Connecticut controlled the early tempo and nearly found the opener in the 13th minute, but Parisian denied Laurie Goddard's close-range volley. Parisian, a 2025 MLS SuperDraft first-round pick, added another crucial save in the 36th minute, sprinting off his line to shut down CT United forward Alex Monis on a breakaway and preserve the level scoreline heading into halftime.

New England generated several promising chances in the second half. Midfielder Carlos Zambrano, earning his first professional start tonight, lifted a corner kick into the box for defender Jake Shannon in the 67th minute, but his header sailed over the woodwork. Moments later, after Homegrown defender Damario McIntosh drew a foul in the box in the 76th minute, fellow Revolution Academy product Javaun Mussenden stepped to the penalty spot, but his low-driven attempt was saved by a diving Gunther Rankenburg.

The visitors continued to apply pressure before the final whistle, with defender Schinieder Mimy forcing Rankenburg into a stoppage-time save from distance. Mimy, Chris Mbai-Assem, Shannon, and Gabe Dahlin anchored a backline that held CT United to only three shots on target, helping guide New England to its third shutout of the campaign.

Revolution II return home to host New York City FC II on Sunday, May 10, at Bryant University's Beirne Stadium. The 2:00 p.m. ET kickoff is available to watch live on MLSNEXTPro.com and the OneFootball platform, with Mark Schoenster on the call.
