The U-18s fell to New York City FC, 3-1, on Saturday. After New York City opened the scoring in the 22nd minute, Grant Emerhi (2008 – Mansfield, Mass.) netted his 10th goal of the season to equalize the contest before halftime. However, New York City responded with two second-half goals to conclude the scoring. The U-16s also fell to New York City FC, 2-1. All three goals from Saturday's match were scored in the first half, including an own goal from the visitors to pull one back for New England.

The U-15s defeated New York City FC, 3-1, on Saturday. Roderick Janairo (2011 – Auburndale, Mass.) opened the scoring for New England in the 33rd minute, while Musah Adamu (2011 – Manchester, Conn.) netted his third tally of the season two minutes later. Both Janairo and Adamu posted a goal-and-assist performance in the contest. Arthur Bernardino (2011 – Shirley, Mass.) tallied the third and final goal just after halftime to seal the win for New England.

The U-14s battled IFA to a 3-3 draw on Sunday. Dylan Armah (2012 – Providence, R.I.) found the scoresheet in the 17th minute to open his 2025-26 MLS NEXT account. Drake Roberts (2012 – Bedford, Mass.) tallied his fourth goal of the season 10 minutes later. Gavin Rybak (2012 – Andover, Mass.) netted New England's final goal via penalty kick, but IFA found the equalizer in the 75th minute to level the match before the final whistle.

The U-13s topped IFA, 6-3, on Sunday. Amare Laurent (2014 – Windsor, Conn.) struck first in the 20th minute, while Isaiah Adeseko (2013 – Albany, N.Y.) extended New England's lead in the 31st minute. After IFA pulled one back before halftime, the Revolution rallied with four second-half goals through Kauan Nascimento (2013 – Andover, Mass.), Adeseko, Bryson Villota (2013 – Glastonbury Center, Conn.), and Laurent. Adeseko and Laurent both bagged a brace in Sunday's victory.

The Revolution Academy's U-18s, U-16s, and U-15s will resume MLS NEXT play on Saturday, welcoming Oakwood Soccer Club to the Revolution Training Center. On Sunday, the U-14s and U-13s will travel to take on Valeo Futbol Club. Click here to learn more about the New England Revolution Academy.
