POSTGAME NOTES: Revolution II Defeat Atlanta United 2, 3-0

New England extends unbeaten streak to five matches with fourth consecutive win

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (July 30, 2025) – New England Revolution II (8-4-5; 33 pts.) registered its fourth straight victory with a 3-0 win over Atlanta United 2 (3-6-8; 19 pts.) in a Wednesday morning matinee at Gillette Stadium. New England's attack was carried by goal-and-assist performances from forwards Marcos Dias, Liam Butts, and Malcolm Fry. Goalkeeper Donovan Parisian collected his second consecutive shutout, the 2025 SuperDraft pick's third clean sheet of the season.

New England, unbeaten in its last five games, has now tallied points in seven of eight home matches, with a 5-1-2 record in Foxborough this season. Revolution II recorded their quickest 3-0 lead in club history, scoring all three goals in the opening 25 minutes en route to the team's third-ever three-goal opening half. New England's five-game unbeaten run includes consecutive multi-goal performances in all five matches.

New England opened the scoring just four minutes after the opening whistle, with Dias burying a penalty kick to give Revolution II the early 1-0 lead. Revolution II quickly doubled their lead seven minutes later, with Butts providing the assist on Fry's fourth goal of the season, feeding a pass inside the box to set up the Groton, Mass. native. Fry, a Homegrown Player, has recorded six goal contributions in six appearances since returning from a leg injury.

Butts found the scoresheet again in the 25th minute, netting a goal of his own with assists from Fry and Dias. Fry initiated the play, intercepting a pass from an Atlanta defender, allowing Dias to slip the ball through to Butts in the penalty area. Dias' assist, his 15th with Revolution II, matched Jake Rozhansky for the program's all-time record. The Brazilian playmaker paced the attack with a game-high six key passes, extending his league lead (57). Butts, who continues to lead New England with a team-best eight goals, owns three goals and two assists over his last three appearances.

New England deployed several second-half substitutes to close out the shutout victory, including Damorney Hutchinson, Sharod George and Cristiano Oliveira. George, a 21-year-old striker, suited up for his club debut today after signing his first professional contract with the team on July 17. Oliveira, a Somerville, Mass. native, returned to Revolution II after scoring a goal in last week's 2025 MLS NEXT All-Star Game.

Along with Parisian on the defensive end, center back Victor Souza posted a 90-minute shift in today's contest, surpassing 5,000 minutes played for Revolution II in his three-year professional career. The Boston College alum has donned the captain's armband in all of his 14 outings this season.

New England resumes its two-match week this weekend, visiting Carolina Core FC at Truist Point on Saturday, August 2. Saturday's match kicks off at 7:30 p.m. ET and is available to watch live on MLS Season Pass on Apple TV, with James Hadnot providing play-by-play.
