- Choupo-Moting has recorded six goals in his last four matches at Sports Illustrated Stadium.
- Choupo scored his first career MLS goal on March 15 against Orlando City SC.
- He has scored 11 MLS goals this season, which ranks second among newcomers in MLS this year (Denkey, CIN - 12) and ranks tied for eighth in MLS.
- He became the first Red Bulls player with at least nine goals in his first 16 games with the club since Kenny Cooper in 2012.
- Choupo-Moting became the fifth different player in a club history to record at least 10 goals in the club's first 17 games of a season and first since BWP in 2018.

- Choupo-Moting made 122 appearances for Bayern, where he scored 38 goals and won three Bundesliga titles, one German Super Cup, and one FIFA Club World Cup with the team.
- Prior to Bayern, Choupo-Moting spent two seasons with PSG in Ligue 1, where he made 51 appearances and scored nine goals. He also won two Ligue 1 championships with the club.
- He also had stints at Stoke City FC, FC Schalke 04, and 1. FSV Mainz 05 - when he was with Mainz, he helped the club finish seventh in the Bundesliga and qualify for the UEFA Europa League.
- The forward has represented Cameroon at the international level, where he has made 73 career appearances and has scored 20 goals.
- He helped his country qualify for the FIFA World Cup in 2010, 2014, and 2022, and played a match in all of them. He scored his first career FIFA World Cup goal in a 3-3 draw against Serbia in 2022.

CAPTAIN FORSBERG

- Swedish midfielder Emil Forsberg enters his second season with the Red Bulls.
- Forsberg has recorded two goals in his previous three MLS appearances.
- He is one goal shy of passing Mike Grella for second place in franchise history for most goals scored by a midfielder in their first two seasons with the club.
- Last season, Forsberg made 19 MLS appearances and recorded nine goals and five assists. He helped captain the side to their first-ever Eastern Conference Championship.
- Forsberg has recorded four career multi-goal game for the Red Bulls.
- Forsberg joined Antony de Avila as the only players in franchise history to produce multiple goals and multiple assists in a single MLS match, after his performance on May 10 at Sports Illustrated Stadium.
- Forsberg became the eighth Red Bulls player to record 25 goal contributions in his first 40 matches for the club.
- The midfielder joined Leipzig in 2015 and helped them earn promotion to the Bundesliga in 2016, he had 22 assists across all competitions that season, which was the most in all top five leagues in Europe.
- Forsberg won two DfB Pokal's with Leipzig and the German Super Cup.
- He has made 90 international caps for Sweden and has recorded 21 goals and nine assists. He has been named Swedish Midfielder of the Year four times in 2016, 2017, 2019, and 2021.
- He won the Guldbollen award in 2021,

HOMEGROWN HISTORY

- New York have signed 37 homegrowns in franchise history, since the first homegrown signing of Girogi Chirgadze in 2009.
- This season, the Red Bulls currently have ten homegrowns on the roster, which includes Edelman, Peter Stroud, Curtis Ofori, Davi Alexandre, Aidan Stokes, Julian Hall, Roald Mitchell, Serge Ngoma, Adri Mehmeti, Aiden Jarvis, and Tanner Rosborough.
- Ofori, 17, made 47 professional appearances over the last three seasons with Red Bulls II. He was the youngest signing in Red Bulls II history at 15 years, 122 days old. He joined the Academy in 2017 and made 76 appearances and recorded seven goals in his time with the Academy.
- Ngoma, 18, made his MLS debut on the opening game of the 2022 season and is tied for second youngest player to make an appearance in franchise history at 16 years, 232 days old.
- He scored his first professional goal against

Atlanta United FC, which was the game-winner in the 89th minute. He was the youngest player to score in MLS in 2022 at 16 years, 357 days old.

- Ngoma is the third youngest player to score in franchise history after Jozy Altidore and Eddie Gaven and is the third youngest player in league history to score a game-winner in the 85th minute or later.
- Hall, 15, became the second youngest homegrown signing in franchise history at 15 years, 167 days old. For New York Red Bulls II, he scored his first goal of the season on March 24 against Inter Miami CF II.
- He became the youngest goalscorer and youngest player to tally an assist in NYRB II history last season at 15 years, 73 days old. Hall was named the U-15 MLS NEXT Cup MVP this past season after scoring five goals and helping Red Bulls U-15 to win the U-15 MLS NEXT Cup for first time in academy history.
- Stroud played in his first professional season last year after signing a contract with RBNY on January 14, 2023. He played in 25 MLS matches - and made his first career MLS start against Atlanta United FC on April 1.
- The Chester, N.J. native was a two-time ACC Midfielder of the Year with Duke University and became the first player in ACC history to win it in back-to-back years. He made 55 appearances for Duke and recorded six goals and 12 assists.
- The Red Bulls newest homegrown is Roald Mitchell, who joins the club after three seasons with Wake Forest. He scored 19 goals and added nine assists in 56 career matches.
- Mitchell was a two-time All-ACC Second Team selection earning the honors in 2022 and 2023. Prior to Wake, he played for Red Bulls Academy from 2018 to 2021 and featured for NYRB II in 2021.

CONSISTENCY IS KEY

- Since 2014, New York ranks second for the most points earned in the league (588).
- New York clinched a berth in the MLS Cup Playoffs for the 15th straight season and 25th overall. The 15 consecutive postseason berths is the longest streak all-time in league history, after Seattle's 13-straight berths. The Red Bulls 25 playoff appearances are the most in league history, having missed just four times (1997, '99, 2002, & 2009)
- The Red Bulls qualified for the postseason for the 15th-consecutive year, the longest stretch among major sports teams in the New York metro area in 2024.
- The 15 straight postseasons is the longest active streak in North American men's professional sports, just ahead of the Los Angeles Dodgers with 12.

SANDRO SCHWARZ was named Head Coach of the New York Red Bulls on December 14, 2023. He is entering his second season with the club and brings over 15 years of coaching experience in Europe.

In his first season with New York, Schwarz led the club to a 11-9-14 mark and finished seventh in the Eastern Conference during the regular season. He became the second coach in franchise history to go unbeaten in their first 12 home matches in charge of the club.

He led the club to their second MLS Cup appearance in franchise history, and their first since 2008 after defeating defending champions Columbus Crew in Round One, NYCFC in Conference Semifinals, and Orlando City SC in Conference Final to win the club their first-ever Eastern Conference Championship. Schwarz became the fifth head coach since 2004 to lead their club to MLS Cup in their first season in the league.

Schwarz began his coaching career in 2009, where he was put in charge of SV Wehen Wiesbaden until the end of season. Following the 2009 season, Schwarz served as an assistant manager of Wehen Wiesbaden from 2010 to 2011. In he 2011, he earned his first head coaching position with FC Eschborn, where he won the championship in the Hessenliga in his first season in charge.

Schwarz joined his hometown club, FSV Mainz, where he began as the U-19 Head Coach in 2013 , after successful campaigns he moved up to lead FSV Mainz II. Schwarz was then named the Head Coach of the first team in 2017 and kept the club in the Bundesliga for all three seasons he was in charge.

In 2020, he joined Dynamo Moscow in the Russian Premier League as the Head Coach. During the 2021-2022 season, he helped lead the club to a top-three finish for the first time in 14 years and then during the 2022 season, he led Moscow to the Cup final. He amassed a 32-17-8 in his two seasons at the helm. Following his time at Dynamo Moscow, he was named the Head Coach of Hertha Berlin SC, where he was in charge until April 2023.

The Mainz, Germany native had an 11-year playing career, which began with FSV Mainz 05. He made his professional debut for the club in 1998 and was with the club until 2004. Schwarz made 107 appearances across all competitions and recorded two goals and six assists for Mainz. He moved to Rot-Weiss Essen in 2004 and then finished out his playing career with SV Wehen Wiesbaden until he retired in 2009. Schwarz was a teammate of Jurgen Klopp from 1998-2001 and then was coached by Klopp from 2001-2004.
