During Nashville's time in MLS, Jacobs has overseen a Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Championship run in 2025 and five playoff appearances for the Boys in Gold. In 2023, Jacobs oversaw the founding of Huntsville City FC as Nashville SC's MLS NEXT Pro team and has spearheaded Huntsville's soccer operations. On July 20, 2022, Jacobs signed a contract extension keeping him in Nashville through the 2026 season.

Jacobs joined Nashville SC from Sporting Kansas City where he acted as Assistant Technical Director (2015-17). During his tenure, SKC won the 2015 and 2017 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and reached the MLS playoffs in each season. Previously, Jacobs served in a variety of leadership roles in soccer across the U.S., including time served as president of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America and Executive Vice President and Technical Director for the United Soccer League.

Prior to working in professional soccer, Jacobs coached at the collegiate level. At age 24, he was the youngest head coach in the NCAA at Iona College. As assistant coach for Duke University's

HEAD COACH

B.J. CALLAGHAN HEAD COACH

2025 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Champion
3x Audi MLS Cup Playoff Appearances ('16 & '18 PHI; '25 NSH)

B.J. Callaghan became Nashville Soccer Club's second head coach on July 22, 2024, with his on-field debut taking place during Leagues Cup 2024 against Liga MX side Mazatlán F.C. on July 31 at GEODIS Park.

His first win came on Sept. 14, 2024 in a 2-0 road victory over Atlanta United FC at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. Callaghan wrapped his first season with a 3-0 road win against Chicago Fire FC on MLS Decision Day 2024. In his first full season with the Boys in Gold, Callaghan led the team to win the 2025 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, Nashville SC's first trophy in club history and the first major professional sports championship in Tennessee history.

Prior to joining Nashville SC, Callaghan was an Assistant Coach with United States Men's National Team (USMNT). He began his tenure with U.S. Soccer in 2019 as a Strategy Analyst before being promoted to Assistant Coach that same year. During his time as assistant, the U.S. team captured the 2021 Concacaf Nations League Championship, 2021 Gold Cup, and reached the Round of 16 in the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022™.

After serving four years as an assistant, the New Jersey native was appointed interim manager for the National Team during the summer of 2023, leading the squad to a 5W-1L-1D record that featured a Concacaf Nations League tournament title and a 2023 Concacaf Gold Cup Semi-Finals appearance. Callaghan's USMNT interim manager record includes two multi-goal wins over Canada, one over Mexico, and a +17-goal differential. Callaghan's interim period concluded Aug. 1, 2023, and he returned to his role as assistant coach for the remainder of his tenure with US Soccer.

Before his time with the USMNT, Callaghan spent seven seasons in Major League Soccer (2012-19) with the Philadelphia Union, first as an Academy Coach. Two years and one Generation adidas Cup trophy later, Callaghan was promoted midseason to Assistant Coach with the Union's First Team where he worked alongside Interim-turned-Head Coach Jim Curtin for five years (2014-19) and earned his US Soccer Pro License. He helped lead Philadelphia to MLS Cup Playoff appearances in 2016 and 2018 and the final of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup tournament in 2014, 2015 and 2018. Callaghan also became familiar with current Boy in Gold Taylor Washington, who spent a year in the City of Brotherly Love after he was selected 23rd overall in the 2016 MLS SuperDraft by the Union.

After a successful collegiate playing career at Ursinus College where he earned a degree in Economics and Business Administration, Callaghan transitioned into coaching at his alma mater. He progressed to significant roles in the Philadelphia soccer community, working with FC Delco, Montgomery Soccer Club, and EPYSA/Region I ODP programs before joining Saint Joseph's University and then Villanova University as Assistant Coach for their women's programs.
