"Since our first Bowl for a Goal 11 years ago, this event continues to be one of my favorite nights of the year," said New England Revolution President Brian Bilello. "It is always a special feeling when we can join together with our friends at Special Olympics Massachusetts and Arbella Insurance to celebrate inclusiveness alongside our fans, who always do a wonderful job supporting these impressive athletes on the Revolution Unified Team. We are proud to have such wonderful fans and partners who will help us support many more years of Unified Soccer in New England."

This year's Bowl for a Goal celebrates the 11th season of the Revolution Unified Soccer Team, made possible by the unwavering support of the Arbella Insurance Group. Special Olympics' Unified Sports® program joins people with and without intellectual disabilities on the same team. About 1.2 million people worldwide take part in Unified Sports, which break down stereotypes about athletes with intellectual disabilities and promotes social inclusion through shared sports training and competition experiences.

"Bowl for a Goal provides the incredible opportunity to bring three champions of inclusion together for a great cause," said Mary Beth McMahon, President & CEO of Special Olympics Massachusetts. "The Revolution remains a valued and dedicated partner in growing Unified sports, especially soccer through the Revolution Unified team. The support from the Arbella Insurance Group means we can provide inclusive sports to more people every year. The athletes of Special Olympics also get the opportunity to show what it means to experience inclusion. The best part of this event is the support from the entire Revolution first team, who are always so approachable and welcoming to our athletes. Tonight was another shining example of their commitment to bettering the community.”

“For more than a decade, Arbella Insurance has been proud to join the New England Revolution to support Special Olympics Massachusetts and the Revolution Unified Soccer Team,” said Gayle O’Connell, Executive Vice President and CMO of the Arbella Insurance Group. “Arbella is proud to unite with the Revs in making sports available to people of all ages and abilities.
