The U-14s blanked Bayside FC, 4-0, on Saturday, highlighted by a brace from forward Dylan Armah (2012 - Providence, R.I.), and a goal-and-assist performance from midfielder Marlon Quijada (2012 - Ashland, Mass.). Armah opened the scoring for New England in the 13th minute, off a feed from Quijada. In the span of one minute, the Revolution scored back-to-back goals through Quijada and Armah to close out the first half. Forward Gavin Rybak (2012 - Andover, Mass.) set up Nolan Nairn (2012 - Springfield, Mass.) for the final goal to round out New England's win. In goal, James Warren (2012 - Wellesley, Mass.) and Xavier Farone (2012 - Plainville, Conn.) split time between the posts to help preserve the team's seventh shutout of the year.

Also in MLS NEXT action, the U-13s fought to a 5-3 win over Bayside. Forward Isaiah Adeseko (2013 - Albany, N.Y.) headlined the game for New England, tallying a hat trick, while also adding an assist. Fellow forward Amare Laurent (2014 - Windsor, Conn.) also contributed to New England's offensive efforts, finding the scoresheet twice with a goal and assist. Forward Lucas Williams (2013 - Attleboro, Mass.) and midfielder Kento Chamovitz (2013 - Newton, Mass.) each provided a helper in the victory.

The New England Revolution Academy continues MLS NEXT spring competition this weekend, as the U-18s, U-16s, and U-15s play New York City FC at York College on Saturday, April 18. Click here to learn more about the New England Revolution Academy.
