HEAD COACH | RENÉ WEILER

With over 24 years of coaching experience and six major trophies, Weiler becomes the most experienced and accomplished incoming head coach in D.C. United history and joins MLS as one of the league's most decorated managerial arrivals.

As a manager, Weiler has won league titles in Belgium, Egypt, and Switzerland, and has finished in the top three in five different domestic competitions. His résumé includes a UEFA Europa League quarterfinal run with Anderlecht and a league title in Egypt with Al Ahly, one of Africa's most successful clubs. Known for his tactical structure, emphasis on player development, and ability to deliver results in high-pressure environments, Weiler brings a proven approach.

Weiler, 51, was born in Winterthur, Switzerland, and has spent more than two decades managing clubs across Europe, Asia, and Africa. He led R.S.C. Anderlecht to the 2016–17 Belgian Pro League title and a Europa League quarterfinal berth. In Egypt, he guided Al Ahly SC to the 2019–20 Premier League championship with a record of 21 wins, 8 draws, and just 1 loss over 30 matches.

Most recently, Weiler held dual roles as head coach and sporting director at Servette FC in the Swiss Super League. During his two-year tenure (2023–2024), he helped stabilize the club competitively while playing a central role in long-term roster planning and youth development.

Weiler's coaching journey also includes stints at FC Luzern and FC Aarau in Switzerland, as well as a successful spell in Germany with 1. FC Nürnberg, where he earned a second-place finish in the 2. Bundesliga and a spot in the promotion playoff. He also managed the Kashima Antlers in Japan's top flight, adding to his global experience and adaptability across football cultures.

As a player, Weiler was a midfielder for FC Winterthur and FC Aarau in the Swiss topflight. He won the Swiss Nationalliga A title in 1992–93 with Aarau and earned two caps for the Switzerland National Team before transitioning into coaching.

ASSISTANT COACH | THOMAS BINGGELI

Thomas Binggeli joins D.C. United's coaching staff from Servette FC in Switzerland's top division, where he most recently served as a scout. Over a career spanning nearly three decades, Binggeli has held coaching and scouting roles across Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, and Egypt, establishing himself as a respected assistant coach within European football.

Born in Walliswil bei Wangen, Switzerland, Binggeli began his coaching career in 1997 with FC Klus-Balsthal before moving into assistant roles with FC Thun and Grasshopper Club Zurich in the Swiss Super League, and later 1. FC Köln in the German Bundesliga. He spent several seasons leading U-21 sides at Grasshopper Club Zurich and FC Aarau, guiding Aarau's youth team to a 39-24-14 record from 2010-2013.

Binggeli first worked alongside René Weiler at FC Aarau, helping the club win the 2012-13 Swiss Challenge League title and secure promotion. The pair reunited at RSC Anderlecht, where they won the 2016-17 Belgian Pro League, the 2017 Belgian Super Cup, and advanced to the UEFA Europa League quarterfinals. The duo later found success together at Al Ahly SC in Egypt, capturing the 2018-19 Egyptian Super Cup and 2019-20 Egyptian Premier League title.

Most recently, Binggeli managed FC Solothurn from 2021-2024, leading the club to a 42-20-20 record before joining Servette FC's scouting department. He now reunites with Weiler for a fifth time as D.C. United's assistant coach.

Binggeli holds a UEFA Pro License (2015), a degree in Mechanical Engineering, and completed a self-study course in computer science, working in the field for 15 years. He speaks three languages and previously played for SC Derendingen and FC Solothurn.

GOALKEEPER COACH | CODY MIZELL

Mizell joined the D.C. United first team staff as a goalkeeper coach after spending three seasons with New York City FC as a player, where he was an Eastern Conference and MLS Cup champion in 2021 and won the 2022 Campeones Cup.

He joined New York City FC on March 4, 2021 from New Mexico United after spending two seasons with the USL Championship side. Mizell is one of the original six players signed in New Mexico United club history in 2018. He helped New Mexico United reach the quarterfinals of the 2019 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, defeating both the Colorado Rapids and FC Dallas as well as helped the club to their first playoff win in club history in 2020. Mizell appeared in 58 matches for New Mexico United with 11 clean sheets across two seasons before moving to the MLS.

Mizell started his professional career in 2013 when he signed for the Atlanta Silverbacks of the North American Soccer League. He spent one season with Atlanta before signing with the Tampa Bay Rowdies in 2014. Mizell would appear in four matches before spending the 2015 season in the Icelandic first division with Fram Reykjavík. In one season, Mizell appeared in 19 matches, registering three clean sheets for the Icelandic side before signing for the Charlotte Independence in 2016. In two seasons, Mizell appeared in 44 matches for Charlotte, recording eight clean sheets and was nominated for the USL Championship Goalkeeper of the Year in 2017. He then returned to the Tampa Bay Rowdies in 2018 where he appeared in 16 matches, recording four clean sheets. Mizell has over 10 years of goalkeeper experience in both the USL Championship and Major League Soccer.

Mizell played for Clemson University in Division I of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) from 2010-2012. He was a three-year starter for the Tigers, winning numerous All-American and All-ACC awards. Mizell was named an NCAA All-American and team Most Valuable Player as a freshman in 2010. He made 51 appearances for Clemson over three seasons before signing professionally for the Atlanta Silverbacks of the NASL in 2013.
