New England Revolution Foundation and Players Host Pediatric Cancer Patients and Families for “Box Car Movie Night” at Jordan's Furniture

Wednesday, August 13 at 6:00 p.m. at Jordan's Furniture Natick

The New England Revolution Foundation and Revolution players will host families from nearby hospitals who have been affected by childhood cancer for the club's annual "Box Car Movie Night" at Jordan's Furniture in Natick, Mass. on Wednesday, August 13 (6:00 - 9:00 p.m. ET). Revolution players will be in attendance to craft custom cardboard box cars with the pediatric cancer patients, as well as cardboard swords and shields to accompany their screening of the newly released film How to Train Your Dragon in Jordan's IMAX theater.

"Box Car Movie Night" is one of several ways the New England Revolution Foundation will recognize National Childhood Cancer Awareness Month coming up in September. The Revolution will host their Fight Childhood Cancer match at Gillette Stadium on Saturday, September 13 vs. Toronto FC. Throughout the match at Gillette Stadium, the Revolution will show their support for patients and families affected by childhood cancer with activations recognizing local cancer fighters, community partners, non-profit organizations, and hospitals.

WHO: Local patients and families affected by childhood cancer.

About the New England Revolution Foundation

The mission of the New England Revolution Foundation is to support local partners and philanthropic initiatives focused on social justice and equity, childhood cancer awareness, concussion awareness, military and first responders, and inclusion in sports. A central pillar of the Revolution Foundation is the club's C.H.A.N.G.E. platform and the Revolution Players Collaborative Fund, funded by the Kraft family, which has donated over $250,000 to date to grassroots organizations focused on initiatives related to social justice. For its work in the community, the Revolution Foundation team was honored as the 2022 Marisa Colaiano MLS Community Relations Team of the Year.
