Join the New England Revolution and Special Olympics Massachusetts for “Bowl for a Goal Presented by Arbella Insurance”

The Revolution Foundation hosts its premier fundraising event on July 30, when players and coaches gather with the Revolution Unified Team and fans for a fun-filled night of bowling, music, food, and more at Splitsville Luxury Lanes

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. – The New England Revolution and Special Olympics Massachusetts invite the media to attend Bowl for a Goal presented by Arbella Insurance on Wednesday, July 30 from 6:00 – 9:00 p.m. ET at Splitsville Luxury Lanes at Patriot Place. The New England Revolution Foundation’s premier annual fundraising event will feature all Revolution players and coaches gathering with fans and the Revolution’s Special Olympics Massachusetts Unified Soccer Team for an evening of bowling, music, prizes, and more.

All proceeds from Bowl for a Goal benefit Special Olympics Massachusetts to support Unified Sports® and other programs, with over $600,000 raised to date, including last year’s total of $100,000. Fans can donate and purchase general admission tickets here. Funds will be also raised during the event through a silent auction, which features dozens of sports and entertainment experiences, signed memorabilia, an exclusive Revolution Training Center visit, and more.

Media are invited to attend the pre-event reception with players and coaches from 5:30 p.m. until doors open to the public at 6:00 p.m. Spokespeople including but not limited to those listed below will be available for interviews at this time, and upon request throughout the event.

Earlier this week, on Tuesday, July 22, Revolution players Andrew Farrell and Wyatt Omsberg, along with members of the Revolution Unified Team, hosted 50 Special Olympics Massachusetts athletes and Unified partners for a soccer clinic at the WIN Waste Innovations Field House.
