The U-18s earned two victories last weekend, defeating both the Boston Bolts and Connecticut United at home. On Saturday, the U-18s edged out the Boston Bolts, 3-2. Paolo Tornberg Ayala (2009 – Revere, Mass.) opened the scoring for New England in the 23rd minute. Before the halftime whistle, Edwin Flores (2007 – Wilmington, Del.) netted his second free kick goal in as many games, and Jason Burney (2008 – Lunenburg, Mass.) recorded New England’s third and final tally one minute later. The Bolts battled back in the second half with two goals of their own, but New England’s three first-half tallies secured the victory for the hosts.

On Sunday, the U-18s recorded a 6-2 triumph over Connecticut United. Forward Grant Emerhi led the offensive efforts, tallying four of New England’s six goals. Robert Nichols III also found the scoresheet for his second consecutive match, recording a goal and two assists in the contest. Connecticut fought late with two straight second-half goals, before Judah Siqueira (2009 - Easton, Mass.) slotted home the final goal in the 86th minute to see out the win.

The U-16s battled the Boston Bolts to a 1-1 draw on Saturday, with two early first-half goals. After the Bolts opened the scoring in the 10th minute, New England rallied with an equalizer in the 20th minute. Davi Pereira (2011 – Revere, Mass.) tallied New England’s lone goal, and Bayron Morales-Vega (2010 – Framingham, Mass.) registered a helper.

The U-15s topped the Boston Bolts, 2-1, on Saturday. Arthur Bernardino (2011 – Shirley, Mass.) capitalized on a helper from Musah Adamu (2011 – Manchester, Conn.) in the 17th minute. Moments later, Boston Kahoalii (2012 – Whitmer, Mass.) slotted home an insurance goal off a feed from Hans Marten (2011 – Wellesley, Mass.). The Bolts saw a comeback looming after scoring in the 71st minute, but New England's two first-half tallies would prove to be the difference. On Sunday, the U-15s fell to Connecticut United, 2-1. Bernardino and Adamu combined late in the second half to pull one back for the Revolution.

The U-14s fell to TSF Academy, 3-2, on Saturday. Drake Roberts (2012 – Bedford, Mass.) netted his second goal in the 2025 campaign, while Jayden Lefter (2012 – Milford, Mass.) rallied the team back with a late 70th minute tally.

On Saturday, the U-13s defeated TSF Academy, 5-2. Both Michael Miller (2013 – Westford, Mass.) and Lucas Williams (2013 – Attleboro, Mass.) netted a brace. TSF opened the scoring in the 25th minute, but Miller battled back with his first of two goals just five minutes later. Williams recorded both of his goals on either side of the halftime whistle. Kauan Nascimento (2013 – Andover, Mass.) also tallied a late second-half goal for New England to round out the scoring.

The Revolution Academy's U-18s, U-16s and U-15s will travel to take on Philadelphia Union this Saturday, September 20, while the U-14s and U-13s will welcome Long Island Soccer Club to the Revolution Training Center. Click here to learn more about the New England Revolution Academy.
