POSTGAME NOTES: Revolution II Top Eastern Conference Leader New York Red Bulls II, 4-2

New England extends its home unbeaten streak to four matches

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (August 15, 2025) – New England Revolution II (9-5-6; 38 pts.) defeated Eastern Conference leader New York Red Bulls II (13-5-4; 45 pts.), 4-2, on Friday evening at Gillette Stadium. Forward Liam Butts scored his team-leading ninth goal of the season, while Marcos Dias bagged his first brace of the year. Midfielder Gevork Diarbjan, a Cranston, R.I. native, tallied in the second half to close the scoring in tonight's victory.

Revolution II is now unbeaten in their last four matches at Gillette Stadium, including three multi-goal victories, moving to 6-1-3 at home this season. After tonight's win, New England ranks sixth leaguewide in points per game (1.90), with the fifth-fewest goals conceded (26).

New England struck first in the 16th minute, with Butts netting his ninth goal of the season. Swedish defender Gabe Dahlin chipped a long ball over New York's backline to find Butts, who tapped his shot over the head of former Revolution Academy goalkeeper Austin Causey in net for New York. Dahlin registered the third assist of his debut professional campaign.

Red Bulls II equalized from the penalty spot in the 33rd minute, before the home side reclaimed the lead shortly before intermission. Dias blasted home a first-time shot into the net from the edge of the 18-yard-box with his right foot. The goal was set up by Academy midfielder Javaun Mussenden, 17, who recorded his first professional assist on the play.

Revolution II added an insurance goal in the 53rd minute, as Dias tallied his second goal of the night. After Diarbjan's shot attempt deflected off a Red Bulls II defender, the Brazilian pounced on the loose ball and calmly buried his shot past a diving Causey. Dias's eighth goal of the campaign gave him six goal contributions in his last four appearances. Moments later, New York rallied again, as midfielder Malik Dembele cut the deficit to 3-2 in the 57th minute.

New England sealed its victory in the 79th minute, with Diarbjan tallying a goal of his own. Jamaican forward Damorney Hutchinson lofted a pass through New York's defense to Diarbjan, who slotted home his fourth goal of the season. Hutchinson's assist was his third of the year, his second goal involvement in as many games. In net for New England, 2025 MLS SuperDraft selection Donovan Parisian made three saves in the win.

New England will travel south to take on Philadelphia Union II on Sunday, August 24 at Subaru Park. Sunday's match kicks off at 3:00 p.m. ET and will air on MLS Season Pass on Apple TV.
