LAST TIME OUT: REVOLUTION II BATTLE COLUMBUS CREW 2 TO A 2-2 DRAW

New England Revolution II (8-5-6; 35 pts.) battled Columbus Crew 2 (3-13-4; 14 pts.) to a 2-2 draw on Sunday night at Gillette Stadium. Sunday's contest saw four second-half tallies, including a goal-and-assist performance from forward Marcos Dias. Revolution II collected the extra point via a 5-4 win in the ensuing penalty shootout.

New England nearly opened the scoring shortly before halftime, when Home-grown forward Malcolm Fry delivered a pass into the penalty area for a wide-open Liam Butts, who tapped it in through the legs of Crew 2 goalkeeper Luke Pruter. However, the tally was disallowed moments later due to an offside ruling to keep the match scoreless heading into intermission. Revolution II kept Crew 2 to zero shots in the first half, while New England posted 12 chances.

Columbus broke the deadlock early in the second half, when forward Chase Adams fired a close-range strike into the back of the net in the 48th minute. New England found the equalizer in the 71st minute, after Cranston, R.I. native Gevork Diarbian drew a foul in the box. Dias stepped up to the spot and struck right down the middle of the frame to record his sixth goal of the season.

Dias continued to push New England's attack, setting up Jamaican international Damorney Hutchinson for his second tally of the campaign in the 88th minute. With the helper, Dias (16) surpassed Jake Rozhansky (15) for Revolution II's all-time assist record. Dias now owns a career-high seven assists this season, including four goal-and-assist performances in the 2025 campaign.

In stoppage time, Adams delivered a shot from distance into the top-right corner of the net to record a brace on the night, leveling the match for the visitors. New England ended the night outshooting Columbus, 17-4, with a 5-3 advantage in shots on target.

Revolution II newcomer Sharod George recorded his third consecutive appearance off the bench. MLS NEXT All-Star and Somerville, Mass. native Cristiano Oliveira made his 25th MLS appearance in Sunday's contest, registering two shots.

MAESTRO MARCOS: DIAS SETS NEW ALL-TIME ASSIST RECORD WITH REVOLUTION II

When New England Revolution II forward Marcos Dias recorded a goal-and-assist performance against Columbus Crew 2 on August 10, Dias broke the program's all-time assist record with his 16th career helper. Dias surpassed Jake Rozhansky for the record, registering his seventh assist of the season on Sunday, a new career best for the Brazilian playmaker.

In addition to his assist record, Dias owns a club record in career goals (30) and career starts (77). The forward is in line for a second straight season leading the team in assists.

After tying the club's all-time assist record on July 30, Dias reflected on the accomplishment:

"It's awesome," Dias said through a translator. "I'm just happy to be able to contribute to the club and to keep winning games."

In the 2025 MLS NEXT Pro campaign, Dias paces the team in minutes played (1,637) and key passes (66), with the latter being a league-best. Additionally, the forward's team-leading seven assists this season rank tied for third leaguewise.

In his last seven appearances, Dias has been in top form, recording six goal contributions, including three goal-and-assist performances. The Brazilian playmaker now boasts four goal-and-assist performances on the year, the most held by a Revolution II player in a single season across the program's five-year history.

After Dias broke the club's assist record on August 10, Revolution II Head Coach Richie Williams had high praise for the playmaker's talent:

"Marcos is a very good player," said Williams. "So, I think it's a guy that has put in [parts of] four years here and has done really well with the second team and in this league. Credit to him, he's a good player. Like you said, goals, assists, and he's been a real leader for our team, so for me it's great. He continues to set up goals, score, and he's going to have to continue to do that for us."

With nine regular-season games remaining, Dias hopes to continue contributing at a high level to achieve his goals:

"I'm happy because the more that I do, it helps the team," Dias said. "I just want to keep focusing on the objectives that we have, and that's first to make playoffs. Then, after that, to be champions."

TEAM NOTES

SOMERVILLE, MASS. NATIVE CRISTIANO OLIVEIRA SHINING BRIGHT IN HIS FIRST FULL SEASON WITH REVS II

Revolution II rising star Cristiano Oliveira has already created an impressive resume since becoming the 14th Academy player to sign a professional contract with the club last October.

The 17-year-old Somerville, Mass. native has netted three goals in 15 games played during the 2025 MLS NEXT Pro campaign. Oliveira opened his 2025 account with a game-tying goal in a 2-2 draw against Columbus Crew 2 on April 23. The dynamic midfielder has since scored two goals over his last five appearances- including a stoppage time winner on July 5 against Columbus.

"It's been amazing so far," Oliveira said of the 2025 season. "Thinking about me going from being an Academy kid to this year, I believed that I could do this, but I didn't expect it."

Oliveira's efforts on the attacking end helped New England to a five-match unbeaten streak in July. Revolution II has recorded points in seven of its last nine games, dating back to May 31.

Oliveira was rewarded for his clutch contributions to New England's success with a selection to the 2025 MLS NEXT All-Star game in Austin, Texas. Oliveira was one of two Revolution II players to suit up in the annual East vs. West showcase on July 21, alongside fellow Academy product Josh Macedo. Before their departure to Austin, Revolution II celebrated with the duo by presenting them their All-Star jerseys at training.

"It was kind of like a full circle moment, because I was there [in 2024] when [fellow Academy product] Damario [McIntosh] got his All-Star shirt," Oliveira said. "So, it was just a good moment to reflect and see that I'm an All-Star and so I'm super happy about that."

Oliveira made the most of his All-Star selection, netting a crucial goal just moments before the halftime whistle to help spark the East to a 4-3 victory over the West.

"It was super cool, I think that goal helped us going into the second half, because we were kind of struggling a bit," Oliveira said. "But overall, it was a great experience playing with a lot of young, talented players, and it tells a lot about not only me, but everyone, to be able to come together from only one day of training and play and win."

In addition to his three tallies for Revolution II, Oliveira also owns one goal scored for New England's first team in the U.S. Open Cup Round of 32 against Rhode Island FC on May 7. Fittingly enough, it was a game-winner that helped send New England to the Round of 16.

Oliveira's knack for finding the back of the net, he said, begins with the work the team puts in during the week on the training ground.

"It definitely comes from the preparation that we do here at training" Oliveira said. "I think that helps us as a team, and we stay focused and keep pushing to the last minute, which led to these last-minute goals."

"THE GROWTH HAS BEEN TREMENDOUS" | CELEBRATING FIVE YEARS OF DEVELOPMENT WITH REVS II

It has officially been five years of Revolution II. The current MLS NEXT Pro team started their inaugural season in 2020 as part of USL League One, and it was anything but ordinary. With the COVID-19 pandemic in full swing, coaches and players had to be flexible. Their first-ever kickoff was scheduled for March 28, 2020, but the debut was delayed by four months. Finally, on July 25, 2020, Revs II launched their journey with a 0-0 draw against Union Omaha at Gillette Stadium.

After two seasons in USL League One, beginning in 2022 the team transitioned to MLS NEXT Pro, a league designed by Major League Soccer to strengthen player development and bridge the gap between Academy programs and MLS first teams. For the Revolution, that pathway has already shown major success, recently celebrating the milestone of their 50th Academy player to make a pro debut with Revs II.

"I've been watching this team for five years," said current Revolution II head coach Richie Williams. "Seeing the team from where it started to where it is now, in five years the growth has been tremendous."

Since its inception, Revs II has experienced a spectrum of outcomes: making the playoffs, contending in a conference final, and spending time at both the bottom and top of the league table. But results are largely secondary at the second team level, as the pathway's greatest achievement has been fulfilling its mission of developing young players.

For Damario McIntosh, who signed a first team contract at the start of the year after rising through the Revolution Academy and second team, his experience with Revs II has been crucial to setting him up for success.

"You're learning day in and day out and it's a big part of when you make that jump to the first team, getting used to the physicality and the tempo of professional games. That plays a key role in moving up to the first team," the 17-year-old explained. "Once you start, you can feel nervous, but once you play more and more you see, 'Yeah, I belong here.'"

This season has been a successful one for Revolution II. They captured four straight wins in July and sit at fifth in the Eastern Conference table with a 8-5-6 record. The Revolution second team has been strong on both ends of the pitch this season. With only 24 goals against and 33 goals scored, the team's balanced approach hasn't been by chance, it's been by desire.

"For the whole team, our mentality is just different. We want to win games. When we get in front of the goal, we're scoring and we're defending really well. That's a big part of our success this season," explained McIntosh.

The success of the second team has always been about more than winning games. For MLS NEXT Pro, victory comes in the form of development, as more Revolution Academy players rise through the pro pathway, make their Revolution II debuts, and continue to sign with the first team. This past May, central midfielder and Academy product Eric Klein became the 12th player to move from Revs II to the Revolution.

Revolution II has proven effective in developing both depth and difference makers for the Revolution roster, but it's not just about New England. MLS NEXT Pro is about building the future of MLS and soccer in the United States, and with the success of the past five years, there's a growing belief that this focus on development could be the key to transforming MLS into one of the world's most respected leagues.

Outside of New England, Knighton played for the Philadelphia Union during their inaugural season in 2010, and helped lead Vancouver Whitecaps FC to its first appearance in the MLS Cup Playoffs in 2012.

Beyond his on-field achievements, the 2022 Revolution Humanitarian of the Year continues to dedicate his time to serving the New England community alongside his family. On November 3, 2024, the Knighton family marked the one-year anniversary of the Olivia Knighton Foundation. Brad, his wife, Britney, and their sons Owen and Brooks launched the foundation last year on the birthday of their late daughter, Olivia, and has since donated over $50,000 through scholarships, soccer programs, animal research, and more.
