New England Revolution Part Ways with Caleb Porter

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (September 15, 2025) – The New England Revolution parted ways with Head Coach Caleb Porter on Monday. Porter departs the Revolution after two seasons. Assistant Coach Pablo Moreira will serve as interim head coach for the remainder of the season.

"I am very grateful to Caleb Porter for the energy, effort, and dedication he has brought to the Revolution over the last two years," said Sporting Director Curt Onalfo. "I have the utmost respect for Caleb and all the tireless work he's invested in the club, and we wish him the best moving forward."

Curt Onalfo will be available to the media in a press conference at the Revolution Training Center on Tuesday, Sept. 16 at 12:00 p.m. ET. Complete details will be made available shortly. The Revolution will resume the MLS season this Saturday, Sept. 20 on the road at the Philadelphia Union, a 2:30 p.m. ET kickoff.

About the New England Revolution

The New England Revolution, owned and operated by the Kraft family, began play in 1996 as one of the original founding clubs of Major League Soccer (MLS). Currently in the team's 30th season, the Revolution are five-time MLS Eastern Conference champions and claimed the 2021 Supporters' Shield after a record-setting campaign. The Revolution also won the 2008 North American SuperLiga and 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles. The Revolution play their home matches at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass. The club and its acclaimed pro pathway, including Revolution II (MLS NEXT Pro) and the Revolution Academy, are headquartered at the Revolution Training Center, which opened ahead of the 2020 season.
