Revolution Sign 18 Special Olympics Massachusetts Athletes & Unified Partners to the 2026 Revolution Unified Soccer Team

12th season of Revolution Unified Soccer kicks off with Signing Day on Wednesday, May 6 at Gillette Stadium's Sports Illustrated Pavilion

NEW ENGLAND REVOLUTION

FOUNDATION

WHAT:

Media are invited to join Special Olympics Massachusetts and the New England Revolution on Monday, May 6 from 3:00 - 5:00 p.m. as 18 local athletes sign their contracts to join the 2026 Special Olympics Unified Soccer Team. With the Revolution's sporting director and head coach on hand to welcome the squad, the mix of new and returning athletes will sign their paperwork, receive their new Revolution uniforms, and enjoy a professional "Media Day" photo shoot in the Sports Illustrated Pavilion at Patriot Place.

Now in its 12th season, the Revolution's Special Olympics Unified Team is a core tenet of the club's "Soccer for All" platform, reinforcing that Major League Soccer is a welcoming environment for all players, fans, and partners regardless of disability, race, religion, national origin, gender identity, sexual orientation or socioeconomic status. The team is comprised of athletes both with and without intellectual disabilities, most from Massachusetts and one from Rhode Island, sending an important message about the power of inclusion. Read below for the complete 2026 Unified Team Roster.

This year's Play Unified season will consist of a home-and-away series against Toronto FC's Unified team, an international matchup between teams from two of the three unified hosts of this summer's FIFA World Cup. Both games will coincide with MLS matchdays between their first team counterparts. The Revolution Unified Team will host Toronto at Gillette Stadium on July 22, before traveling north of the border on August 15.

About the New England Revolution

The New England Revolution, owned and operated by the Kraft family, began play in 1996 as one of the original founding clubs of Major League Soccer (MLS). Through 30 MLS seasons, the Revolution are five-time MLS Eastern Conference champions and claimed the 2021 Supporters' Shield after a record-setting campaign. The Revolution also won the 2008 North American SuperLiga and 2007 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles. The Revolution play their home matches at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass. The club and its acclaimed pro pathway, including Revolution II (MLS NEXT Pro) and the Revolution Academy, are headquartered at the Revolution Training Center, which opened ahead of the 2020 season.
