2025 GAME NOTES

MATCH STORYLINES

DESIGNATED DOMINANCE

Orlando City's Designated Players are enjoying a remarkable run of form, contributing more to the scoresheet than any other DP trio in Major League Soccer. Luis Muriel has been a consistent presence in the attack, recording 12 goal contributions with an even split of six goals and six assists. Marco Pašalić has added to the firepower with 10 goals and four assists, bringing his total to 14. Leading the way is Martín Ojeda, who has been the most productive of the trio, tallying 10 goals and 10 assists for a total of 20 goal contributions in regular season play. Altogether, the three have combined for an impressive 46 goal contributions – more than any other group of Designated Players in the league. The closest challengers are Eastern Conference rivals Nashville SC, whose DPs have totaled 42 goal contributions to date.

NOT SO NEW ENGLAND

The Lions' visit to Gillette Stadium in 2024 was a historic one, as they secured their first-ever win at the venue with a 3-1 victory on July 13. After falling behind 1-0 in the 23rd minute, Orlando City responded with three unanswered goals in the second half to claim all three points. Facundo Torres led the charge with a brace, while Ramiro Enrique netted the game-winner. Saturday marks the second meeting between the two Eastern Conference sides in 2025. Their previous encounter ended in a thrilling 3-3 draw at Inter&Co Stadium in early May, highlighted by a hat trick from Orlando midfielder Martín Ojeda.

ROAD WARRIORS

The Lions hit the road this weekend for a trip to Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Massachusetts. Orlando City has been one of the league's top road teams in 2025, currently unbeaten in their last three away matches and with just one loss in their past 10 MLS road games dating back to March. Over that three-match unbeaten stretch, the Lions have earned two wins and a draw, scoring seven goals while conceding only four.

PRIDE OF GUALEGUAYCHÚ

With a secondary assist on Robin Jansson's goal, Martín Ojeda became just the second player in Orlando City history to record at least 10 goals and 10 assists in a single MLS regular season. He joins former captain Nani, who accomplished the feat in 2019. Ojeda is now just two goal contributions away from tying Nani's club record of 22 in a single MLS season. The assist also extended his streak to eight consecutive MLS matches with a goal contribution, a club record. During that span, he has tallied two goals and seven assists. Since the start of 2024, the Argentine No. 10 has amassed 13 goals and 19 assists across his last 34 MLS regular season starts. A native of Gualeguaychú, Argentina, Ojeda currently ranks fifth in MLS for total goal contributions this season.

NAŠA ZVIJEZDA

Major League Soccer announced earlier this week that Orlando City SC forward and Designated Player Marco Pašalić has been selected for the 2025 MLS All-Star Game in Austin, Texas, where he'll join teammate Alex Freeman in representing the Lions. Pašalić has recorded 11 goals and five assists across all competitions this season and is the only player to have started every MLS regular season match for Orlando City. In league play alone, the Croatian international has tallied 10 goals and four assists, becoming just the fifth player in club history to score double-digit goals in their debut season and the 13th overall to reach that milestone at any point in their Orlando career.

MILESTONE TRACKER

-Ramiro Enrique and Martín Ojeda are now tied with Dom Dwyer for sixth on the club's all-time scoring list with 23 goals, and each just one goal away from matching Kaká in fifth.

-Martín Ojeda (20) is two goal contributions away from tying Nani's 22 in 2019 for the most productive MLS regular season in club history.

GENERAL MANAGER & SPORTING DIRECTOR RICARDO MOREIRA

Ricardo Moreira joined the Club in October of 2018 from Columbus Crew SC, where he served as the head of player recruitment. Since arriving in Orlando, Moreira has spearheaded the efforts in identifying and recruiting notable players for Orlando City SC of Major League Soccer, including Peruvian National Team goalkeeper Pedro Gallese, center back Robin Jansson, midfielder César Araújo, and forwards Luis Muriel and Marco Pašalić, while drafting former Lions' forward Daryl Dike and current Lions' midfielder Joran Gerbet.

On April 24, Moreira was promoted to the role of General Manager & Sporting Director from his previous role of VP of Soccer Operations & Technical Director.

Prior to his time in Orlando, Moreira spent three seasons in Columbus, beginning in 2016 as the Crew's international relations manager. He was promoted to head of player recruitment the following year, the role he held prior to joining the Lions' staff.

Moreira is a law graduate from the Universidade Presbiteriana Mackenzie in São Paulo and holds an MBA in sports management from the Fundação Getúlio Vargas in Rio de Janeiro. Prior to joining the Columbus Crew, he also served as the Director of Scouting for Brazil's Grêmio Osasco Audax Esporte Clube.

FIRST ASSISTANT COACH DIEGO TORRES

Diego Torres joined the Orlando City staff prior to the 2020 Major League Soccer season after over a decade spent at Club Tijuana in various roles, where he worked with Oscar Pareja in 2019.

While at Tijuana, Torres spent time as an assistant coach and as the club's Technical Director for its academy. In 2017, he was named interim manager, returning to his role as an assistant upon conclusion of the year. Beginning in 2012, he also served as an assistant for Ascenso MX side Dorados de Sinaloa, with stints in 2012, 2014 and 2018.

On the field, Torres enjoyed a 10-year career as a professional throughout Mexico. He made his professional debut in 1998 for Tecos F.C. and would go on to total over 200 professional appearances across several Mexican clubs in over a decade of play, scoring 42 goals.

GOALKEEPER COACH CÉSAR BAENA

César Baena was named to the First Team staff following three years working in Orlando, most recently serving as a goalkeeping coach for the Orlando City Development Academy. Prior to his time in Orlando, Baena spent eight years working with a number of clubs in Venezuela and Mexico, including Carabobo FC, Mineros de Guayana, Deportivo Lara FC, Club Tijuana and Caracas FC where he began his coaching career in 2001.

On the pitch, Baena was a regular in goal for the Venezuelan National Team, appearing in World Cup Qualifiers for the 1986, 1990 and 1998 editions of the tournament. Overall, he played 20 years as a professional with various clubs in Venezuela and Bolivia, including Caracas FC, Estudiantes de Merida FC, Merida FC and Club Deportivo Oriente Petrolero.

HEAD COACH OSCAR PAREJA

Oscar Pareja was named the Orlando City Head Coach on December 4, 2019, joining the Lions from Club Tijuana of Liga MX, a stint that followed an accomplished tenure at FC Dallas of Major League Soccer.

Before his time in Mexico, Pareja spent five seasons at FC Dallas where he served as the head coach, working directly with Luiz Muzzi to build one of the premier development pyramids across MLS.

While at Dallas, he compiled a 78-49-43 record, including a 2016 season that saw Pareja earn MLS Coach of the Year honors following a Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title and the MLS Supporters' Shield. During his tenure, FC Dallas reached the postseason four out of five seasons. Prior to his time as Dallas' head coach, the Medellín, Colombia native spent two seasons as the manager of the Colorado Rapids, reaching the playoffs in 2013.

Before serving at the helm, he spent a number of years working with the FC Dallas Academy, as well as an assistant on the first team staff. In the 2010-11 season, the same season that saw U.S. Soccer rank the FC Dallas Academy No. 1 in the nation, Pareja earned U-18 Academy Coach of the Year. Pareja also spent time coaching the U.S. U-17 Men's National Team from 2007-08.

On the pitch, Pareja played over 400 matches professionally in his native country of Colombia between Independiente Medellín and Deportivo Cali. Prior to the 1998 season, Pareja was allocated to the New England Revolution, but was traded to the Dallas Burn after 13 games where he would go on to play 170 matches, tallying 13 goals and 47 assists. On the international stage, Pareja totaled 11 caps for Colombia, scoring three goals and appearing in the 1991 Copa América.

SECOND ASSISTANT COACH MARTÍN PERELMAN

Martín Perelman joined the Lions as Head Coach of Orlando City B ahead of the 2022 season, earning a promotion to Second Assistant Coach ahead of the 2024 season.

Perelman led the Lions to the Club's first-ever MLS NEXT Pro Playoffs appearance and oversaw the professional development of numerous players, including former OCB midfielder Alejandro Granados leading to his transfer to Club Brugge KV of the Belgian First Division A for an MLS NEXT Pro record transfer fee, while also coaching Jack Lynn to the 2023 MLS NEXT Pro MVP award.

Prior to leading OCB, Perelman came from Argentine side Club Comunicaciones where he was appointed manager in 2021 and led the side that was crowned champions of the Torneo Complemento de la Primera B. Prior to that, he served on the staff of Cañuelas Fútbol Club and Argentino de Merlo, the latter being the very club in which he finished his playing career.
