MOST RECENT STARTING XI

ORLANDO CITY SC 2026 GAME NOTES

MATCH STORYLINES

DECISION DAY DRAMA

Everything remains on the line for Orlando City heading into Decision Day. The Lions enter the regular-season finale with a chance to climb as high as seventh place in the Eastern Conference standings and secure a direct spot in Round One of the Audi 2026 MLS Cup Playoffs. Orlando can finish seventh with a victory over New England combined with a Cincinnati loss and a Columbus loss or draw. A Lions win paired with either a Cincinnati loss or a Columbus loss or draw would result in an eighth-place finish and a home Wild Card match at Inter.co Stadium. Any other combination of results would see Orlando finish ninth and open the postseason on the road in the Wild Card round. With playoff positioning hanging in the balance across the conference, Orlando's season destiny will be decided on the final day of the regular season.

SEVEN STRAIGHT

Orlando City has already secured its place in the Audi 2026 MLS Cup Playoffs, extending the club's postseason streak to a league-active best seven consecutive seasons. Since first qualifying for the playoffs in 2020, the Lions have established themselves as one of Major League Soccer's most consistent clubs, reaching the postseason every year and advancing to the Eastern Conference Semifinals in each of the past two campaigns. With another playoff berth secured, Orlando will now turn its attention to improving its seeding position and carrying momentum into the Audi 2026 MLS Cup Playoffs.

FORTRESS INTER.CO

Inter.co Stadium has become one of the toughest places to play in MLS during the second half of the season. Since returning from the summer FIFA World Cup break, Orlando City has posted a 6W-1L-2D record in league matches at home and enters Saturday riding a six-match unbeaten run in MLS play in front of its fans. Across all competitions this season, the Lions own an 11W-5L-4D home record and will look to carry that strong form into the playoffs with one final regular-season match in downtown Orlando.

ASSIST KINGS

Martín Ojeda enters Decision Day with a chance to stand alone atop another Orlando City all-time leaderboard. The Argentine playmaker is currently tied with club legend Mauricio Pereyra for the most assists in Orlando City history with 47 across all competitions. An assist against New England would move Ojeda into sole possession of first place, adding another milestone to what has already been a historic Orlando City career. Ojeda is not the only Lion climbing the rankings, however, as Iván Angulo enters the weekend with 45 career assists for the club, just two behind the co-leaders. With Orlando's attack continuing to produce at one of the highest levels in MLS, the club's all-time assist race could take another significant turn on Decision Day.

KNOCKING ON HISTORY'S DOOR

Orlando City's next goal will carry historic significance. The Lions enter Decision Day one goal shy of matching the Club's MLS regular-season scoring record of 63, established during the 2025 campaign. Orlando has either tied or broken its regular-season scoring record in each of the previous three years, highlighting the club's continued evolution into one of MLS' most potent attacking sides. One more strike on Saturday would place the 2026 team alongside last year's record-setters.

MILESTONE TRACKER

- Martín Ojeda (47) needs one assist to pass Mauricio Pereyra for the club record across all competitions, while Iván Angulo (45) needs two helpers to tie Ojeda and Pereyra.
- Daryl Dike (22) is one goal away from tying former Lion Dom Dwyer (23) for eighth on the Club's all-time scoring charts.

PREVIOUS MATCH RECAP

Orlando City SC (12-14-7, 43 points) fell 4-0 to Charlotte FC (15-10-8, 53 points) on Saturday afternoon at Bank of America Stadium. Charlotte took a 1-0 lead into halftime through Henry Kessler before Allan Saint-Maximin doubled the hosts' advantage early in the second half.

As Orlando pushed for a way back into the match, Charlotte added a third in the 84th minute when Abdoulaye Doucoure converted the rebound after Maxime Crépeau saved Saint-Maximin's penalty kick. Rodolfo Aloko added a fourth in stoppage time to seal the result.

Crépeau's penalty stop marked the first penalty kick saved by an Orlando City goalkeeper in MLS play since Pedro Gallese denied FC Cincinnati's Luciano Acosta on Sept. 28, 2024, and made him the first Lion other than Gallese to save a penalty since Brian Rowe on Oct. 24, 2020.

ORLANDO CITY SC 2026 GAME NOTES

GENERAL MANAGER & SPORTING DIRECTOR RICARDO MOREIRA

Ricardo Moreira joined the Club in October of 2018 from Columbus Crew SC, where he served as the head of player recruitment. Since arriving in Orlando, Moreira has spearheaded the efforts in identifying and recruiting notable players for Orlando City SC of Major League Soccer, including Canadian National Team goalkeeper Maxime Crépeau, center back Robin Jansson, midfielder Eduard Atuesta, and forward Marco Pašalić, while drafting former Lions' forward Daryl Dike and current Lions' midfielder Joran Gerbet.

On April 24, 2025, Moreira was promoted to the role of General Manager & Sporting Director from his previous role of VP of Soccer Operations & Technical Director.

Prior to his time in Orlando, Moreira spent three seasons in Columbus, beginning in 2016 as the Crew's international relations manager. He was promoted to head of player recruitment the following year, the role he held prior to joining the Lions' staff.

Moreira is a law graduate from the Universidade Presbiteriana Mackenzie in São Paulo and holds an MBA in sports management from the Fundação Getúlio Vargas in Rio de Janeiro. Prior to joining the Columbus Crew, he also served as the Director of Scouting for Brazil's Grêmio Osasco Audax Esporte Clube.

INTERIM ASSISTANT COACH MANUEL GOLDBERG

Goldberg, 31, heads into his third season in the head coaching role with Orlando City B following two seasons as head coach and two prior seasons as an assistant coach on Martín Perelman's staff, in which the team made its first-ever MLS NEXT Pro Playoffs appearance and oversaw the professional development of numerous talented players.

Prior to joining Orlando City B ahead of the 2022 season, Goldberg spent time working for Barça Academy PRO Miami, where he served as a competitive program coach for nearly two years.
He began his coaching career in 2015 with Hapoel Katamon in Israel, having played professionally for three years in the country, and also served in several roles with Club Nautico Hacoaj in Buenos Aires from 2017-19, including serving as an Assistant Coach in the Torneo Federal C de AFA for the club.

GOALKEEPER COACH CÉSAR BAENA

César Baena was named to the First Team staff following three years working in Orlando, most recently serving as a goalkeeping coach for the Orlando City Development Academy. Prior to his time in Orlando, Baena spent eight years working with a number of clubs in Venezuela and Mexico, including Carabobo FC, Mineros de Guayana, Deportivo Lara FC, Club Tijuana and Caracas FC where he began his coaching career in 2001.

On the pitch, Baena was a regular in goal for the Venezuelan National Team, appearing in World Cup Qualifiers for the 1986, 1990 and 1998 editions of the tournament. Overall, he played 20 years as a professional with various clubs in Venezuela and Bolivia, including Caracas FC, Estudiantes de Merida FC, Merida FC and Club Deportivo Oriente Petrolero.

INTERIM HEAD COACH MARTÍN PERELMAN

Martín Perelman has been selected to lead the Lions as interim head coach following the departure of Oscar Pareja, stepping into the role after serving as a First Team assistant coach since 2024.

Perelman joined the Lions as Head Coach of Orlando City B ahead of the 2022 season, earning a promotion to Second Assistant Coach ahead of the 2024 season.

Perelman led the Lions to the Club's first-ever MLS NEXT Pro Playoffs appearance and oversaw the professional development of numerous players, including former OCB midfielder Alejandro Granados leading to his transfer to Club Brugge KV of the Belgian First Division A for an MLS NEXT Pro record transfer fee, while also coaching Jack Lynn to the 2023 MLS NEXT Pro MVP award.

Prior to leading OCB, Perelman came from Argentine side Club Comunicaciones where he was appointed manager in 2021 and led the side that was crowned champions of the Torneo Complemento de la Primera B. Prior to that, he served on the staff of Cañuelas Fútbol Club and Argentino de Merlo, the latter being the very club in which he finished his playing career.

INTERIM ASSISTANT COACH SEBASTIÁN SETTI

Setti, 42, joins the Lions with a diverse international coaching background spanning North America and Europe. Most recently, he served as an assistant coach with Club Necaxa in Liga MX in 2025, following a stint with K.M.S.K. Deinze in Belgium in 2024. Setti also spent the 2023 season as an assistant coach with Major League Soccer's CF Montréal. The Caseros, Argentina, native also brings additional head coaching experience after leading CD Laudio in Spain from 2018 to 2021.

Prior to his coaching career, Setti enjoyed a 14-year professional playing career as a midfielder, making 215 appearances across leagues in South America, North America and Europe.
