POSTGAME NOTES: Revolution II Battle Chicago Fire FC II to a 2-2 Draw

New England extends unbeaten streak to four consecutive matches

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (August 31, 2025) – New England Revolution II (10-5-7; 42 pts.) battled Chicago Fire FC II (11-6-6; 43 pts.) to a 2-2 draw on Sunday afternoon at Gillette Stadium, falling 3-1 in the ensuing penalty shootout. Brazilian forward Marcos Dias scored his ninth goal of the season, while Jamaican striker Damorney Hutchinson netted the third goal of his debut professional campaign.

Today's result extends New England's unbeaten run to four matches, including four consecutive multi-goal performances. At home this season, Revolution II improves to a 6-1-4 record, having collected points in 10 of their 11 games played at Gillette Stadium.

Despite Chicago scoring the opening goal in the 22nd minute, New England leveled the match just moments later. After a giveaway from a Chicago defender fell kindly to the feet of Dias, the Brazilian playmaker capitalized with a curling effort over the visiting goalkeeper and into the net. Dias' tally marked his ninth goal involvement in the last six matches.

New England captured the lead only five minutes later through Hutchinson. The Jamaican striker combined with Revolution Academy midfielder Javaun Mussenden on a give-and-go into the penalty area, setting up Hutchinson's shot that struck the crossbar and bounced into the net. Hutchinson has now found the scoresheet three times in his last four appearances. Mussenden, 17, recorded his second MLS NEXT Pro career helper on the play.

Revolution II deployed second-half substitutes in Michael Tsioulis and Chris Mbai-Assem in the 56th minute, with the latter making his club debut after signing with the team two weeks ago. However, Fire II equalized three minutes later via a penalty kick from Trip Fleming. Dias almost recaptured Revolution II's lead in the 70th minute with a close-range strike on frame, though Chicago goalkeeper Bryan Dowd made a diving save to keep the match level. Dias ended the day with a team-leading three key passes and four shot attempts, including a pair on target.

In net for New England, 2025 MLS SuperDraft first-round pick Donovan Parisian made three saves in his 10th start of the season. Joining Parisian on the defensive side, Mussenden and Sweden international Gabe Dahlin anchored the center, while left back Hesron Barry and 2025 MLS NEXT All-Star Josh Macedo covered the flanks. Macedo was one of five current Revolution Academy players to feature in today's contest, alongside Mussenden, Judah Siqueira, Aarin Prajapati, and Makai Wells, who made his professional debut.

New England will resume its three-game homestand next Monday, September 8, welcoming
