CONTINUITY IS KEY

- Charlotte FC enters the 2026 season with a lot of familiar faces in terms of players and coaching staff. However, with the last two seasons under Head Coach Dean Smith, there has been a spike of success along with small changes.
- Under Smith, CLTFC has tallied back-to-back 50 point, 14-plus win seasons. With the team allowing 52 goals in their first two seasons, Smith came in and improved the defensive side of the ball by allowing just 37 goals in 2024 and 46 goals in 2025. On the offensive side of the ball, the Club had its best two scoring seasons, tallying 46 goals in 2024 and 55 goals in 2025.
- The Crown returns 10 of 11 starters from last season and saw just seven players depart from last year's roster. Beyond just last year, Charlotte has six returning starters who have been with the club since 2023, four of which have been with the organization since its inception in 2022. Brandt Bronico, Nathan Byrne, Kristijan Kahlina, and Kerwin Vargas are the four who have been with the team since '22, while Andrew Privett and Ashley Westwood joined ahead of the '23 season.

TOKLOMATI STAYING PUT

- Charlotte FC enters the 2026 season with a lot of familiar faces in terms of players and coaching staff. The Club's first two seasons didn't see the success they were looking for and change happened. However, with the last two seasons under Head Coach Dean Smith, there has been a spike of success along with small changes.
- Charlotte FC announced the Club has signed striker Idan Toklomati to a new long-term deal that is guaranteed through the 2028-29 MLS season with an option for 2029-30. Toklomati remains designated as one of Charlotte's Under-22 initiative slot players. He joined CLTFC in the Summer of 2024 via Crown Legacy FC and has quickly risen within the organization.
- Following the Club-record sale of Patrick Agyemang to Derby County, Toklomati wasted no time filling in and securing his spot as the team's top striker. In 36 matches played across all competitions, he tallied 13 goals and four assists, including a 15-goal contribution during the MLS regular season. His 11 league goals were the most in MLS by a player 21-years-old or younger, and his performances earned him the #3 spot on the 2025 22 Under 22 Class.
- After scoring three goals in his first six MLS regular-season matches as the team's starting striker, Toklomati rattled off a seven-match goal-contribution run that concluded with the Club's second-ever hat-trick against Miami in a 3-0 victory. Toklomati tallied at least one goal in three of the Crown's four competitions (MLS Regular Season/Leagues Cup/MLS Cup Playoffs).
- On the international stage, the striker returned to the Israel national team in November with a call up for an international friendly then followed up with a substitute appearance for Israel's World Cup qualifier versus Moldova.

United), Tyler Miller (Seattle/LAFC/Minnesota/DC United) and recently Henry Kessler (New England/St. Louis). All four players are 27 years old or older and bring a wealth of experience and depth to the squad.
- De la Torre, 27, just finished his first season in MLS and helped San Diego FC to a historic inaugural season. He tallied five goals and two assists in 37 matches played across all competitions. While he was competing with San Diego, he earned a call up to the USMNT for their 2025 Gold Cup runner-up finish. The San Diego, California native played a key role for the USMNT, having started all six matches and recorded 431 of the possible 540 minutes. Schnegg made his debut for Sturm Graz in a 6-0 win over SC Röthis in the ÖFB-Cup, the Austrian Domestic League Cup, and scored his first goal for the club and the match winning goal in a 2-1 league win over WSG Tirol.
- Miller, 32, broke out onto the MLS scene with then-expansion side LAFC in 2018. The Woodbury, New Jersey native anchored the LAFC defense with 11 clean sheets, a third-place regular-season finish in the West, and a U.S. Open Cup semi-final appearance. The following season saw Miller allow a league-low 29 goals allowed (for goalkeepers with at least 29 matches played), nine clean sheets and an 18-8-2 record, which led LAFC to winning the Supporters' Shield. He had his best season in MLS during the 2021 season with a career-high 11 clean sheets while allowing just 34 goals in 30 games. Miller signed with D.C. United ahead of the 2023 and played two seasons with the Black-and-Red. He was named to the 2023 MLS All-Star Game and compiled six clean sheets in 25 matches played. The goalkeeper kept 36 clean sheets over 128 matches played in Major League Soccer.
- Kessler, 27, began his professional soccer career in 2020 after being drafted sixth overall in the 2020 MLS SuperDraft by the New England Revolution. He became an instant starter for the Revs backline in his rookie season, playing in 19 of 20 games (shortened COVID season) and anchoring the backline to four clean sheets. The following season, Kessler started 25 matches and helped New England win its first Supporters' Shield title with a 22-5-7 record.
