AMPUTEE SOCCER EXHIBITION MATCH

REVOLUTION AMPUTEE SOCCER TAKES ON AASA ALL-STAR TEAM IN POSTGAME EXHIBITION

The New England Amputee Soccer Association will host its annual exhibition match between the Revolution Amputee Soccer Team and the American Amputee Soccer Association All-Star Team on Saturday, September 19 at Gillette Stadium. The full-length exhibition soccer contest, featuring two 20-minute halves, will kick off following the MLS match between the New England Revolution and Orlando City SC, marking a continuation of the Revolution's longstanding support of amputee soccer in New England, which has included past donations of team uniforms, training field time, and durable high-performance crutches designed for use in competition.

The New England Revolution Amputee Soccer Team is captained by Nico Calabria, with defender Will Sands serving as the club ambassador. In August 2026, New England claimed its second U.S. Amputee Soccer Cup, going an unbeaten 4-0-0 without allowing a goal in tournament play. Calabria was awarded Tournament MVP and Musabwa Nzirimwo finished as the tournament's top goal scorer.

Amputee soccer follows the same rules as traditional soccer, with few modifications. The exhibition match presents an opportunity to unite, support, and learn from amputee athletes. Fans attending the MLS match are encouraged to remain at Gillette Stadium following the conclusion of the contest to support the amputee athletes. The amputee match offers a new and exciting form of entertainment for soccer fans and serves as a platform for the athletes to display their skills and raise awareness about limb differences, important of inclusivity in sports and diverse representation in athletic competitions, and the broader sports landscape of adaptive sports among the disability community.

QUOTEWORTHY

On the team's improved road form during the second half of the season following two away victories last week:

Head Coach Marko Mitrović: "Nothing changed. I know that people purely look at the statistics. If you take the first three road games away and what happened in our first four games when we as a team hadn't been ready or on the level of [play] where we are right now, I think often we had some very decent performances on the road. None of those games on the road we were outplayed or didn't have an opportunity to get a good result.

"Even before we started this [road stretch] because the last seven games we played six games on the road, I know there was a lot of talk about the [road] record. Look, I know the record exists there, and the record is there when we win six games in a row at home. We are not here to look at the records, we are here to go game after game and training after training to be who we are and push for the right outcome. Now, we got awarded but if we want to keep having the same outcomes we just have to keep doing the right things."

REVS ADD YOUNG DEFENDERS TYLON SMITH & JOSH WYNDER

The New England Revolution acquired central defender Tylon Smith on loan from Queens Park Rangers F.C. through the 2027 MLS Sprint Season, with an option to purchase.

Smith, 21, arrives in New England following a brief spell with Queens Park Rangers F.C. of the English Football League Championship, where he suited up for 10 appearances across the senior and U-21 levels from 2025-26. On the international stage, Smith has collected 16 caps and scored one goal for South Africa's Under-20 Men's National Team. In May 2025, Smith played every minute of South Africa's seven fixtures at the U-20 Africa Cup of Nations (AFCON), netting the game-winning goal in the semifinal against Nigeria. Smith went on to claim the tournament's top accolade, Man of the Competition, after leading South Africa to its first ever U-20 AFCON title.

The Revolution also acquired American center back Josh Wynder (pronounced WINE-durr) at the transfer deadline on a year-long loan from Portuguese club SL Benfica through the end of the 2027 MLS Sprint Season. The center back made his MLS debut with a 21-minute shift off the bench at Chicago Fire FC on September 13.

Wynder's move to New England sees him reunite with Revolution Head Coach Marko Mitrović, his former coach with the U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team during the latest FIFA U-20 World Cup. The young defender has played in the last two U-20 World Cups for the United States, totaling four starts in 2023 before starting all five matches at the 2025 tournament in Chile, where he paired with Revolution defender Ethan Kohler in central defense. The duo helped post 3-0 shutout wins over both France and Italy, advancing as far as the Quarterfinals.

NEW ENGLAND REVOLUTION

BRING THE FIGHT

Marko Mitrović is in his first season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution in 2026, following his appointment to the position on Nov. 7, 2025. The 10th head coach in club history, Mitrović brings 15 years of coaching experience including successful tenures as a head coach for youth national teams of the United States and his native Serbia. As an assistant coach, Mitrović has four previous seasons of MLS experience with Chicago Fire FC, spent two years in the English Championship with Reading FC, and helped guide the Serbia Under-20 Men's National Team to a FIFA U-20 World Cup title.

Prior to joining New England, Mitrović compiled a 19-9-7 record as a head coach for the United States across multiple youth levels. He most recently led the U.S. Under-20 side to the 2025 FIFA U-20 World Cup quarterfinals in Chile, earning decisive 3-0 wins against two European powerhouses, France and Italy. Mitrović earned the opportunity after leading the United States Olympic Team at the 2024 Paris Games, where he also reached the quarterfinals. Mitrović joined U.S. Soccer as the head coach of the Under-19 team from 2022-23, winning all four of his friendly matches at the helm.

Mitrović, a UEFA Pro License holder, returns for his second stint in MLS after previously serving four years as an assistant coach for Chicago Fire FC from 2016-19 under compatriot Veljko Paunovic. He helped guide Chicago to a third-place finish in the Eastern Conference and the MLS Cup Playoffs in 2017. With the Fire, Mitrović worked with current Revolution midfielder Matt Polster for three seasons. While in Chicago, he also earned the opportunity to coach in the 2017 MLS All-Star Game against Real Madrid at Soldier Field.

After departing Chicago, Mitrović spent parts of two seasons as Paunovic's assistant with Reading FC, finishing seventh in the Championship his first year. During the 2021-22 season, Mitrović took charge for a pair of matches while Paunovic was out with illness, earning his first victory over Birmingham City on Nov. 6, 2021. At the club level, Mitrović has held roles as an assistant coach for Serbian clubs FK Banat Zrenjanin and FK Napredak Kruševac.

Hailing from Belgrade, Serbia, Mitrović earned his first head coaching opportunity with his boyhood academy, leading the Red Star Belgrade Under-15 side for two seasons from 2013-15. During his time with Red Star, Mitrović also served as an assistant coach for the Serbia U-20 national team from 2012-15, and the U-15 side from 2014-16. The Serbia Under-20 team enjoyed sustained success during Mitrović's tenure, winning the 2015 FIFA U-20 World Cup with a victory over Brazil after extra time in the Final, and finishing third at the 2014 UEFA European U-19 Championship.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Mitrović played 16 seasons of professional football in Europe spanning clubs in Serbia, Hungary, Azerbaijan, and Kazakhstan. The former midfielder began his career in the esteemed Red Star Belgrade Academy, making his professional debut for the club in 1996 at 17 years old. During his youth career, Mitrović earned one call-up to the FR Yugoslavia Under-18 National Team for the 1995 UEFA European U-18 Championship, where he appeared in a pair of group stage victories over Austria and Georgia.

After featuring for multiple clubs in Serbia and one season in Hungary, Mitrović returned home to sign with FK Budućnost Banatski Dvor. In three seasons, Mitrović made 85 appearances, helping earn promotion to the Serbian top flight in 2002-03, a berth in the Serbian Cup Final in 2004, and qualification to the 2004-05 UEFA Europa League. Mitrović retired from professional football in 2010.

Mitrović, 48, became a naturalized U.S. Citizen in 2024 and is fluent in four languages – English, Spanish, Serbian, and Russian. He earned his education from the Mathematical Grammar School in his native Belgrade, graduating in 1997. Mitrović holds a UEFA Pro coaching license and has served as a UEFA Official Lecturer for both A and B license courses.

He is married to his wife, Marija, with whom he shares three children: Mitar, Matija, and Mia. His eldest son, Mitar, is a graduate student on the Men's Soccer Team at the University of Michigan after three years at Marquette University. His youngest son, Matija, is a midfielder for Portuguese Primeira Liga side Vitoria SC and spent time in the Chicago Fire FC Academy.

The youngest of three siblings, Mitrović comes from a family rooted in academics. His father, Stanko, was an engineer, a path also followed by his older brother Vladimir, who now resides in the United States. His sister, Jelena, is a surgeon, while his mother, Jelica, has a background in linguistics.

During his time at Quincy, Hughes coached four All-Americans, two GLVC Freshmen of the Year, two GLVC Defensive Players of the Year, one GLVC Offensive Player of the Year, and more than 20 all-conference players.

BLAIR GAVINASSISTANT COACH

Blair Gavin is in his third season as an Assistant Coach with the New England Revolution. Hired on January 8, 2024, after one season as Head Coach of FC Tulsa in the USL Championship, Gavin, a former Revolution player, remains on staff under new Head Coach Marko Mitrović.

Gavin, 37, spent the 2023 season at the helm of FC Tulsa, leading the team to a 10-15-9 record. In his lone season with the club, Gavin was hired for his extensive knowledge of USL, MLS experience, and attack-minded style, with an ability to relate to both veterans and young players. Prior to his time with FC Tulsa, Gavin spent two seasons on staff with the Columbus Crew in MLS. Initially joining as a video analyst for the 2021 season, Gavin matriculated to a full-time assistant coach for the 2022 campaign where he served under his former college coach, Caleb Porter. In August of 2022, Gavin departed Columbus after being hired as Head Coach of FC Tulsa for the following year.

Gavin earned his first coaching opportunity in 2018 with Phoenix Rising FC after his retirement. The Scottsdale, Ariz. native joined Patrice Carteron's staff at just 29 years old, helping the club to a 54-16-14 record in league play during his three-year tenure. In his first season coaching Phoenix, Gavin helped guide the club to a Western Conference Championship and its first berth in the USL Cup Final. In 2019, Gavin and Phoenix finished with the best regular season record in the USL Championship. In his final season with Phoenix in 2020, Gavin helped the club reach the USL Cup Final once again, though the championship match was cancelled due to health and safety protocols.

As a player, Gavin spent eight seasons as a midfielder in MLS and the USL. He was originally selected by Chivas USA as the 10th-overall pick in the 2010 MLS SuperDraft, signing a Generation adidas contract. In parts of three seasons with Chivas, Gavin appeared in 43 matches, scoring three goals. Midway through the 2012 season, he was acquired by the New England Revolution and went on to make two appearances for the club.

KEVIN HITCHCOCKGOALKEEPERS COACH

Kevin Hitchcock is in his eighth season as Goalkeeper Coach with the New England Revolution, having joined the club on April 30, 2019. Hitchcock brings over 25 years of coaching experience to Marko Mitrović's staff, including time in the first divisions of England, Qatar, and India, as well as a decorated 18-year playing career in England.

With the Revolution, Hitchcock leads the coaching and development of the club's goalkeepers and has helped New England reach the playoffs in four of his seven seasons. During his tenure with the club, he has mentored two of the best shot-stoppers in league history in Matt Turner and Djordje Petrović. Both goalkeepers made major strides in their development under Hitchcock's tutelage, resulting in multi-million-dollar transfers to the English Premier League clubs. At the time of Turner's move to Arsenal FC in 2021, it was the largest outgoing transfer fee for a goalkeeper in MLS history, a mark that Petrović surpassed when he made his move to Chelsea FC in 2023. Turner earned his first international experience while being coached by Hitchcock and went on to start for the U.S. Men's National Team at the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022.

With Hitchcock as their mentor, Turner (2020 and 2021) and Petrović (2022) finished in the top five of MLS Goalkeeper of the Year voting in four consecutive seasons (2019-22) and placed in the top two three years in a row (2020-22). Turner was named the 2021 Allstate MLS Goalkeeper of the Year after the club's historic Supporters' Shield campaign, when he backstopped the Revolution to a then-league-record 73 points. In 2020, Turner finished second in the voting as New England reached the Eastern Conference Final, while setting a new club record for lowest goals-against average.
