Revolution II struck first in the 18th minute, with forward Jayden Da opening his 2026 account. Midfielder Cristiano Oliveira delivered a feed to fellow Homegrown Player Damarion McIntosh on the right flank, who slipped a pass behind CT United FC's backline, finding Da in stride. The 23-year-old Boston native placed his shot into the left side of the net to notch his first goal of the season, the eighth of his MLS NEXT Pro career. McIntosh recorded his first helper of the campaign, while Oliveira was credited with a secondary assist on the play.

New England doubled its lead in the 56th minute through Groton, Mass. native Malcolm Fry, who also netted his first goal of 2026. Defender Schinieder Mimy initiated the play, sending a pass to Oliveira, who spun around his defender to service Fry inside the box. Oliveira, a Somerville, Mass. native, marked his second assist of the day, the first multi-assist performance of his career, while Mimy registered his second helper in as many games.

In net for New England, goalkeeper Donovan Parisian matched a career-best four saves today en route to his first clean sheet of the season, the fifth of his MLS NEXT Pro career. Parisian was protected by a backline of McIntosh, Chris Mbai-Assem, Javaun Mussenden, and Mimy, who all logged full 90-minute shifts. Revolution II's defense combined for three blocked shots and 21 clearances today, while limiting CT United FC to just four shots on target. Following today's victory, Revolution II is currently tied for the league's second-fewest goals allowed (2) this season.
