QUOTEWORTHY

On the team's mentality to grind out close wins:

Asst. Coach Blair Gavin: "Minnesota provided a lot of difficulties; a team who has got a lot of quality in the attacking phase of the game and a lot of difficult set piece moments. You saw at the end of the game the amount of crosses and numbers that they threw into the box, and the guys' resilience to win first, second, and third balls at times and sticking to the game as long as possible to win the game. It was really nice to see the unity of the team, people coming off the bench, everything to assist and give us the victory. It was really nice to watch."

On playing against Charlotte FC for the second time this season:

D Mamadou Fofana: "We played against them [three games ago]. It was not easy because they are a very good team. They play together, they are compact, and it is always difficult to play against them. We know we will go to Charlotte, with fans and everything. But the most important thing is we have to trust ourselves and keep doing what we are doing now, and I think we will take what we need."

In advanced metrics, Turner is once again pacing the league with his goals prevented totals - on pace for a single-season MLS record. Turner's value extends far beyond his shot-stopping ability. Per American Soccer Analysis, Turner is the all-time MLS leader in overall goals added since the statistic has been tracked (2013).

Goals added (g+) measures a player's total on-ball contribution in attack and defense. It does this by calculating how much each touch changes their team's chances of scoring and conceding across two possessions. Just like goals added rewards players for improving their team's situation in possession, it also rewards defensive actions that break up opposing teams' possessions.

Because goals added values every touch in the same way, it can compare different kinds of actions. And because that impact is measured in goals, it paints a picture of how much the player's touches helped their team's chances of winning. This season, Turner leads all MLS goalkeepers in goals added by a wide margin.

US YOUTH INT'L F MARCOS ZAMBRANO MAKES MLS DEBUT

The New England Revolution acquired forward Marcos Zambrano on loan from Real Salt Lake through Dec. 31, 2026, in exchange for New England's natural third-round selection in the 2027 MLS SuperDraft. The U.S. Youth international made his much-anticipated MLS debut on May 13 against Nashville SC, coming off the bench for 12 minutes in the second half.

Zambrano, 21, made his first two appearances for the Revolution in Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup action. The U.S. Youth international debuted on April 14, before scoring the first senior goal of his career on April 29 against Orlando City SC.

Zambrano spent two-and-a-half seasons overseas with Portuguese clubs Benfica B and Vitória Guimarães B. The forward reunites with Revolution Head Coach Marko Mitrović, having played under New England's manager at the 2025 FIFA U-20 World Cup in Chile. Zambrano appeared in all five tournament matches last fall, tallying one goal. Overall, Zambrano owns 27 youth caps for the United States Under-19 and Under-20 sides, scoring eight goals. Zambrano previously featured for his native Ecuador at the U-15 and U-17 levels.

FOFANA HEADLINES REVS' STRONG BACKLINE

New England's center back duo of Colombian Brayan Ceballos and Mali international Mamadou Fofana both returned to action for their season debuts on Feb. 28 at Red Bull New York. The duo formed a steady presence along the Revs' backline in 2025 combining for 59 starts. Ceballos was voted 2025 Revolution Defender of the Year by the local media for his efforts over a strong debut campaign.

Fofana scored his first Revolution goal on April 4 against CF Montreal, just the second goal of his professional career. On April 22, Fofana sparked the Revs backline with a season-high eight clearances to help preserve a 2-1 victory at Atlanta. His goal-line clearance to save a goal on May 9 vs. Philadelphia earned him a third selection to MLS Team of the Matchday this season. Fofana has also paired with U.S. youth international Ethan Kohler, who has started five straight matches at center back. To date this season, Fofana ranks second in MLS with 39 clearances.
