CROWN KICKOFF

- 👑 Saturday's match between Charlotte FC and the New England Revolution will be the eighth regular-season match. The Revolution own a 5-2-0 mark over CLTFC and took the first match of the home-and-home series, 1-0, at Bank of America Stadium on April 26.
- 👑 The Crown will aim to capture their first win at Gillette Stadium, going 0-3-0 in the last three trips with all three matches ending in one-goal losses.
- 👑 Despite dropping seven road league matches between the month of May and June that saw a Charlotte FC schedule on the road for 10 of 12 matches across all competitions, The Crown have won back-to-back league road matches and have the 13th most away league wins with four. A win on Saturday would tie the club's record for single-season away league wins (5 in 2024).
- 👑 After a 1-0 win versus the Red Bulls, The Crown have tallied at least one goal in 23-straight matches across all competitions, including 14 multi-goal performances. Charlotte FC's 16 multi-goal performances in MLS play leads the league.
- 👑 Charlotte FC has strung together seven consecutive wins in MLS regular-season play, which is tied for the second-longest streak in MLS history post 2000 and the longest active streak in MLS. A win on Saturday would extend it to eight straight, which put CLTFC in sole possession for the second-longest streak in league history.
- 👑 The Crown are unbeaten in the last eight matches in league play (7-0-1) and the last five matches across all competitions (4-0-1). CLTFC have held its last four opponents scoreless across all competition and their last four league opponents scoreless, as well.
- 👑 Israeli forward Idan Toklomati continues as one of the most in-form forwards in the league, tallying a goal contribution for the fifth-straight league match (3 goals/2 assists), which is the second longest streak in MLS. He has scored his seven goals in the last 13 matches across all competitions. Since Patrick Agyemang departed, Toklomati has tallied six goals in the last 11 league matches.
- 👑 Kristijan Kahlina recorded his fourth-straight clean sheet in league play, tallying four saves against the Red Bulls. Kahlina's four-save performance raised his season total to 102, which keeps him atop MLS's best for saves and gives him back-to-back seasons with 100+ saves. His nine clean sheets of 2025 raised his career total to 34, which put him tied-for 36th all-time in MLS. Kahlina's nine clean sheets are tied for second this season.
- 👑 Kahlina currently owns a scoreless streak of 364 minutes in league play, while stringing together four consecutive clean sheets. His 364 minute scoreless streak mark is the third longest in MLS this season and second in club history. He previously passed his own streak this year of 315 minutes that he set from April 5 thru April 26. His club record for scoreless minutes is 523 and consecutive league shutouts is five.

SIZZLIN' SUMMER IN CHARLOTTE

- Along with the warm and humid temperatures brewing down south, Charlotte FC finds itself as the hottest team in MLS. The Crown saw its MLS play winning streak extend to seven following a 1-0 win versus the New York Red Bulls last Sunday. The seven-match league play winning streak is the longest active streak in MLS and tied for the second longest in MLS history post 2000.
- CLTFC grabbed just six league points (2-8-0) from May 1 to June 30. When the calendar flipped to July, CLTFC turned a corner and have strung together 22 of 24 points in the last eight matches. During this stretch, Charlotte FC tallied five clean sheets and multi-goal performances in five of the last eight league matches. In contrast during May 1 to June 30, The Crown only had one clean sheet and four multi-goal performances in 10 league matches.
- The slippery slope of May to June slid Charlotte from fourth in the East to 10th. However, the hot streak has put CLTFC back into contention, moving the squad up from 10th to 4th with three points separating 3rd and 4th.

PREMIER LEAGUE PEDIGREE ADDED

- Charlotte FC strengthened the roster on August 5 with the addition of left back Harry Toffolo. Toffolo joins the Crown after three seasons with English Premier League side Nottingham Forest.
- Toffolo, 29, has played his entire career in England, spanning across all four professional divisions in the country. He most recently played for Nottingham Forest during the last three seasons in the Premier League, compiling 46 league appearances with 57 matches across all competitions.
- The defender has been an attacking threat throughout his career, having amassed 17 goals and 45 assists.
- On the player side, Toffolo joins Tim Ream (Fulham FC), Ashley Westwood (Burnley/Aston Villa), and Wilfried Zaha (Crystal Palace), all of whom had accumulated vast experience in the EPL. On the coaching staff, Dean Smith coached at Aston Villa and assistant coach Christian Fuchs played for the 2015-16 EPL title winning Leicester City.

ARCHIE, ARCHIE, ARCHIE

- Charlotte FC announced the Club has acquired Australian striker Archie Goodwin to a three-and-a-half year contract through 2028, pending receipt of his ITC and P-1 Visa, on Wednesday, August 13. Goodwin will occupy an international roster spot.
- Goodwin, 20, is coming off the best season of his young career. The Australian striker scored 13 goals in 26 games for Adelaide United in Australia's top division. He bagged three braces during his joint Golden boot season to help Adelaide to a sixth-place finish.
- Alongside his club career, Goodwin featured for Australia's Under-20 national team. He logged six appearances, including a two-goal contribution match in the AFC U-20 Asian Cup group stage.

PEP, PASS, AND SHOOT

- Spanish midfielder Pep Biel raised his goal contribution tally to 22 (10g + 12a) on the season with a three goal-contribution performance (1g/2A) on July 19 against Atlanta United, which included the game-winning goal. He leads the team and is tied for third in MLS with 12 assists. His 10 goals also leads the team.

- His 22 goal contributions sit eighth in MLS, and he is just one of six players with at least 10 goals and 10 assists.
- Biel's two-assist performance raised his career MLS regular-season total to 15. He is just one assist back from Brandt Bronico, who tallied an assist to raise his career total to 16 and reclaim the team's top spot.
- Biel has quickly jumped up Charlotte's regular-season record book, placing his name in the Top 5 in five categories, Goals (T-4th), Assists (2nd), Goal Contributions (2nd), Game-Winning Goals (2nd), Game-Winning Assists (T-4th).

ZESTY ZAHA

- Designated Player Wilfried Zaha is one of the most in-form players in MLS, recording a goal or an assist in nine of the last 11 matches and 12 of the last 17. After adjusting to the league with just two goals through the first eight league matches, he has recorded five goals and nine assists in the last 15 to raise his season goal contribution total to 16 (7G/9A). The DP forward has played all 90 minutes in 19 of 25 games. He has scored five goals in the run of play and two PKs, both of which he created during the run of play.
- Zaha is one of 10 players in MLS with at least seven goals and nine assists.
- Zaha has been a menace on the field, not just filling up the goals and assists column, but fouls suffered as well. He is currently leads the league in fouls suffered with 89 and is just one of two players to have 80+ fouls suffered as Carlos Gil is the other MLS field player with 85.

SPREADING THE LOVE

- Charlotte FC has kicked off the 2025 season with 46 goals through 28 games, 11 of which have come from a different scorer. Each of the last three seasons, CLTFC has seen 16 (2022), 14 (2023) and 16 (2024) different goal scorers through 34 matches.
- CLTFC's forwards have combined for 30 goals (Agyemang, Zaha, Abada, Vargas, Toklohati), midfielders have tallied 12 goals (Biel, Bronico, Westwood) and defenders with three (Malanda, Privett, Tuiloma).
- Biel became the Club's single-season record holder for assists. He surpassed Kamil Jozwiak, who previously held the mark in 2023 with seven.
- Nick Scardina and Bill Tuiloma became the 13th and 14th different Charlotte FC outfield players to record at least one assist in 2025.
- CLTFC have tallied 45 assists in 28 matches this year. The Crown's forwards have combined for 16 assists (Agyemang, Zaha, Abada, Vargas, Toklohati), midfielders have tallied 21 assists (Biel, Bronico, Diani, Westwood, Williamson) and defenders with eight (Dolumbia, Malanda, Marshall-Rutty, Scardina, Tuiloma).

BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM SUCCESS

- Bank of America Stadium, home to Charlotte FC and the Carolina Panthers, has been a fortress for The Crown since 2022 when the club entered MLS. The Crown ranks in the Top 10 amongst MLS teams at home, sitting fifth in points (123) and tied for fourth in wins (36) since 2022.

CHARLOTTE TO HOST 2026 MLS ALL-STAR GAME

- Major League Soccer announced July 16 that Charlotte FC will host the 2026 MLS All-Star Game, marking a historic first for the club. The league's 30th All-Star matchup will take place next summer at Bank of America Stadium and will be broadcast globally in over 100 countries and regions on MLS Season Pass through the Apple TV app.
- Founded in 2019 and making its MLS debut in 2022, Charlotte FC welcomed a league record 74,479 fans to Bank of America Stadium in its inaugural home opener. Since then, the club has played a key role in establishing the Queen City as a premier soccer destination in North America, supported by world-class facilities, passionate fans, and a growing legacy of hosting major domestic and international soccer matches.
- The 2026 MLS All-Star Game will mark the first-ever All-Star Game played at Bank of America Stadium. The date and opponent for the 2026 MLS All-Star Game will be announced at a later time.
- The event includes a week-long celebration of soccer and culture for fans of all ages at venues throughout the city. These world-class events, including MLS All-Star Skills Challenge presented by AT&T, MLS NEXT All-Star Game presented by Allstate, and MLS All-Star Soccer Celebration, will feature community programming and entertainment for fans.
- Since its league debut in 2022, Charlotte FC has consistently ranked among the top two clubs in attendance across its first four seasons played at Bank of America Stadium, featuring at least 15 games with over 34,000 fans. The stadium has regularly drawn crowds of 50,000+ for international soccer which has included club and international friendlies, Copa America and the Club World Cup.
- The city's embrace of soccer is undeniable, with nearly three million fans attending matches in Uptown since the Club's inception across Major League Soccer, Leagues Cup, FIFA Club World Cup, Copa América, and international friendlies. Central to this growth is Bank of America Stadium, home of the 2026 MLS All-Star Game, which is located in the heart of Uptown Charlotte. The stadium currently generates an annual economic impact of $1.1 billion for the Charlotte Metropolitan Statistical Area.

- Originally opened in 1996 for the National Football League's (NFL) Carolina Panthers, the venue has undergone a significant transformation since Tepper Sports & Entertainment (TSE) took ownership in 2018. TSE has evolved the stadium from a football-specific facility into a multi-sport and entertainment hub, increasing the number of annual ticketed events from approximately 12 to nearly 40.

MALANDA TO MIDDLESBROUGH

- Charlotte FC announced on Wednesday the Club transferred French defender Adilson Malanda to Middlesbrough FC. for an undisclosed fee. Middlesbrough will loan Malanda back to The Crown for the remainder of the 2025 MLS season.
- "Adilson has been a true professional since stepping foot in Charlotte and throughout this process, where we worked together to get a deal that worked for both the Club and the player," said General Manager Zoran Krneta. "There were multiple top clubs that sent us strong offers for Adi, but in the end, this option allowed for us to keep him through the end of the season as we push for the top four. His career path shows that Charlotte FC is the right place for young players to come and develop into sought-after players from clubs all around the world."
- Malanda, 23, has been one of the top defenders in MLS and a reliable piece for Charlotte FC's backline since he arrived on August 4, 2022. In 2025, the French defender is the only outfield player in MLS to start all 27 matches and play every minute (2,430), which includes him anchoring a backline to nine clean sheets. Malanda has featured 107 times for The Crown and has helped CLTFC hold teams scoreless 29 times across all competitions.

AGYEMANG TRANSFERRED TO DERBY COUNTY

- Charlotte FC announced Tuesday, July 15 forward Patrick Agyemang has joined Derby County of the English Championship on a permanent transfer for a Club record fee. Charlotte FC also retains a sell-on percentage for Agyemang.
- Agyemang, 24, was selected 12th overall in the 2023 MLS SuperDraft and quickly rose through Charlotte FC's player pathway in two-and-a-half seasons with the organization. Earlier this year, he made his United States Men's National Team debut where he is side's leading scorer this calendar year and the only player to play all 12 matches in 2025.
- Agyemang departs the Club after scoring 22 goals in 72 matches across all competitions for the Crown. He leaves Charlotte FC as the Club's second highest goal scorer all time behind Karol Swiderski.
- Following the 2023 MLS SuperDraft, Agyemang quickly jumped onto the scene for the Charlotte organization, scoring 10 goals and tallying three assists in just 11 matches for Crown Legacy FC, the Club's MLS NEXT Pro side.
- His play for Crown Legacy in 2023 paved the way for the East Hartford, Connecticut native to become a regular in the first team. Despite only playing 227 minutes across the 2023 regular season and playoffs, Agyemang scored two goals in that time, including one in the 2023 MLS Cup Playoffs.
- In his first full season in MLS, Agyemang recorded 10 goals and three assists in 36 games across all competitions in 2024. Agyemang caught the USMNT's eye after back-to-back successful seasons with Charlotte FC and Crown Legacy and earned his first national team call up in January of 2025.

- Charlotte FC announced the signing of Canadian winger Brandon Cambridge on Dec. 21, 2022. Cambridge was acquired via trade with the Vancouver Whitecaps in exchange for General Allocation Money (GAM).
- In 2024, Cambridge made five matches off the bench with the First Team and made four appearances with Crown Legacy FC, where he netted two goals and added one assist.
- Cambridge made his MLS debut as a substitute against Real Salt Lake on April 8, 2023, and would go on to make 13 total First Team appearances in his rookie season. In just his fourth MLS appearance, Cambridge secured a brace, his first two professional goals, off the bench to lead Charlotte FC to victory over the New England Revolution. His performance earned him Player of the Matchday honors for Matchday 13.
