New England opened the match strong, tallying two shots on target in the first 10 minutes of action. Midfielder Allan Oyirwoth rifled a shot from outside the 18-yard-box six minutes into the contest, but Columbus's goalkeeper tipped the ball over the crossbar to keep the match scoreless. Two minutes later, a pair of Academy products connected, as midfielder Judah Siqueira crossed the ball to forward Makai Wells, who saw his near-post effort saved. Wells, 17, earned his fourth consecutive start in the attack today, though his afternoon was cut short due to an injury in the 28th minute.

Crew 2 broke the deadlock in the 43rd minute, with Kevin Gbambélé curling a shot into the back of the net. Revolution II nearly found an immediate equalizer in first-half stoppage time, as Homegrown forward Malcolm Fry juked two defenders and delivered a pass to Siqueira for a one-touch effort that bent wide of the right post. Three minutes into the second half, Columbus pushed its advantage to 2-0 when Zach Zengue capitalized on a transition opportunity for the hosts.

New England broke through in the 60th minute, cutting the Crew 2's lead, 2-1. Midfielder Carlos Zambrano, fresh off winning Goal of Matchweek 6 honors, connected with McIntosh, who lofted a well-placed ball into the box right to the head of Morgan. The Canadian nodded home the effort inside the right post for his second goal of the season. McIntosh, a Revolution Academy graduate, owns assists in three straight appearances across all competitions, including in his senior team season debut last Tuesday in the U.S. Open Cup Round of 32 match.

Goalkeeper Donovan Parisian kept the game within reach for New England, scooping up Columbus's close-range shot with five minutes remaining in regulation, but the home side held strong to secure the win. Parisian, who is coming off a penalty shootout win in his first team debut in Tuesday's U.S. Open Cup match, finished the night with two saves.

Revolution II remain on the road, traveling to face regional foe CT United FC on May 3 at Morrone Stadium. The 6:00 p.m. ET kickoff is available to stream live on MLSNEXTPro.com and the OneFootball platform.
