Tall, named the Crew's sixth full-time General Manager on June 6, 2024, joined the Crew as Assistant General Manager of Player Personnel & Strategy in 2019 and has significantly impacted Club-wide personnel decisions and long-term planning during the past six campaigns. He also oversaw the team's scouting, player personnel and analytics processes in his previous position.

In his tenure, the Crew claimed two MLS Cups in the past four seasons (2020 and 2023) and won the 2021 Campeones Cup. In 2024, the Club reached its first Concacaf Champions Cup Final after becoming the only MLS side in tournament history to defeat two Liga MX clubs (Tigres UANL and CF Monterrey) in the knockout rounds on the path to the championship match.

Tall served an integral role in the Club's hiring of Head Coach Wilfried Nancy in December 2022, as well as the Club's acquisition of top international talent while emphasizing the importance of elevating player performance throughout the Crew organization. In 2023, the Crew and Nancy, a back-to-back finalist for the Sigi Schmid MLS Coach of the Year Award, lifted the MLS Cup; tied a franchise record with 57 points (third in the MLS Supporters' Shield); posted a MLS-best 67 regular season goals, their first time pacing the league in the category; and led the league and set Club standards in many major statistical categories for performance at home.

The success in 2023 occurred following one of the Crew's most active summer transfer windows, highlighted by the incoming transfers of 2020 MLS Golden Boot winner Diego Rossi and Yevhen Cheberko, the outgoing transfer of Lucas Zelarayán and trades for Julian Gressel and Rudy Camacho. The Crew also received tremendous contributions from talent developed within the Club: Homegrown Midfielder Aidan Morris, a 2023 MLS All-Star and Under 22 presented by BODYARMOR selection; 2022 MLS NEXT Pro Goalkeeper of the Year Patrick Schulte and Homegrown Midfielder/Defender Sean Zawadzki, who both received their first U.S. Men's National Team call-ups; and 2022 MLS NEXT Pro Best XI Defender Mohamed Farsi.

Tall's contributions were paramount as the Crew executed the highest-profile transfers in club history to land 2020 MLS Cup MVP and 2021 MLS All-Star Lucas Zelarayán in 2020 from Liga MX's Tigres UANL; 2023 MLS Cup MVP and MLS Best XI Forward Cucho Hernández from the English Premier League's Watford F.C. in 2022; and Rossi from Turkish Süper Lig side Fenerbahçe S.K during the 2023 summer transfer window. He also fostered the Club's trade with Atlanta United in 2020 to acquire 2022 MLS All-Star and Captain Darlington Nagbe, one of the most respected players and decorated champions in MLS history.

Last year, Crew 2 also claimed back-to-back Eastern Conference championships after winning the inaugural MLS NEXT Pro Cup in 2022, while the Crew Academy was named the 2023 MLS Mark Abbott Club Awards Academy of the Year by its peers.

Additionally, Tall has been pivotal to ensuring Crew players, coaches, technical staff and their family members have top-notch resources and amenities to succeed on and off the pitch, particularly with his oversight to establish the OhioHealth Performance Center in June 2021.

Prior to Columbus, Tall gained critical experience at FIFA's Headquarters in Zurich (2016-2019), where he worked in the Federation's Team Services and Competition Department – the group responsible for organizing the World Cup and other FIFA competitions. He was a primary liaison for all international delegations participating in major FIFA tournaments, including the 2018 World Cup in Russia, the 2016 Olympic Games in Brazil and the 2018 FIFA Club World Cup in the United Arab Emirates. Additionally, he led the revision and implementation of the current FIFA World Rankings.

Tall established a strong foundation in Major League Soccer as a key contributor to Toronto FC's Player Personnel and Scouting Department (2014-15) and MLS Headquarters' the Player Competition Department in 2013). With TFC, he directed the formation of the Club's scouting and analytics processes and resources.

A native of Mulhouse, France, Tall graduated from Adelphi University, where he made 41 appearances and posted 24 goals from 2009-2011 before working as an assistant coach. Prior to his college career, Tall competed with RC Strasbourg Academy and helped the club win the French National Cup in 2006 and two Regional Championships 2003 and 2004.

COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH WILFRIED NANCY

Wilfried Nancy joined the Crew on Dec. 6, 2022 as the eighth full-time head coach in Crew history. Under the 2024 Sigi Schmid MLS Coach of the Year winner, the Crew have recorded two of their best seasons in Club history, posting back-to-back years with top team marks for regular season points (57 in 2023, franchise-record 62 in 2024) while becoming the first MLS club to reach three major tournament finals in a span of nine months (2023 MLS Cup, 2024 Concacaf Champions Cup Final and Leagues Cup 2024 Final).

Last season, Nancy guided the Black & Gold to Club records for regular season points (66), wins (19), goal differential (league-best +32), away wins (9), goals (72), away goals (34) and unique goal scorers (18). The Crew consistently generated great results on the pitch while playing a franchise-high 50 matches across all competitions, highlighted by reaching their first Concacaf Champions Cup Final and claiming the Leagues Cup 2024 title following a 3-1 win over LAFC on Aug. 25, 2024.

With Nancy's and his staff's tutelage in 2024, defender Steven Moreira was named the MLS Defender of the Year and forward Cucho Hernández finished second in the 2024 Landon Donovan MLS MVP voting, with both receiving MLS Best XI Presented by Continental Tire honors. Moreira, Cucho, defender Rudy Camacho, midfielder Darlington Nagbe and forward Diego Rossi were also 2024 MLS All-Stars as the Crew's five selections led the league.

In his first season with the Black & Gold, Nancy led the Black & Gold to the 2023 MLS Cup championship, the Club's third league title, capped by a 2-1 victory over LAFC at Lower.com Field on Dec. 9, 2023. Nancy became the first Black head coach to win the MLS Cup and was also named a finalist for the 2023 Sigi Schmid MLS Coach of the Year Award for the second time in as many years.

Nancy earned much success in his first season directing the Black & Gold. In 2023, the Club lifted the MLS Cup, tied a franchise record with 57 points (third in the MLS Supporters' Shield); posted an MLS-best 67 regular season goals, their first time pacing the league in the category; and led the league and set Club standards in many major statistical categories for performance at home.

In addition to galvanizing team success in 2023, Nancy and his staff helped player development that resulted in forward Cucho Hernández being named the MLS Cup MVP and to the 2023 MLS Best XI – the first Crew player to earn the honor since Jonathan Mensah in 2020 – and midfielder Aidan Morris' recognition as a 2023 MLS All-Star and Under 22 presented by BODYARMOR selection. Cucho (Colombia), Morris (USA), goalkeeper Nicholas Hagen (Guatemala), defender Steven Moreira (Cape Verde), forward Jacen Russell-Rowe (Canada), goalkeeper Patrick Shulte (USA) and midfielder/defender Sean Zawadzki (USA) also received international call-ups to their respective senior national teams that year.

Previously, Nancy served as head coach for CF Montreal during the 2021 and 2022 seasons. In 2022, Nancy led Montreal to a club-best, regular season record of 20-9-5. With 65 total points, Montreal finished second in the Eastern Conference and third overall in MLS, just two points shy of the Supporters' Shield winners.

Montreal's 20 wins were second overall in the league, and his team finished in the top five for goals scored (63). Montreal went unbeaten in eight matches from mid-March to mid-May, and again from mid-July to late August.

In 2011, Nancy joined Montreal's Academy and over the course of 10 years, held head coaching roles for the U-18s (2011-13), the U-21s (2014), and the U-16s (2014-15) before being elevated to First Team assistant in January of 2016, a role he held until being promoted to head coach. He holds USSF Pro, UEFA A and Canadian Soccer Association A licenses. In 2014, he obtained the Elite Formation Coaching License (EFCL) diploma.

Born in France, Nancy had a professional playing career that spanned 10 years. From 1995-2005, the defender represented French clubs Sporting Club Toulon, Beaucairois, Raon-l'Étape, Ivry, Noisy-le-Sec, Châtellerauld and Orleans.

On April 17, 2024, former President and General Manager Tim Bezbatchenko announced that the Crew and Nancy agreed to a contract extension.
