The opening 45 minutes played out evenly, with both sides registering one shot on target, sending the teams into the locker room in a 0-0 deadlock. Revolution II's best chance came in the 17th minute, when Homegrown defender Damarío McIntosh carried the ball upfield before slipping a pass to fellow Homegrown Malcolm Fry. The winger, making his third start of the season, fired a low, driven effort on frame, but Orlando goalkeeper Luca Maxim scooped it up to keep the match level.

Both sides' goalkeepers came up with big saves to keep the match knotted at 0–0. Revolution II nearly broke through in the 74th minute when midfielder Carlos Zambrano, who entered as a 62nd-minute substitute, fired a shot on goal, but Maxim was there to make the stop. On the other end, New England goalkeeper Donovan Parisian came off his line to deny a threatening Orlando City chance, preserving the scoreless draw. Parisian, a 2025 MLS SuperDraft first-round pick, made one save this afternoon, helping Revolution II remain tied for the league lead with five clean sheets this season.

The decisive goal came in the closing minutes, as Siqueira scored in additional time to secure the win for New England. The 17-year-old forced Orlando to turn the ball over on the left flank and sprinted toward goal. Once in striking distance, the midfielder calmly slotted the game-winner into the back of the net. The tally marked his second professional goal and his first of the 2026 campaign.

New England is back on the road, traveling to Crown Legacy FC on Friday, May 22. The 7:00 p.m. ET kickoff at the Sportsplex at Matthews is available to watch live on MLSNEXTPro.com and the OneFootball platform.
