

RECAP: Revolution Win at Home in Dor Turgeman's Goal-and-Assist Debut

New England's new striker scores the game-winner as the team notches 10th clean sheet

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (September 27, 2025) – The New England Revolution (9-15-8; 35 pts.) defeated Atlanta United FC (5-13-12, 27 pts.), 2-0, on Saturday night at Gillette Stadium with 25,790 fans in attendance. The Revolution's newest striker Dor Turgeman recorded a goal and assist in his MLS debut, and forward Leo Campana netted his seventh goal of the season to seal the victory. New England's goalkeeper Matt Turner made four saves for his second clean sheet of the season and the team's 10th of the year, their most since 2013.

New England came close to scoring the opener in the eighth minute, when midfielder Allan Oyirwoth unleashed a shot from distance that went wide of the left post. The 18-year-old Uganda international earned his third straight start and fourth consecutive MLS appearance in tonight's contest. Forward Tomás Chancalay followed that effort with a powerful strike from outside of the penalty area in the 23rd minute, one of the team's seven shots in the opening frame, but his attempt curled past the post to keep the match scoreless heading into halftime.

New England ramped up the pressure after play resumed, forcing three turnovers in quick succession inside Atlanta's half. Forward Luca Langoni unleashed a cultured strike towards the corner, as the shot ricocheted off the crossbar.

In the 58th minute, Interim Head Coach Pablo Moreira turned to his bench and brought on the club's marquee summer signing, Turgeman, whose influence tilted the match in New England's favor. The Israel international opened the scoring in the 72nd minute, as he chopped the ball past an Atlanta defender and curled his first MLS shot attempt into the net. Midfielder Charles Gil provided the slick feed for the game-winning goal, giving the captain 12 helpers on the year and 150 goal contributions in all competitions. Gil's 85th league assist moved him into a tie with Maxi Moralez for the most among all active MLS players.

Campana scored his seventh goal of the season just three minutes later, assisted by a clever pass from Turgeman. The Ecuadorian returned from a three-game injury absence and thumped home a shot only 10 minutes into his shift. Turner was credited with a secondary assist on the goal, the second of his MLS career and only the seventh goalkeeper assist in club history. Turner tied Bobby Shuttleworth (46) for second-most victories in club annals. The Revolution have now reached double-digit shutouts for the fifth time in team history.

New England will travel to Inter Miami CF for its regular season road finale next Saturday, Oct. 5, a 7:30 p.m. ET kickoff at Chase Stadium. MATCH NOTES

- New England improves to 7-5-4 all-time against Atlanta United FC, including 6-1-2 in the last nine meetings, with three straight wins.
- The Revolution swept the season series with Atlanta for the first time since 2021.
- The Revolution have recorded 10 or more shutouts for the fifth time in club history (last: 2013).
- Israeli forward Dor Turgeman made his club and MLS debut as a second-half substitute, tallying the go-ahead goal in the 72nd minute and providing an assist in the 75th minute.
- Turgeman is the 23rd player in MLS history with both a goal and an assist in his MLS debut.
- Turgeman is the ninth Revolution player to score in his MLS debut, the first since Luca Langoni did so in August 2024.
- Leo Campana made his return to action with a 25-minute shift and tallied his seventh goal of the season.
- Carles Gil recorded his 12th assist of the season on Turgeman's opening goal, one of four key passes from the Spaniard on the night.
- The assist was Gil's 150th goal contribution for New England across all competitions. The captain's 85 regular season assists are tied for the most among active MLS players (Maxi Moralez).
- Matt Turner was credited with a secondary assist on Campana's goal, the second of his MLS career and seventh goalkeeper assist in club history.
- Turner's helper was the first by a Revolution goalkeeper since Djordje Petrović on April 8, 2023. He joins Matt Reis (2) as the only keepers in club annals with multiple career assists.
- Turner collected his second clean sheet of the season with a four-save performance. The victory was his 46th in MLS play, tying Bobby Shuttleworth for second in team history.
- Allan Oyirwoth logged his third straight start in midfield, registering a pair of shots.

About the New England Revolution

The New England Revolution, owned and operated by the Kraft family, began play in 1996 as one of the original founding clubs of Major League Soccer (MLS). Currently in the team's 30th season, the Revolution are five-time MLS Eastern Conference champions and claimed the 2021 Supporters' Shield after a record-setting campaign. The Revolution also won the 2008 North American SuperLiga and 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles. The Revolution play their home matches at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass. The club and its acclaimed pro pathway, including Revolution II (MLS NEXT Pro) and the Revolution Academy, are headquartered at the Revolution Training Center, which opened ahead of the 2020 season.
