New England Revolution Announce Year-End Roster Moves

Roster currently at 25 players entering first season under Head Coach Marko Mitrovic

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (November 25, 2025) – The New England Revolution today announced the club's year-end roster decisions following the conclusion of the 2025 MLS season. With one option exercised and 24 additional players already under contract for 2026, New England's roster currently stands at 25 players ahead of the team's first season under new Head Coach Marko Mitrovic.

New England exercised the option of defender Keegan Hughes and declined the option of defender Wyatt Omsberg, who will be retiring from professional soccer. The club remains in negotiations with defender Brandon Bye, who is out of contract and set to become a free agent when the window opens on December 10. In addition, forward Ignatius Ganago's loan from FC Nantes will expire at the end of the year.
