Atlanta opened the scoring midway through the first half via own goal from New England. Revolution II nearly pulled level in the 35th minute, when Homegrown midfielder Cristiano Oliveira drilled a shot that struck the crossbar. The Somerville, Mass. resident fired another shot on target moments later, but Atlanta's goalkeeper Jonathan Ransom produced a diving save to keep the visitors in front heading into halftime.

New England's attack continued its momentum early in the second half, with striker Jayden Da directing a header on frame, but Ransom again denied the shot. Da, who made his MLS debut yesterday with New England's first team at Red Bull New York, registered a career-high seven shots and four key passes, both team highs, in his first Revolution II appearance tonight.

In the 70th minute, New England found the equalizer through Morgan, as Oliveira slipped a feed into the box for the attacker to slot a low finish into the net. Morgan, a Canadian international, scored his fifth MLS NEXT Pro career goal, while recording three shot attempts and one key pass in his club debut tonight. Oliveira tallied his first helper of the season, the third of his professional career, and notched a career-best four shot attempts on the night.

Alongside Morgan, Sunday's contest also featured the club and MLS NEXT Pro debut of defender Schinieder Mimy, who played all 90 minutes at left back. Additionally, Head Coach Pablo Moreira deployed midfielder Carlos Zambrano in the second half, marking the Venezuelan's club and league debut. In net for New England, 2025 MLS SuperDraft first-round pick Donovan Parisian recorded three saves in regulation time, and added two stops in the penalty shootout to secure the extra point.

Revolution II will continue their five-game homestand next Sunday, March 8, hosting Toronto FC II at Beirne Stadium on the campus of Bryant University. The 5:00 p.m. ET kickoff is available to watch live on MLSNEXTPro.com and the OneFootball platform, with Jake Griffith providing play-by-play.
