2025 SEASON NOTES

TEAM NOTES

CARLES BREAKS REVS' GOAL CONTRIBUTIONS RECORD

Already the club's leader in assists across the regular season, playoffs, and all competitions, New England captain Carles Gil now owns the most goal contributions in club annals. Gil set the record with a goal-and-assist performance on August 9 vs. D.C. United, surpassing Taylor Twellman (129).

REVOLUTION HISTORY: GOAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Rank	Player	MLS		All Comps.
		G+A	App.	G+A	App.
1.	Carles Gil	136	193	152	212
2.	Taylor Twellman	129	174	148	211
3.	Steve Ralston	115	201	130	243
4.	Lee Nguyen	102	203	112	225
5.	Diego Fagundez	98	261	101	282

With 10 goals this season, one shy of his career high set in 2023, Gil became the eighth Revolution player with 40 goals and 40 assists in league play. His next goal will make him the second player in team history with 50 goals and 50 assists in the regular season, joining Steve Ralston.

REVOLUTION HISTORY: MOST GOALS (ALL COMPETITIONS)

Rank	Player	Goals
1.	Taylor Twellman	119
2.	Lee Nguyen	55
T-3.	Carles Gil	54
T-3.	Diego Fagundez	54
5.	Teal Bunbury	53

Gil accrued 14 assists this season, seventh most in MLS, marking his fifth consecutive season with double-digit helpers. The Spaniard is the only New England player to accomplish the feat, and one of only five in league history. Only Preki has recorded 10-or-more assists in at least six seasons.

MLS HISTORY: CONSECUTIVE SEASONS WITH 10+ ASSISTS

Rank	Player	Club	Seasons
1.	Preki	SKC/MIA	8
T-2.	Carles Gil	New England	5
T-2.	Hany Mukhtar	Nashville	5
T-2.	Carlos Valderrama	TB/MIA/COL	5

TEAM NOTES

RETURN OF THE MATT: TURNER BACK IN NEW ENGLAND

U.S. international goalkeeper Matt Turner returned to the New England Revolution on loan from French Ligue 1 club Olympique Lyonnais through June 30, 2026, with an option to purchase. Turner occupied Designated Player slot on New England's roster for the remainder of the 2025 MLS season, and will be a TAM-eligible player in 2026.

In his debut on August 9, Turner surpassed 10,000 minutes played across all competitions for New England. Since making his MLS debut in 2018, Matt Turner holds New England's club record for goalkeeper win percentage (.572) and save percentage (72.3), while his 46 wins are tied with Bobby Shuttleworth for the second-most MLS victories in Revolution history.

HISTORIC MLS DEBUT FOR DOR TURGEMAN

New England Revolution forward Dor Turgeman made his MLS debut on Sept. 27, bursting onto the scene with a goal-and-assist performance off the bench to power a 2-0 victory over Atlanta United FC and earning MLS Team of the Matchday honors. Acquired from Maccabi Tel Aviv using Major League Soccer's U22 Initiative on August 20, the Israeli international has scored goals in all three of his MLS appearances, becoming the first Revolution player to do so and the 10th player in MLS history.

Inaugural Match; Scored Two Goals*

A native of Ashdod, Israel, Turgeman represents Israel at the senior international level. The forward has started seven of his 14 senior appearances, including 10 matches in World Cup qualifiers, appearing in all four matches during the September and October FIFA windows.

REVS STRIKE GOLD WITH U22 SIGNING FEINGOLD

U22 signing and Israel international defender Ilay Feingold established himself as a key contributor in the Revolution defense during his first MLS campaign. Signed from Maccabi Haifa during the offseason, the Israeli scored three goals along with four assists in 29 regular season appearances, with 26 starts.

Feingold tallied his first two MLS assists on May 10 at Orlando City SC. To close the month of May, Feingold earned a selection to the MLS Team of the Matchday following a two-goal and one-assist performance at CF Montreal on May 31. The multi-goal performance was only the second by a Revolution defender in club history, and the first since 2001.

REVOLUTION HISTORY: MULTI-GOAL GAMES BY DEFENDER

Diego Fagundez	August 25, 2013	18 years, 192 days
Ilay Feingold	May 31, 2025	20 years, 281 days

The right back has represented Israel on the international stage, with a pair of appearances at the senior level. At the youth international level, Feingold helped Israel to a third-place finish at the 2023 FIFA U-20 World Cup and a runner-up finish at the 2022 UEFA U-19 European Championships.

OYIRWOTH, KLEIN LATEST REVS TEEN TO MAKE MLS DEBUT

Uganda international midfielder Allan Oyirwoth, 18, made the most of his opportunities with New England's first team. After spending much of the 2025 season developing with Revolution II in MLS NEXT Pro, Oyirwoth earned his chance at the MLS level, making his league debut on Sept. 6 off the bench at Chicago Fire FC.

Oyirwoth, who started both of New England's U.S. Open Cup matches back in May, started four straight league contests following his debut. He was one of three teenagers to earn MLS minutes for New England this year along with defender Peyton Miller and midfielder Eric Klein, who made his MLS debut on May 31. Oyirwoth was 18 years, 226 days old at the time of his debut, the seventh-youngest MLS debutant in club history.

Jack Panayotou	March 25, 2023	18 years, 293 days

Players Age 18 and younger*

The New England Revolution signed Klein, the 2024 Revolution Academy Player of the Year, as the 15th Homegrown Player in club history less than a year after signing his first MLS NEXT Pro contract with Revolution II. Klein is now the second second-generation player in Revolution team annals, following in the footsteps of his father, Steve, who played for the Revs in 1997. The midfielder made his MLS debut off the bench at CF Montreal on May 31, making him the fifth-youngest MLS debutant in club annals.

22 UNDER 22 CLASS OF 2026

25 • PEYTON MILLER

Miller, a 17-year-old Unionville, Conn. native, collects his second 22 Under 22 selection after ranking No. 22 on last season's list. A Revolution Academy product and beneficiary of the Academy's residency program, Miller has started 25 of his 26 MLS appearances in his first full MLS season, including seven of New England's 10 shutouts. Miller owns two goals, with one game-winning tally, and two assists in 2025.

On the international stage, Miller was the youngest member of the United States Under-20 Men's National Team roster at the 2025 FIFA U-20 World Cup in Chile. Miller appeared in all five tournament matches, and started in a 3-0 win over France. Previously, Miller featured for the United States at the 2023 FIFA U-17 World Cup in Indonesia, appearing in all four tournament matches.

12 • ILAY FEINGOLD

Feingold established himself as a key contributor in the Revolution defense during his first MLS campaign. Signed from Maccabi Haifa in January, the Israeli has scored three goals along with four assists in 28 appearances, including 25 starts. Feingold tallied his first two MLS assists on May 10 at Orlando. The 21-year-old also became the second Revolution defender to record a multi-goal game on May 31 at Montreal.

The defender has represented Israel on the international stage, including a pair of appearances at the senior level. Feingold was also a member of Israel's roster at the 2024 Olympic Games in Paris, appearing in all three matches. At the youth international level, Feingold has featured over 30 times, helping Israel to a third-place finish at the 2023 FIFA U-20 World Cup and a runner-up finish at the 2022 UEFA U-19 European Championships.

THROWBACKS: REVS REVEAL "THE '96" ARCHIVE COLLECTION KIT

The New England Revolution unveiled the club's new Archive Collection third kit, "The '96", as one of 10 Major League Soccer clubs featured in the return of the throwback-themed adidas x MLS Archive Collection. The Revolution debuted "The '96" kit against Orlando City SC on July 19 at Gillette Stadium, and donned the shirts again on Aug. 9 (vs. DC), Aug. 23 (at CLB), Aug. 30 (vs. CLT), and Oct. 18 (vs. CHI).

An unapologetic tribute to the club's start in the '90s, the New England Revolution '96 kit revives the team's original wordmark, bold colors, and front-facing numbers on the pitch. The jersey is primarily Bright Red and features a gradient pattern that invokes the '96 jerseys with a contemporary flare. The retro Revolution wordmark is emblazoned on the shirt's front, while the back features the original MLS logo and "Gillette," the Revolution's primary jersey sponsor since 2025. The shirts will be paired with Bright Red socks, while the shorts, shirt details, and numerals utilize a refreshed shade of Night Sky Blue.

SANDS NAMED CLUB AMBASSADOR TO NE AMPUTEE SOCCER

The New England Revolution announced that defender Will Sands has been named the club's ambassador of the New England Amputee Soccer Association (NEASA). Sands visited a Revolution Amputee Soccer Team training session on ahead of the team's second annual full-length exhibition match at Gillette Stadium on Saturday, April 19. The Revolution Amputee Soccer Team earned a 5-0 victory over the Metro NY Amputee Soccer Team.

Sands, 24, and his twin brother, James, have long been supporters of the U.S. Amputee Soccer Association (AASA) and the Bionic Project, a non-profit organization founded in 2018 that aims to dismantle disability bias through education, story, and sport, fostering empathy and connection for people of all abilities. Prior to the exhibition match, Sands and the Revolution will outfit the NEASA with brand-new uniforms, including goalkeeper kits and adidas backpacks. The Revolution have also invited the NEASA to hold monthly training sessions at the Revolution Training Center in Foxborough, Mass. This is an extension of the Revolution's longstanding support of NEASA, which has included past donations of durable high-performance crutches designed for use in competition.

The 2025 U.S. Amputee Soccer Cup was once again held in New England this year. From September 12th to 14th, Weymouth High School in Massachusetts hosted the tournament, which for the first time featured six teams: New England Revolution Amputee Soccer, Metro NY Amputee Soccer, Miami Amputee Soccer Club, Chicago Amputee Soccer Club, Colorado/Columbus, and Delaware's Arena Football Club. For a second year in a row, Miami defeated New England in the tournament final to claim to cup title.

PACKED HOUSE: REVS HOST FIFTH-LARGEST HOME CROWD

After finishing fourth in MLS attendance in 2024, New England again has seen fans turn out in droves for matches in 2025. That included a season-high 43,293 fans on Wednesday, July 9 for the regular season home match against Inter Miami CF.

New England set a club record during Inter Miami's visit to Foxborough on April 27, 2024 with 65,612 fans, the second-largest crowd for a soccer match in Gillette Stadium history. Since the start of the 2024 campaign, New England has seen four of the seven highest-attended home matches in its history.

The 43,293 fans on July 9 marked the fifth-highest single-game attendance in Revolution history. It was the fourth-highest regular season total and the third-best standalone attendance in team annals.

ANDREW FARRELL BOSTON'S LONGEST-TENURED ATHLETE

Revolution defender Andrew Farrell concluded his record 13th season with New England after inking a one-year deal in the offseason that saw him become the first player in club history to serve in a dual Player Development role. In addition to a first-team roster spot, Farrell is also serving as an assistant coach with the Revolution Academy.

Farrell has rewritten the Revolution record book, owning the most appearances, starts, and minutes played in both the MLS regular season and across all competitions. The five-time Revolution Defender of the Year and four-time Revolution Humanitarian of the Year first arrived in New England as the number-one overall pick in the 2013 MLS SuperDraft, having played in 344 MLS matches since along with the fifth-most minutes played leaguewide over that span. Farrell is now the longest-tenured athlete among Boston's five major men's professional sports teams.

MLS HIGH EIGHT REVS EARN OCTOBER INT'L CALL-UPS

Tied for the most in MLS, eight Revolution players earned national team call-ups in October: Matt Turner (United States), Leo Campana (Ecuador), Mamadou Fofana (Mali), Alhassan Yusuf (Nigeria), Dor Turgeman (Israel), and Allan Oyirwoth (Uganda) at the senior level, along with Eric Klein and Peyton Miller (United States Under-20).

New England Revolution defender Peyton Miller was called up by the United States Under-20 Men's National Team as the youngest player on the roster for the 2025 FIFA U-20 World Cup in Chile. Miller and the U.S. U-20 team defeated New Caledonia 3-1, on Sunday, Oct. 12. The 17-year-old appeared in all five matches for the United States, starting in a 3-0 victory over France in group play.

The homegrown defender recently joined the U.S. U-20 roster in June for a training camp and friendly matches in Egypt as the youngest member on Head Coach Marko Mitrovic's 22-player squad. The Unionville, Conn. native came off the bench in a 1-0 defeat to the Norway U-20 side on June 6, before starting against Colombia U-20s on June 10.

Campana and Ecuador faced Turner and the United States on Friday, Oct. 10, before battling Mexico to a 1-1 draw on Tuesday, Oct. 14 in Guadalajara. Campana appeared in both matches off the bench, marking his first international appearances in a calendar year. La Tricolor already clinched their qualification for the FIFA World Cup 26™ in June.

Yusuf and Nigeria advanced to the Second Round of FIFA World Cup qualification with victories over Lesotho, 2-1, on Friday, Oct. 10, and at home over Benin, 4-0, on Tuesday, Oct. 14. Yusuf was an unused substitute in both matches during the October window. The Super Eagles finished second in the CAF Group C with a 4-1-5 record, advancing on goal differential over the runners-up in Group A Burkina Faso and Group E Niger.

Oyirwoth and Uganda, as well as Fofana's Mali, both fell short of qualification for the FIFA World Cup 2026. Turgeman and Israel can still qualify for a Second Round berth based on their UEFA Nations League ranking.

2025 BOWL FOR A GOAL

NEW ENGLAND REVOLUTION FOUNDATION RAISES $100,000 FOR SPECIAL OLYMPICS MASSACHUSETTS AT "BOWL FOR A GOAL PRESENTED BY THE ARBELLA INSURANCE GROUP"

THE REVOLUTION FOUNDATION'S PREMIER FUNDRAISING EVENT HAS RAISED MORE THAN $700,000 TO DATE FOR SPECIAL OLYMPICS MASSACHUSETTS

The New England Revolution Foundation raised $100,000 for Special Olympics Massachusetts at the eighth annual Bowl for a Goal presented by Arbella Insurance on July 30. The club's premier annual fundraiser, held at Splitsville Luxury Lanes at Patriot Place, featured the entire 2025 New England Revolution squad and the Revolution's Unified Soccer Team joining together with fans and community partners for an action-packed night of music, prizes, bowling, a silent auction, and more. Thanks in large part to the longstanding support of the Arbella Insurance Group, the Revolution Foundation has now raised more than $700,000 for Special Olympics Massachusetts to date through Bowl for a Goal.

This year's Bowl for a Goal celebrated the 11th season of the Revolution Unified Soccer Team, made possible by the unwavering support of the Arbella Insurance Group. Special Olympics' Unified Sports® program joins people with and without intellectual disabilities on the same team. About 1.2 million people worldwide take part in Unified Sports, which break down stereotypes about athletes with intellectual disabilities and promotes social inclusion through shared sports training and competition experiences.

FIGHT CHILDHOOD CANCER MONTH

REVS ACTIVE IN COMMUNITY ALL MONTH, WITH FIGHT CHILDHOOD CANCER MATCH ON SATURDAY, SEPT. 13

From mid-August through the end of September, the Revolution will be hard at work in bringing awareness to childhood cancer. The New England Revolution hosted its annual Fight Childhood Cancer night at Gillette Stadium on Saturday, September 13.

Prior to the match against Toronto FC, children from Make-a-Wish of MA & RI served as the Dream Team escorting players onto the pitch. The Drive Series returned on Sept. 13, with the Revolution Foundation collecting supplies for the Izzy Foundation Room at Hasbro Children's Hospital in Providence.

Revolution players donned jerseys featuring special numbers that include names on participants in NEGU Crew during the last decade, with the shirts auctioned off after the match to benefit the Jesse Rees Foundation. In celebration of 10 years of NEGU and Matt Turner's return, the club arranged a reunion between the goalkeeper and one of his NEGU Crew members from 2019. Also as part of NEGU, Andrew Farrell partnered with his inaugural NEGU member to design a special Fight Childhood Cancer scarf available for purchase in the Pro Shop.

BOX CAR MOVIE NIGHT

The New England Revolution Foundation hosted families from nearby hospitals who have been affected by childhood cancer for the club's annual "Box Car Movie Night" at Jordan's Furniture in Natick, Mass. on Wednesday, August 13. Revolution players including Andrew Farrell, Wyatt Omsberg, Tanner Beason, Brandon Bye and Malcolm Fry were in attendance to craft custom cardboard box cars with the pediatric cancer patients, as well as cardboard swords and shields to accompany their screening of the newly released film How to Train Your Dragon in Jordan's IMAX theater.

"Box Car Movie Night" is one of several ways the New England Revolution Foundation will recognize National Childhood Cancer Awareness Month coming up in September. The Revolution will host their Fight Childhood Cancer match at Gillette Stadium on Saturday, September 13 vs. Toronto FC. Throughout the match at Gillette Stadium, the Revolution will show their support for patients and families affected by childhood cancer with activations recognizing local cancer fighters, community partners, non-profit organizations, and hospitals.

HOSPITAL VISITS & EVENTS

- Tuesday, August 19: Revolution defenders Andrew Farrell and Wyatt Omsberg visited Franciscan Children's Hospital in Brighton, Mass. to spend time with pediatric cancer patients and their families.
- Tuesday, September 2: Revolution players Matt Turner, Carles Gil, Andrew Farrell, Wyatt Omsberg, and Malcolm Fry visited Boston Children's Hospital to spend time and play EA SPORTS FC with pediatric cancer patients.
- Thursday, September 11: Revolution players Tanner Beason, Andrew Farrell, Wyatt Omsberg, and Ilay Feingold visited the Mass General Brigham for Children to spend time with pediatric cancer patients and their families.
- Thursday, September 18: Revolution players Will Sands, Keegan Hughes, and Wyatt Omsberg delivered items collected during the Sept. 13 Drive Series to the Izzy Family Room at Hasbro Children's Hospital in Providence, and participated in a party with families affected by pediatric cancer.

ALUMNI NIGHT

REVOLUTION HONORED CLUB GREATS IN CELEBRATION OF 30TH SEASON

In celebration of its 30th season, the Revolution hosted several of the club's all-time greats for 'Alumni Night' on Saturday, August 9, when the Revolution faced fellow original MLS side D.C. United at Gillette Stadium. As part of the night's festivities, the club held an all-inclusive 'Meet the Greats' event at the Sports Illustrated Pavilion prior to the match where Revolution fans enjoyed unlimited food, beer, and wine while getting their chance to meet legends representing every era of Revolution soccer, from the inaugural 1996 roster to the club's recent Supporters' Shield triumph.

Later in the evening, the Revolution alumni were recognized on the Gillette Stadium field at halftime for their contributions to the club. Additionally, retro viewfinders highlighting fan-favorite moments from the Revolution's illustrious history were distributed at all ticket gates, including reels displaying iconic moments in club history and recognizing players from the Revolution All-Time Team that was selected during the club's 25th season celebration in 2020.

Alumni spanning the entire 30-year history of Revolution soccer, including a former MLS MVP, several multi-time MLS All-Stars, Eastern Conference champions, and U.S. Open Cup winners were in attendance. Other former Revolution stars were invited to take part in the Alumni Night festivities, though several could not attend due to their current roles as active coaches or club executives.

2025 UNIFIED TEAM

SPECIAL OLYMPICS MASSACHUSETTS REVOLUTION UNIFIED TEAM CONCLUDES 11TH SEASON

The 2025 season marks the 11th year of the New England Revolution's partnership with Special Olympics Massachusetts' Unified Sports® program, supported throughout by the Arbella Insurance Group. The Revolution welcomed Special Olympics Massachusetts athletes and Unified partners to the 2025 New England Revolution Unified Team on May 14 at Gillette Stadium for the team's annual signing day. This year's Unified roster featured 19 athletes and partners, matching last year's record of the largest team in the program's 11-year history.

Following the home match on June 28 against the Colorado Rapids at Gillette Stadium, the 2025 Revolution Unified Team took the field to kickoff its competition season with a match against the Colorado Rapids Unified Team. The team concluded its competition schedule on July 12 with a trip to face the Charlotte FC Unified Team following Charlotte's MLS contest with New York City FC.

On July 30, the entire 2025 New England Revolution team joined together with fans, community partners, and the Revolution Unified Soccer Team for the eighth annual Bowl for a Goal presented by Arbella Insurance. The event came one week after the 2025 MLS Unified All-Star Game, in which two members of this year's Revolution Unified Team participated - Liam Wise (Boxford, Mass.) and Remy St. Germain (Holden, Mass.).

AMPUTEE SOCCER EXHIBITION MATCH

REVOLUTION AMPUTEE SOCCER TEAM DEFEATED METRO NEW YORK

The New England Amputee Soccer Association hosted its annual exhibition match between the Revolution Amputee Soccer Team and the Metro New York Amputee Soccer Team on Saturday, April 19 at Gillette Stadium. The full-length exhibition soccer contest at Gillette Stadium, featuring two 20-minute halves, commenced following an MLS match between the New England Revolution and New York City FC, marking a continuation of the Revolution's longstanding support of amputee soccer in New England, which has included past donations of team uniforms, training field time, and durable high-performance crutches designed for use in competition.

The New England Revolution and Metro New York Amputee Soccer Teams are captained by Nico Calabria and Jovan Leheld-Booker, respectively. In 2023, New England defeated the Metro New York Amputee Soccer Team, etching its name into soccer history by winning the first-ever U.S. Amputee Soccer Cup. Fans were treated to a competitive and exciting rematch of the 2023 U.S. Amputee Soccer Cup Final, with New England etching its name into soccer history by winning the first-ever title.

Amputee soccer follows the same rules as traditional soccer, with few modifications. The exhibition match presents an opportunity to unite, support, and learn from amputee athletes. Fans attending the MLS match are encouraged to remain at Gillette Stadium following the conclusion of the contest to support the amputee athletes. The amputee match offers a new and exciting form of entertainment for soccer fans and serves as a platform for the athletes to display their skills and raise awareness about limb differences, importance of inclusivity in sports and diverse representation in athletic competitions, and the broader sports landscape of adaptive sports among the disability community.

JUNETEENTH MATCH

WOMEN OF COLOR ENTREPRENEURS (WOCE) POP-UP MARKET HEADLINES NIGHT OF INITIATIVES

On Saturday, June 14, the Revolution celebrated their annual Juneteenth Match against FC Cincinnati. Beginning at 5:00 p.m., the Fan Zone featured a variety of displays from several local artists and the National Black Doll Museum. Local organizations Be Inclusive Inc. and Story Starters had informational booths, along with the RI Juneteenth Organization which hosted their 7th Annual Juneteenth Festival this year.

Inside the stadium, the National Anthem was performed by Boston native and contestant on NBC's 'The Voice', Rletto. Deb Britt, Executive Director of the National Black Doll Museum, was honored as the Hero of the Match on Saturday. Additionally, the stadium videoboard displayed Juneteenth facts and information about local Juneteenth celebrations.

The Drive Series returned to support Animal Rescue League of Boston, collecting pet food and supplies for ARL Boston's "Keep Pets F.E.D." (Full Every Day) food pantry.

MATCH FOR C.H.A.N.G.E.

WOMEN OF COLOR ENTREPRENEURS (WOCE) POP-UP MARKET HEADLINES NIGHT OF INITIATIVES

The New England Revolution hosted the club's annual Match for C.H.A.N.G.E. on Saturday, August 16. This year's Match for C.H.A.N.G.E. provided a variety of activations, including an online auction of match-worn jerseys with a special patch, designed by local artist Eamon White. All proceeds from the jersey auction benefited The Chica Project, a non-profit that works towards creating a world where women, girls, and all people experiencing oppression at the intersection of race, ethnicity, and gender can have the opportunity to rise to their full potential.

The New England Revolution, Women of Color Entrepreneurs (WOCE), and the Heritage Market partnered to bring 20 women- and BIPOC-owned local businesses to a Pop-Up Market in the Revolution Fan Zone prior to the match. Founded in 2019, WOCE supports women of color entrepreneurs with the goal to expand and build women of color owned businesses. The nonprofit is dedicated to providing mentorship, programming, peer support, technical assistance, and curated access to potential customers, leaders, and investors in the Greater Boston Area. The New England Revolution Foundation and WOCE partnership began in November of 2022, when WOCE was selected as the beneficiary of a $20,000 grant from the Revolution Players Collaborative Fund, as part of the company's C.H.A.N.G.E. platform, which is dedicated to combatting inequity and promoting social justice.

ANDREW'S NEGU CREW

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE REVOLUTION FOUNDATION & THE JESSE REES FOUNDATION

Back again for the 2025 season is one of the New England Revolution Foundation's signature programs - NEGU Crew. Andrew's NEGU Crew provided a unique and memorable matchday experience for pediatric cancer patients. The acronym NEGU (pronounced nee-goo), Never Ever Give Up, is a phrase adopted from the Jesse Rees Foundation, which ensures every child fighting cancer has the support and resources they need to never ever give up.

Originally launched in 2015 with Kelyn Rowe, and continuing with Matt Turner, NEGU Crew returned in 2024 after a pause due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Taking the reins was defender and three-time Revolution Humanitarian of the Year Andrew Farrell. As part of the NEGU Crew matchday experience, families were presented with a $500 Gillette Stadium gift card to use on concessions and merchandise. Prior to the match, each child received their own custom Revolution jersey presented by Farrell as he takes the pitch for pregame warmups. After watching the match from a private suite, the NEGU Crew Courageous Kid and family returned to field level postgame to complete a lap of honor with Farrell.

PRIDE NIGHT

PRIDE FLAG REPRESENTED ON THE CORNER FLAGS AND THE GOAL NETS FOR THE FIRST TIME

The New England Revolution hosted the club's annual Pride Night on Saturday, June 28 at Gillette Stadium. The pre-match Fan Zone included activations from local groups that highlight LGBTQ+ members of the community to share their message with fans. The Gays for Patsy Dance Club, a local non-profit that specializes in teaching people to dance while creating a comfortable environment for members of the LGBTQ+ community to socialize, and taught fans new dances and performing its routines for the crowd.

During warmups, players donned the adidas Pride pre-match tops, and supporters raised a special Pride-themed Tifo. The Hero of the Match will be presented by Gillette and highlighted a member of their team that has made a commitment to improving inclusive culture in the work place. The National Anthem will be performed by Dr. Gary Lyon, a local LGBTQ+ singer and member of the performance group, Living Water, he founded in 2006. Members of GABLE, Gillette's LGBTQ+ employee affinity group, unfurled the Pride Progress Flag on the field before the start of the match.

For the first time this year, the Pride Progress flag was represented on the corner flags, and the goal nets were painted in rainbow colors to be representative of the Pride Flag.

NOITE BRASILEIRA

On Saturday, July 19, the Revolution celebrated their annual Noite Brasileira match against Orlando City SC. Beginning at 5:00 p.m., the Fan Zone will feature a variety of cultural displays, including live performances by Brazilian rock band Link 80 and a Meet & Greet with Revolution II midfielder and U.S. Open Cup hero Cristiano Oliveira. Local organizations such as MAPS, Lib - Brazilian Library, Brazilian Women's Group, Nossa Radio, and more will have informational booths available in the plaza.

Inside the stadium, fans can purchase a special Brazilian Heritage scarf designed by local artist Tatiana Soares, who will also be available for a Meet & Greet in the Fan Zone. Alessandra Fisher from the Massachusetts Alliance of Portuguese Speakers will be honored pregame as the Hero of the Match. At halftime, local members of the Brazilian community will participate in a bubble soccer exhibition. After the match, there will be a Postgame Fireworks display for fans.

NOCHE LATINA E HISPANA

September 27 marked the Revolution's annual Noche Latina e Hispana at Gillette Stadium when New England hosts Atlanta United FC. The evening will feature a variety of cultural activations beginning at 5:00 p.m. in the Revolution Fan Zone and live performances from Rafa Moreno and Vibra Tropical.

A special Noche Latina e Hispana scarf, designed by local cartoonist and illustrator Dave Ortega, is available for purchase at the Pro Shop and in-stadium starting Saturday, and the artist will be in attendance for a Meet & Greet with fans. Inside the stadium, several activations and giveaways will be available to fans as part of the festivities. Headlining the night, Fraternidad Folklorika Boliviana will treat fans to a special on-field dance performance at halftime.

MENTAL HEALTH & WELLNESS NIGHT

On Saturday, August 30, the Revolution hosted their annual Mental Health & Wellness Match against Charlotte FC. Beginning at 5:00 p.m., the Fan Zone will have a variety of mindfulness activities for children, including coloring pages, word searches, bubbles, sensory bins, and a scavenger hunt.

Additionally, NEADS World Class Service Dogs had service animals present. Inside the stadium, fans will have a chance to vote on a name for a new service dog, a yellow lab in training with NEADS - Farrell, Scottie, Taylor, or Turner. NEADS is a non-profit organization that was established in 1976 and has trained over 1,900 service dog teams to date.

2025 MLS REGULAR SEASON MATCH RECAPS

MATCH #1 AT NASHVILLE SC: FEBRUARY 22, 2025

The New England Revolution (0-0-1, 1 pt.) dueled Nashville SC (0-0-1, 1 pt.) to a 0-0 draw on Saturday, Feb. 22 at GEODIS Park, in the MLS season opener. Six of the Revolution's 11 starters were making their club debuts in the shutout performance, while four players saw their first action in the league.

The Revolution's new-look squad battled the hosts through an evenly matched first half, which saw the visitors control the majority of possession. Ignatius Ganago recorded his first MLS shot with a left-footed attempt in the 24th minute, which required a touch over the bar by Nashville goalkeeper Joe Willis. Forward Leo Campana, also making his club debut, contributed two shots, with one on target, in an effort to break the deadlock.

New England continued to push forward in the second half in search of a breakthrough. With Brandon Bye making his 150th MLS start on the right flank, 20-year-old defender Ilay Feingold stepped in at left back for his league debut. Feingold came close to scoring when he curled a shot high in the 76th minute. In central defense, fellow newcomers Bryan Ceballos and Mamadou Fofana posted 90-minute shifts in the shutout, while goalkeeper Aljaz Ivačić recorded three saves.

Midfielder Carles Gil donned the captain's armband for the Revolution as he also recorded his 150th MLS regular season start. Jackson Yueill registered two shots in his first Revolution appearance, while Luca Langoni and Alhassan Yusuf both earned starts to begin their first full seasons with New England. Head Coach Caleb Porter needed to deploy only one substitute to see out the draw, bringing on winger Luis Diaz in the 77th minute for his club debut.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The Revolution posted a clean sheet in their MLS opener for the second time in the last three seasons (last: 2023, 1-0 at Charlotte FC).
- In MLS play, the Revs are 2-0-1 over their last three meetings with Nashville, as their record in the series moves to 3-2-5.
- The following seven players made their club debut tonight: F Leonardo Campana, D Brayan Ceballos, F/W Luis Diaz, D Ilay Feingold, D Mamadou Fofana, F/W Ignatius Ganago, and M Jackson Yueill.
- For four of those players, it was also their MLS debut: Ceballos, Feingold, Fofana, and Ganago.
- M Carles Gil, the lone returning starter from last year's season opener, and D Brandon Bye both recorded their 150th MLS regular season starts with the club.
- GK Aljaz Ivačić recorded three saves in the shutout, his fifth with New England.

MATCH #2 Vs COLUMBUS CREW: MARCH 1, 2025

0-1

The New England Revolution (0-1-1, 1 pt.) fell to the Columbus Crew (2-0-0, 6 pts.), 1-0, on Saturday, March 1 at Gillette Stadium. New England, wearing the Eastern White Pine kit for the first time in the club's 2025 home opener, held Columbus without a shot in the first half. However, a goal in the 51st minute by Columbus' Jacen Russell-Rowe provided the difference.

The Revolution deployed an unchanged starting lineup from last weekend's season opener, as six of tonight's starters made their home debuts. The two sides battled through a scoreless opening 45 minutes, with Columbus holding the edge in possession. New England nearly opened the scoring with the first half's best chance. On an attacking set piece, Carles Gil slipped a line-breaking pass to Leo Campana, who fired a shot on frame that was deflected away by Crew goalkeeper Patrick Schulte.

Columbus got on the board six minutes into the second half, with Russell-Rowe slotting home a low shot off a feed from Mohamed Farsi. New England made three substitutions as they chased an equalizer, with Luis Diaz, Will Sands, and Maxi Urruti all seeing action off the bench. Urruti earned his first appearance in a Revolution shirt, while Sands logged his season debut.

The Revolution thought they had an opportunity to equalize from the penalty spot in the game's waning moments, when a free kick deflected off the side of Columbus midfielder Dylan Chambost. After initially awarding the penalty to New England, video review overturned the call on the field.

POSTGAME NOTES

- New England's record through 30 home openers now stands at 17-8-5.
- The club's record in the last five home openers moves to 3-2-0.
- At Gillette Stadium, the Revs are 13-6-5 in home openers (since 2002).
- Leo Campana led the team with two shot attempts, turning one on target.
- Carles Gil suffered five fouls tonight, a team high, in his 90-minute shift.
- The Revolution donned the Eastern White Pine kit for the first time in Saturday's match.
- New England will be at home for two of its next three games.

MATCH #3 vs PHILADELPHIA UNION: MARCH 8, 2025

The New England Revolution (0-2-1, 1 pt.) fell to the Philadelphia Union (3-0-0, 9 pts.), 2-0, on Saturday, March 8 at Gillette Stadium. The Revolution and Union played to a stalemate in the first half and New England controlled possession for much of the night, but league-leading scorer Tai Baribo and Jovan Lukic each tallied in the second frame to lift the visitors.

New England was forced to dip into the bench early, when forward Leo Campana picked up an injury in the opening 10 minutes. Maxi Urruti, making his second straight appearance off the bench, submitted an 80-minute shift in relief of Campana. Urruti had New England's best chance of the night in the 69th minute, curling a shot on frame that forced a diving save from Union goalkeeper Andre Blake. Carles Gil also contributed to the attack with a team-high four shots, while Luca Langoni added two shot attempts.

Revolution goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačič was up to the test for most of the night, registering a season-high six saves. The Union broke the deadlock in the 76th minute, with Baribo heading home his sixth goal in three games this season off a cross from MLS assist leader Kai Wagner. Lukic sealed the victory late, blasting a shot off the left post in stoppage time.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Maxi Urruti logged 80 minutes off the bench, replacing an injured Leo Campana early in the first half, and recorded one shot on target.
- Luis Diaz made his third straight substitute appearance, replacing Luca Langoni in the 68th minute.
- Mamadou Fofana logged a team-high four clearances on the night.
- Ignatius Ganago recorded a pair of key passes and won four fouls.
- Noel Buck made his first MLS appearance since his 2024 loan to Southampton, entering the match as a second-half substitute.

MATCH #4 AT NEW YORK CITY FC: MARCH 15, 2025

2-1

The New England Revolution (0-3-1, 1 pt.) fell to New York City FC (2-1-1, 7 pts.), 2-1, on Saturday, March 15 at Yankee Stadium. After New England pulled ahead in the first half on a Thiago Martins own goal, created by Brandon Bye's cross, New York City scored two unanswered goals to give the hosts all three points in Saturday's contest.

With the Revolution threatening on the attack in the 26th minute, Bye whipped in a cross to the center of the penalty area towards forward Ignatius Ganago. The pass was blocked by New York City defender Martins, with the ball caroming into his own net to grant the Revolution a lead. The own goal was New England's first tally of the season as the visitors found themselves ahead at the half-hour mark.

Bye was one of three changes to Caleb Porter's starting XI, along with fellow MLS veterans Matt Polster and Maxi Urruti. Polster made his season debut on Saturday, playing 76 minutes as he returned to action following a thigh injury. Urruti saw 71 minutes of action in his first start with the club.

The hosts evened the proceedings 12 minutes after New England's breakthrough, with Julian Fernandez slotting home a feed from Hannes Wolf on the counter attack. In the 68th minute, New York City pulled in front with a volley from Alonso Martinez, converting a rebound off a Keaton Parks shot that was denied by Aljaž Ivačić.

Ganago, making his fourth start in as many games, led the Revolution attack with three shots, including one on target in the first half. The Cameroon international forced a save from NYCFC goalkeeper Matt Freese moments after the hosts equalized. New England deployed four second half changes, with Luca Langoni, Noel Buck, Luis Diaz, and Ilay Feingold all seeing action off the bench.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Ignatius Ganago led the team with three shots attempts, one on target, in his fourth straight 90-minute shift.
- Maxi Urruti earned his first start for the Revolution, his 298th MLS appearance, and registered one shot attempt.
- Alongside Ganago and Urruti, Carles Gil, Luca Langoni, and Alhassan Yusuf each notched a shot attempt tonight.
- Gil entered Matchday 4 as the league's most-fouled player and won four free kicks for New England tonight.
- Matt Polster logged 76 minutes in his season debut tonight.
- Homegrown midfielder Noel Buck made his second substitute appearance of the season, replacing Polster in the 76th minute.

MATCH #5 vs NEW YORK RED BULLS: MARCH 29, 2025

2-1

The New England Revolution (1-3-1, 4 pts.) defeated the New York Red Bulls (2-2-2, 8 pts.), 2-1, on Saturday, March 29 in front of 20,439 fans at Gillette Stadium. In the 100th all-time meeting between the two sides, Revolution midfielder Carles Gil recorded two goals, including the game-winning penalty in second-half stoppage time, to lift New England over the Red Bulls.

New England drew first blood in the 28th minute, when Gil curled a free kick from 25 yards away into the top-left corner. The highlight-reel goal was the captain's 40th strike in MLS play, making him only the fourth Revolution player in club history to tally 40 goals and 40 assists in regular season action. Shortly before halftime, New York found the equalizer with Eric Maxim Choupo-Moting slotting home a low shot off the feed from Peter Stroud.

The Revolution piled on the pressure in the second half, finishing the match with the edge in shots (13) and attempts on target (six). The sides remained level entering second-half stoppage time, when referee Sergii Demianchuk's second trip to the video review monitors resulted in a penalty kick awarded to New England. Forward Ignatius Ganago was fouled in the box to earn the penalty opportunity, which Gil calmly buried to secure the three points for New England.

Ganago, Alhassan Yusuf, and Mamadou Fofana all started the match after returning late in the week from international duty. Yusuf and Matt Polster paired together in the midfield, with the latter completing 90.4 percent of his passes on the day. Ganago recorded four shots, tied with Gil for the game high, with two on target. Gil finished the night with three-of-four shot attempts on frame and three key passes.

Saturday's contest marked the season debuts for Revolution defenders Wyatt Omsberg and Tanner Beason, each making their first appearance with the club. Omsberg, the first Revolution player to hail from Maine, earned his first start of the season before an injury forced him off in the 37th minute, when he was replaced by Beason. In addition, 17-year-old Homegrown product Peyton Miller, who missed the opening four matches with a groin injury, started in his season debut.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Saturday's match marked the 100th all-time meeting between the Revs and Red Bulls across all competitions, with New England holding a 43-36-21 edge.
- Carles Gil scored his 40th in MLS, making him the fourth player in club history to record 40 goals and 40 assists for the club in regular season play, joining Lee Nguyen, Diego Fagundez, and Steve Ralston.
- Gil has converted 13-of-15 penalty attempts in MLS play with the Revolution.
- Gil's fourth career MLS brace was his first since Oct. 7, 2023 at Orlando.
- Ignatius Ganago tied Gil for the team lead with four shots, two on target, and drew the foul that led to the penalty kick in his fifth MLS start.
- Defender Keegan Hughes made his first team debut as a late second-half substitute.

MATCH #6 At FC CINCINNATI: APRIL 5, 2025

1-0

The New England Revolution (1-4-1, 4 pts.) fell on the road to FC Cincinnati (4-2-1, 13 pts.), 1-0, on a rainy Saturday at TQL Stadium. Despite attempting a season high 15 shots, including two off the woodwork, New England was stymied by the hosts who broke the deadlock in the 65th minute.

The teams battled through a scoreless first half as New England struck the post twice. Defender Brayan Ceballos, returning to the starting lineup after missing last weekend's match with a leg injury, thumped a header off the post from a Carles Gil corner kick. Seven minutes later, Ignatius Ganago fired a quick shot through the hands of Cincinnati goalkeeper Roman Celentano and off the frame. The hosts were close to a breakthrough in the final five minutes of the first half, with Kévin Denkey and Luca Orellano each narrowly missing wide.

Cincinnati scored the lone goal of the contest in the 65th minute when Sergio Santos tapped a feed in front from Pavel Bucha, who picked up a rebound off a save by Revolution goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačič. The Slovenian stopped four shots on the night. Ceballos nearly pulled New England level in the 77th minute, but his header was denied by Celentano. Ceballos, Ganago, Gil, and Matt Polster all recorded three shots, with Ganago tallying a pair on target.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Brayan Ceballos returned to the matchday squad after missing last weekend's contest with a leg injury. The defender had three shots, with one on target, and struck the post in the 24th minute.
- Ignatius Ganago continues to play every minute of his first MLS campaign, registering three shots including two on target.
- Carles Gil also tallied three shots, along with a game-high four chances created.
- Matt Polster had three shots and two key passes in his third consecutive start, logging 90 minutes for a second straight week.
- Peyton Miller made his second straight start at left back.
- Maxi Urruti logged 55 minutes in his third straight start up top for New England, notching his 300th career MLS appearance to become the 11th active player to reach that milestone.
- Luis Diaz appeared off the bench for a sixth straight match to begin the season.
- Jackson Yueill also made a substitute appearance, logging three chances created in 35 minutes off the bench.

MATCH #7 AT ATLANTA UNITED FC: APRIL 12, 2025

0-1

The New England Revolution (2-4-1, 7 pts.) secured their first road win of the season, shutting out Atlanta United FC (2-3-3, 9 pts.), 1-0, on Saturday afternoon, April 12, at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. Revolution midfielder Carles Gil netted the lone goal of the match after drawing a penalty in the first half, while goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačič collected his second clean sheet of the season with five saves.

Atlanta thought they had the game's first breakthrough when Miguel Almiron curled a shot past Ivačič, but the goal was negated for offside after video review. New England opened the scoring soon after in the 36th minute after Gil was fouled inside the box. He buried the ensuing penalty kick into the top-left corner, beating his former Aston Villa teammate Brad Guzan, for the game's only tally.

The goal was Gil's third in as many games and his second penalty conversion of the season. It marked the Spaniard's 42nd MLS regular season goal and 115th career goal contribution, tying Steve Ralston for the sixth and second most in team annals, respectively. The captain led the team with five shots on the day, three on target, with four key passes. Forward Maxi Urruti also placed three attempts on frame, including two well-hit strikes from outside the area that tested Guzan in the first half.

After the intermission, Revolution Head Coach Caleb Porter deployed several substitutes to see out the win, headlined by the returns of forwards Leo Campana and Tomás Chancalay from injury. Campana entered the pitch in the 58th minute for his fourth appearance of the season, having missed the last three games with a hamstring strain. For Chancalay, it was the Argentine's first action since a knee injury last May. The Designated Player recorded one shot in his season debut.

In net for New England, Ivačič recorded five saves behind a three-man backline en route to the team's second clean sheet of the season. The Revolution's center back trio of Mamadou Fofana, Brayan Ceballos, and Tanner Beason limited Atlanta to only five shots on target to New England's seven. Beason, a regular starter over the previous five seasons in San Jose, played all 90 minutes in his first start with New England today. Playing higher up the wings, Ilay Feingold and Peyton Miller also contributed two-way efforts in the win.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The Revolution are now 6-1-2 in the last nine meetings with Atlanta, as today marked their second win at Mercedes-Benz Stadium (last: 2021).
- New England's attack logged a season-high of seven shots on goal this afternoon, better than Atlanta's five shots on target, and finished the contest with 12 total shot attempts.
- Carles Gil netted his third goal of the season, scoring via penalty kick in the 36th minute of today's match. Gil is now 14 of 16 on penalty kick attempts since arriving in New England in 2019, with six consecutive conversions. The captain moves into a tie for sixth on the club's goal scoring list, tied with Steve Ralston, as he equals Ralston for the second-most goal contributions with 115.
- Gil now has five goals and six assists over nine career games played against Atlanta United FC, including tallies in each of his last three visits to Mercedes-Benz Stadium.
- Tomás Chancalay registered his first appearance since sustaining a knee injury on May 25, 2024. The 26-year-old striker from Argentina played 12 minutes off the bench, with one shot and one foul won.
- Maxi Urruti featured in the Starting XI for the fourth consecutive match and finished with a season-high three shots on target over 58 minutes.
- Aljaž Ivačič tallied a five-save performance en route to his second clean sheet of the 2025 campaign. Ivačič has now collected three victories in four career games against Atlanta.

MATCH #8 vs NEW YORK CITY FC: APRIL 19, 2025

2-0

The New England Revolution (3-4-1, 10 pts.) defeated New York City FC (3-4-2, 11 pts.), 2-0, on Saturday, April 19 in front of 21,081 fans at Gillette Stadium. Ecuadorian forward Leo Campana opened his New England account, while Cameroon international Ignatius Ganago posted a goal-and-assist performance. In the second half, Revolution midfielder Carles Gil tallied his 74th MLS assist, passing club legend Steve Ralston for the most regular season assists in team annals.

With tonight's triumph, the Revolution have now posted victories in three of their last four games, including two consecutive clean sheets, with back-to-back wins at home. New England's strong defensive form continues with their third shutout through eight matches, as their seven goals allowed are only one more than the league low.

The Eastern Conference clash appeared to be headed towards a scoreless first half until Campana broke the stalemate with his first goal of the 2025 MLS season, also his first in a Revolution jersey. Campana connected with Ganago on a give-and-go in the penalty area to set up a first-time shot, which took a deflection and sailed past New York City's diving goalkeeper into the net. In his first start since suffering a hamstring injury on March 8, Campana led New England's attack with four shots, two on target.

New England wasted no time doubling its lead after the intermission as Ganago fired home an insurance goal in the 48th minute. After taking a short corner, Gil created space for himself to fire in a curling cross, which found Ganago open on the doorstep for a simple finish. With the assist, Gil passed Ralston (73) for the most regular season helpers in team history, while he also jumped Ralston (115) for the second most goal contributions for New England.

In net for New England, Aljaz Ivačič posted a two-save performance to collect his second consecutive clean sheet, the club's third of the season. The Slovenian goalkeeper was protected by a center back trio of Mamadou Fofana, Brayan Ceballos, and Tanner Beason, who held New York City without a shot on target for over 85 minutes. On the wings, Israel international Ilay Feingold made his eighth straight appearance, while Homegrown player Peyton Miller recorded one shot on target in his fourth consecutive start.

POSTGAME NOTES

- New England has not conceded in 205 minutes and has allowed only one goal in the last 325 minutes of action.
- Tonight marks the first time the Revolution have kept consecutive clean sheets since March 2023.
- The Revolution improved to 11-10-6 in the all-time regular season series against New York City FC, snapping a six-match winless run in all competitions against The Pigeons.
- Carles Gil set the Revolution record for assists (MLS reg. season) with the 74th helper of his career, passing Steve Ralston to set the new club mark. Gil registered his fourth goal contribution in the last four games. His 116 goal contributions in MLS are now second most in club history, ahead of Ralston's 115.
- Leo Campana tallied his first goal for the club in the 43rd minute, pacing the Revolution attack with a team-high four shots. Campana started for the third time this season, his first since March 8, and was the lone change to the starting lineup from last week's contest.
- Ignatius Ganago notched his first goal-and-assist performance in MLS, assisting Campana's opening tally before scoring early in the second half. The Cameroonian had three shots, including two on target, along with two chances created.
- Tomás Chancalay made his second straight appearance since returning from a 322-day injury absence.

2025 SEASON NOTES

2025 MLS REGULAR SEASON MATCH RECAPS

MATCH #9 AT CHARLOTTE FC: APRIL 26, 2025

0-1

The New England Revolution (4-4-1; 13 pts.) posted their third straight shutout victory, and the team's fourth win in the last five matches, with a 1-0 triumph over Charlotte FC (6-3-1; 19 pts.) on Saturday, April 26, at Bank of America Stadium. Midfielder Carles Gil broke a scoreless deadlock with the game-winning goal in the 77th minute, a left-footed curler assisted by Luca Langoni. With tonight's clean sheet, the Revolution tied the club record for fewest goals allowed through nine games (7 - 2005).

New England is the first visiting side to collect points at Bank of America Stadium this season from Charlotte FC, which entered tonight's match with a perfect 5-0-0 home record and eight straight home wins. After a scoreless opening 45 minutes, the Revolution kept the pressure on in the second half, creating multiple chances in search of the game's opening goal. Forward Ignatius Ganago, making the 200th appearance of his club career, nearly broke the ice in the 58th minute with a low finish inside the far post, set up by Gil's lofted pass, but his goal was ruled offsides to keep the match level.

New England's pressure paid dividends in the 77th minute, when Gil curled in the winning goal past the outstretched hands of Charlotte FC goalkeeper Kristijan Kahlina. Gil, New England's leading scorer with four goals in 2025, has netted three game-winning tallies this season. The Spanish playmaker has found the scoresheet in three of the last five matches, with four goals and one assist during that span. Gil finished tonight's match with two shots, one on target, and two key passes. Langoni was credited with an assist on the play, his first of the campaign.

On the defensive end, New England goalkeeper Aljaž Ivračič recorded a four-save performance en route to his fourth clean sheet of the 2025 campaign. The last time the Revolution kept three consecutive clean sheets was in the 2022 season. The Revolution's trio of central defenders, Mamadou Fofana, Brayan Ceballos, and North Carolina native Tanner Beason, comprised the starting backline for all three of the team's shutout wins. On the outside, Homegrown Player Peyton Miller suited up for his fifth straight start, while Ilay Feingold earned his ninth appearance of the campaign.

Veteran midfielder Matt Polster reached a career milestone tonight as he suited up for his 200th MLS regular season start. Forward Leo Campana made his second start and third consecutive appearance since returning from injury, submitting a 73-minute shift. He was replaced by Tomás Chancalay, who has also logged three successive appearances since making his way back from injury earlier this month.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Saturday's 1-0 victory was the third consecutive shutout victory for New England and its fourth win in the last five games.
- New England matches its club record for the fewest goals allowed through the first nine games of a season (7, last in 2005).
- The Revolution have kept three straight shutouts for the first time since August 2022.
- New England snapped Charlotte FC's eight-match home winning streak, becoming the first side to take points at Bank of America Stadium this season.
- The Revolution improved to 5-2-0 in the all-time series with Charlotte, including a 2-2-0 road mark.
- Saturday's clean sheet was the third by New England away from home this season, as the team evened its road record at 2-2-1 on the campaign.
- Carles Gil made his 175th Revolution start across all competitions, marking the occasion with his fourth goal of the campaign. The tally was his fifth goal contribution in the last five matches. Gil scored his third game-winning goal of the season and also registered two key passes.
- Matt Polster logged his 200th MLS start on Saturday night, completing 95.7 percent of his passes for the game.
- Aljaž Ivračič made four saves, extending his and the team's shutout streak to 295 minutes.
- Ignatius Ganago registered the 200th professional appearance of his club career on Saturday, logging one shot on target.

MATCH #10 AT TORONTO FC: MAY 3, 2025

0-2

The New England Revolution (5-4-1; 16 pts.) claimed all three points against Toronto FC (1-6-4; 7 pts.), winning 2-0 at BMO Field on Saturday, May 3, behind goals from Carles Gil and Leo Campana. The Revolution extended their winning streak to four games, with five wins in their last six matches. The team's shut-out streak stands at 385 minutes, tied for the third longest in club history. For the first time, New England has posted three consecutive shutout wins on the road.

It only took 11 minutes for New England to gain the advantage through Gil, who recorded his team-leading fifth goal of the season. It was also his sixth goal contribution in as many games. Ilay Feingold's cross was headed away towards the top of the area, where the captain met it with a perfect volley into the top corner.

New England doubled its lead in the 27th minute as Leo Campana tallied his second goal for the Revolution, the 30th of his MLS regular season career. Alhassan Yusuf launched the counterattack by finding Campana on the break, and the Ecuadorian delivered a calm finish past Toronto goalkeeper Sean Johnson. Yusuf and fellow central midfielder Matt Polster were both pivotal in the win, each completing better than 90 percent of their pass attempts.

Campana created another golden opportunity for the visitors in the 32nd minute, when he played a quick pass to put Ignatius Ganago in on goal. The Cameroonian's shot was saved by Johnson, and Gil's follow-up attempt was also parried by the Toronto goalkeeper. Moments before halftime, Ganago nearly found himself on the scoresheet when he fired a shot on target, again created by Feingold's work on the right side, but Johnson made another impressive save to deny New England a third goal before halftime.

Goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačić, who now has shutouts in five of his 10 starts on the year, recorded four saves behind the three-man backline comprised entirely of offseason newcomers: Brayan Ceballos, Mamadou Fofana, and Tanner Beason.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Saturday's victory was New England's fourth in a row, and its fifth in the last six games.
- New England has collected four consecutive clean sheets for the first time since August 2022, and three straight shutout wins on the road for the first time in club history. The Revolution's current 385-minute shutout streak is now tied for the third longest in club history.
- New England's seven goals conceded are the club's fewest ever through the opening 10 matches of a season.
- The Revs' three road victories are tied for the most in MLS this season.
- The Revolution have still yet to trail at halftime in 2025.
- Head Coach Caleb Porter improves to 106-17-35 (.781) when his team scored first in MLS regular season play.
- Carles Gil tallied the opening goal for New England, his team-leading fifth of the season. The Spaniard now has six goal contributions in his last six games (5g, 1a). The goal was Gil's 10th game-winning tally in MLS, and his four game-winning goals this season are tied for the league lead.
- Gil's five goals are his most through the first 10 games of an MLS season.
- Gil joins San Jose's Cristian Espinoza as the only active players to be in the top five of both goals and assists for an original MLS club.
- Leo Campana scored his second goal of the season, assisted by Alhassan Yusuf, marking his second straight match at BMO Field with a goal. The Ecuadorian has now scored in two of the last three games.
- Ignatius Ganago recorded a season-high three shots on target.
- Aljaž Ivačić recorded four saves in Saturday's contest, extending his career-best shutout streak to four to his career-high mark of four consecutive shutout performances.

MATCH #11 AT ORLANDO CITY SC: MAY 10, 2025

3-3

The New England Revolution (5-4-2; 17 pts.) battled Orlando City SC (4-2-6; 18 pts.) to a thrilling 3-3 draw on Saturday, May 10 at Inter&Co Stadium. Orlando midfielder Martín Ojeda netted a hat trick, but Carles Gil's goal-and-assist performance helped the Revolution erase a pair of deficits and stretch their unbeaten run to five games in league play.

Ojeda scored twice in the opening 33 minutes to give the hosts a 2-0 lead, snapping the Revolution's shutout streak at 409 minutes, 10 minutes shy of equaling the club record. Facing a two-goal deficit, New England rallied to even the proceedings before halftime, ending Orlando's own MLS-long shutout streak at 563 minutes. Midfielder Alhassan Yusuf cut into the lead with his first MLS goal. Ignatius Ganago whipped in a cross from the left edge of the penalty area toward the back post, where Ilay Feingold tapped a cutback pass for the Nigerian to slot home from close range.

Yusuf's midfield partner, Matt Polster, leveled the score with his 10th career goal, his first since July 2023, flicking a header past Orlando goalkeeper Pedro Gallese off a Gil cross. Gil's assist was the 75th of his MLS career, extending his club record. Feingold earned a secondary assist on Polster's tally, giving the Israeli his first two MLS helpers and the first multi-assist game of his professional career.

As New England pushed forward in search of a fourth consecutive road win, momentum swung back towards the hosts when Ojeda put the Lions back ahead in the 55th minute, completing his hat trick from the penalty spot after Orlando's Joran Gerbet was fouled in the box. With time ticking down, Ganago was taken down in the Lions' penalty area. Gil stepped to the spot and calmly finished past Gallese for his sixth goal of the season. The Spaniard's 11th goal-and-assist performance in MLS also makes him only the fifth Revolution player with 50 goals in all competitions.

Revolution goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačić came up with five saves on the night to help secure the point for New England. The Slovenian's individual shutout streak (409 minutes) now stands as the second longest in team annals.

POSTGAME NOTES

- New England is unbeaten in its last six matches across all competitions, including a 4-0-1 mark over the past five MLS matches.
- The Revolution's away record moves to 3-2-2 on the season.
- New England's shutout streak came to an end at 409 minutes, the second-longest streak in club history.
- Matt Polster scored the 10th goal of his MLS career in his 225th league appearance, seven coming with the Revolution. His last MLS tally was on July 12, 2023 vs. Atlanta. The goal was also Polster's second against Orlando in his career, both coming at Inter&Co Stadium.
- Carles Gil primary assist on Yusuf's goal made him the first Revolution player to reach 75 regular season assists, doing so in 170 games played. Gil's goal from the penalty spot makes him the fifth Revolution player with 50 goals for the club in all competitions. His 45 MLS regular season goals are tied with Teal Bunbury for fourth most in team history.
- New England is 9-0-2 when Gil records a goal-and-assist performance in regular season play. In 10 regular season games against Orlando, Gil now has six goals and seven assists. The Revs' captain also improves to 15-of-17 from the penalty spot in his MLS career.
- Leo Campana paced the team with six shot attempts, equaling his career single-game high.
- Ilay Feingold registered his first two MLS assists, helping set up both of New England's goals.
- Aljaž Ivačić recorded five saves in the draw. As the team's shutout streak comes to an end, Ivačić now owns the second-longest individual shutout streak by a Revolution goalkeeper, behind Bobby Shuttleworth (419).

MATCH #12 vs SAN JOSE EARTHQUAKES: MAY 17, 2025

The New England Revolution (5-4-3; 18 pts.) played to a 0-0 draw against the San Jose Earthquakes (5-6-3; 18 pts.), stifling the league's top attacking team in front of a season-high crowd of 31,078 fans at Gillette Stadium on Saturday, May 17.

Tonight's draw saw the Revolution extend their unbeaten run to six league contests, as they collected their sixth clean sheet of the season and fifth shutout in the last six MLS matches. By holding San Jose's potent offense scoreless, limiting the visitors to only one shot on target, the Revolution maintained their status as the league's best defensive unit with only 10 goals conceded through 12 games.

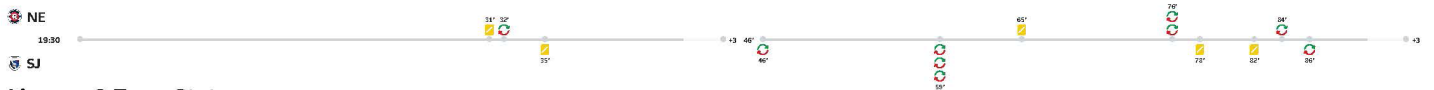

New England was forced to dip into the bench early, when forward Leo Campana, who tallied two shots on the night, sustained a leg injury in the 32nd minute. Luis Diaz, making his eighth substitute appearance this season, submitted a 58-minute shift in relief of Campana. Diaz tallied two shots on the night, including a header in the 52nd minute, though it was saved by former Revolution goalkeeper Earl Edwards Jr., who entered the game at halftime for San Jose in relief of starting goalkeeper Daniel. Midfielder Carles Gil also got involved in the attack with two shots, including one on target that was saved by Edwards.

After a scoreless first half, the Earthquakes nearly broke the deadlock in the 67th minute, as Paul Marie's shot nailed the cross bar. A minute later, Cameroonian forward Ignatius Ganago sent Gillette Stadium into a frenzy when he appeared to break the ice with a tidy finish inside the near post, made possible by an incisive pass from Gil, though his goal was ruled offside.

In net for New England, Aljaž Ivačič secured his sixth clean sheet of the season behind a backline of Brayan Ceballos, Tanner Beason, and Mamadou Fofana. Beason made the start against his former club as New England earned its fifth clean sheet in the six games he has started. On the wings, Israel international Ilay Feingold made his 12th consecutive appearance to open the season, while Homegrown player Peyton Miller recorded his eighth straight start.

POSTGAME NOTES

- New England extended its unbeaten run to six straight matches (4-0-2) in league play.
- Saturday marked the first meeting between New England and San Jose since 2019. The Revolution are now unbeaten in their last eight meetings with San Jose (4-0-4) dating back to 2013.
- New England has allowed a league-low 10 goals through 12 games with six shutouts, one behind the MLS leader (Minnesota - 7).
- New England is now 6-1-4 in its last 11 home games against Western Conference opponents, including eight consecutive matches without defeat (4-0-4).
- Matt Polster submitted another 90-minute shift one day after signing a contract extension that will keep the midfielder in New England through 2027.
- Aljaž Ivačič collected his sixth clean sheet of the season, matching his previous MLS career high from 2022.
- Luis Diaz played a season-long 58 minutes off the bench, replacing an injured Leo Campana in the first half. The Costa Rican logged one shot on target.
- Carles Gil had a team-high two chances created to go along with one shot on target.

2025 SEASON NOTES

2025 MLS REGULAR SEASON MATCH RECAPS

MATCH #13 AT SPORTING KANSAS CITY: MAY 24, 2025

3-3

The New England Revolution (5-4-4; 19 pts.) began a three-game road swing with a 3-3 draw against Sporting Kansas City (3-8-4; 13 pts.) at Children's Mercy Park on Saturday, May 24. New England extends its unbeaten streak to seven games as the team's away record moves to 3-2-3. The Revolution are undefeated in their last five games on the road (3-0-2), with multiple goals in each of their last three.

The Revolution were on the front foot from the opening whistle, creating multiple chances down the left side through Peyton Miller, who tested Kansas City's backline with three early crosses in the first eight minutes. New England was rewarded with the opening goal in the 14th minute as Tomás Chancalay, making his first MLS start of the season in his return from injury, finished off an assist from Ignatius Ganago. It was Revolution captain Carles Gil's through ball to Ganago that unbalanced the defense, as both players picked up their third assist of the season.

It took less than 10 minutes for the Revolution to double the lead on an own goal charged to Sporting's Jacob Bartlett in the 22nd minute. Ilay Feingold charged in from the right side and connected with Gil, who switched play with a line-breaking diagonal pass to Miller. The 17-year-old Homegrown sent a hard roller across the face of goal toward Alhassan Yusuf, which Bartlett deflected into his own net. The chances continued for New England for the rest of the half, as Chancalay tested SKC goalkeeper John Puskamp with two long-range shots on target. In the 42nd minute, Feingold found the Argentinian alone in the center of the penalty area, but his shot was sent over the bar. Chancalay finished the first half with five shots and three on target, tied for his single-game career high.

Kansas City recaptured momentum in the second half, pulling a goal back in the 53rd minute through their captain Daniel Salloi. His first effort was saved by Revolution goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačič, but the rebound fell kindly to Salloi, who made no mistake with the follow up. Soon after, Mamadou Fofana was called for a foul in the box and Dejan Joveljić converted from the penalty spot for the equalizer. In the 61st minute, the hosts pulled ahead on a goal by Manu García.

The Revolution pulled level in the 84th minute on a combination by two second-half substitutes. Alhassan Yusuf played a long pass to spring Luis Diaz in behind the Kansas City defense. The veteran winger slipped a pass into the path of Maxi Urruti, who tapped home his first MLS goal for the club in his 10th appearance of the campaign.

POSTGAME NOTES

- New England extended its unbeaten streak to seven consecutive matches (4-0-3) dating back to April 12.
- The Revolution have collected points in six of eight road matches this season, tallying a 3-2-3 away record (3-0-2 in last five).
- The five-game away unbeaten streak is New England's first since 2021.
- The Revolution are 3-0-2 in their last five meetings with Sporting Kansas City.
- Tomás Chancalay made his first MLS start since a May 2024 knee injury and opened his 2025 MLS account with a goal in the 14th minute. Chancalay finished tonight's match with five shots, including three on target, the latter tying his career high.
- Ignatius Ganago now has three assists this season, tied with Gil for the team lead. The Cameroonian has four goal contributions in the last six matches.
- Carles Gil's assist tonight gives him nine goal contributions in the last nine games (6G, 3A). Gil registered a game-high four key passes in addition to three fouls won. He surpasses Shalrie Joseph (421) for the most fouls suffered in team history.
- Alhassan Yusuf, who suited up for his 20th MLS appearance, has reached the scoresheet in three of the last four matches. Yusuf completed 93.9 percent of his passes in the match.

MATCH #14 AT D.C. UNITED: MAY 28, 2025

1-1

The New England Revolution (5-4-5; 20 pts.) duelled D.C. United (3-7-6; 15 pts.) to a 1-1 draw at Audi Field on Wednesday, May 28. Defender Ilay Feingold scored his first MLS goal to open his Revolution account. Tonight's draw extended the Revolution's unbeaten run to eight games, while the team remains undefeated in their last six road contests (3-0-3), with points in seven of their nine games away from home (3-2-4).

Feingold broke the stalemate moments before halftime, finding the back of the net three minutes into first-half stoppage time. Revolution playmaker Carles Gil initiated the play, slotting a pass up the right flank to Brandon Bye, who delivered a cross into the box. A deflection off a D.C. United defender sent the ball to the feet of Feingold, and the 20-year-old calmly buried his shot to give New England the 1-0 edge just before the midway break.

The Revolution nearly doubled their lead in the second half, with winger Luis Diaz firing back-to-back shots on target within a four-minute span. The Costa Rican submitted a 23-minute shift in relief of Argentine forward Tomás Chancalay, who logged his second consecutive start tonight. Despite New England's attempts to add an insurance goal, it was the hosts who found an equalizer as Gabriel Pirani netted the tying goal at the 90-minute mark.

Diaz provided a spark off the bench for New England, finishing the night with three shots, including two on target, in his 10th appearance of the 2025 campaign. Gil and midfielder Alhassan Yusuf also contributed to the attacking efforts with three shots each, while Gil also logged a game-high six key passes.

With Brayan Ceballos sidelined with a head injury, defender Wyatt Omsberg stepped into the backline between Mamadou Fofana and Tanner Beason. Omsberg, a Maine native, recorded his second straight appearance and his second start of the season. In net, Aljaž Ivačič posted a three-save performance.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The Revolution extended their unbeaten streak to eight matches (4-0-4), tied for the second-longest active streak in MLS.
- New England has recorded points in seven of nine road games, including results in six consecutive away matches (3-0-3).
- New England's away record moves to 3-2-4 on the season.
- Wednesday marked the 99th all-time meeting between New England and D.C. United. The Revolution own a 40-42-17 record in the series across all competitions.
- The Revolution remain the lone side in MLS yet to trail at the half this season, while the team's four goals conceded in the first half is tied for the second fewest in the league.
- Ilay Feingold scored his first MLS goal, also the first of his professional career for the 20-year-old defender.
- Tanner Beason made a ninth consecutive start in central defense for New England.
- Wyatt Omsberg made his second start of the season, recording a game-high six clearances.
- Carles Gil recorded six key passes and six fouls won, both game highs.
- Brandon Bye earned his fourth start and 12th appearance of the season.
- Luis Diaz registered three shots, including two on target, in 23 minutes off the bench.

2025 SEASON NOTES

2025 MLS REGULAR SEASON MATCH RECAPS

MATCH #15 AT CF MONTREAL: MAY 31, 2025

0-3

The New England Revolution (6-4-5; 23 pts.) concluded their three-game road week with a 3-0 triumph against CF Montréal (1-11-5; 8 pts.) at Stade Saputo on Saturday, May 31. After Montréal was reduced to 10 men by a Giacomo Vrioni red card in the 37th minute, Revolution Homegrown Player Peyton Miller tallied his first MLS goal and added an assist, while Ilay Feingold recorded two second-half goals to seal the three points for the visitors. With the victory, the Revs extended their unbeaten streak to nine games, the club's longest since 2022, with six clean sheets during that span. New England's seven-game away undefeated streak is its longest since 2019, as the Revolution have now earned points in eight of their 10 away games this season (4-2-4).

After Vrioni was issued a red card in the 37th minute, New England ramped up the pressure in search of the breakthrough against the 10-man Montréal side. Moments before halftime, Ignatius Ganago drove into the penalty area and fired a shot just wide of the frame for New England's best chance of the first half.

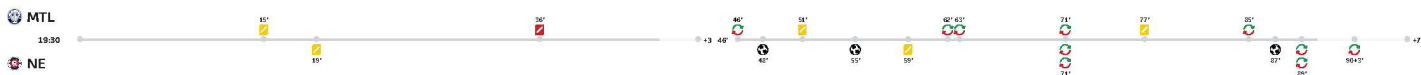

After the intermission, New England wasted no time breaking the stalemate as Miller opened his MLS account in the 48th minute. The 17-year-old snuck inside of his defender and got his left foot on the end of Feingold's cross, tucking a low volley into the far corner for the game winner. Moments later, Feingold doubled the lead with a powerful left-footed finish off a feed from Matt Polster.

The Revolution's dynamic wingbacks once again linked up for the third goal of the night. This time roles were reversed as Miller's arching cross set up Feingold for his second goal of the night, giving the Israeli his first career brace and six goal contributions in the last five starts. Charles Gil was credited with an assist on the play, his fourth of the campaign.

In net for New England, Aljaž Ivačić made two saves en route to his seventh clean sheet of the season, a new career high for the Slovenian. In central defense, Keegan Hughes logged all 90 minutes in his first MLS start, alongside Tanner Beason and Mamadou Fofana.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The Revolution's unbeaten streak now stands at nine games (5-0-4), the club's longest since 2022, with six clean sheets in that span.
- New England's seven-game road undefeated streak is the club's longest since 2019, as the team's away record improves to 4-2-4.
- The Revolution have scored three goals in three of the last five games.
- In their seventh shutout performance of the season, the Revs limited a 10-man Montreal side to only one shot on target.
- New England's all-time record against CF Montreal moves to 17-13-4 and an even 8-8-2 in Quebec.
- 17-year-old defender Peyton Miller scored his first MLS goal in the 48th minute and tacked on his second career assist in the second half.
- Ilay Feingold delivered the assist on Miller's goal before adding two goals of his own in the second half, scoring in the 55th and 87th minutes.
- Feingold now has six goal contributions in his last five starts (3G, 3A), including three goals in the last two games.
- In his 12th start of the season, Matt Polster picked up his first assist of the campaign on Feingold's second-half goal.
- Keegan Hughes recorded his first MLS start in the shutout performance, his third appearance of the season.
- Goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačić recorded two saves in his seventh shutout of the season, a new career high, surpassing his previous best mark (6) set in 2022.
- Charles Gil earned a secondary assist on Feingold's 87th-minute goal, his fourth assist of the season. Gil has 10 goal contributions in his last 11 games (6G, 4A).
- Tonight's match marked Brandon Bye's 200th appearance for the Revolution in all competitions.
- Eric Klein made his MLS debut as a second-half substitute, becoming only the second second-generation player in Revolution history after his father, Steve Klein, played for the club in 1997.

MATCH #16 vs FC CINCINNATI: JUNE 14, 2025

0-1

The New England Revolution (6-5-5; 23 pts.) fell to FC Cincinnati (10-5-3, 33 pts.), 1-0, on Saturday, June 14 in front of 27,184 fans at Gillette Stadium in the opening match of a three-game homestand. A first-half strike by Cincinnati's Kévin Denkey provided the game's only goal, ending New England's unbeaten streak at nine games.

The second meeting of the season between New England and FC Cincinnati began as a back-and-forth affair that saw each side trade scoring chances at either end. The visitors opened the scoring midway through the first half, with Kévin Denkey slotting home his 11th goal of the season off a low cross from Luca Orellano in the 26th minute. Revolution goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačič had kept his net clean with two quick-reaction stops in the game's early moments, both the result of deflections off a New England defender, before Denkey was able to elevate his shot over Ivačič from close range to provide the difference.

New England pushed for the equalizer before halftime, generating four shots in the final 20 minutes of the opening stanza and forcing Cincinnati goalkeeper Roman Celentano into a pair of saves. After the break, New England continued to press for a goal despite missing the services of key attacking pieces in Leo Campana, Ignatius Ganago, and Luca Langoni, all of whom were absent due to injury. Luis Diaz made his first start of the regular season alongside forward Tomás Chancalay, who recorded three shot attempts in the contest.

In the second half, Maxi Urruti was deployed off the bench as Head Coach Caleb Porter searched for an attacking spark. The Argentine made an immediate impact with a well-hit shot from a narrow angle, but the powerful strike rippled the side netting. New England had one final chance with a free kick from 25 yards out in second-half stoppage time. Carles Gil, playing in his 175th MLS regular season match for New England, sent a curling effort over the bar.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The Revolution's nine-game undefeated streak from April 12 - May 31 was the club's longest since 2022.
- In the last 12 games, New England's only two losses were narrow 1-0 defeats to FC Cincinnati.
- Tonight's match marked the first time this season the Revolution trailed at halftime.
- Through 16 games, the Revolution have conceded only 15 goals, one more than the league low (Vancouver - 14).
- Carles Gil made his 175th MLS regular season appearance for New England in his 16th start of the season.
- Tomás Chancalay tallied a team-high three shot attempts, including one on target.
- Luis Diaz made his first MLS start for New England, also his first MLS start since October 2022.
- 17-year-old Homegrown defender Peyton Miller returned from international duty (U.S. Under-20s) to lead the team with three key passes.
- Brayan Ceballos returned to the starting lineup after missing two matches with a head injury.
- Tonight was the 399th match of Head Coach Caleb Porter's professional club coaching career, including games in all competitions with New England, Columbus Crew, and Portland Timbers. He will coach his 400th professional match on Wednesday, June 25 vs. Nashville.

MATCH #17 vs NASHVILLE SC: JUNE 25, 2025

2-3

The New England Revolution (6-6-5; 23 pts.) fell to Nashville SC (10-4-5; 35 pts.), 3-2, on Wednesday, June 25 at Gillette Stadium. Argentinian forward Tomás Chancalay contributed a goal and assist, while Colombian defender Brayan Ceballos opened his Revolution account with a headed goal in the contest.

New England started the night on the front foot, claiming an early lead in the 15th minute. A lofted long ball from Spanish playmaker Carles Gil found the foot of Chancalay, who brought the ball down with a clean touch and buried his shot past Nashville's Joe Willis. Gil recorded his fifth assist of the season on the set-piece goal, marking his 11th goal contribution in the last 13 games. Chancalay led New England's attack with four shots on the night, putting two on target.

The visitors ramped up the pressure on New England, firing two shots off the woodwork in the first half. In the 39th minute, Gil etched his name into Revolution history as the 12th player to reach 15,000 regular season minutes played for the club. Shortly after, Nashville pulled even when forward Sam Surridge scored in first-half stoppage time to level the match at 1-1 heading into the break.

New England reclaimed the lead in the 49th minute, with Ceballos heading home his first MLS goal, capitalizing on a pinpoint delivery from Chancalay, his first helper of the campaign. However, Nashville equalized again on a goal credited to Surridge in the 51st minute. The English forward completed his hat trick seven minutes later with a goal from the penalty spot to give the visitors a 3-2 advantage.

In search of a tying goal, Head Coach Caleb Porter deployed several second-half substitutes, including Leo Campana and Luca Langoni, both returning from injury. Campana made his first appearance after missing four games, while Langoni returned to the pitch after a six-game absence. Tonight's contest also marked a milestone for Porter, who managed his 400th game of his professional club career in his 11th season as an MLS head coach.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Head Coach Caleb Porter coached the 400th match of his professional club career (all competitions) on Wednesday night.
- Tomás Chancalay recorded the first goal-and-assist performance of his MLS career. The Argentine scored his second goal of the regular season, his 10th in MLS play, before adding a second-half assist.
- Carles Gil became the 12th player in club history to surpass 15,000 MLS minutes with the club, marking the occasion with his team-leading fifth assist of the season on Chancalay's opening goal. Gil registered a team-high three key passes.
- Brayan Ceballos tallied his first MLS goal, heading in a cross from Chancalay off a set piece.
- Leo Campana made his return to action after missing four matches with a hamstring injury. The Ecuadorian logged 25 minutes off the bench.
- Luca Langoni also returned to the pitch for the first time since May 7, playing 18 minutes.
- Jackson Yueill made his first MLS start since March 15, slotting in for Matt Polster who missed the midweek match with an illness.

MATCH #18 vs COLORADO RAPIDS: JUNE 25, 2025

3-3

The New England Revolution (6-6-6; 24 pts.) rallied back from a three-goal deficit to draw the Colorado Rapids (7-8-5; 26 pts.) 3-3, on Saturday, June 28. After conceding a third goal to the visiting Rapids shortly after halftime, an own goal and late tallies by Carles Gil and Maxi Urruti gave the Revolution a hard-fought point in the final match of a three-game homestand.

New England nearly opened the scoring in the seventh minute when Peyton Miller launched a shot on target, set up by a pass from Alhassan Yusuf, who made his 25th MLS appearance tonight. Yusuf connected with one of New England's eight first-half corners with an attempt in the 20th minute, but it was saved by Rapids goalkeeper Nicholas Hansen.

Colorado struck first in the 29th minute on a counter attack finished off by midfielder Calvin Harris, who capitalized on a second opportunity after Revolution goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačić's initial save. The Rapids added to their lead in the 40th minute as forward Rafael Navarro converted inside the box, assisted by Darren Yapi. Forward Leo Campana, in his first start since returning from injury, responded with a powerful shot from outside the area, but it was saved by Hansen. Campana and Luca Langoni, who relieved an injured Tomás Chancalay in the 40th minute, both recorded headed shots at the end of the half. The Revolution entered the intermission scoreless, despite controlling the opening stanza with 72.2 percent possession and 10 shot attempts.

To start the second half, Yapi logged his second assist of the match by setting up Ted Ku-Dipietro's goal in the 55th minute, extending the lead to 3-0. Three minutes later, New England began their charge back into the match as Gil danced on the left side of the box and sent in a dangerous cross, which Colorado's Sam Vines deflected into his own net.

New England deployed several substitutions with Maxi Urruti and Ilay Feingold coming into the match to close the two-goal gap. Luis Diaz also made his 100th MLS appearance as an 81st-minute substitute. Soon after, the Revolution were awarded a penalty kick after Gil was pulled down in the box. The captain calmly converted his seventh goal of the season to make it 3-2. In stoppage time, Tanner Beason juked a defender and curled a cross into the box directly onto Urruti's head. The veteran forward nodded his header into the corner of the net for the dramatic equalizer, his second goal of the campaign. With the tying goal, the Revolution erased a three-goal deficit to earn a result for the first time in club history.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Tonight's match was the first time New England erased a three-goal deficit to earn a point in club history.
- The Revolution are unbeaten in their last seven home matches against Colorado (5-0-2) dating back to 2011.
- The Revolution extended their home unbeaten run to eight games against Western Conference opponents.
- Carles Gil recorded four shot attempts, three on target, and logged a team-high six key passes. Gil converted from the penalty spot in the second half, improving to 16-for-18 in his MLS career. Gil's 16 career penalty goals in MLS play are now one shy of Lee Nguyen's club record (17).
- The goal moved Gil past Teal Bunbury into sole possession of fourth place on the club's all-time scoring list. He is five goal contributions shy of tying Taylor Twellman's club record (129).
- Tanner Beason provided his first assist of the campaign, and his first in MLS since May 2023.
- Wyatt Omsberg earned the 50th start of his MLS career, his third start in six appearances this season.
- Luis Diaz recorded his 100th MLS regular season appearance, playing against his former club.

MATCH #19 AT PORTLAND TIMBERS FC: JULY 5, 2025

2-1

The New England Revolution (6-7-6; 24 pts.) were defeated, 2-1, by Portland Timbers FC (9-5-6; 33 pts.) at Providence Park on Saturday, July 5. Forward Luca Langoni scored his first goal of the season in the match. With the loss, New England's road unbeaten streak ends at seven games.

The Revolution had the first big chance of the night in the 17th minute when Peyton Miller got behind his defender and found himself in alone on goal, but the young wingback sent his shot directly at Portland's Maxime Crépeau. The Timbers then struck first in the 20th minute as rookie Ian Smith put his laces through a shot that found the top corner.

New England found its breakthrough through Luca Langoni in the 35th minute, capitalizing with a direct counterattack to level the match. Tanner Beason started the surge forward with an interception at the top of his own penalty area and played it wide to Carles Gil, who launched his delivery to a streaking Langoni. The Argentinian dribbled into the box, chopped the ball onto his left foot, and calmly rolled it into the far corner for his first goal of the season. Gil's seventh assist of the year gives him a helper in three straight games, and 14 combined goals and assists in the last 15 games.

Several more quality chances for the Revolution late in the first half and early in the second for the Revolution had the visitors inches away from an advantage. Leo Campana fired high on two occasions, and Langoni sent another shot inches wide of the net. Campana tested Crépeau with a powerful strike on target in the 57th minute, but the shot was parried away.

The Revolution found themselves trailing again in the 72nd minute after Timbers midfielder David Da Costa fired the hosts back ahead. His curling shot from distance found its way through traffic and just past the outstretched palm of goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačič. Less than five minutes later, Santiago Moreno unleashed a similar shot that was bending on target, but this time Ivačič was up to the test and punched it clear. Ivačič denied Moreno again in the 86th minute, one of his three saves on the night.

Head Coach Caleb Porter, coaching his first game in the visitors' technical area at Providence Park after five years at the helm of the Timbers from 2013-17, deployed attacking substitutes Maxi Urruti and Luis Diaz as his side pressed for an equalizer. One of New England's best chances of the later stages came in the 88th minute as Gil sent a left-footed cross onto the head of Alhassan Yusuf at the back post, but pressure from a Timbers defender forced the effort off target.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Saturday's result snaps New England's road unbeaten run at seven games, tied for the longest in club history.
- Tonight was Head Coach Caleb Porter's first match at Providence Park since departing the Timbers in 2017.
- Luca Langoni earned his first start in MLS since April 5 and tallied his first goal of the season.
- Carles Gil recorded an assist for a third straight match, his seventh of the regular season and 80th of his MLS regular season career. Gil, who added three key passes on the night, has found the scoresheet in all three of his career games at Providence Park.
- Tanner Beason logged the 100th start of his MLS regular season career.
- Aljaž Ivačič recorded his 25th career start at Providence Park, his first as a visitor.
- Matt Polster made his 150th MLS appearance for New England, completing 93.1 percent of his passes.
- Leo Campana registered a team-high four shot attempts in the match.

MATCH #20 vs INTER MIAMI CF: JULY 9, 2025

1-2

The New England Revolution (6-8-6; 24 pts.) were defeated by Inter Miami CF (10-3-5; 35 pts.), 2-1, with 43,293 fans in attendance at Gillette Stadium on Wednesday, July 9. Inter Miami captain Lionel Messi completed a brace with two goals in the first half, while Spanish playmaker Carles Gil scored New England's lone goal in the second half.

In front of the fourth-largest regular season crowd in Revolution club history, Inter Miami got on the board first in the 27th minute. A giveaway by New England's backline fell kindly to the feet of Messi near the penalty spot. The reigning MLS MVP slotted his first-time finish past Revolution goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačič for the opening tally.

Roughly 10 minutes later, Inter Miami doubled its lead as midfielder Sergio Busquets played a through ball to Messi, who finished the play for his second goal of the night in the 38th minute. New England nearly pulled one back shortly before intermission, with Leo Campana drilling a shot on target, but Miami goalkeeper Oscar Ustari punched it away to preserve Miami's advantage.

The Revolution heaped on the pressure after the intermission in search of a breakthrough. Head Coach Caleb Porter turned to his bench and deployed forward Tomás Chancalay in the 62nd minute. Soon after, Chancalay had his best chance of the match when a shot from Campana forced a save by Ustari. Chancalay pounced on the rebound but put his shot off the side netting.

New England cut Miami's lead in half in the 79th minute, as Gil weaved his way through Miami's defense and finished with his right foot for his team-leading eighth goal of the season. The Revolution captain has reached the scoresheet in four straight games and is now only two goal contributions away from tying the club record held by Taylor Twellman.

Gil and Campana each registered four shot attempts to lead the home side, with Campana also recording three key passes in a 90-minute shift against his former club. Luca Langoni started for the second straight match and also ended the night with three key passes.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Wednesday night's attendance of 43,293 marks the fifth-largest home crowd in Revolution history, and the fourth largest in regular season play.
- New England outshot Inter Miami 16-13, with a 6-3 advantage in shots on target, and held a 2.3-1.5 advantage in expected goals (xG).
- Carles Gil tallied his team-leading eighth goal of the season. The Spaniard registered four shots, two on frame, and three chances created. Over his last 16 starts, Gil has 15 combined goals and assists. Gil now has 127 goal contributions in MLS regular season play, two shy of the club record (129).
- Leo Campana started against his former club for the first time, recording a team-high four shots, two on target, along with three key passes.
- Alhassan Yusuf made his 25th MLS start. He is one of three Revolution players to have started every match of the 2025 campaign.
- Luca Langoni logged his 25th appearance for the club across all competitions - his second straight start - and finished the night with three key passes.

MATCH #21 AT AUSTIN FC: JULY 12, 2025

0-0

The New England Revolution (6-8-7; 25 pts.) battled Austin FC (7-8-6, 27 pts.) to a 0-0 draw at Q2 Stadium on Saturday, July 12. In New England's first visit to Austin, Revolution goalkeeper Aljaž Ivačič made four saves as New England collected its eighth clean sheet of the campaign in the stalemate. With the draw, New England's away record moves to 4-3-5, with results in eight of the team's last nine away contests.

The hosts had a pair of opportunities to open the scoring inside the opening 15 minutes. First, Jon Gallagher was stifled by Revolution defender Brayan Ceballos, whose sliding effort blocked a would-be goal in the 11th minute. Four minutes later, Ivačič came up with a point-blank stop on Austin's Myrto Uzuni to keep the match scoreless. Uzuni had another big chance late in the match, striking the woodwork in the 81st minute.

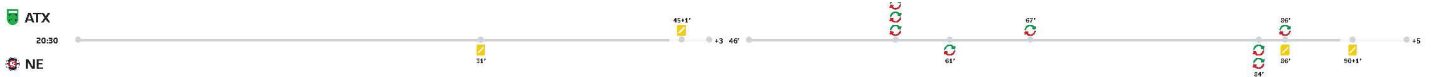

New England battled back with Luca Langoni kissing a shot off the post just shy of the half-hour mark. Langoni nearly broke the deadlock with the last action of the first half, uncorking a shot from close range that Austin goalkeeper Brad Stuver turned aside. Stuver came up big again twice in the opening 10 minutes of the second half, denying Tomás Chancalay on the counter attack before fighting off a curling effort from Carles Gil on a free kick.

Gil had one final chance late in the game's final moments, with his volley taking a deflection off an Austin defender on the way towards goal, but the shot fell kindly to Stuver. During the match, Gil climbed into the top 10 in club history in MLS minutes played (15,409), surpassing Scott Caldwell.

Both goalkeepers made big saves late in the match in a back-and-forth sequence. Ivačič first denied Osman Bukari's attempt from distance in the 76th minute. Moments later, Stuver answered with a save on Leo Campana from close range. Stuver slammed the door once more in the 89th minute, when Will Sands streaked in behind the defense and delivered a low shot at the goalkeeper.

POSTGAME NOTES

- With tonight's result, the Revolution's record on the road shifts to 4-3-5.
- New England has collected points in eight of its last nine away matches.
- Tonight's match marked New England's first visit to Austin FC, a 2021 MLS expansion side. Both meetings between the two clubs have ended in draws.
- Aljaž Ivačič collected his eighth shutout performance of the 2025 campaign tonight, adding to his career high. Ivačič, who tallied four saves in tonight's match, made his 100th MLS appearance on Saturday. His next start will be the 100th of his MLS regular season career.
- Carles Gil surpassed Scott Caldwell for the 10th-most minutes played in club history (MLS regular season). Gil also tied Kelyn Rowe (170) for the 10th-most starts in club history.
- Luca Langoni recorded his 25th MLS appearance tonight and featured in the Starting XI for the third consecutive match. The 23-year-old Argentinian logged a team-high three key passes and two shots, one on target.
- Alhassan Yusuf has now started 26 consecutive matches in MLS play for New England. Yusuf is one of three Revolution players to start every game this season along with Gil and Ivačič.
- Will Sands suited up for his third start of the 2025 season, his 11th appearance.
- Brandon Bye earned the 175th start of his Revolution career across all competitions, his eighth start of the regular season.
- Tanner Beason paced New England's backline with a team-high five clearances.

MATCH #24 vs CF MONTREAL: JULY 25, 2025

1-3

The New England Revolution (6-11-7; 25 pts.) fell to CF Montreal (4-15-6, 18 pts.), 3-1, on Friday, July 25, at Gillette Stadium. Tomás Chancalay put the Revolution in front three minutes into the contest, but the visitors stormed back with three goals to claim all three points in Foxborough.

The two sides started fast, trading goals in the opening 10 minutes. New England struck first, with Chancalay finishing off a through ball from Carles Gil into the bottom-left corner for his fourth goal of the season. Gil, who rejoined the squad on Thursday after a 30-minute shift in Wednesday's MLS All-Star Game, raised his total to a team-high eight assists on the campaign.

Montreal found the equalizer just six minutes later, as Prince Owusu collected a low cross from Dante Sealy in the middle of the box before turning and firing a shot into the roof of the goal. Sealy put the visitors ahead in the 37th minute, capping off a combination play at the top of the box with Caden Clark and Victor Loturi.

The Revs amped up the pressure to begin the second half, with Luca Langoni forcing a save from Montreal goalkeeper Jonathan Sirois just moments after halftime. Gil delivered New England's best chance of the second half, denting the cross bar with a shot from distance in the 70th minute.

Langoni and Chancalay combined for a pair of chances in the 84th minute, with the former seeing his shot cleared off the line before Chancalay had his subsequent effort deflected wide. Former Revolution II midfielder Olger Escobar, making his fourth appearance for Montreal, finished off the scoring with his first MLS goal in second-half stoppage time.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Tomás Chancalay netted his fourth goal of the season, his second game in a row with a goal. He finished the night with a team-high seven shot attempts, one shy of his single-game high. Chancalay's goal in the third minute was the team's quickest of the season, surpassing the previous mark held by Leo Campana (fifth minute at New York Red Bulls).
- With tonight's assist, Carles Gil is one tally away from tying Revolution legend Taylor Twellman's goal contributions record (129). The captain also recorded a team-high four key passes. Gil now holds one goal and nine assists in 13 games against CF Montreal.
- Matt Polster registered his second assist of the campaign and now owns one goal and four assists against Montreal in his professional career.
- Luca Langoni set a new MLS-career high with four shots, two on target, in Friday's contest.
- Wyatt Omsberg made his 75th MLS appearance tonight.

MATCH #25 vs D.C. UNITED: AUGUST 9, 2025

2-0

On "Alumni Night" at Gillette Stadium, the New England Revolution (7-11-7; 28 pts.) scored twice in the second half to defeat D.C. United (4-15-7, 19 pts.), 2-0, on Saturday, August 9. In the 100th all-time meeting between the two MLS original clubs, Carles Gil's goal-and-assist performance propelled the Spaniard past Revolution legend Taylor Twellman for the most goal contributions in the club's history (130). Goalkeeper Matt Turner collected his 23rd clean sheet in a Revolution uniform with a three-save performance in his first appearance for the club since May 2022.

In his first match back in New England since arriving on loan, Turner was tested multiple times in the opening half, denying both of D.C.'s early shots on target. The visitors' best chance of the half came from Hosei Kijima as he broke free on the right side, but Turner made the diving save to his right to keep the match scoreless. The American international recorded three saves in his Revolution return and controlled his penalty area with poise, coming off his line for three high claims.

After the intermission, New England opened the scoring in the 62nd minute as Gil and Leo Campana combined for the icebreaker. Gil whipped in a cross to the Ecuadorian at the near post, which Campana headed home for the game-winning goal. Campana raised his total to five goals on the season, second most on the team behind Gil, and registered a team-high six shots in the contest.

Eight minutes later, New England netted an insurance goal when homegrown defender Peyton Miller controlled the ball in the penalty area and tapped a pass to Gil just outside the box. Gil needed only one touch to juke his defender and put the ball on his right foot, before calmly curling it into the right side of the net past a frozen Kim Joon Hong. Miller, who made his 30th MLS appearance tonight, recorded his second assist of the year on the play.

By contributing to both goals tonight, Gil (130) surpassed Twellman (129) for the most goal involvements in Revolution club history. The seventh-year captain and four-time MLS All-Star now has 48 goals and 82 assists in his MLS regular season career. Including the MLS Cup Playoffs, Gil's 86 assists lead all MLS players since his arrival in 2019.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Saturday marked the 100th meeting between New England and D.C. United across all competitions.
- With the victory, New England evened the all-time regular season series between the two original MLS sides, 37-37-16.

2025 SEASON NOTES

2025 MLS REGULAR SEASON MATCH RECAPS

MATCH #27 AT COLUMBUS CREW: AUGUST 23, 2025

1-2

The New England Revolution (8-12-7; 31 pts.) defeated Columbus Crew (12-6-9, 45 pts.), 2-1, on Saturday, August 23 at Lower.com Field, powered by first-half goals from forwards Leo Campana and Ignatius Ganago. Tonight's victory marks New England's first win over Columbus since 2021 and continues the club's strong road form, having collected points in 10 of its 14 away contests this season (5-4-5).

The Revolution weathered early pressure from the hosts before striking first in the 25th minute. Making his 100th MLS regular season appearance, Campana found himself open at the back post to tap in a pass from Luca Langoni for his sixth goal of the campaign. Carles Gil initiated the sequence with a pass into the box for Langoni, giving the captain his 10th assist of the season. The club's all-time leader in assists is now the only Revolution player to reach double-digit helpers in five consecutive seasons, and six times overall.

It took less than 15 minutes for the Revolution to double their lead, capitalizing on a transition moment to stun the hosts against the run of play. From inside his own half, defender Mamadou Fofana picked out Ganago with a lofted long ball over the top of Columbus' backline. The Cameroonian winger beat the Crew defenders to the loose ball and poked it past goalkeeper Patrick Schulte for his second goal of the season. The game-winning assist marked Fofana's first in a Revolution uniform.

New England had a chance to put the game out of reach when Campana pressed Schulte to force a turnover inside the Revolution's attacking half. Campana laid a pass off to Gil, whose chipped shot toward the empty net sailed just high of the target. Columbus pulled one back in the 71st minute, with midfielder Daniel Gazdag drilling a shot into the bottom-right corner past an outstretched Matt Turner. Turner finished the night with five saves in his third consecutive start. Despite continued pressure from the Crew's attack in the final minutes of the match, New England's defense held strong to see out the win on the road.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Winners of two of their last three games, tonight's victory marked New England's first triumph over Columbus since May 16, 2021, and their first win in Columbus since 2012.
- With tonight's triumph, the Revolution improve to 5-4-5 on the road, with points in 10 of 14 away matches.
- The Revolution dealt Columbus only their third home loss of the season.
- In his 100th MLS regular season appearance, Leo Campana tallied the opening goal and finished the night with a team-high three key passes. Campana now has four goals in his last six games. The Revolution are 4-1-0 in games when the Ecuadorian finds the back of the net.
- Against Columbus, Campana now owns five goals and one assist in six career meetings.
- Ignatius Ganago scored the game-winning goal, his second tally of the season.
- With the secondary assist on the team's first goal, Carles Gil collected his 10th assist of the season, becoming the first Revolution player with double-digit helpers in five consecutive seasons. Gil has at least 10 assists in six of his seven full MLS seasons, except only the injury-shortened 2020 campaign.
- Mamadou Fofana recorded the game-winning assist on Ganago's goal, his first in MLS.
- Luca Langoni logged the primary assist on Campana's goal, one of his two key passes on the night in addition to one shot on target.
- Matt Turner posted a five-save performance in his third consecutive start. He improves to 2-1-0 this season and 2-1-4 in his career against Columbus.

MATCH #28 vs CHARLOTTE FC: AUGUST 30, 2025

1-2

The New England Revolution (8-13-7; 31 pts.) fell to Charlotte FC (16-11-2, 50 pts.), 2-1, on Saturday, August 30, at Gillette Stadium. Forward Ignatius Ganago netted New England's lone goal in the first half, his third tally of the 2025 campaign, before a late set-piece goal by Charlotte's Idan Toklomati sealed the win for the visitors. The Revolution tied their season high with 20 shot attempts to Charlotte's nine, while Matt Turner logged three saves in his fourth start.

Charlotte began the night on the front foot and opened the scoring in the 13th minute through midfielder Brandt Bronico. After his initial shot was parried by Turner, the rebound deflected back off Bronico's body towards the line. Defender Mamadou Fofana nearly cleared it off the line, but the ball had just crossed over the threshold to give the visitors a 1-0 lead.

New England responded well and nearly pulled level in the 23rd minute when Nigerian midfielder Alhassan Yusuf unleashed a powerful strike from distance. His shot drilled the left post of the frame to deny him the equalizer. Less than a minute later, New England found their goal through Ganago, his second tally in as many games. Revolution captain Carles Gil began the play, chipping a ball to the head of forward Leo Campana inside the box. Campana's glancing header fell to the feet of Ganago, who buried his left-footed finish to level the match at 1-1. The assist was Campana's first in a Revolution uniform, while Gil was credited with his 11th assist of the season.

New England nearly added the go-ahead goal in the 67th minute, with Gil whipping in a shot that ricocheted off the left side of the woodwork. The captain had another shot on net in the 86th minute, but it fell safely into the hands of Charlotte goalkeeper Kristijan Kahlina. The Spaniard was fouled a game-high five times and led the Revolution attack tonight with five key passes and five shot attempts, including three on target. He also surpassed 16,000 minutes played for the club, the ninth player in Revolution history to reach the milestone.

In the 87th minute, Charlotte was able to sneak one past New England with a set-piece goal, headed home by Toklomati on Ashley Westwood's assist. Tomas Chancalay had the Revolution's final scoring chance deep into stoppage time with a free-kick shot on target from just outside the penalty area, but it was saved by Kahlina to hand Charlotte their eighth consecutive win.

POSTGAME NOTES

- New England finished the night with a 20-9 shot advantage, tying the team's season high for shot attempts, and a 3.3-2.1 edge in expected goals (xG).
- Ignatius Ganago tallied his third goal of the season, scoring for a second consecutive match.
- Leo Campana was credited with his first assist of the campaign on Ganago's equalizer. He now has five goal contributions in the last seven games.
- Carles Gil earned a secondary assist on New England's opening goal, his 11th of the season. Gil, now the ninth player in team annals with 16,000 minutes played in the regular season, led the team with five key passes and five fouls won. His 90 fouls suffered are tied for the most in MLS.
- Already the club's record holder for combined goals and assists in regular season play, Gil matched Taylor Twellman (148) for the most Revolution goal contributions in all competitions, reaching the total in six fewer games.
- Jackson Yueill made his 10th appearance and sixth start of the season, in place of a suspended Matt Polster (yellow card accumulation). Yueill (199), who is now one start shy of 200 for his MLS career, won a team-high seven duels on Saturday.

MATCH #29 AT CHICAGO FIRE FC: SEPTEMBER 6, 2025

3-2

The New England Revolution (8-14-7; 31 pts.) were defeated by Chicago Fire FC (12-10-6, 42 pts.), 3-2, on Saturday, Sept. 6 at SeatGeek Stadium. Chicago struck early with a pair of goals in the opening 10 minutes and added a third goal in the 68th minute. New England fought back with a pair of late goals from Homegrown defender Peyton Miller and Revolution captain Carles Gil, who netted from the penalty spot, but the comeback effort fell just short.

Chicago immediately began the night on the front foot, opening the scoring within two minutes of the opening whistle as forward Jonathan Bamba tapped a long ball from Brian Gutierrez under goalkeeper Matt Turner, who had come charging off his line. The hosts doubled their lead eight minutes later, as Philip Zinckernagel unleashed a long-range strike into the bottom-left corner, bouncing just over Turner's outstretched palm.

The Revolution rallied back and applied their share of pressure in Chicago's end. New England had a powerful strike by Alhassan Yusuf denied by Chicago's Chris Brady. The rebound cycled to Miller inside the penalty area, but his right-footed shot struck the post. Gil also had a low shot on frame saved by Brady.

Midway through the second half, Chicago added a third goal with Hugo Cuypers tallying in the 68th minute. New England continued applying pressure in Chicago's end before Miller finally pulled one back in the 78th minute, the second goal of his career. The 17-year-old left back received a through ball from Argentinian forward Tomás Chancalay and slotted his shot into the far corner. Chancalay registered his second assist of the season and recorded a team-best four key passes in the match.

In stoppage time, defender Will Sands drew a foul inside the box as he was fouled by former Revolution defender Omar Gonzalez. Gil stepped up to the spot and buried his attempt, giving him 10 goals on the season. Along with his 11 assists, Gil now has reached double-digit goals and assists for the third time in MLS. Gil and Miller shared the team lead with four shot attempts each, a single-game high for the Homegrown defender. Off the bench, Ugandan international midfielder Allan Oyiwoth, 18, made his MLS debut with a 21-minute shift in the midfield.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Saturday's result snaps a 12-match unbeaten run for New England against Chicago Fire FC.
- Carles Gil converted a penalty in second half stoppage time, improving to 17-of-19 from the spot in his MLS career. His 17 penalty goals are tied with Lee Nguyen for the most in club history.
- The penalty kick was Gil's 10th goal of the year, marking his third season with double-digit goals and assists for New England (2019 & 2023). Gil moved into a tie with Diego Fagundez (54) for the third-most Revolution goals across all competitions.
- Peyton Miller scored his second goal of the season, ending the night with a team-high four shots, including two on target - both new career highs - along with eight recoveries.
- Tomás Chancalay provided the assist on Miller's goal, his second of the campaign and third of his MLS career. The Argentine had a team-high four chances created on the night.
- 18-year-old midfielder Allan Oyiwoth made his MLS debut as a second-half substitute, logging 21 minutes.
- Jackson Yueill made his 200th MLS regular season start, completing a team best 95.2 percent of his passes.
- Brayan Ceballos earned his 25th MLS start of the season, while Luca Langoni logged his 25th Revolution start across all competitions

MATCH #30 vs TORONTO FC: SEPTEMBER 13, 2025

1-1

The New England Revolution (8-14-8; 32 pts.) duelled Toronto FC (5-13-11, 26 pts.) to a 1-1 draw on Saturday, Sept. 13 at Gillette Stadium. After Toronto broke the deadlock in the 75th minute, Argentinian attacker Luca Langoni leveled the match in the 90th minute to rescue a draw for the Revolution.

Despite a scoreless first half, New England created plenty of attacking chances in front of the home crowd of 22,391. Forward Tomás Chancalay nearly opened the scoring in just the eighth minute, sending a right-footed effort wide of the right post. In the 21st minute, Revolution captain Charles Gil split Toronto's defense with a long-range shot from outside the box, finding the hands of Toronto goalkeeper Luka Gavran. Moments later, the Spaniard slipped a pass through Toronto's defense to Alhassan Yusuf in the penalty area, but his first-time shot sailed over the crossbar.

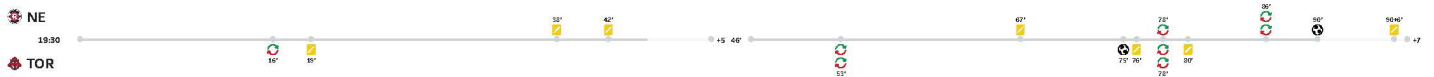

Toronto broke the stalemate in the 75th minute, with winger Theo Corbeanu slotting home a low strike past a diving Matt Turner. The goalkeeper posted a four-save performance in his sixth consecutive start for New England, including a point-blank save on Toronto forward Jules-Anthony Vilsaint in the 83rd minute to keep the game within reach.

Ugandan international Allan Oyiwoth earned his first career MLS start tonight, recording a pair of shots with one attempt on frame in his 87-minute shift. The 18-year-old nearly scored his first MLS goal when he unleashed a shot on frame from outside the box in the 83rd minute, but his attempt was saved by Gavran. In search of an equalizer, Head Coach Caleb Porter deployed several second-half substitutes, including Revolution II forward Sharod George, 21, who made his MLS debut tonight in his second straight match with the first team.

In the final moments of the contest, the Revolution found the equalizer through Langoni. Right wingback Ilay Feingold initiated the play, crossing a ball into the box that deflected off the head of a Toronto defender and fell kindly to Langoni at the top of the area. The Argentine took a touch and rifled a shot towards the Toronto goal, which deflected off a TFC player and past Gavran for the tying strike.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Luca Langoni tallied his second goal of the season, a 90th-minute equalizer. It was the Argentine's fifth goal in MLS.
- 18-year-old Ugandan midfielder Allan Oyiwoth collected his first MLS start, one week after making his MLS debut at Chicago Fire FC, and completed 87 percent of his pass attempts.
- Mamadou Fofana returned to the lineup after missing last week's match through international duty with Mali. Fofana will now be suspended for next weekend's match at Philadelphia due to yellow card accumulation.
- Tomás Chancalay started for an 11th time this season, with both Leo Campana and Ignatius Ganago out due to injury. The Argentine tallied a team-high three shots.
- Revolution II forward Sharod George made his MLS debut, entering the game in the 86th minute. The 21-year-old was called up to the first team on a short-term agreement for the second consecutive match.

MATCH #31 AT PHILADELPHIA UNION: SEPTEMBER 20, 2025

1-0

The New England Revolution (8-15-8; 32 pts.) fell to the Philadelphia Union (18-7-6; 60 pts.), 1-0, in a Saturday matinee at Subaru Park on Sept. 20. Saturday's defeat, which saw the Revolution reduced to 10 men late in the contest, eliminates New England from Audi MLS Cup Playoffs contention.

Midfielder Allan Oyirwoth, making his second straight start and third consecutive MLS appearance, provided an early chance for New England in just the fourth minute. The 18-year-old Uganda international combined with fellow midfielder Alhassan Yusuf on a give-and-go into the box, but his effort was blocked and cleared by a Union defender. Oyirwoth matched second-half substitute Tomás Chancalay with a team-high two shot attempts on the day.

The Revolution stifled Philadelphia's potent attack in a scoreless first half, though the hosts nearly struck first in the 38th minute, when Kai Wagner delivered a lofted corner kick into the box. Philadelphia forward Bruno Damiani met the cross with a powerful header, forcing a reaction save from Revolution goalkeeper Matt Turner. Turner, in his seventh start for New England since returning to MLS last month, posted a three-save performance.

On the other side of halftime, wing back Ilay Feingold provided the first big chance for the Revolution when he connected with Carles Gil on the captain's free-kick delivery, but his shot went just wide into the side netting. Feingold, 21, suited up for the 25th start of his debut campaign today. Fifteen minutes later, Philadelphia broke the deadlock through Damiani in the 71st minute. The Uruguayan striker, who had been contained by New England center back Brayan Ceballos for most of the match, scored the game's lone goal with a left-footed finish into the corner, assisted by Milan Iloski.

New England was reduced to 10 men for the final stretch of the match, as Homegrown defender Peyton Miller was shown a red card in the 75th minute. Revolution Interim Head Coach Pablo Moreira deployed several late substitutes in search of an equalizer, including veteran defender Andrew Farrell, who made his 2025 season debut. Farrell nearly provided an assist on Chancalay's last-gasp attempt to tie the game, which Union goalkeeper Andre Blake parried away to seal the Union victory.

POSTGAME NOTES

2025 MLS REGULAR SEASON MATCH RECAPS

MATCH #32 Vs ATLANTA UNITED FC: SEPTEMBER 27, 2025

2-0

The New England Revolution (9-15-8; 35 pts.) defeated Atlanta United FC (5-13-12, 27 pts.), 2-0, on Saturday, Sept. 27 at Gillette Stadium with 25,790 fans in attendance. The Revolution's newest striker Dor Turgeman recorded a goal and assist in his MLS debut, and forward Leo Campana netted his seventh goal of the season to seal the victory. New England's goalkeeper Matt Turner made four saves for his second clean sheet of the season and the team's 10th of the year, their most since 2013.

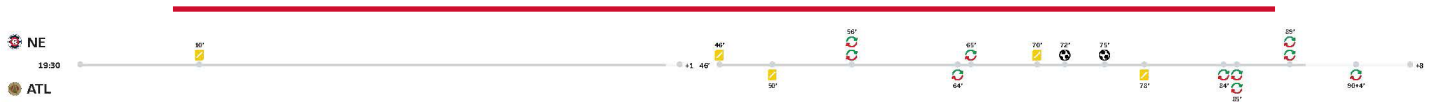

New England came close to scoring the opener in the eighth minute, when midfielder Allan Oyirowth unleashed a shot from distance that went wide of the left post. The 18-year-old Uganda international earned his third straight start and fourth consecutive MLS appearance in tonight's contest. Forward Tomás Chancalay followed that effort with a powerful strike from outside of the penalty area in the 23rd minute, one of the team's seven shots in the opening frame, but his attempt curled past the post to keep the match scoreless heading into halftime.

New England ramped up the pressure after play resumed, forcing three turnovers in quick succession inside Atlanta's half. Forward Luca Langoni unleashed a cultured strike towards the corner, as the shot ricocheted off the crossbar. In the 58th minute, Interim Head Coach Pablo Moreira turned to his bench and brought on the club's marquee summer signing, Turgeman, whose influence tilted the match in New England's favor. The Israel international opened the scoring in the 72nd minute, as he chopped the ball past an Atlanta defender and curled his first MLS shot attempt into the net. Midfielder Carles Gil provided the slick feed for the game-winning goal, giving the captain 12 helpers on the year and 150 goal contributions in all competitions. Gil's 85th league assist moved him into a tie with Maxi Moralez for the most among all active MLS players.

Campana scored his seventh goal of the season just three minutes later, assisted by a clever pass from Turgeman. The Ecuadorian returned from a three-game injury absence and thumped home a shot only 10 minutes into his shift. Turner was credited with a secondary assist on the goal, the second of his MLS career and only the seventh goalkeeper assist in club history. Turner tied Bobby Shuttleworth (46) for second-most victories in club annals. The Revolution have now reached double-digit shutouts for the fifth time in team history.

POSTGAME NOTES

- New England improves to 7-5-4 all-time against Atlanta United FC, including 6-1-2 in the last nine meetings, with three straight wins.
- The Revolution swept the season series with Atlanta for the first time since 2021.
- The Revolution have recorded 10 or more shutouts for the fifth time in club history (last: 2013).
- Israeli forward Dor Turgeman made his club and MLS debut as a second-half substitute, tallying the go-ahead goal in the 72nd minute and providing an assist in the 75th minute. Turgeman is the 23rd player in MLS history with both a goal and an assist in his MLS debut, and also the ninth Revolution player to score in his MLS debut, the first since Luca Langoni did so in August 2024.
- Leo Campana made his return to action with a 25-minute shift and tallied his seventh goal of the season.
- Carles Gil recorded his 12th assist of the season on Turgeman's opening goal. The assist was Gil's 150th goal contribution for New England across all competitions. The captain's 85 regular season assists are tied for the most among active MLS players (Maxi Moralez).
- Matt Turner was credited with a secondary assist on Campana's goal, the second of his MLS career and seventh goalkeeper assist in club history. Turner's helper was the first by a Revolution goalkeeper since Djordje Petrović on April 8, 2023. He joins Matt Reis (2) as the only keepers in club annals with multiple career assists. Turner collected his second clean sheet of the season with a four-save performance. The victory was his 46th in MLS play, tying Bobby Shuttleworth for second in team history.

MATCH #33 AT INTER MIAMI CF: OCTOBER 4, 2025

4-1

The New England Revolution (9-16-8; 35 pts.) fell to Inter Miami CF (17-7-8, 59 pts.), 4-1, on Saturday, Oct. 4 at Chase Stadium. Revolution newcomer Dor Turgeman became the first player in club history to score in each of his first two MLS games, but a pair of Miami goals in each half, three of them assisted by Lionel Messi, lifted the hosts to victory in New England's final away match of the 2025 MLS campaign.

New England had a bright start to the match and nearly stunned Inter Miami by finding the scoresheet within 10 minutes. Revolution captain Carles Gil lofted a cross to the back post towards a streaking Brandon Bye, whose header ricocheted off the crossbar. Miami rebounded from the early chance and began testing New England's backline, as Messi forced a diving save out of Matt Turner in the 14th minute. Turner posted four saves on the night in what was his last match before departing for international duty next week with the United States Men's National Team.

Miami found its breakthrough in the 32nd minute from Tadeo Allende, who drove a low shot into the net on Messi's assist. The hosts doubled their lead moments before the halftime whistle, as Messi pounced on a turnover and slipped a centering pass to Jordi Alba, who touched the ball around a sliding defender and finished with his left foot from close range.

Interim Head Coach Pablo Moreira made two changes at the intermission, as Luca Langoni replaced Mamadou Fofana and Alhassan Yusuf came on for Allan Oyirwoth. The change paid dividends before the hour mark as New England pulled one back through Turgeman in the 59th minute. The 21-year-old striker collected a pass from Gil, nutmegged an opponent, and rippled the net with a powerful right-footed shot past a frozen Miami goalkeeper.

With his second goal since arriving to New England, Turgeman became the first Revolution player to score in each of his first two MLS matches. Gil recorded his team-leading 13th of the season on the play and finished with a game-high five key passes.

The Revolution's comeback attempt was cut short by Miami's third goal coming quickly off the ensuing kickoff. Allende scored in the 60th minute to restore the two-goal advantage, and Alba completed his brace in the 63rd minute to put the match out of reach. In an effort to cut into the deficit, the Revolution deployed Argentinian forward Tomas Chancalay in the 71st minute, who logged three shot attempts in his brief appearance.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The Revolution finished the road slate with a 5-7-5 record. Their 20 away points are tied for sixth most in team history.
- Dor Turgeman earned his first MLS start, scoring his second goal in as many games to begin his Revolution career. He is the first Revolution player to score in each of his first two MLS appearances.
- Turgeman (Israel) is one of eight Revolution players reporting for international duty following tonight's match, joining Leo Campana (Ecuador), Mamadou Fofana (Mali), Allan Oyirwoth (Uganda), Matt Turner (United States), Alhassan Yusuf (Nigeria), Eric Klein (U.S. U-20), and Peyton Miller (U.S. - FIFA U-20 World Cup).
- Oyirwoth earned his fourth consecutive start in midfield, the 18-year-old's fifth MLS appearance.
- Carles Gil recorded his team-leading 13th assist of the season on Turgeman's goal, along with a game-high five key passes.
- Tomás Chancalay recorded a team-high three shots in his 19-minute shift.
- Brayan Ceballos started his 29th match of the season. He will be suspended for the regular season finale on October 18 due to yellow card accumulation.

MATCH #34 vs CHICAGO FIRE FC: OCTOBER 18, 2025

2-2

The New England Revolution (9-16-9; 36 pts.) battled Chicago Fire FC (15-11-8; 53 pts.), to a 2-2 draw in their final match of the 2025 MLS regular season, with 36,432 fans in attendance at Gillette Stadium. Midfielder Alhassan Yusuf netted New England's quickest goal of the season in the first minute of the match. In stoppage time, newly acquired forward Dor Turgeman recorded his third goal in as many games, before an own goal deep into stoppage time pulled Chicago back level.

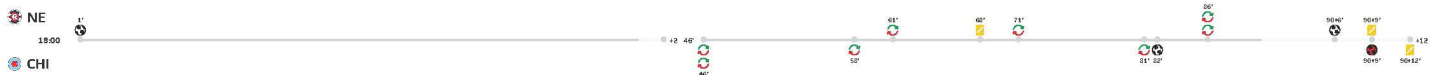

New England began the MLS Decision Day contest with a goal only 44 seconds into the match. Yusuf intercepted a loose touch by a Chicago defender and chipped a shot past goalkeeper Chris Brady for his second tally of the season. Yusuf was one of two Revolution players to appear in all 34 games this season, along with Carles Gil, the 2025 Revolution Team MVP and Golden Boot winner.

Chicago's best first-half chance came in the 29th minute, when the visitors fired a shot toward the bottom-left corner, but a sprawling save from New England goalkeeper Matt Turner kept the visitors off the scoresheet. Turner posted four saves in his 10th start of the campaign. Moments later, Gil sent a cross into the penalty area for Keegan Hughes, whose header missed wide. Gil finished the night with a team-high two key passes and one assist, his 14th of the season, in the captain's 200th Revolution start across all competitions.

Late in the match, Chicago fought back to equalize on Philip Zinckernagel's goal in the 82nd minute, a close-range shot over Turner's head. The Revolution reclaimed the lead in the sixth minute of stoppage time, as Turgeman got his head on the end of Gil's free kick to put New England ahead 2-1. With the goal, Turgeman became the 10th MLS player, and the first Revolution player, to score in each of his first three matches. Nine minutes into second-half stoppage time, Chicago concluded the scoring with an own goal credited to Turgeman.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The Revolution conclude the 2025 season in 11th place in the Eastern Conference with a 9-16-9 record (36 points), and a 4-9-4 mark at home.
- Dor Turgeman became the 10th player in MLS history, and the first in New England history, to score a goal in each of his first three MLS games.
- Alhassan Yusuf tallied his second goal of the season just 44 seconds into the match for New England's quickest goal of the year. Yusuf's goal was New England's quickest since April 27, 2024 (Tomás Chancalay - 1') and the 11th time the Revs have scored a first-minute goal in club history.
- Carles Gil made his 200th Revolution start across all competitions in Saturday's season finale. Gil led all MLS outfield players in minutes played, as he was the only player on the team to start all 34 games. The 2025 Team MVP, claimed the Revolution Golden Boot for a third time in seven seasons with the club, collecting a team-high 10 goals and 14 assists.
- Andrew Farrell logged a season-high 20 minutes off the bench in his third MLS appearance of the season. The defender extended his club record of 344 career regular season appearances.
- Matt Turner logged four saves in his 10th MLS start.

2025 LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP MATCH RECAPS

ROUND OF 32 AT RHODE ISLAND FC: MAY 7, 2025

1-2

The New England Revolution defeated USL Championship side Rhode Island FC, 2-1 in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Round of 32 on Wednesday, May 7 at Centreville Bank Stadium. Argentinian forward Tomás Chancalay netted his first goal of 2025, giving New England a 1-0 lead at halftime. Revolution Academy product and Somerville, Mass. native Cristiano Oliveira tallied the game-winning goal in the 88th minute, sealing New England's victory.

With the win, New England advances to the U.S. Open Cup Round of 16 and will host Chicago Fire FC at Providence College's Chapey Field at Anderson Stadium. Match details including date, kickoff time, and broadcast information will be announced Thursday. Tickets will go on sale to Revolution Season Members this Friday, May 9, before going on sale to the general public on Monday, May 12.

In the first meeting between the two New England clubs, the two sides were evenly matched through the first half hour. The Revolution broke the stalemate in the 38th minute with Chancalay scoring his first goal of 2025. Maxi Urruti forced a deflected pass from the hosts into the penalty area, which Chancalay slotted through the legs of Rhode Island goalkeeper Jackson Lee.

Rhode Island pulled one back early in the second half, knotting the score at 1-1 in the 49th minute off the foot of Maxi Rodriguez. With extra time looming, Oliveira, who made his first team debut for the Revolution tonight with a 15-minute performance off the bench, tallied the winning goal with a clutch strike in the 88th minute. Cranston, R.I. native Gevork Diarbian whipped in a cross that deflected off the right post and fell to the feet of Oliveira, who buried his first goal for the Revolution.

Allan Oyirwoth, an 18-year-old from Uganda, posted a 75-minute outing in tonight's victory. Andrew Farrell earned his first start of the season as he moves into a tie with Scott Caldwell (16) for the second-most U.S. Open Cup appearances in Revolution history. Goalkeeper Alex Bono registered one save in his Revs debut.

POSTGAME NOTES

- New England improves its record against USL opposition to 11-4-3.
- The Revolution have won all three of their matches played in Rhode Island, having also logged Open Cup victories as the home team in 2014 and 2017. New England will return to the Ocean State to play on the campus of Providence College in the Round of 16 against Chicago Fire FC.
- A total of eight players made their U.S. Open Cup debuts tonight: Chancalay, Oyirwoth, Klein, Oliveira, Luis Diaz, Luca Langoni, Liam Butts, and Gevork Diarbian. Five Revolution II players registered their first team debuts tonight: Oyirwoth, Oliveira, Klein, Butts, and Diarbian.
- In his first start since May 2024, Tomás Chancalay scored the opening goal and registered two total shots in an 86-minute shift.
- Cristiano Oliveira netted the game-winning goal in tonight's match. The 17-year-old Academy alum made his first team debut with a shift off the bench.
- Maxi Urruti posted a 78-minute outing tonight and led New England's attack in shots (5) and chances created (4).
- Andrew Farrell recorded a team-high six clearances in his 16th U.S. Open Cup appearance, tied for second most in club history.
- Wyatt Omsberg made his first appearance since sustaining a hamstring injury on March 29. The central defender logged a 16-minute shift off the bench.
- Keegan Hughes started in central defense alongside Farrell, the 24-year-old's first start for New England's first team. Hughes completed 94.8 percent of his passes in tonight's match.

ROUND OF 16 VS CHICAGO FIRE FC: MAY 20, 2025

1-3

The New England Revolution fell to Chicago Fire FC, 3-1, in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Round of 16 on Tuesday, May 20 at Chapey Field at Anderson Stadium on the campus of Providence College. Despite New England outshooting Chicago 9-4, the visitors used a late first-half goal to swing momentum against a young Revolution lineup.

New England almost opened the scoring in the 27th minute, as defender Brandon Bye glanced a header off a corner kick right at Chicago goalkeeper Chris Brady. Bye suited up for his ninth U.S. Open Cup appearance tonight, his fifth career start in the tournament. Chicago broke the stalemate in the 38th minute as forward Jonathan Bamba delivered a cross into the box that deflected off Revolution midfielder Eric Klein and into the net to give the visitors a 1-0 lead just shy of halftime.

Chicago started the second half on the front foot, with Hugo Cuypers scoring an insurance goal in the 70th minute. Fire FC midfielder Philip Zinckernagel put the game out of reach with the visitors' third goal in the 79th minute. New England pulled one back with a late 89th-minute goal, as Cranston, R.I. native Gevork Diarbian fired a shot from inside the box that deflected off Chicago defender Justin Reynolds and into the net. Diarbian, playing at his alma mater tonight, logged 23 minutes in his second U.S. Open Cup appearance.

Allan Oyirwoth, 18, led New England's attack with four shots in his 90-minute outing. Fellow teenager Damarío McIntosh, a 17-year-old Academy product, earned a start in his first team debut after signing a Homegrown Player contract in January. In total, eight Revolution II players earned minutes in Tuesday's match.

MLS veteran Andrew Farrell suited up for his second consecutive start in this year's competition, logging all 90 minutes to set a new club record for most minutes played in the tournament. The 13th-year pro also moved into a tie with Diego Fagundez (17) for most U.S. Open Cup appearances in Revolution history.
