MATCH RECAP

The LA Galaxy (6-9-8, 26 points) fell 3-1 to San Diego FC (8-8-6, 30 points) at Snapdragon Stadium. Down 2-0 at the halftime break, Hirving Lozano pulled one back for the Galaxy in the 55th minute to cut into the lead. LA looked to level the match with a goal from Kyōgo Furuhashi six minutes later, but the goal was called back for a foul in the buildup. San Diego then added to their lead shortly after and the match ended in favor of the hosts.

Match Information

Match: LA Galaxy at San Diego FC

Date: August 29, 2026

Venue: Snapdragon Stadium; San Diego, California

Weather: Clear and 80°F

Goalscoring Plays

SD – Elias Achouri (Anders Dreyer), 11th minute: San Diego switched play from the right side of the box to the left, where Dreyer found Achouri in the middle for a first-time finish that gave the hosts a 1-0 lead.

SD – Kieran Sargeant (Anders Dreyer), 48th minute: Dreyer picked out Sargeant at the back post with a cross from midfield, and his finish doubled San Diego's lead.

LA – Hirving Lozano, 55th minute: Following a Galaxy attack down the right flank, San Diego failed to clear the ball from the box, and Lozano capitalized on the turnover by placing a shot into the bottom-left corner to cut LA's deficit in half.

SD – Amahl Pellegrino (Alejandro Alvarado), 70th minute: San Diego capitalized on a counterattack when Alvarado's pass found Pellegrino on the left side of the box, who then extended the hosts' lead with a shot into the bottom-right corner.

NOTES

Hirving Lozano marked his highly anticipated return to San Diego with a second-half strike, his first goal as a member of the LA Galaxy since joining the club on August 7.

Newest LA Galaxy signing Sergi Roberto made his Blue, White, and Gold debut off the bench tonight and completed his shift with two key passes and a 97.9% passing accuracy on 46 passes in 34 minutes. Roberto finished the night with the third-highest number of passes on the team, and the fifth-highest number of passes amongst all players in the match overall.

Marco Reus led the Galaxy with three key passes in tonight's match, the second-highest total on either side over 90 minutes.

NOTABLE QUOTES

LA Galaxy Head Coach Greg Vanney

On Hirving Lozano's return to SD and his first Galaxy goal:

"I thought he handled it wonderfully. I'm happy for him. He wanted to win this game, so I'm not happy for him for that, because we all wanted to come away with something here for him, but I thought he handled himself like a professional. I thought he was excellent. Gets a goal, has another couple of chances, but he draws the yellow card because of his directness in some of those dribbling moments where he skates through guys. I think as he continues to build fitness and rhythm, and I still think he's working on creating a connection with Marco [Reus] and will be with Sergi [Roberto] and with the guys as they all settle in. It's a team that's coming together. Needs to come together here really fast, and a lot of the game is built around relationships and partnerships. I think guys are still working through some of those details. Unfortunately, Chucky [Lozano] in two of the games last week didn't get the chance to play with Marco obviously, so I think there's still some continuity that's going to continue to grow there."

On Sergi Roberto's LA Galaxy debut:

"You just see his class. His understanding of where the pockets of space are, getting himself facing forward. He's brave to play through the lines and to play off of people. He recognizes, and it's a gift. He recognizes where the ball needs to be next. No pass is just a pass to play a pass. It's a pass to organize something and set something in motion, and that's such a big part of what being a midfielder can be inside of a team that is possession oriented. Each pass has to have an intention and set some sort of rhythm to the group, and also create continuity. If you play into Marco [Reus] and it's the right pass, then Marco knows what the next pass is and the next pass is, and it creates a continuity. When we just play a pass for the sake of a pass, then it doesn't really go anywhere. So I felt like he brought some real intention into our actions. And again, his movement. He was kind of holding in the midfield, and then he makes a run through the line and he ends up in the box with an opportunity. Just recognizing spaces and being able to run through them. You see that he's the type of player that's going to make the players around him better. So we need to give him the opportunity to settle in and get to know everybody, and for guys to get to understand him a little bit. And he'll be a guy who can change the rhythm of a team. The indication I got before he even got here is he was going to be like a coach on the field, pointing, helping people to position them where they need to be, or recognize where situations were defensively, offensively. That he's a conductor from the middle of the field, which is a wonderful piece to have inside of this."

LA Galaxy Forward Hirving Lozano

On continuing the legacy of Mexican players in Los Angeles:

"I believe that step by step, it's a process. I haven't been on the team for long. Of course, a player always tries to leave a mark when they arrive at a team. Thank God, throughout my career I have left a mark on almost every team, and I hope this one doesn't go unnoticed. I believe I have a great opportunity, I am working very hard, and I am enjoying it to the fullest."

LA GALAXY HEAD COACH GREG VANNEY

The LA Galaxy announced in March 2025 that the club signed Head Coach Greg Vanney to a multi-year contract extension. Vanney, 51 began his professional career as a player with the LA Galaxy and returned as Head Coach in January 2021 after a six-year stint as Toronto FC's Manager in which he became the only coach to capture an MLS Treble by winning MLS Cup, the MLS Supporters' Shield and the Canadian Championship during the 2017 season.

Vanney stepped down as Toronto FC manager following the 2020 MLS Season as both the most successful and longest-tenured coach in Toronto FC's history with every major club record, including total wins (112) and games coached (250). In all, Vanney recorded an 87-68-48 MLS Regular Season record and a 10-5-2 MLS postseason record while being named MLS Coach of the Year and Concacaf Coach of the Year in 2017. As Toronto FC's coach, the former Galaxy defender helped lead his side to the MLS Cup Playoffs in five of the previous six seasons (2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2020), while making appearances in three MLS Cup Finals (2016, 2017, 2019) and the Concacaf Champions League Final (2018). He also helped his side capture three-straight Canadian Championships (2016, 2017, 2018).

As a player, Vanney made 270 total MLS Regular Season appearances, including 193 as a member of the LA Galaxy, tied with Todd Dunivant for the sixth-most appearances of any player in LA Galaxy history and trailing only Cobi Jones (306), Landon Donovan (253), Kevin Hartman (243), Mauricio Cienfuegos (206) and A.J. DeLaGarza (204). With LA, Vanney helped lead the club to a Supporters' Shield (1998), CONCACAF Champions' Cup (2000) and U.S. Open Cup (2001) while being named to the MLS Best XI twice (2000, 2001) and earning honors as LA Galaxy Defender of the Year (2001). He also made an additional 32 MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including 26 postseason appearances with the Galaxy.

Vanney began his professional playing career after being drafted by the Galaxy from UCLA with the 17th overall selection in the 1996 MLS College Draft. During his time as a professional, Vanney represented the Galaxy, FC Dallas, Colorado Rapids and D.C. United in Major League Soccer while also playing a stint for Bastia in France. He also earned 11 caps with the U.S. Men's National Team, making his debut in 1996 before later featuring in the 2005 Concacaf Gold Cup Championship and 2006 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers.

Following his retirement after the 2008 MLS season, Vanney served as the Real Salt Lake Youth Academy Director from 2008-2011 before joining Chivas USA as an assistant coach from 2011-2012. Vanney originally joined Toronto FC as the club's assistant general manager and academy director in 2013 before being named head coach and technical director on August 31, 2014.
