POSTGAME NOTES: Revolution II Defeat Orlando City B, 3-0

New England extends winning streak to three games with fifth shutout of the season

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (July 20, 2025) – New England Revolution II (7-4-5; 30 pts.) shut out Orlando City B (7-8-3; 26 pts.), 3-0, on Sunday afternoon at Gillette Stadium. Cranston, R.I. native Gevork Diarbjan bagged a brace for the first multi-goal performance of his professional career, while forward Alex Monis opened his 2025 MLS NEXT Pro account with a second-half tally.

With today's victory, New England is unbeaten in its last four matches, including three consecutive wins by multiple goals. Revolution II's home record moves to 4-1-2 at Gillette Stadium this season, collecting points in six of seven matches. At the conclusion of today's match, New England ranks fourth in MLS NEXT Pro with 1.88 points per game, while the team's 21 goals conceded are fifth fewest leaguewide.

New England opened the scoring in the 19th minute through Diarbjan, who connected on a give-and-go sequence with Homegrown forward Malcolm Fry. Fry snuck a pass behind Orlando's defense and into the box, where Diarbjan lifted his shot over the opposing goalkeeper. Fry, a Groton, Mass. native, recorded his fourth goal contribution in his last five appearances, including an assist in back-to-back games.

Shortly after the second half began, Diarbjan completed his first brace with New England in the 51st minute. After drawing a foul in the box, the Providence College alum stepped up to the penalty spot and calmly buried his shot to double Revolution II's advantage. Diarbjan ended the day with a team-leading four shots, including a pair on target.

Monis netted an insurance goal for New England in the 78th minute, his first goal of the season. The Philippines National Team forward scored just one minute after entering the pitch for his first appearance since May 31 due to injury. Swedish international Gabe Dahlin started the play, launching a long ball to forward Damorney Hutchinson, who fed Monis inside the penalty area. Dahlin and Hutchinson each registered their second assists of the campaign on the play.

With Academy product Cristiano Oliveira missing today's match to represent New England in the 2025 MLS NEXT All-Star Game on Monday, first-team midfielders Allan Oyirowth and Eric Klein both featured in Revolution II's starting lineup. Oyirowth, an 18-year-old from Uganda, registered two shot attempts in his 90-minute shift.

Boston College alum Victor Souza contributed three shots in his return from a two-game injury absence. In net for New England, 2025 MLS SuperDraft first-round pick Donovan Parisian collected his second clean sheet through five starts in his debut professional campaign. New England's five clean sheets are tied for third most in MLS NEXT Pro.

Revolution II are back at home next Wednesday, July 30, hosting Atlanta United 2 at Gillette Stadium. The midweek match features an early kickoff at 11:00 a.m. ET, available to watch on MLS Season Pass on Apple TV, with Jake Griffith calling the action.
