New England nearly opened the scoring in the 11th minute, when striker Leo Campana unleashed a right-footed strike, only to be denied by a save from Los Angeles goalkeeper Hugo Lloris. In the 18th minute, Ignatius Ganago, making his first start since May 31, came close to putting New England in front with a close-range header from a tight angle at the back post, but Lloris denied the attempt with a diving stop.

LAFC was held without a shot on target in the first half, but the Western Conference visitors broke the deadlock six minutes into the second half. South Korean forward Son Heung-Min, in his first MLS start, forced a giveaway that fell kindly to the feet of Mark Delgado. From just outside the 18-yard-box, Delgado fired a shot into the top corner past a diving Matt Turner for the opening tally in the 51st minute.

Campana had an opportunity to equalize in the 63rd minute, ripping a low shot that skimmed just wide of the woodwork. The Ecuadorian forward finished the night with a team-high three shot attempts. New England continued to press for the tying goal, but LAFC put the game out of reach in the final seconds, with Mathieu Choinière slotting home a pass from Son.

Revolution captain and 2025 MLS All-Star Carles Gil registered four key passes and one shot on target in his 175th MLS start tonight. Argentine forward Tomás Chancalay came off the bench for a 28-minute shift and contributed two shots, one on target. Turner, in his second start of the season, made four saves in net.

The Revolution hit the road for a visit to meet Columbus Crew on Saturday, August 23 at Lower.com Field. Watch next week's 7:30 p.m. ET kickoff on MLS Season Pass \(Apple TV\) in English and Spanish, or listen on the radio via 98.5 The Sports Hub and 1260 AM Nossa Radio USA (Portuguese).

- Saturday marked just the fourth meeting between New England and Los Angeles FC, and the first in Foxborough since 2019.
- Ignatius Ganago returned to the starting lineup for the first time since May 31, his second straight appearance after returning from a two-month injury absence last week.
- Carles Gil earned the 175th start of his MLS career, finishing the night with a team-high four key passes.
- Matt Turner logged a second straight start since returning to New England earlier this month, recording four saves.
- Tomás Chancalay came off the bench for his 50th Revolution appearance across all competitions, logging two shots with one on target in 28 minutes.
