all-time in MLS in games played (314), fourth in starts (299), and third in minutes played (27,363) at the time of his retirement. He concluded his playing career with 17 goals and 34 assists overall.

Defined throughout his career by a rugged determination and dedicated team-first mentality, Heaps made at least 27 regular season appearances in each of his 11 professional seasons. Despite his physical playing style and fearless nature, Heaps missed just three games due to injury during more than eight seasons with the Revolution, making him one of the most durable and reliable players in MLS history. Heaps started every match for which he was available in the last five years of his career from 2005-09, anchoring one of the most consistent defenses in MLS over that span. Giving credence to the saying that many improve with age, Heaps had perhaps the best seasons of his career as a defender in his final professional years. Honored as the Revolution's Defender of the Year for in 2009, Heaps was rewarded for his stellar play with a call-up to the U.S. Men's National Team for the 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cup. He went on to earn all four caps on his USMNT résumé during the tournament, including his international debut on July 11, 2009 against Haiti in front of his hometown crowd at Gillette Stadium. Heaps is also a former member of the U.S. Under-17 and Under-20 National Teams.

Heaps played collegiately at Duke, where he won the 1998 Missouri Athletic Club Award as the national player of the year. He was a three-time finalist for the Hermann Trophy, a four-time first-team All-ACC selection, and a four-time all-region choice. He left Duke's program ranked third in career goals (45), fourth in career assists (37), and tied for second in career points (127). In addition to earning Soccer America's National Freshman of the Year honors in 1995, Heaps also played three-and-a-half years of basketball under legendary Duke and USA Basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski before leaving midway through his senior year to pursue a professional soccer career. He was named one of Duke's "Top-10 Devils of the Decade" by the Duke Chronicle.

In addition to earning his USSF "A" Coaching License in March 2014, Heaps accrued three years of collegiate coaching experience during his MLS playing days with the Revolution. In 2004, he was a volunteer assistant coach at Boston College under Ed Kelly as the Eagles went 13-5-2 and advanced to the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament. He followed that with a two-year stint (2005-06) at Northeastern under Brian Ainscough in the same capacity.

Heaps and his wife, Danielle, live southwest of Boston and have three children: John F. "Jack" Heaps IV, Olivia, and Jude. Heaps is a member of the Board of Directors and the Second Vice Chair of AmericaSCORES Boston, and was the Revs' representative to the MLS Players Union during his playing career. In 2011, he was inducted into the New England Soccer Hall of Fame.

CARLOS LLAMOSA ASSISTANT COACH

16th season in MLS (11 as a player)
5th season with Revolution (1st as a coach)

Carlos Llamosa enters his first season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining Jay Heaps' staff in December 2016. He brings his experience in both international and domestic soccer to the coaching staff and has additional scouting responsibilities.

Llamosa, 47, has been a mainstay in North American soccer over the past two decades, having enjoyed a 15-year career in Major League Soccer as a player and a coach, as well as an additional four years coaching in the North American Soccer League.

He arrives in New England following four seasons as an assistant coach for the New York Cosmos (2013-16), a span in which he helped guide the club to three NASL Soccer Bowl Championships. In addition to the three league titles, Llamosa's Cosmos won the Fall Season championships in 2013 and 2016, as well as the Spring Season title in 2015. Before joining New York, Llamosa spent four seasons as an assistant coach with Chivas USA in MLS from 2009-12.

Llamosa's appointment marks a homecoming for the former MLS player, who enjoyed an 11-year career as one of the league's premier defenders. He spent nearly four years with New England from 2002 to 2005, appearing in 38 games, starting 36, for the club from 2002-03 before missing the 2004 season with a knee injury. In the postseason, he made eight additional appearances for the Revolution. Llamosa was a major contributor in the club's run to the 2002 MLS Cup, as he started five matches during the postseason campaign including the final.

In MLS, he totaled 154 appearances, 142 starts, three goals, and four assists in stints with D.C. United (1997-2000), Miami Fusion (2001), New England, and Chivas USA (2006-07). With D.C., he helped the club to three straight MLS Cup appearances from 1997-99, including championships in 1997 and 1999. He started a total of 27 matches in the postseason during his MLS career.

Prior to MLS, Llamosa played professionally in Colombia with Colmena (1986-88) and Atlético Huila (1989-90) before immigrating to the United States in 1991. He began his U.S. career with the New York Centaurs of the A-League in 1995 before being selected by D.C. United in the 1997 MLS Supplemental Draft.

A native of Palmira, Colombia, Llamosa became a United States citizen in 1991 and was capped 29 times with the U.S. Men's National team. He played in the 1999 Confederations Cup and 2002 World Cup, appearing in wins against Portugal and Mexico in the latter.

REMI ROY ASSISTANT COACH

8th season in MLS
8th season with Revolution

Remi Roy enters his eighth season with the New England Revolution as an assistant coach, having joined the coaching staff in 2010. In addition to working primarily with the first-team keepers, Roy also manages the club's collegiate scouting efforts and provides additional training for the Revolution Academy's goalkeepers.

During his time with the Revolution, Roy has mentored several different goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in MLS. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins.

Under his direction, young goalkeepers have thrived with the Revolution. In addition to helping Shuttleworth adjust to the professional stage, Roy tutored rookie Matt Turner through seven starts in USL action in 2016, a stretch in which he conceded only three goals. He also worked with MLS newcomer Cody Cropper after he was acquired during the 2016 campaign, leading to a shutout victory in his MLS debut in the season finale.

Roy's supervision helped Shuttleworth emerge onto the MLS scene in 2012, as the then-fourth year pro posted the league's best goals against average (0.71 GAA) among keepers making three or more starts. In 2013, the Revs had one of MLS' top goals against averages all season, finishing tied for third with a 1.12 mark, while Reis led the league with a career-best mark (0.72). The 2013 season also saw Shuttleworth named among the top goalkeepers in MLS, as he garnered mid-season All-Star consideration.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Salty Dogs (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07).

Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region, and All-American honors. He also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the Jackson Chargers (1998-99), Des Moines Menace (2000), and the Spokane Shadow (2001).

Roy holds a USSF "A" License and Level I and II NSCAA Goalkeeping Licenses. A native of Petit-Rocher, New Brunswick, Canada, Roy lives south of Boston with his wife and three kids.

TOM SOEHN ASSISTANT COACH

21st season in MLS (5 as a player)
4th season with Revolution

Tom Soehn is in his fourth season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining Jay Heaps' staff in January 2014. Soehn has had a long association with Major League Soccer as a player, assistant coach, head coach, and team executive. He began his professional playing career in 1988.

Soehn has 14 years of MLS coaching experience as both a head coach and assistant, including three seasons with the Chicago Fire and six seasons with D.C. United.

The Chicago, Ill. native began his coaching career as an assistant coach with his hometown club, the Chicago Fire, where he was Bob Bradley's first assistant in 2001 and 2002. He then served in the same capacity for Dave Sarachan in 2003. The following year, Soehn moved to D.C., where he served as Peter Nowak's top assistant, helping the Black and Red win MLS Cup in 2004 and the 2006 Supporters Shield. After three seasons, Soehn was promoted to head coach ahead of the 2007 season, in which he led D.C. to a second straight Supporters Shield. In 2008, he guided D.C. to the U.S. Open Cup championship and into the group stage of the 2008-09 and 2009-10 CONCACAF Champions League tournaments.

In January 2010, Soehn was appointed as Vancouver Whitecaps FC's first Director of Soccer Operations, where he developed and managed the club's inaugural roster, player scouting, and identification and recruitment system as the club prepared to enter MLS in 2011. Soehn returned to the bench in late May 2011 and coached the team for the remainder of its debut season after head coach Teitur Thordarson was released. In 2012, he returned to the front office to direct soccer operations, helping craft the Whitecaps FC team that qualified for the MLS Cup Playoffs – the first ever Canadian team to reach the postseason.

Before pursuing coaching, Soehn enjoyed a 13-year professional playing career as a defender and midfielder from 1998-2000. He played in both indoor and outdoor professional leagues during his career, including four seasons in MLS with the Dallas Burn (now FC Dallas) and the Chicago Fire. After being selected in the second round (13th overall) of the MLS Inaugural Player Draft in February 1996, Soehn saw his first action with Dallas in 1997 and helped the club win the U.S. Open Cup title.

In 1998, Soehn returned to his hometown to join expansion club Chicago following a midseason trade from Dallas. He was a key member of the Fire team that won both the MLS Cup and U.S. Open Cup titles that year. He followed up those championships with another U.S. Open Cup title with Chicago in 2000.

Before joining MLS, Soehn's playing career included time in the Major Indoor Soccer League (Wichita Wings – 1988-1992), Canadian Soccer League (Ottawa Intrepid – 1989, Hamilton Steelers – 1990), American Professional Soccer League (Colorado Foxes – 1992-94), National Professional Soccer League (Denver Thunder – 1992-93), and Continental Indoor Soccer League (Las Vegas Dustdevils – 1995). During his time with Colorado, Soehn helped the Foxes win two APSL championship titles in 1992 and 1993.

Soehn played collegiately at Western Illinois University from 1984 to 1987, totaling 19 goals and 18 assists. He remains among the school's top 20 in career scoring and was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in 2003.

Soehn and his wife, Jean, have four children: T.J., Payton, Sydney, and Addison.

* MLS utilized a two-conference alignment (East and West) from 1996-1999 and 2002-present. In 2000 and 2001, the League used a three-conference alignment (East, Central, and West).

* There were no ties in MLS from 1996-99, as the league employed a shoot-out system. MLS used a sudden-death overtime system from 2000-03.
