STORYLINES

BEHIND ENEMY LINES Toronto FC continue their 2026 Major League Soccer campaign with a visit to the Bay State to face New England Revolution on Wednesday evening. Following a goalless draw against rivals CF Montréal in their MLS return to play, the Reds hold a 58W-176L-80T all-time record (254 points) in MLS regular season road matches to date.

THROUGH THE YEARS TFC face New England Revolution, one of the original 10 MLS clubs from the league's inaugural 1996 season, for the 44th regular season meeting between the two sides. Historically, Toronto FC hold a 12W-17L-14T all-time record through their first 43 encounters with the Revolution. The Reds have found success in recent visits to Massachusetts, earning three wins and three draws across their last seven trips to Gillette Stadium dating back to August 2019. Toronto will now look to secure their first road victory over New England since March 2024, when Lorenzo Insigne's late winner sealed all three points, while aiming to earn a result in three consecutive away meetings against the Revolution (1W-1T).

STEP BY STEP The Reds returned from the FIFA World Cup 26™ break with a hard-fought 0-0 draw against rivals CF Montréal at Stade Saputo last Thursday. The latest edition of the 401 Derby proved to be a tightly contested affair, with Toronto FC goalkeeper Luka Gavran producing three saves to record his second clean sheet of the 2026 MLS season and help secure a point in Quebec. Toronto also welcomed back a pair of key players, as winger Theo Corbeanu returned from injury to make his first start since the club's 2025 MLS season finale against Orlando City SC last October, while attacking midfielder Djordje Mihailovic made his first appearance since March, coming off the bench in the 74th minute. Canadian attacker Jules-Anthony Vilsaint also made his 50th Major League Soccer appearance on the night, split between CF Montréal and Toronto FC.

ONE OF OUR OWN Last Thursday, TFC announced the signing of Toronto FC II and TFC Academy product Richard Chukwu to a Major League Soccer contract as a Homegrown player through the 2029-30 MLS season with a club option for 2030-31. Chukwu became the 38th player in club history to sign for the First Team from the Toronto FC Academy. The 18-year-old recently signed a professional contract with Toronto FC II, where he registered two assists in 31 appearances for TFC II across three MLS NEXT

Pro seasons (2024, 2025, 2026). The left-footed defender originally joined the TFC Academy in January 2020 and represented the Academy across the U-15, U-17 and U-19 age groups. At the international level, he ranks among the most frequently called-up players to Canada's youth national teams in TFC Academy history. He has represented Canada at the U-15, U-17 and U-20 levels since 2022, featuring in multiple camps and competitions including the Concacaf Boys' Under-15 Championship, Concacaf Men's Under-17 and Under-20 Championships and two FIFA U-17 World Cups. In November 2024, he earned a call-up to the Canadian Men's National Team training camp under Head Coach Jesse Marsch at the age of 16 before serving as team captain for Canada at the 2025 FIFA U-17 World Cup in Qatar a year later.

FOR CLUB & COUNTRY Toronto FC athletes Richard Chukwu, Antone Bossenberry and Tim Fortier were officially named to the Canadian Men's National Team for the 2026 Concacaf U-20 Championship last Friday. The marquee U-20 tournament, taking place from Friday, July 24 to Sunday, August 9 in Mexico, will serve as direct qualification for both the 2027 FIFA U-20 World Cup and the 2028 Olympic Games. Defender Richard Chukwu (Toronto FC), midfielder Antone Bossenberry (Toronto FC II) and midfielder Tim Fortier (Toronto FC Academy) were all part of the 21-player squad that helped Canada secure qualification for the Concacaf U-20 Championship. Chukwu, 18, originally joined the Toronto FC Academy in January 2020 and progressed the youth ranks and TFC II before signing an MLS contract with Toronto FC as a Homegrown player on July 16, 2026. Bossenberry, 17, is currently in his second MLS NEXT Pro season with Toronto FC II after signing a professional contract with the Young Reds in October 2025. Fortier, 17, has spent two seasons with Toronto FC II as an Academy athlete, where he has made 27 appearances for the Young Reds in MLS NEXT Pro action. Les Rouges opens its tournament against Panama on July 26, followed by facing Honduras on July 29 before closing out group stage play against Jamaica on August 1. The four semi-finalists of the Concacaf U-20 Championship will secure berths to the 2027 FIFA U-20 World Cup in Azerbaijan and Uzbekistan, while the highest-finishing Concacaf nation outside the United States will earn the region's second berth at the 2028 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, USA. The tournament champion, along with the top finisher from each of Concacaf's Caribbean, Central American, and North American zones, will also qualify for the 2027 Pan American Games in Lima, Peru.

COACHING STAFF

ROBIN FRASER – HEAD COACH

Robin Fraser (FRAY-ZHUR) was announced as Toronto FC's Head Coach on January 10, 2025. Fraser, 58, became the 15th head coach in club history and returns to Toronto after a four-year tenure as Head Coach of the Colorado Rapids. He previously served as Assistant Coach with Toronto FC from 2015 through 2019.

With over 30 years of professional experience as a player and coach, Fraser returns to Toronto FC after spending the past five seasons (2019-2023) with the Colorado Rapids. In his second season (2020), the club posted the second-most goals per game in franchise history, scoring 32 goals in 18 games. During the 2021 campaign, Fraser guided Colorado to a club-record 61 points — their best MLS regular season points total of all time — as the Rapids topped the Western Conference for the first time in club history. This earned him recognition as one of the top coaches in MLS, finishing as runner-up for the Sigi Schmid MLS Coach of the Year. During his five seasons with the club, Fraser integrated and developed young talent, leading to notable moves to top European clubs, including Auston Trusty (Arsenal FC), Sam Vines (Royal Antwerp FC), and Moïse Bombito (OGC Nice).

Fraser served as an assistant coach to Greg Vanney with Toronto FC for five seasons (2015-2019). During his time at TFC, the club won the first domestic treble in MLS history, winning the MLS Cup, the Supporters' Shield, and the Canadian Championship in 2017. While with the Reds, the club qualified for three MLS Cup Playoffs (2015, 2016, 2017), reaching two MLS Cup Finals (2016, 2017). He was also part of the coaching staff that led TFC to capture three consecutive Canadian Championships (2016, 2017, 2018).

Fraser began his coaching career with Real Salt Lake as an Assistant Coach (2007 – 2009), where he won his first MLS Cup in 2009. In 2011, he was appointed Head Coach of Chivas USA, where he spent two seasons before serving as an Assistant Coach at New York Red Bulls (2012), where he played a key role in the club lifting the Supporters' Shield title in 2013.

As a player, Fraser made over 200 appearances throughout a remarkable 17-year MLS career, where he established himself as one of the league's top defenders and earned numerous accolades, including two MLS Defender of the Year honours, five MLS Best XI selections, and five MLS All-Star recognitions. Fraser was also honoured as one of The 25 Greatest players in MLS history in 2020. Throughout his playing career, the former defender spent five seasons (1996-2000) with the LA Galaxy, where he was part of the squad that won the Supporters' Shield in 1998. Fraser was among the first players to join the LA Galaxy in the 1996 MLS Inaugural Player Draft. He was traded to the Colorado Rapids, where he spent three seasons (2001-2003) before joining the Columbus Crew via trade in 2004. The defender captained the Crew for two seasons and led the Black & Gold to capture the Supporters' Shield title in 2004. Internationally, Fraser earned 27 caps with the U.S. Men's National Team, featuring in the 1999 Confederations Cup and the 2000 Concacaf Gold Cup.
