MICHAEL BRADLEY was named Head Coach of Red Bull New York on December 15, 2025. He becomes the second New Jersey native to be named Head Coach of the club, after beginning his career with New York in 2004.

Bradley joins RBNY after spending the last season with Red Bull New York II, where he was Head Coach. He led the club to their first career MLS NEXT Pro Cup title and also posted an 11-4-4 mark, while in the charge of the team. RBNY II scored 50 goals in 19 matches while Bradley was in charge and he posted an 8-1-3 mark at home across all competitions.

Prior to joining New York, Bradley joined the Canada Men's National Team as an Assistant Coach for their Canadian Shield Tournament in June. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach for Stabaek, on his father Bob Bradley's coaching staff. During his time there, the club posted a 16-12-10 mark.

The Princeton, N.J. native played professionally for 20 seasons, beginning his career with the Metrostars after being selected 36th overall in the 2004 MLS SuperDraft at 16 years old, which at the time, was the youngest signing in club history. Bradley made a big move in 2005, signing with Eredivisie side SC Heerenveen. In three seasons with the club, he made 70 appearances and tallied 19 goals and nine assists. He also had stints at Borussia Monchengladbach, Aston Villa, Cievo, and A.S. Roma.

On January 13, 2014, Bradley returned to MLS, where he signed with Toronto FC. He spent 10 seasons with the club and made 308 appearances. He helped the club win four Canadian Cups, the 2017 MLS Cup, and the 2017 Supporters Shield.

Bradley also featured for the United States National Team, where he made 151 appearances, which ranks third for the most appearances by a player in USMNT history. He recorded 17 goals and 11 assists, and made his debut for the U.S. on May 26, 2006 against Venezuela.

He captained the United States for 44 matches and led the squad to a fourth place finish in the 2016 Copa America Centenario. He made eight FIFA World Cup appearances, most notably four during the 2010 FIFA World Cup, where he scored the game-tying goal in a 2-2 draw against Slovenia. He won two CONCACAF Gold Cups with the United States in 2007 and 2017. He also was named to the CONCACAF Gold Cup Best XI in 2017 and 2019.

MIKE SORBER
ASSISTANT COACH

First Season at New York
Ninth Season Overall

Sorber joined the Red Bulls coaching staff on January 21, 2026. He joined New York after working with St. Louis CITY SC Academy for the past season. Prior to that, Sorber served as an Assistant Coach and Technical Director for Toronto FC from 2022 to 2023. He also served as an Assistant Coach for Los Angeles FC from 2017 to 2022, where the club won MLS Cup and Supporters Shield in 2022. He also had stints at Philadelphia, Montreal, and the USMNT.

IBRAHIM SEKAGYA
ASSISTANT COACH

Third Season at New York
Third Season Overall

Sekagya joined the Red Bulls coaching staff on February 2, 2024. He has been with the Red Bull New York since 2015. He served as an assistant coach for Red Bull New York II until 2022, when he was named Head Coach RBNY II during the 2022 season. In his first full season with RBNY II, he led the club to a 14-8-6 record and earned a spot in the MLS NEXT Pro Playoffs in their first-ever season. He recorded his first playoff victory against Chicago Fire FC II.

JEREMY PROUD
