SASAKI SCORED IN FIRST MLS NEXT PRO START

Recent addition forward/winger Shuma Sasaki has wasted no time making his mark with Revolution II, scoring his first MLS NEXT Pro goal in his first professional start in New England's 3–2 win over New York City FC II on May 10.

Sasaki, a native of Kawasaki, Japan, signed with New England's development team on April 1, 2026. Since arriving, he has appeared in six matches, earning his first professional start against NYCFC II.

In that debut start, Sasaki delivered a standout performance, recording a game-high five shots, including three on target, and opening his professional account by burying a penalty kick for Revolution II's second goal of the afternoon.

Even before finding the scoresheet, the 23-year-old had already shown his abilities along New England's front line. In his professional debut on April 12 against New York Red Bulls II, he completed 100 percent of his passes in a 45-minute shift. Six days later at Columbus Crew 2, he registered his first shot while once again posting a perfect passing performance.

Sasaki also earned his senior team debut on April 29, appearing in New England's Round of 16 matchup against Orlando City SC in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup.

"It already feels like home," Sasaki said of his transition to the club. "I just think it's really easy to get acclimated with the team."

Before joining New England, Sasaki enjoyed successful collegiate stints at the University of the Cumberland (2021–24) and the University of Michigan (2025), where he played under current Revolution Assistant Coach

MORGAN EMERGES AS LEADING SCORER FOR NEW ENGLAND

Through New England's first 10 matches, forward/winger Myles Morgan has emerged as Revolution II's leading scorer, finding the back of the net three times to open his debut Revolution II campaign.

In his first season with the club, the 20-year-old has seamlessly integrated into Pablo Moreira's system, quickly building chemistry with his new teammates. Morgan wasted no time making an impression, opening the 2026 scoring account for Revolution II with a goal against Atlanta United 2 on March 1.

Most recently, the Ontario native struck again in the May 10 win over New York City FC II, calmly converting a penalty to level the match at 1–1. The finish marked his second goal contribution in his last three outings, continuing his strong early-season form.

"I'm just doing my job," Morgan said. "[Pablo Moreira] is relying on me to score goals. That's my job as a striker—to score goals."

MCINTOSH OPENS PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNT, SCORING GAME-WINNING GOAL

Tied at 2–2 and searching for a breakthrough against Eastern Conference rival NYCFC II, Revolution II found their moment when Homegrown defender Damario McIntosh opened his professional account with a clutch finish, delivering the game-winner with seven minutes left in regulation.

McIntosh, an 18-year-old Academy graduate, has been a constant presence on New England's backline this season, logging seven starts across his nine appearances. Despite his age, he brings significant experience, having already played in more than 50 matches for Revolution II.

A native of Newark, Calif., McIntosh rose through the New England Revolution Academy ranks, signing his first professional contract with Revolution II on June 11, 2024. He later became the club's 14th Homegrown Player when he inked a senior team deal on January 22, 2025.

McIntosh was a standout during his Academy tenure. After joining in 2023, he recorded two goals and one assist with the Under-17s during the 2023–24 MLS NEXT season. His strong performances earned him a selection to the 2024 MLS NEXT All-Star Game, where he played a pivotal role in Team East's 4–2 victory.

Across his two professional seasons, McIntosh has logged 4,262 minutes, the fifth-most all-time for Revolution II. He made his debut at just 16 years old and has since totaled 28 shots, including 12 on target, along with three assists.

This season, McIntosh has already contributed to the scoresheet three times. On March 22 against CT United FC, he provided the game-winning assist on forward Jayden Da's tally in a 2–0 victory. Two matches later, he set up forward/winger Myles Morgan's goal against Columbus Crew 2 on April 18. Most recently, he delivered the decisive strike in Revolution II's 3–2 triumph over Eastern Conference rival NYCFC II.

McIntosh has also featured twice for the senior team this season, earning starts in both the Round of 32 and Round of 16 of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. Against regional foe Rhode Island FC, he headed an assist to original Homegrown forward Diego Fagundez to help spark the attack. In the Round of 16 against Orlando City, he logged an 83-minute shift along the backline.

"It was great. I've been waiting for it," McIntosh said, reflecting on his two senior team starts. "I feel like I put myself out there this season to show that I'm ready for that moment. It's just the beginning. It's a great start for me, and I'm looking forward to more opportunities like that."

TEAM NOTES

REVOLUTION II THRIVE IN FINAL MOMENTS

In the closing moments of matches, Revolution II have consistently found ways to secure all three points. New England has won three straight contests, with each game-winning goal coming in the final 10 minutes of play.

On May 10 against New York City FC II, Revolution II earned a narrow 3–2 victory, with Homegrown defender Damario McIntosh netting the decisive goal in the 83rd minute. The match had been tied twice before the 18-year-old used his pace to separate from New York defender to delivered his first professional goal to seal the result for New England.

In the following match at Philadelphia Union II, defender Jake Shannon scored with four minutes remaining in regulation to secure New England's first road win of the season. Revolution II controlled the attacking momentum throughout, holding a 19–4 edge in shots, but the breakthrough moment didn't arrive until the 86th minute. Off a corner-kick opportunity, defender Gabe Dahlin, who also assisted McIntosh's winner in the previous match, headed a pass to Shannon, who slotted home his first professional goal for the game-winner.

In New England's most recent 1–0 victory over Orlando City B, Academy graduate Judah Siqueira delivered the decisive tally in the game's additional minutes. The contest between the Eastern Conference sides had been evenly played, but in the 91st minute, Siqueira forced a turnover and sprinted nearly 50 yards before burying a left-footed shot into the back of the net. The goal marked the 17-year-old Easton, Mass. native's first of the 2026 season and the second of his professional career.

FROM JAMAICA TO NEW ENGLAND, MCINTOSH'S JOURNEY BROUGHT BRAVERY AND VULNERABILITY

You can't sign an MLS contract at 17 years old without gaining a bit of courage along the way. For Damario McIntosh, who signed a first-team deal with the New England Revolution last year, that courage has been tested at every step of his journey.

It all started when McIntosh was just eight years old. Born in Westmoreland, Jamaica, he spent his childhood on the island with his mother. His father had moved to California, and eventually eight-year-old McIntosh boarded a plane to join him in a place that could offer him more opportunity.

"That was rough, leaving the woman who brought me into this world, who I lived with up until I was eight, and coming to the States, which I knew nothing about. It was difficult, but having my dad here made me feel supported and then stepmom, my brothers, all helped me learn new things in the States. They helped me try new foods and fix my English. It was rough at first, but I definitely grew as time went on," McIntosh explained.

McIntosh found his place in soccer, training under his dad, a former professional goalkeeper. He built a life in California, which led him to USL Championship side Oakland Roots SC at just 15 years old. Competing alongside older, bigger, professional athletes, he realized he was ready for the next step in his development.

McIntosh hired an agent, put together a highlight reel, and waited. Then the New England Revolution came calling, and McIntosh made yet another big move away from his family.

"I came out here on a trial. I was out here for around a week, and I loved it. From the minute I stepped foot in here, everybody was so supportive. All the guys in the locker room that I met made me feel welcome and comfortable," he said. "From there, I moved over to New England all the way from California, which was also a tough transition."

McIntosh joined the Revolution's Residency Program, moving in with a host family and several other players. As a self-proclaimed "quiet kid," it took time for him to open up, but having a supportive host family and teammates going through the same experience made the adjustment easier.

Less than a year after joining the Revolution Academy, McIntosh signed his first professional contract with Revolution II, then earned a first-team deal just six months later.

Now 18, McIntosh has already learned to balance quite a bit throughout his young career. He achieved his dream of signing an MLS contract at 17, but he knows there's still plenty of work ahead as he pushes for first-team minutes. At the same time, he's learning the importance of enjoying his teenage years away from the pitch.

"You just have to flip a switch, really. When you're on the field, you get serious, do what you love to do. It's what I was born to do. Then, when you're off the field and away from soccer, that's when you can have your fun and be a kid, a teenager," he said.

Pablo Moreira is in his first season as Head Coach of New England Revolution II, joining the developmental side after two seasons on the Revolution's first-team staff, including a four-game spell as interim head coach in 2025, and 11 campaigns as an assistant coach in Major League Soccer. Moreira is a two-time MLS Cup champion with over 400 matches coached in his career. During his tenure in MLS, Moreira has coached an MLS League MVP, MLS Cup MVP, Newcomer of the Year, Goalkeeper of the Year, seven MLS Best XI selections, and nine MLS All-Star Selections en route to 155 career wins as an assistant.

Prior to joining the Revolution, Moreira served as an Assistant Coach for the Columbus Crew from 2019-22. Moreira helped guide the Crew to the 2020 MLS Cup title, becoming the youngest assistant coach in league history to win multiple MLS Cups — the first to do so with clubs in both conferences. The next year, he helped lead Columbus to the 2021 Campeones Cup, the club's first international trophy, beating Liga MX champions Cruz Azul.

Moreira, 41, entered the professional ranks as an Assistant Coach for the Portland Timbers from 2013-17. Moreira's first season with the Timbers included a 23-point improvement and a 43-point goal-differential improvement from the previous season, securing a first-place finish in the Western Conference and the club's first postseason berth. At the collegiate level, Moreira served as an Assistant Coach / Video Analyst at the University of Akron from 2010-2012. The Zips compiled a 55-6-9 record during his three seasons, while Moreira helped assemble the nation's No. 2 recruiting class in each of his first three years, producing 14 professionals into the MLS ranks during that span. In 2011, Akron set an MLS record for most first-round selections from a single school, landing five of the first eight picks in the MLS SuperDraft. Akron won the National Championship in 2010 in addition to three consecutive Mid-American Conference regular-season titles (2010-12), and two MAC Tournament championships (2010, 2012).

Moreira played as a forward for the Akron Zips from 2003-07. He was on the first Mid-American Conference team to be ranked No. 1 in the nation in any sport in 2005. Moreira earned All-Mid-American Conference honors in 2006 and 2007, in addition to winning three MAC regular season (2005, 2006, 2007) and Conference Tournament championships (2004, 2005, 2007).

Born in Montevideo, Uruguay, Moreira comes from a distinguished soccer lineage as he is the son of former Uruguayan International Jose "Chico" Moreira, who in 1980 with club side Nacional, captured the South American Treble winning the Club World Cup, Copa Libertadores, and Uruguayan Primera Division League Titles, in addition to winning the 1980 Mundialito (Copa de Oro de Campeones Mundiales) with the Uruguay National Team.
