FIREWORKS

Fireworks and Independence Day have become synonymous. Also synonymous with Independence Day is the patriotic bunting visible on houses, fences and in windows leading into the holiday.

Bunting is also a key visual in the Revolution logo. Both of these traditional Independence Day elements have served as the inspiration for the 2026-27 jersey design.

HERITAGE TREE

A nod to our supporters, this icon has been featured annually on Revolution jerseys as an homage to those who support the club through good times and bad.

EST. 1776

Celebrates the birth of The United States of America on July 4, 1776.

INTRODUCTION & MEDIA POLICIES

REVOLUTION MEDIA POLICIES

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

Credentialed Media for any match, training session, or club event are expected to follow the guidelines set forth in this document, in addition to the instructions of the Revolution Communications staff, Gillette Stadium staff, and security personnel, or risk limitation of access or the revocation of credentials.

Media credentials are granted at the discretion of the Revolution Communications staff to reputable journalists employed by accredited media outlets. Credentials must be used to produce written, visual, or audio coverage of the team for the assigning media outlet. This coverage must be producible upon request for verification that an outlet's media access is being used responsibly in accordance with the club's guidelines.

Media may never use the privileges of their access to request autographs, take personal photographs, exchange personal contact information, or approach players with commercial requests. Failure to meet any of the above conditions, or failure to abide by the conditions set forth on the back of all MLS and Revolution credentials, will result in the revocation of credentials.

REVOLUTION MEDIA RESOURCES

MATCHDAY MEDIA POLICIES

2025 MEDIA ACCREDITATION

Apply for 2026 Revolution media credential through Gillette Stadium Accredit Solutions portal. Visit our Digital Media Center for step-by-step instructions. If your outlet does not yet have an account, register by selecting the "Create Account" option. Contact Senior Communications Coordinator Kylie Roberts (KylieR@revolutionsoccer.net) with any application issues or questions. .

Full-season applications will close in mid-February before the 2026 home opener on Saturday, March 7. Single-game credential applications will be accepted until 48 hours before each event. All approved media will receive an email confirmation one day before the match with parking, entrance and credential pick-up instructions.

Credentials are reserved for professional, reputable media on assignment from official and accredited media outlets. Media credentials and parking passes are non-transferable and distributed at the discretion of the Revolution Communications staff; a media member's status may be reviewed at any time. All applications must be submitted by the assigning manager or editor through your outlet's dedicated Accredit Solutions portal. Freelance media operating without an official assignment, including social media creators, podcast hosts, and amateur journalists, are less likely to be granted media credentials.

All media, including those in possession of Season Credentials, are required to RSVP in advance of every training session (24 hours) and home match (48 hours). Revolution media credentials may not be valid for select events including MLS Cup, non-MLS competitions, and international matches. Please follow the event organizer's accreditation instructions for each non-MLS competition.

DRESS CODE

While on assignment at either training or match day, media are required to dress professionally. Accredited media should not wear any Revolution apparel, or apparel supporting competing clubs or national team affiliations. Failure to comply with this professional standard will result in loss of credentials.

MEDIA PARKING

Credentialed media will be granted free, on-site parking upon request in Lot 7. ADA accommodations can be made upon request. The club will issue physical parking passes, the preferred method to ensure easy access into the media lot, with PDF parking passes also available. Digital parking passes will be distributed no later than 24 hours before each match.

Please note, the assigned media parking lot and instructions are subject to change at any time at the discretion of the Gillette Stadium / TeamOps staff. Always comply with the instructions of the parking attendants and be respectful of all Gillette Stadium staff.

MATCHDAY CREDENTIAL PICKUP

The Media Entrance to Gillette Stadium is inside Security Command, located at the south end of the stadium between the loading docks and the new Patriots football facility. Broadcast crew credentials will be available for pickup upon arrival on matchday. All other media can pick up their credentials beginning two (2) hours before kickoff.

WORKSPACES

Print media will be provided with a workstation in the Blue Level Press Box, complete with power and internet access. Photographers will also have a workroom closer to the field. A pregame media meal is served in the Red Level Press Box beginning two (2) hours before each match. A halftime snack is provided, with coffee, water, and tea available throughout the match. The Revolution Communications staff asks that working media refrain from staying on Red Level during the match; please return to your Blue Level seat when not finished.

MATCHDAY MEDIA AVAILABILITY

After home matches, the Revolution will host a press conference featuring the club's head coach, often followed by a player, inside the Auditorium located across the tunnel from the Revolution locker room. Players are available inside the locker room beginning 15 minutes after each match. Please note that player access may occur simultaneously with the head coach's press conference. The Communications staff will make an announcement to media in the locker room when the coach's availability is beginning.

After away matches, the Revolution will make the head coach and at least one player available via virtual press conference, beginning roughly 5-10 minutes after the match. At Gillette Stadium, visiting clubs will have PR representatives on site for each match to facilitate access to their coach and players.

Within two hours of each match's conclusion, the club will upload postgame interview footage and transcripts to the Digital Media Center for editorial use.

Please note, non-MLS competitions are subject to different media access guidelines. For example, international matches will host postgame player availability in a mixed zone format.

Open Locker Room Guidelines: Credentialed broadcast and print media will be permitted into the locker room 15 minutes after each match's conclusion. The locker room will remain open for at least 30 minutes. Still photography is not allowed at any time inside the locker room, and video recording is permitted only during interviews. During this time, the club may ask certain players to speak in front of the club's branded step-and-repeat backdrop, though media are entitled to approach any player at their lockers for interviews.

Any media who use this access to socialize, request autographs, exchange personal information, conduct commercial inquiries, or engage in other unprofessional behaviors will have their credentials revoked. Media not engaged in player interviews may be asked to leave.

MATCHDAY PHOTOGRAPHY

General photographers will be granted BLUE photo vests (GOLD for Leagues Cup). RED all-access photo vests (GRAY for Leagues Cup) are reserved for Club Digital employees, MLS personnel, and Rights Holders. Only photographers shooting for an accredited media outlet or wire service will be credentialed for games. Freelance photographers will not be credentialed. All photographers must obey the directions of the sideline photo marshals, as they are an extension of the Revolution Communications staff.

Credentialed photographers with field access may utilize any of the four corners around the perimeter of the field. Photographers must remain behind the advertising boards at all times, and are also encouraged to limit their presence inside the 18-yard box. No photographer is allowed to shoot directly behind the goal.

Chairs are provided to media for their convenience, though photographers are not required to remain in a fixed position for the match. To avoid interfering with the game action, please avoid changing locations during the run of play. As a courtesy to our fans in premium seating areas, please refrain from standing or shooting directly in the line of sight of Presidents Club, Optum Field Lounge, and Celebration Beer Hall customers.

To capture starting lineup photos, photographers will be escorted to the midfield line by Revolution photo marshals. This is the only time photographers are permitted near the technical areas (between the benches) in any capacity. Any fixed camera positions must be pre-approved by the club and setup must be complete prior to the start of the match. If behind the goal, a fixed camera must be set 18 inches behind the net to avoid accidental damage to the equipment.

MEDIA POLICIES: TRAINING & INTERVIEWS

ENG CREW FILMING RESTRICTIONS

During MLS matches, local ENG crews are permitted to shoot pregame warmups and the first 15 minutes of each half for editorial use in linear broadcast news coverage. Digital use of match footage requires a separate digital license from MLS. At the 15- and 60-minute marks, all video cameras not belonging to MLS rights holders must be turned off. Additionally, live news coverage must conclude 30 minutes prior to the posted kickoff time, or if applicable, at the start of an exclusive national broadcast window.

TRAINING ACCESS & WEEKLY MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Per MLS policy, every Revolution training session will be open to media for at least 15 minutes, during which time filming and photography will be permitted. Based on the team's training plans, the specific time of this daily access period is subject to change with little notice. The Revolution Communications staff will instruct media to cease shooting if the team begins 11-on-11 drills, set-piece training, or detailed tactical instruction.

Each training session will also be accompanied by a 15-minute period for interview access, when Revolution players and coaches will be available upon request. Revolution Communications will often proactively schedule players and/or coaches to speak to the media following training, typically Tuesdays and Thursdays of a standard one-game week. For all other requests, though not required, we ask that media attending training provide details of their interview requests ahead of the session.

Media are advised that contacting players or team personnel directly outside of the team's media access periods – including through social media platforms – to arrange interviews or garner private team information will have their credentials reviewed and potentially revoked.

MEDIA CHECK-IN AT THE REVOLUTION TRAINING CENTER

The New England Revolution are headquartered at the Revolution Training Center, located at 1776 Revolution Way in Foxborough, Mass. Home to the Revolution's MLS team, the front office, Revolution II, and Revolution Academy staffs, the facility has two grass fields located behind the building dedicated to the first team. Media should park in the lots on the right before reaching the guard gate, before proceeding toward the flagpole and the staircase on the left side of the building. Please await an escort from a Revolution Communications staff member before proceeding upstairs to the field.

No media are permitted up to the training fields without a Communications staff escort.

TRAINING SESSION REPORTING POLICY

In coverage of training sessions, media are required to cooperate with the following reporting policies. Failure to do so could result in the revocation of media credentials.

- Media may not enter the facility or training field without a staff escort.
- Do not report on match strategy deployed at training. This includes describing specific formations, personnel groupings, set pieces, and lineup combinations.
- Do not quote, paraphrase, or report comments made by coaches, staff, or players during a training session while they are on the training field.
- The only quotes that may be directly or indirectly transmitted from training sessions are those gathered during on-the-record interviews.
- Videographers and photographers must follow the instructions of the Revolution Communications staff. Even during the open 15-minute access period, media may be instructed to cease shooting if the team unexpectedly transitions to tactical or set-piece work.

Thank you for taking the time to review these media guidelines ahead of the 2026 MLS season. We are grateful for your coverage and support of the Revolution and Major League Soccer.

GILLETTE STADIUM FACTS

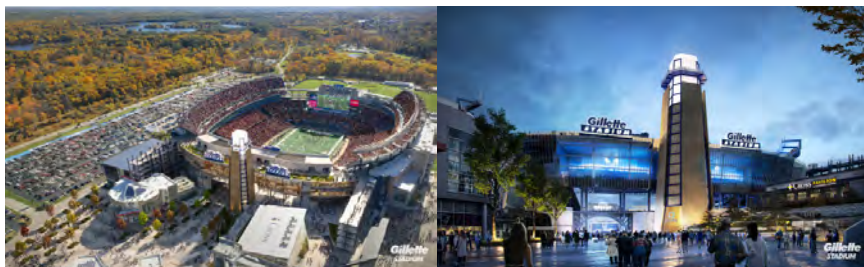

Since opening in 2002, Gillette Stadium has served as the full-time home of the New England Revolution and New England Patriots. Entering the club's 25th season calling Gillette Stadium home, the Revolution have recorded a 185-103-96 regular season record in the building, good for a .607 winning percentage. The Revolution inaugurated the stadium on May 11, 2002 with a 2-0 victory against the Dallas Burn in front of over 22,000 fans at the building's first official match. Later that same year, Gillette Stadium hosted the MLS Cup Final in front of 61,316 spectators, setting a new record for the championship match.

In addition to being the home of one of Major League Soccer's founding clubs, Gillette Stadium and Foxborough boast a rich history of hosting international soccer matches. In 2026, the venue will once again welcome the world to Massachusetts as Boston hosts seven matches, including a Quarterfinal, during FIFA World Cup 26™. The historic showcase will feature a record 48 nations competing for the ultimate prize in soccer, marking the fourth time the World Cup has come to Boston (1994 FIFA Men's World Cup, 1999 and 2003 FIFA Women's World Cups).

Gillette Stadium has played host to many of the soccer world's biggest names, including Lionel Messi and Neymar during Copa America Centenario in 2016. On March 26, 2026, the venue will welcome the Brazil National Team back to Foxborough for an international friendly against France, the 2018 World Cup champions. The United States Men's National Team has notched a 10-3-2 record at Gillette Stadium, drawing its largest crowd on Sept. 12, 2002, when 67,584 fans attended an international friendly between Mexico and Brazil. Gillette Stadium is also one of the world's top grossing concert venues according to Billboard, and annually hosts an array of sports and entertainment events such as NCAA athletics, motor sports, professional lacrosse, and more.

In Fall 2023, Gillette Stadium completed its most dramatic improvement to date as the north end of the stadium underwent significant upgrades. The project introduced a completely reimagined plaza leading into the stadium, an enhanced lighthouse, and the largest outdoor high-definition stadium video board in the country, measuring 22,000 square feet. The project also added new hospitality and function spaces, including the Globalization Partners Atrium and Bud Light Celebration Beer Hall on field level, as well as new and improved concession locations and fan amenities.

These north end zone renovations followed consistent investment by the Kraft family over the stadium's first 20 years, resulting in more than $300 million in stadium enhancements. Updates to the south end zone in 2021 accounted for an additional $225 million, reflecting the Kraft family's ongoing commitment to the venue and fan experience for years to come. The cost of these projects, like Gillette Stadium's original build, is entirely privately funded by the Kraft family.

2025 IN REVIEW

CARLES GIL BREAKS REVOLUTION GOAL CONTRIBUTIONS RECORD

New England captain Carles Gil now owns the most assists (87) and goal contributions (136) in club annals. Gil set the record with a goal-and-assist performance on August 9 vs. D.C. United, surpassing Taylor Twellman (129).

Gil accrued 14 assists in 2025, seventh most in MLS, marking his fifth consecutive season with double-digit helpers, becoming only the fifth MLS player to achieve the feat. The Spaniard is the only New England player to reach 10-or-more assists in six seasons.

Carles Gil also became the fourth Revolution player to earn four MLS All-Star selections. At the season's end, his 87 regular season assists and 92 helpers including playoffs are both the most leaguewide.

MATT TURNER RETURNS TO NEW ENGLAND

U.S. international goalkeeper Matt Turner returned to the New England Revolution in the summer on loan from French Ligue 1 club Olympique Lyonnais through June 30, 2026, with an option to purchase.

In his debut on August 9, Turner surpassed 10,000 minutes played across all competitions for New England. Since making his MLS debut in 2018, Turner holds New England's club records for goalkeeper win percentage (.572) and saves percentage (72.3). His 46 regular season wins with New England are tied with Bobby Shuttleworth for the second most in Revolution history.

HISTORIC MLS DEBUT FOR ISRAELI F DOR TURGEMAN

Summer signing Dor Turgeman made his MLS debut on Sept. 27, bursting onto the scene with a goal-and-assist performance off the bench to power a 2-0 victory over Atlanta United FC. The forward earned MLS Team of the Matchday honors and joined an exclusive club of 23 MLS debutants to tally both a goal and an assist in their league debut, last achieved by Luca Langoni in August 2024.

The Israel international added goals in the next two games as well, becoming the 10th player in MLS history to score goals in each of his first three MLS appearances. The U22 Initiative signing is the only Revolution player ever to accomplish the feat.

MILLER, FEINGOLD NAMED TO THE MLS '22 UNDER 22' LIST

Two Revolution defenders, Peyton Miller and Ilay Feingold, were named to the 2025 MLS 22 Under 22 Class, a list of the top players under the age of 22. The prestigious list is voted on by an expert panel of MLS coaches, general managers, sporting directors, MLS Season Pass talent, and select media.

A Homegrown product of the Revolution's esteemed pro player pathway, Miller ranked No. 7 as the youngest player on the list. It marked the third straight season the Revolution placed a player in the top 10. Feingold, an Israeli international signed via the MLS U22 Initiative in January 2025, landed at No. 17 on the list after a successful debut season. The Revolution were one of four MLS clubs represented on the list by multiple players. ROBERT KRAFT
INVESTOR/OPERATOR

Robert Kraft, founder, chairman and CEO of the Kraft Group, is an American entrepreneur, investor, and philanthropist whose portfolio of businesses and brands range across many verticals, including paper and packaging, sports and entertainment, real estate, and venture investing. His holdings include the New England Revolution, New England Patriots, Gillette Stadium, International Forest Products, Rand-Whitney Group, Rand-Whitney Containerboard and a portfolio of more than 100 venture and private-equity investments.

As Investor/Operator of the New England Revolution (Major League Soccer) and chairman and CEO of the New England Patriots (National Football League), Kraft has cultivated a championship culture in New England by delivering a combined 17 conference titles, six Super Bowl championships, and one MLS Supporters' Shield between the two teams. In addition to building a pair of championship-driven franchises, Kraft has committed the resources necessary to transform an undeveloped parcel of land that he purchased in 1985 into Gillette Stadium – a premier concert, entertainment, and event venue that both franchises call home.

Kraft's longstanding support of soccer in the United States dates back to the early 1990s, when he secured Foxboro Stadium's status as one of the nine host venues for the 1994 FIFA Men's World Cup. The success of the 1994 World Cup paved the way for a new era of New England sports. On June 6, 1995, the Kraft family became the founding Investor/Operator of the Revolution, joining Major League Soccer (MLS) as one of its 10 charter clubs for its inaugural season in 1996.

Under Kraft's leadership, the Revolution have made five MLS Cup appearances and celebrated U.S. Open Cup, North American SuperLiga, and Supporters' Shield titles. Foxborough has also played host to MLS Cup three times, including the 2002 Final between the Revolution and LA Galaxy, which was played at Gillette Stadium in front of what was then the largest crowd in MLS postseason history (61,316). In 2021, Kraft saw the Revolution set an MLS record with 73 regular season points en route to the club's first Supporters' Shield title. In December 2019, Kraft unveiled a state-of-the-art training center for the Revolution situated on 68 acres in Foxborough adjacent to Gillette Stadium, providing his soccer club with a world-class home that stands among the world's best soccer training facilities.

The United States Men's and Women's National Teams have also enjoyed tremendous support from the Kraft family and soccer fans throughout New England. Since 1990, Foxborough has hosted 33 international matches involving U.S. national teams at Foxboro Stadium (1990-2001) and Gillette Stadium (2002-present). In addition to hosting matches during the 1994 FIFA Men's World Cup, Foxborough was a host city for both the 1999 Women's World Cup and the 2003 Women's World Cup. In 1999, more than 50,000 fans watched the U.S. Women's National Team defeat North Korea, 3-0, in the Women's World Cup. In 2011, the Men's National Team played before a crowd of 64,121 fans at Gillette Stadium against the then-defending FIFA World Cup champion Spain. That attendance total stood as a New England record for a soccer match until it was surpassed in April 2024 when the Revolution hosted Inter Miami CF in front of 65,612 fans.

Most recently, Kraft helped secure the 2026 FIFA Men's World Cup for North America, the first tournament to be held on U.S. soil in more than 30 years, when he was named Honorary Chairman of the Board of the United Bid Committee of Canada, Mexico, and the United States in 2017. Boston will serve as one of 16 host cities for the tournament, which will see FIFA World Cup matches contested in Foxborough for the fourth time. The stadium will host seven FIFA World Cup matches in 2026, including a Quarterfinal.

A native of Brookline, Mass., Kraft attended public schools before matriculating to Columbia College on a full academic scholarship. Upon graduation, he received a full fellowship to Harvard Business School, where he earned a master's degree in business administration. Kraft also served on the board of directors and as a trustee for various organizations. A trustee emeritus at Columbia and Boston College, Kraft has also received honorary degrees from several colleges and universities.

Over the past five decades, Robert Kraft and his family have consistently donated time, resources, relationships, and expertise to a wide range of charities, nonprofits, and causes, resulting in lifetime giving of almost $1 billion. While his philanthropic efforts have been a pillar of his life for more than 50 years, his contributions across a range of causes have focused on social justice, healthcare and economic mobility.

In 2019, Kraft was awarded the Genesis Prize, referred to as the "Jewish Nobel" by Time Magazine. As a Genesis Prize laureate, Kraft founded the Blue Square Alliance Against Hate, previously known as the Foundation to Combat Antisemitism (FCAS), focused on fighting Jewish hate and all hate across America. Blue Square Alliance's mission is to win the hearts and minds of non-Jews and Jews through powerful positive messaging and partnerships, motivating and equipping them to stand up to Jewish hate and all hate.

JONATHAN KRAFT

Jonathan Kraft is the President of the Kraft Group which is comprised of companies in sports and entertainment, the paper and packaging industry, real estate, and private equity investing. He oversees the day-to-day operations of each company including Gillette Stadium, the New England Patriots, and the New England Revolution.

Kraft was integral in the founding of Major League Soccer (MLS), including contributing to the drafting of the original operating agreement, and helped grow the league with the Revolution as one of its inaugural clubs. As MLS enters its 31st season, he remains the only member of the MLS Board of Governors to serve since the league's launch in 1995. With Kraft's leadership and influence, MLS selected Foxboro Stadium in New England to host the inaugural MLS Cup in 1996. Since then, the Kraft family has hosted multiple championship games in Foxborough including the 2002 MLS Cup, which featured the Revolution and drew a then-record crowd of 61,000 people.

The Revolution have made appearances in five MLS Cup finals. The club won the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup in 2007 and the international North American SuperLiga championship in 2008. In 2021, the Revolution won the Supporters' Shield title and set a then-MLS record with 73 regular season points.

Kraft serves on multiple MLS executive committees, including the Business Ventures Committee of which he is Chair, the Advisory Finance Committee of which he is co-Chair, the Media Committee, the Labor Committee, and the Expansion Committee.

Following the construction of Gillette Stadium, Kraft oversaw the Kraft Group's real estate development team's design and construction of Patriot Place, a mixed-use entertainment destination surrounding Gillette Stadium providing guests with a multitude of options, including dining, hospitality, specialty retail, lodging, world-class health care, night life and entertainment.

In addition to these ventures, after years of managing in-house operations for applying analytics to better understand customers and their buying behaviors, Kraft spun out the in-house technology and services to co-found the Kraft Analytics Group (KAGR) in 2016, a progressive technology and service company providing data management, advanced analytics and consulting services for sports and entertainment organizations.

A graduate of Williams College, Kraft is a Trustee Emeritus and a member of the Williams College Investment Committee. He received his MBA from Harvard Business School, where he currently serves on the Dean's Board of Advisors. Kraft has served on the Board of Trustees of Massachusetts General Hospital since 2010 and was named chair in 2019. He is on the Board of Directors for TKO Group Holdings, Inc., which comprises UFC and WWE. He is also on the Board of Trustees for Belmont Hill School and Dexter Southfield. Curt Onalfo is in his third season as Sporting Director of the New England Revolution, overseeing all aspects of the club's soccer operations including personnel, scouting, player development, and the pro pathway. After serving as Interim Sporting Director for part of 2023, Onalfo was officially elevated to the post on Nov. 30, 2023. He was previously New England's Technical Director since June 2019, where he led an overhaul of the Revolution's pro player pathway inclusive of Revolution II, the Revolution Academy, and the first team.

Since arriving in New England, Onalfo has helped the Revolution first team reach the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs four times and win the 2021 Supporters' Shield with a then-MLS-record 73 regular season points. His expertise in player development has also resulted in a clearly defined professional pathway from the team's youth ranks up to the first team, accelerated by the launch of Revolution II under his direction ahead of its inaugural 2020 season. Through the team's six seasons, 15 players have ascended from the Revolution II roster to the first team, while 52 members of the Revolution Academy have made their professional debuts with the second team. Over his tenure in New England, Onalfo has helped facilitate the sale of several players to European clubs, including Tajon Buchanan (Club Brugge - BEL), Matt Turner (Arsenal FC - ENG), Adam Buksa (RC Lens - FRA), Djordje Petrović (Chelsea FC - ENG), and Homegrown product Esmir Bajraktarević (PSV Eindhoven - NED).

Onalfo, 56, led a renaissance in the Revolution Academy upon taking over the program midway through 2019. Under his guidance, the Revolution Academy became the first in MLS NEXT history to win back-to-back MLS NEXT Cup national championships, with the Under-19s winning the post-season tournament in 2022 and 2023. The Revolution Academy also featured the MLS NEXT Under-17 MVP in forward Olger Escobar. The success of New England's pro pathway under Onalfo has resulted in the influx of youthful Homegrown Players into the first team, including teenagers Noel Buck, Esmir Bajraktarevic, Jack Panayotou, all three of whom have garnered national team recognition. After helping develop Bajraktarevic into a regular first-team contributor and member of the Bosnia and Herzegovina national team, Onalfo facilitated the teenager's transfer to PSV Eindhoven, marking the first European transfer for a Revolution Homegrown Player.

A native of Sao Paulo, Brazil, Onalfo possesses New England roots as he was raised in Ridgefield, Conn. He arrived in New England following an extensive coaching and playing career in Major League Soccer and with the United States Men's National Team. He owns 13 years of MLS coaching experience, highlighted by head coaching roles with D.C. United (2010), the Kansas City Wizards (2007-09), and the LA Galaxy (2017). While working as an Assistant Coach with the Galaxy, he also served as the inaugural Head Coach of USL Championship side LA Galaxy II from 2014-16, where he led the club to a Western Conference title in 2015. When he departed "Los Dos" to lead the Galaxy's first team, his overall record with the developmental side finished at 46-29-20.

Onalfo also spent six years as an Assistant Coach with the United States Men's National Team. He served as an assistant for the USMNT from 2002-07 – including at the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup™ – and also worked as an assistant with the U.S. Under-23 Men's National Team in 2002. Prior to joining the Revolution, he was the U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team from 2018-19, including in Poland at the FIFA U-20 Men's World Cup. He also briefly served as Acting Head Coach of the U-19s for a training camp in January 2019.

Onalfo entered the coaching ranks as an assistant with D.C. United in 2000 following his retirement. He remained with the Black and Red until September 2002, briefly serving as Interim Head Coach in 2001. After his time in the U.S. Men's National Team setup, Onalfo was appointed Head Coach of the Kansas City Wizards shortly after the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup™. He led Kansas City for two-and-a-half seasons and helped the club reach the postseason twice, including a Western Conference Finals appearance in 2007. In December 2009, Onalfo was named Head Coach of D.C. United.

After starring as a defender at Ridgefield High School in Connecticut, Onalfo played collegiately at the University of Virginia from 1987-1990. In four seasons as a defender with the Cavaliers, he earned a pair of All-ACC First Team selections and helped the team win the 1988 ACC Championship. He began his professional career with French side La Ciotat in 1991, before featuring for the Connecticut Wolves of the USISL from 1994-95, and Mexican club Tampico Madero in 1995.

Onalfo was selected by the LA Galaxy in the 1996 MLS Inaugural Player Draft and would make 13 appearances for the club in the league's debut season, helping LA reach the first ever MLS Cup final. The defender went on to register 23 appearances across four MLS seasons, including stints with San Jose (1997) and D.C. United (1998-99). He recorded one international cap with the U.S. Men's National Team and featured extensively at the youth level, including the 1989 FIFA World Youth Championship, the 1991 Pan American Games, and the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona.

Onalfo's journey took a detour soon after the 1992 Olympics, when a diagnosis of stage three Hodgkin's disease at the age of 24 disrupted his career and nearly ended his life. After surviving his arduous battle with cancer, Onalfo resumed his playing career with Connecticut and then Mexican side Tampico FC, before joining the Galaxy for the inaugural MLS season.

Onalfo, who was born in Sao Paulo, Brazil on the same day that Pelé scored his 1,000th goal, is a fluent Spanish speaker.

Kevin Hitchcock is in his eighth season as Goalkeeper Coach with the New England Revolution, having joined the club on April 30, 2019. Hitchcock brings over 25 years of coaching experience to Marko Mitrović's staff, including time in the first divisions of England, Qatar, and India, as well as a decorated 18-year playing career in England.

With the Revolution, Hitchcock leads the coaching and development of the club's goalkeepers and has helped New England reach the playoffs in four of his seven seasons. During his tenure with the club, he has mentored two of the best shot-stoppers in league history in Matt Turner and Djordje Petrović. Both goalkeepers made major strides in their development under Hitchcock's tutelage, resulting in multi-million-dollar transfers to the English Premier League clubs. At the time of Turner's move to Arsenal FC in 2021, it was the largest outgoing transfer fee for a goalkeeper in MLS history, a mark that Petrović surpassed when he made his move to Chelsea FC in 2023. Turner earned his first international experience while being coached by Hitchcock and went on to start for the U.S. Men's National Team at the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022™.

With Hitchcock as their mentor, Turner (2020 and 2021) and Petrović (2022) finished in the top five of MLS Goalkeeper of the Year voting in four consecutive seasons (2019-22) and placed in the top two three years in a row (2020-22). Turner was named the 2021 Allstate MLS Goalkeeper of the Year after the club's historic Supporters' Shield campaign, when he backstopped the Revolution to a then-league-record 73 points. In 2020, Turner finished second in the voting as New England reached the Eastern Conference Final, while setting a new club record for lowest goals-against average.

After the arrival of Petrović in 2022, Hitchcock helped the young Serbian international achieve one of the best statistical seasons for a goalkeeper in MLS history. Despite playing only 21 games and at least 1,000 fewer minutes than his peers, Petrović prevented 10.66 goals above expected and contributed 11.86 goals added, according to American Soccer Analysis, the best single-season marks since the advanced analytics began being tracked in 2013. His performance earned Petrović finalist consideration for the 2022 Allstate MLS Goalkeeper of the Year and MLS Newcomer of the Year awards. Midway through the 2023 season, Petrović moved to Hitchcock's former club, Chelsea FC, for a club-record transfer fee, and quickly earned the starting job with the Blues. He remains in Europe on loan with Ligue 1 club Strasbourg.

GOALKEEPING COACH

Before joining the Revolution, Hitchcock, who owns a UEFA "A" Goalkeeper License and UEFA "B" Coaching License, spent the previous 18 years as a first-team goalkeeper coach, including nine seasons working with top-flight players in the English Premier League. His experience began with a stint at Watford FC (2001-04), followed by stops at Blackburn Rovers FC (2004-08), Manchester City FC (2008-10), West Ham United FC (2010), Fulham FC (2010-11), and Queens Park Rangers FC (2012-15). In his time with these elite clubs, Hitchcock trained such goalkeepers as Brad Friedel, Julio Cesar, Joe Hart, Kasper Schmeichel, Shay Given, and Robert Green, among others.

The London native, 62, departed England for Al Arabi Sports Club in Qatar (2015-16), before returning to coach with Birmingham City FC (2016-18). The year prior to his move to New England, he spent one season as goalkeeper coach with Indian Super League side Chennaiyin FC (2018-19).

MOREIRA AT A GLANCE

- Entering first season at the MLS NEXT Pro level with Revolution II, after spending two seasons with New England's first team and 11 campaigns as an assistant in MLS.
- Two-time MLS Cup champion (2015 and 2020) with 400 matches coached as an Assistant Coach.
- In 2020, became the youngest Assistant Coach in MLS history to win multiple MLS Cups, doing so with two different clubs.
- Won the 2021 Campeones Cup with Columbus Crew.
- Spent three seasons at alma mater Akron, helping guide the Zips to three straight NCAA Tournament berths and the 2010 NCAA National Championship in his first season.

Pablo Moreira is in his first season as Head Coach of New England Revolution II, joining the developmental side after two seasons on the Revolution's first-team staff, including a four-game spell as interim head coach in 2025, and 11 campaigns as an assistant coach in Major League Soccer. Moreira is a two-time MLS Cup champion with over 400 matches coached in his career. During his tenure as an assistant in MLS, Moreira has coached an MLS League MVP, MLS Cup MVP, Newcomer of the Year, Goalkeeper of the Year, seven MLS Best XI selections, and nine MLS All-Star Selections en route to 155 career wins.

Prior to joining the Revolution, Moreira served as an Assistant Coach for the Columbus Crew from 2019-22. Moreira helped guide the Crew to the 2020 MLS Cup title, becoming the youngest assistant coach in league history to win multiple MLS Cups — the first to do so with clubs in both conferences. The next year, he helped lead Columbus to the 2021 Campeones Cup, the club's first international trophy, beating Liga MX champions Cruz Azul.

Moreira, 40, entered the professional ranks as an Assistant Coach for the Portland Timbers from 2013-17. Moreira's first season with the Timbers included a 23-point improvement and a 43-point goal-differential improvement from the previous season, securing a first-place finish in the Western Conference and the club's first postseason berth. During his tenure, Moreira helped lead Portland to its first MLS Cup championship in 2015, as well as Concacaf Champions League appearances in 2014 and 2016, Western Conference regular season first-place finishes in 2013 and 2017, and a Cascadia Cup in 2017.

At the collegiate level, Moreira served as an Assistant Coach / Video Analyst at the University of Akron from 2010-2012. The Zips compiled a 55-6-9 record during his three seasons, while Moreira helped assemble the nation's No. 2 recruiting class in each of his first three years, producing 14 professionals into the MLS ranks during that span. In 2011, Akron set an MLS record for most first-round selections from a single school, landing five of the first eight picks in the MLS SuperDraft. Akron won the National Championship in 2010 in addition to three consecutive Mid-American Conference regular-season titles (2010-12), and two MAC Tournament championships (2010, 2012).

Moreira played as a forward for the Akron Zips from 2003-07. He was on the first Mid-American Conference team to be ranked No. 1 in the nation in any sport in 2005. Moreira earned All-Mid-American Conference honors in 2006 and 2007, in addition to winning three MAC regular season (2005, 2006, 2007) and Conference Tournament championships (2004, 2005, 2007).

Born in Montevideo, Uruguay, Moreira comes from a distinguished soccer lineage as he is the son of former Uruguayan International Jose "Chico" Moreira, who in 1980 with club side Nacional, captured the South American Treble winning the Club World Cup, Copa Libertadores, and Uruguayan Primera Division League Titles, in addition to winning the 1980 Mundialito (Copa de Oro de Campeones Mundiales) with the Uruguay National Team.

Brad Knighton is entering his second season as the Assistant Coach/Goalkeeper Coach for Revolution II, the New England Revolution's developmental side which began play in 2020. Coaching alongside Michael Milazzo in 2025, Knighton also helped guide Revolution II to their second postseason appearance in team history. Knighton spent the 2023-24 seasons as a Head Coach for the Revolution Academy, competing in MLS NEXT.

In Knighton's first season with the Revolution Academy, he led the Under-19s to the MLS NEXT Cup Championship, securing New England's second consecutive national title. The Under-19s finished 18-3-5 overall in 2022-23, including 3-0-2 in the postseason. After switching to the Under-15s level in 2024, Knighton stayed on staff to help guide the Academy to a 8-1-4 record in MLS NEXT Flex action.

Prior to his coaching days, the Hickory, N.C. native began his playing career with New England in 2007 as an undrafted free agent. He went on to mark the second-most MLS seasons in a Revolution uniform (12), and registered a 33-29-20 mark in his career, including 21 wins for the Revolution. During his tenure, Knighton helped New England win the 2021 Supporters' Shield, and started four games en route to the 2016 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final.

Knighton, 41, retired after the 2022 MLS season and ranks fourth in Revolution history in goals against average (1.70), save percentage (66.9), and winning percentage (.509) among qualifying goalkeepers. In U.S. Open Cup play, he holds the club's all-time record in games played in goal (13), games started in goal (13), and minutes played in goal (1,260). Outside of New England, Knighton played for the Philadelphia Union during their inaugural season in 2010, and helped lead Vancouver Whitecaps FC to its first appearance in the MLS Cup Playoffs in 2012.

Beyond his on-field achievements, the 2022 Revolution Humanitarian of the Year continues to dedicate his time to serving the New England community alongside his family. On November 3, 2025, the Knighton family marked the two-year anniversary of the Olivia Knighton Foundation. Brad, his wife, Britney, and their sons Owen and Brooks launched the foundation in 2023 on the birthday of their late daughter, Olivia, and has since donated over $100,000 through scholarships, soccer programs, animal research, and more.
