Local youth stars shine at MLS NEXT Flex tournament in Frisco, Texas

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (May 1, 2026) – The Revolution Academy had another busy week as the Under-18s, Under-16s, and Under-15s competed at MLS NEXT Flex, while the Under-14s and Under-13s hosted two games apiece at the Revolution Training Center.

The U-18s opened the tournament with a hard-fought 3-3 draw against Barca Residency Academy before falling 7-6 in the subsequent penalty shootout. New England responded the following day with a commanding 3-0 win over Vardar Soccer Club, powered by goals from Judah Siqueira (2009 – Easton, Mass.), Grant Emerhi (2008 – Mansfield, Mass.), and Cristiano Carlos (2008 – Chicopee, Mass.). The group's run ended in dramatic fashion, as the U-18s battled the Portland Timbers to a 0-0 deadlock before coming up short in a marathon 14-13 penalty shootout.

Also in MLS NEXT Flex action, the U-16s opened group play with a 2–2 draw against PA Classics before securing a 5-4 victory in the ensuing shootout. The Revolution then dropped a narrow 1–0 result to Wake FC, but closed out the group with a strong 3-1 win over the Portland Timbers. Matthew Jean Baptiste (2010 – Montvale, N.J.) continued his impressive form, scoring twice and adding an assist across the three matches. Isaac Twumasi (2010 – Lawrenceville, Ga.) also delivered a standout performance, totaling two assists and a goal during the tournament.

The U-15s opened MLS NEXT Flex play with a 2-0 defeat to Real Futbol Academy. New England responded the following day with a 3-2 victory, headlined by a brace from Jeremiah Moyano (2011 – Hartford, Conn.) and a goal from Boston Kahoalii (2012 – Whitman, Mass.). In the final match of the tournament, Moyano once again found the back of the net, but the Portland Timbers tallied three unanswered goals to hand the Revolution a 3-1 loss.

Back in Massachusetts, the U-14s swept their weekend slate with a 2-1 victory over New York City FC and a 3-1 win against FA Euro New York. In both matches, Dylan Armah (2012 – Providence, R.I.) and Marlon Quijada (2012 – Ashland, Mass.) found the scoresheet, each finishing the weekend with two goals.

The U-13s split their weekend results, losing to New York City FC before bouncing back the next day with a 4-1 win over FA Euro New York. Mikey Miller (2013 – Westford, Mass.) led the attack in the victory, recording a brace and adding an assist to cap an impressive performance.

The U-18s, U-16s, and U-15s will travel to the nation's capital to face D.C. United this Saturday, May 2. The U-14s and U-13s are also on the road that day, heading to New York to take on Downtown United Soccer Club. Click here to learn more about the New England Revolution Academy.
