QUOTEWORTHY

On how the team will prepare for a busy schedule in April:

Asst. Coach Michael Morris: "It's planning ahead, obviously. We do that because we try to make sure that we account for all circumstances that we're going to come across. The positive is that when we're at home we can be very strong and difficult to play against. The weather's changing a bit, which is exciting. But whatever the circumstances are, we're together and our preparation is basically what we can do to separate us [from opposing teams] during these moments when we have a lot of games. That's what we're here for. Games are arguably some of the most important moments and everything we do in training leads to that. I think it's not really a challenge, it's an exciting opportunity."

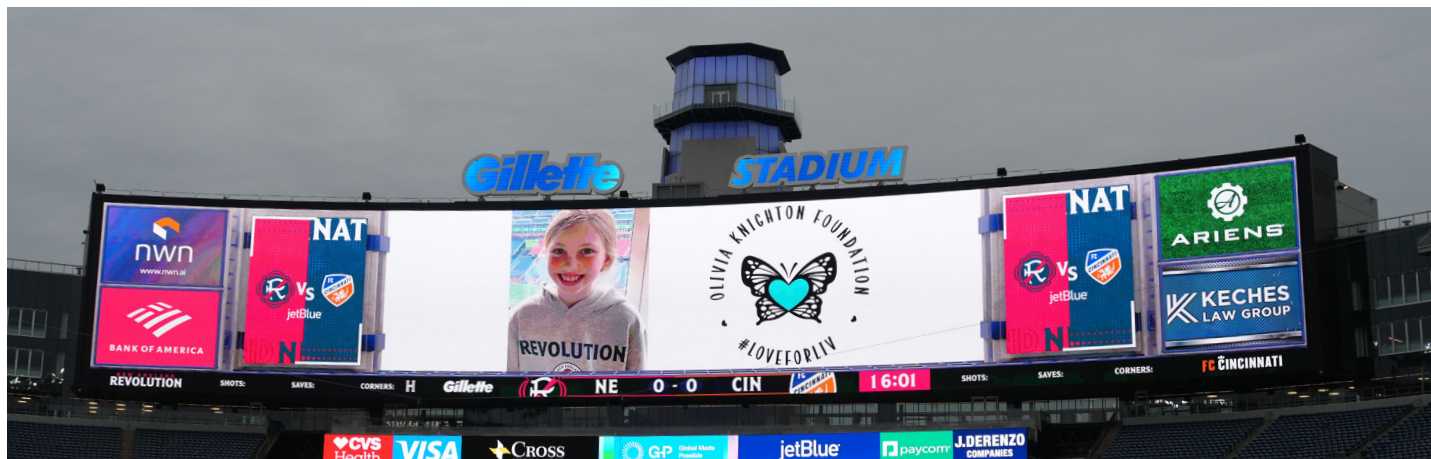

On carrying momentum from last weekend's win into the next two matches of the homestand:

M Alhassan Yusuf: "It's important to keep your head up and not get carried away. Those are the important things. [We] will keep working hard in training and just keep winning."

On the team's mentality during last Saturday's 3-0 win over CF Montreal:

Yusuf: "I think it was a difficult game. We didn't have most of the possession, but we know for us to win a lot of games, it has to be like that. It's not going to be perfect all the time, but the most important thing is to win the game."

OLIVIA KNIGHTON FOUNDATION MATCH

The New England Revolution will host its second annual Olivia Knighton Foundation Match on Saturday, April 11. The Olivia Knighton Foundation was established by former Revolution goalkeeper Brad Knighton to honor his late daughter on what would have been Olivia's 12th birthday on November 3rd, 2023. The Foundation's mission is to honor Olivia's short but beautiful life by spreading her light, love, passion, and kindness.

Saturday's match will feature several activations both pregame and inside the stadium. Beginning at 5:00 p.m. in the Revolution Fan Zone, stations will be set up for fans to participate in Rock Painting for Olivia's Garden, get airbrush tattoos, and take photos with the butterfly wings.

Inside the stadium, The Midnight Riders will unfurl a tifo honoring Olivia's memory. Revolution players will be wearing Olivia Knighton Foundation apparel when arriving to the stadium, and will don special patches on their jerseys during the match, which will be auctioned off with all proceeds benefitting the Olivia Knighton Foundation.

The New England Revolution acquired forward Marcos Zambrano on loan from Real Salt Lake through Dec. 31, 2026, in exchange for New England's natural third-round selection in the 2027 MLS SuperDraft. The transaction was completed prior to the close of the MLS Primary Transfer Window. New England will have the option to permanently acquire the player via trade at the open of the secondary window on July 13.

Zambrano appeared in all five tournament matches last fall, tallying one goal. Overall, Zambrano owns 27 youth caps for the United States Under-19 and Under-20 sides, scoring eight goals. FANS FLOCK TO FOXBOROUGH FOR ROAD TO 26 FRIENDLY

With the FIFA World Cup 2026 set to take North America by storm this summer, several cities and venues have already begun preparations for the upcoming tournament. Gillette Stadium, which will be renamed as Boston Stadium for the World Cup this summer, has installed a new natural grass surface for the first time in 20 years.

Gillette Stadium hosted its first major international friendly in over a decade, welcoming the storied France and Brazil men's national teams to Foxborough on March 26. A crowd of 66,215 fans were in attendance to watch 10-man France hold off Brazil in a 2-1 victory. It was the first time France has ever played at Gillette, with another match in Foxboro scheduled for June 26 against Norway; and the sixth appearance at the venue for Brazil. The crowd was the second-largest soccer crowd in Gillette Stadium history. The Brazil National Team has now also been part of three of the five largest soccer crowds since the venue opened in 2002.

MLS BOASTS YOUNGEST, MOST DIVERSE PLAYER POOL

Major League Soccer features the most diverse and youthful player pool of the top men's professional sports across North America with players from 78 countries across six continents represented on 2026 rosters. The number of countries represented in MLS in 2026 is 56% more than that of the next closest top men's league in North America (NBA, 50 countries represented) and the total is more than the NFL (28), NHL (21), and MLB (19) combined.

MLS also released data about the average age of players on rosters. The average age of players on MLS rosters was just 25.80 years, also the youngest among the top five North American men's sports leagues. The NBA is the next closest league at 26.54 years old, followed by the NFL (27.19), NHL (28.59), and the MLB (29.02). Over 170 players aged 22 or younger have appeared in at least one MLS game during the 2026 season (176 as of March 23).

MLS TO ALIGN CALENDAR WITH WORLD'S TOP LEAGUES

Major League Soccer announced a shift in its competition calendar, aligning the league's schedule with the world's top soccer leagues. Beginning in the summer of 2027, MLS will adopt a summer-to-spring season format, marking one of the most significant developments in the league's history.

In conjunction with this transition, MLS will introduce a new regular season format that blends elements of the global game with North American sports traditions. The league will also review potential adjustments to its Audi MLS Cup Playoffs format as part of an ongoing evaluation process but has not yet finalized any changes.

The 2027-28 MLS regular season will kick off in mid-to-late July 2027 and conclude with the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs and MLS Cup presented by Audi in late May 2028. Like many other major international leagues, MLS will observe a midwinter break from mid-December through early February, with no league matches scheduled in January.

Before the change to the new calendar, MLS will stage a transition season from February to May 2027, featuring a 14-game regular season, playoffs, and MLS Cup. The results will determine 2027 qualification for the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, Canadian Championship, Leagues Cup, and Concacaf Champions Cup.

MLS ANNOUNCES FORMAT FOR 2027 SPRINT SEASON

Major League Soccer announced details of the 2027 MLS Sprint Season, the MLS season that will launch Major League Soccer's transition into its new summer-to-spring calendar, as the league aligns its schedule with the world's top soccer leagues. The 2027 Sprint Season schedule will be announced in the coming months.

The fast-paced, high-stakes campaign will kick off in February and culminate in the Audi 2027 MLS Cup Playoffs and 2027 MLS Cup presented by Audi in May. Not only will the Sprint Season crown an MLS Cup champion, but it will also have international competition implications, determining qualification for the 2028 Concacaf Champions Cup and 2028 Leagues Cup.

The Sprint Season will see each MLS team play 14 regular season games from February to April. Regular season matches will consist of intra-conference play with teams facing each of their 14 conference opponents once - seven matches at home and seven matches away. At the conclusion of the regular season, the top eight teams in each of the two conferences will qualify for the Audi 2027 MLS Cup Playoffs. In each conference, the postseason will be played in a single-elimination bracket format to determine a conference champion. The Eastern Conference Champion and Western Conference Champion will meet in 2027 MLS Cup presented by Audi.

NEW ENGLAND REVOLUTION

BRING THE FIGHT

Marko Mitrović is in his first season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution in 2026, following his appointment to the position on Nov. 7, 2025. The 10th head coach in club history, Mitrović brings 15 years of coaching experience including successful tenures as a head coach for youth national teams of the United States and his native Serbia. As an assistant coach, Mitrović has four previous seasons of MLS experience with Chicago Fire FC, spent two years in the English Championship with Reading FC, and helped guide the Serbia Under-20 Men's National Team to a FIFA U-20 World Cup title.

Prior to joining New England, Mitrović compiled a 19-9-7 record as a head coach for the United States across multiple youth levels. He most recently led the U.S. Under-20 side to the 2025 FIFA U-20 World Cup quarterfinals in Chile, earning decisive 3-0 wins against two European powerhouses, France and Italy. Mitrović earned the opportunity after leading the United States Olympic Team at the 2024 Paris Games, where he also reached the quarterfinals. Mitrović joined U.S. Soccer as the head coach of the Under-19 team from 2022-23, winning all four of his friendly matches at the helm.

Mitrović, a UEFA Pro License holder, returns for his second stint in MLS after previously serving four years as an assistant coach for Chicago Fire FC from 2016-19 under compatriot Veljko Paunovic. He helped guide Chicago to a third-place finish in the Eastern Conference and the MLS Cup Playoffs in 2017. With the Fire, Mitrović worked with current Revolution midfielder Matt Polster for three seasons. While in Chicago, he also earned the opportunity to coach in the 2017 MLS All-Star Game against Real Madrid at Soldier Field.

After departing Chicago, Mitrović spent parts of two seasons as Paunovic's assistant with Reading FC, finishing seventh in the Championship his first year. During the 2021-22 season, Mitrović took charge for a pair of matches while Paunovic was out with illness, earning his first victory over Birmingham City on Nov. 6, 2021. At the club level, Mitrović has held roles as an assistant coach for Serbian clubs FK Banat Zrenjanin and FK Napredak Kruševac.

Hailing from Belgrade, Serbia, Mitrović earned his first head coaching opportunity with his boyhood academy, leading the Red Star Belgrade Under-15 side for two seasons from 2013-15. During his time with Red Star, Mitrović also served as an assistant coach for the Serbia U-20 national team from 2012-15, and the U-15 side from 2014-16. The Serbia Under-20 team enjoyed sustained success during Mitrović's tenure, winning the 2015 FIFA U-20 World Cup with a victory over Brazil after extra time in the Final, and finishing third at the 2014 UEFA European U-19 Championship.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Mitrović played 16 seasons of professional football in Europe spanning clubs in Serbia, Hungary, Azerbaijan, and Kazakhstan. The former midfielder began his career in the esteemed Red Star Belgrade Academy, making his professional debut for the club in 1996 at 17 years old. During his youth career, Mitrović earned one call-up to the FR Yugoslavia Under-18 National Team for the 1995 UEFA European U-18 Championship, where he appeared in a pair of group stage victories over Austria and Georgia.

After featuring for multiple clubs in Serbia and one season in Hungary, Mitrović returned home to sign with FK Budućnost Banatski Dvor. In three seasons, Mitrović made 85 appearances, helping earn promotion to the Serbian top flight in 2002-03, a berth in the Serbian Cup Final in 2004, and qualification to the 2004-05 UEFA Europa League. Mitrović retired from professional football in 2010.

Mitrović, 47, became a naturalized U.S. Citizen in 2024 and is fluent in four languages – English, Spanish, Serbian, and Russian. He earned his education from the Mathematical Grammar School in his native Belgrade, graduating in 1997. Mitrović holds a UEFA Pro coaching license and has served as a UEFA Official Lecturer for both A and B license courses.

He is married to his wife, Marija, with whom he shares three children: Mitar, Matija, and Mia. His eldest son, Mitar, is a graduate student on the Men's Soccer Team at the University of Michigan after three years at Marquette University. His youngest son, Matija, is a midfielder for Portuguese Primeira Liga side Vitoria SC and spent time in the Chicago Fire FC Academy.

The youngest of three siblings, Mitrović comes from a family rooted in academics. His father, Stanko, was an engineer, a path also followed by his older brother Vladimir, who now resides in the United States. His sister, Jelena, is a surgeon, while his mother, Jelica, has a background in linguistics.
