PREVIEW SOUND (10/30): Marko Mitrović and GK Matt Turner

Over 50,000 expected fans will be treated to a marquee matchup of two championship contenders in Foxborough on Sunday night. Riding a four-match winning streak, the Revolution are in prime position to secure a top-two finish in the Eastern Conference if they can maintain their two-point lead over Sunday's visitors with two games to play. With home-field advantage already secured through the first round of the Audi 2026 MLS Cup Playoffs, New England needs a win or two draws over its final two matches to finish above Inter Miami and claim the No. 2 seed.

The Herons will provide a difficult test for the Revolution, whose 11 home wins are more than all but one other MLS club and one off New England's club record. Inter Miami is led by two-time reigning MLS MVP and eight-time Ballon d'Or winner Lionel Messi, the MLS leader in goals with 25 tallies this season, along with his Argentine running mate Rodrigo de Paul, who paces the team with 16 assists. The backline is patrolled by longtime Brazil and Manchester United legend Casemiro, while Uruguayan striker Luis Suarez has contributed 16 goals in his third MLS campaign.

New England's own arsenal of stars will be up to the test, buoyed by the confidence of their 1-1 draw on the road at Nu Stadium in the season's previous meeting with Miami. Carles Gil tallied the equalizer in that April 25 clash, one of his career-high 13 goals on the year along with 13 assists. Gil has been productive against Miami, recording five goals and seven assists in 10 career meetings. The captain's next goal contribution will set a new single-season career high, while his most recent assist on the opening goal of Wednesday's 3-2 win over Red Bull New York made him the eighth player in MLS history with 100 career helpers.

Forward Dor Torgeman is challenging Gil for the club's Golden Boot, boosting his scoring total to 12 goals with his brace against New York. Torgeman has two multi-goal games in his last four outings and five markers in the last four games. The striker's 10 goals since the July rank eighth leaguewide. Both of Turgeman's goals were assisted by his countryman Ilay Feingold, who has now started four straight matches since returning from injury.

Summer reinforcement Dániel Gazdag got involved in the scoring against the Red Bulls with his second game-winning goal in only 10 Revolution appearances. Peyton Miller's impact also continues to increase, as the teenager ranks top five in MLS with 26 shots on target since MLS resumed the season in July, while his eight assists in that span are also top 10 in the league.

Throughout the current winning stretch, goalkeeper Matt Turner has been a brick wall in net, recording 28 saves over the four-match run. By making his 33rd start of 2026 on Sunday, he will set a new single-season record for appearances by a Revolution goalkeeper. The league leader in goals prevented (-16.30), Turner also needs just eight more saves to set a new single-season club mark.
