“Box Car Movie Night” is one of several ways the New England Revolution Foundation will recognize National Childhood Cancer Awareness Month. The Revolution will host their annual Fight Childhood Cancer match at Gillette Stadium on Saturday, September 13 vs. Toronto FC. Throughout the match, the Revolution will show their support for patients and families affected by childhood cancer with activations recognizing local cancer fighters, community partners, non-profit organizations, and hospitals.

About the New England Revolution

The New England Revolution, owned and operated by the Kraft family, began play in 1996 as one of the original founding clubs of Major League Soccer (MLS). Currently entering the team's 30th season, the Revolution are five-time MLS Eastern Conference champions and claimed the 2021 Supporters' Shield after a record-setting campaign. The Revolution also won the 2008 North American SuperLiga and 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles. The Revolution play their home matches at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass. and are currently coached by two-time MLS Cup winner Caleb Porter. The club and its acclaimed pro pathway, including Revolution II (MLS NEXT Pro) and the Revolution Academy, are headquartered at the Revolution Training Center, which opened ahead of the 2020 season.
