

2019 REVOLUTION MEDIA POLICIES

The New England Revolution communications staff is pleased to assist you in your coverage of the team. Please review this section for specific media policies and general guidelines of which you should be aware as you prepare to cover the Revolution and MLS in 2019.

2019 CREDENTIALS

The application window for 2019 full-season credentials is open from mid-January through mid-February. After this window is closed, media may apply for single-match credentials on a game-by-game basis by contacting the communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net at least 48 hours in advance of kickoff. In all credential requests, please include the media members' name(s), name of the accredited media outlet, contact information, and the specific details of the request to media@revolutionsoccer.net.

Please note that media parking passes and media credentials are non-transferrable and distributed at the discretion of the Revolution communications staff. Credentialed media are expected to produce relevant coverage for reputable media outlets, and the communications staff may request for samples of recent coverage. All those who are issued credentials are asked to notify the communications staff of any specific requests or coverage plans prior to each match or training session.

GAME DAY CREDENTIALS

For all media members without 2019 season credentials, requests for match day credentials must be emailed to the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net no later than 48 hours before kickoff. All requests will be reviewed and media will be notified if they have been approved for credentials no later than 24 hours before kickoff. Single-game parking passes will be distributed via email to all credentialed media prior to the game.

GENERAL SECURITY POLICIES

Due to security procedures in place at Gillette Stadium, any member of the media who wishes to attend a training session must inform the Revolution communications staff by the close of business the day before the session. All media who have alerted the staff of their planned attendance will have their names left at Security Command for check-in. We cannot guarantee admittance to the stadium grounds if we do not receive advance notice.

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

All media who have been issued credentials or who are granted access to the team are expected to follow the guidelines set forth in this document, as well as the instructions of the Revolution staff, stadium employees, and security, or risk limitation of access or revocation of credentials.

Media availability is granted with the purpose of providing access to interviews and written, audio, and visual accounts of the team, as appropriate. No member of the media should use this access for autographs, personal photographs, or commercial requests. Doing so will result in the permanent revocation of credentials to cover the New England Revolution.

At all times, those granted media access must also abide by the conditions set forth on the back of their MLS and/or Revolution credentials.

REVOLUTION MEDIA SERVICES

Press Releases and Alerts: Requests to be added to the media distribution list should be addressed to media@revolutionsoccer.net.

Official Website: www.revolutionsoccer.net is the official website of the New England Revolution. All content posted on the site by the team, including video, may be republished in its entirety by media outlets, with credit cited as "New England Revolution." Note that user-generated content, including user comments, photos, and videos, may not be republished without explicit permission.

Media Website: To better serve the media, the Revolution communications staff maintains a comprehensive Media Website at www.revolutionsoccer.net/media. This site is updated on a regular basis and contains a variety of resources including biographical info, pre- and post-game notes, all-time statistics and club history, multimedia assets available for editorial use, and more.

Game Notes and Postgame Recaps: No fewer than 48 hours before each MLS match, the communications staff distributes a comprehensive game guide complete with updated rosters, statistics, opponent information, and relevant notes. This document also includes the team's injury report for the upcoming match.

2019 REVOLUTION MEDIA POLICIES

Following each contest, the communications staff distributes a recap of the match featuring lineups, the box score, statistical notes, and milestones. Post-game quotes, highlights, and video footage will also be made available following each match.

Training Report Quotes and B-Roll: The communications staff will release b-roll, interview footage, and transcripts from the head coach and various players on a regular basis throughout the season. To request specific b-roll or pre-taped interviews, please email media@revolutionssoccer.net.

High-Resolution Photos: The New England Revolution maintains an extensive database of high-resolution action and candid photos from matches, training sessions, and team events. Links to club headshots and select photos are available through the Media Website, though media are welcome to contact the Revolution communications staff with any specific requests. All credit for images provided by the club should be attributed to "New England Revolution" unless otherwise noted.

CHECKING IN AT GILLETTE STADIUM

All media members who attend a Revolution training session or match at Gillette Stadium must check in at Security Command, located at the south end of the stadium (through the doors under the red awning), unless otherwise instructed. All members of the media who have RSVP'd with the Revolution communications staff will be on a list at the check-in window. Please have proper forms of ID available, which can include Revolution or MLS credentials if one has already been issued.

Media are asked to arrive promptly on or before the suggested time as noted on the Weekly Media Schedule. When media access is set to begin, a member of the Revolution communications staff will meet media at Security Command and escort them to the training field or interview area.

Media members are never permitted inside Gillette Stadium or at the training facilities without an escort from the Revolution communications staff. Failure to follow this rule could result in the immediate revocation of training access or season credentials.

MEDIA PARKING

Media will be issued parking passes prior to game day. For all matches, media parking is located in Lot 5B, 6A, or as directed. Please follow the instructions of parking attendants and Gillette Stadium staff, and also be mindful of special restrictions due to other stadium events.

Media parking for training sessions will either be in Lot 6A or adjacent to the Revolution training field, located near the Empower Field House on the grounds of Patriot Place. Specific directions will be shared the day before each training session to media members who have RSVP'd.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media Will Call opens two hours before kickoff and is located inside Security Command at the south end of the stadium (through the doors under the red awning). This is for press and photo credentials only.

MEDIA WORK AREAS – GAME DAYS

All non-broadcast and non-photo Revolution media will work out of the Blue Level Press Box at Gillette Stadium on game days. The Red Level Press Box will be open to media for the media meal and halftime snack; media are encouraged to remain on Blue Level at all other times. Photographers will have space and Wi-Fi access in the Photo Work Room, located at field level at the north end of the stadium.

Press areas open two hours before kickoff (generally 5:30 p.m. for a regularly scheduled 7:30 p.m. game), and the press areas will close approximately three hours after the final whistle. Media who expect to need more time should make arrangements with the Revolution communications staff ahead of time.

A press meal will be served in the Red Level Press Box two hours before kickoff through the first 15 minutes of the game. A snack will be made available to media at halftime. Throughout the game, water and soda are available on Blue Level, while additional beverages and coffee are available on Red Level. Beverages and boxed lunches are also provided to photographers in the Photo Work Room.

MEDIA WORK AREAS - NON-GAME DAYS

If media members need to work and file from Gillette Stadium on a non-game day, please inform a member of the communications staff in advance so the appropriate arrangements can be made.

2019 REVOLUTION MEDIA POLICIES

TRAINING ACCESS AND MEDIA AVAILABILITY

The club offers media access and media availability at every first-team training session, as outlined in the Weekly Media Schedule distributed by the communications staff at the beginning of each week during the season. Media who wish to attend a training session are required to RSVP via email to media@revolutionsoccer.net by the close of business the day before the session.

Interview availability typically takes place immediately before training outside the Revolution locker room. Media will be notified in advance should there be changes to any individual access period. Revolution training sessions will then be open to media viewing for 15 minutes at the beginning of each session, as noted on the Weekly Schedule. Specific elements of training, particularly tactical elements such as set pieces, may be subject to video and photography limitations.

In coverage of training sessions, we ask for cooperation in observing the following practice policies. Failure to do so could result in the revocation of media credentials.

- Please do not report on match strategy deployed at training. This includes describing specific formations, personnel groupings, set pieces, and combinations.
- Please do not quote, paraphrase, or report comments made by coaches, staff, or players during a training session while they are on the training field.

PLAYER AND STAFF INTERVIEWS

All requests for interviews for Revolution players, coaches, executives, and staff must be submitted to and approved by the Revolution communications staff. Contacting players or team management directly – including through social media platforms – could result in the revocation of credentials and future access.

Training: Unless otherwise noted, player and staff interviews will be conducted prior to training outside the Revolution locker room prior to each training session. If a request requires an alternative space such as a private suite, please include this information when submitting the request. Due to the limited time available during this access period, and as a courtesy to the players' and coaches' time, the Revolution communications staff request advance notice for any feature interviews requiring more than 15 minutes so appropriate arrangements can be made.

Match Day: Per MLS policy, players and coaches will be available to rights-holding broadcast media for a 30-minute period beginning 90 minutes before the advertised kickoff time. All other interviews must be coordinated with team communications personnel in advance. Please note that players and coaches may decline non-broadcast interviews at this time, so media are encouraged to submit requests in advance.

No media except for broadcast rights holders and MLS Digital will have access to players and coaches for interviews during the match or at halftime.

Following the final whistle of each game, the home and visiting coaches will be available to media, as well as a Revolution player in a formal press conference setting. At home games, the Revolution head coach will be available in the media work room, while at away games, the head coach will speak outside of the club's locker room. Locker rooms open to media following the conclusion of the 15-minute cooling off period afforded to the teams.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS

Training: Still photographers are permitted to shoot the first 15 minutes of training sessions, as directed by the Revolution communications staff. Shooting may need to be temporarily suspended if the team is working on set pieces or other tactical elements. All photographers must remain off the playing field and maintain a safe distance from the boundaries of the field. Due to safety concerns, please note that any tri- or mono-pod device must be kept at least 10 feet from the field of play.

Game Days: Only photographers who are shooting for an accredited media outlet or wire service will be credentialed for games. Freelance photographers will not be credentialed per organizational policy. All photographers must obey the direction of the photo marshals on the sideline, as these marshals are an extension of the Revolution communications staff.

All still photographers will be issued an appropriately colored photo bib upon checking in at media will call. Failure to wear the bib while in the stadium could result in removal from the sidelines, dismissal from the stadium, and/or the revocation of credentials.

2019 REVOLUTION MEDIA POLICIES

To shoot starting lineups and team photos, photographers should meet at the midfield sideline prior to the game. At the conclusion of those opportunities, all photographers must adhere to the following photographer guidelines:

- No photographer is permitted in or between the technical (bench) areas at any time, including warm-ups.
- No photographer is allowed to shoot directly behind the goal. All photographers must be positioned on either side of the goal stanchions.
- No still photographer with a PHOTO credential is allowed in either the home or visiting team locker room, as still photography is not permitted in the locker rooms. Only video photographers with that credential will be afforded access, per MLS rules.

The Photo Work Room is located at the north end of the field-level service tunnel. Photographers can access this room by walking the length of the service tunnel past both locker rooms, or directly from the field at the north end of the stadium under the bridge. The Photo Work Room is equipped with Wi-Fi and any necessary passwords will be posted.

In addition to the first-come, first-serve desks, carrels and tables throughout the Photo Work Room, there are several offices and desks reserved for certain local news outlets. Only media members from those specific outlets are allowed to work in those dedicated locations. Any misuse or mistreatment of these dedicated areas could result in dismissal from the stadium and revocation of future credentials.

VIDEOGRAPHERS

Training: Video cameras will be allowed to film for the first 15 minutes of each training session, as directed by the Revolution communications staff. During this access period, videographers may be instructed by a member of the communications staff to cease shooting if the team is practicing set pieces or other tactical elements.

Game Days: At games, local ENG and news crews are allowed to shoot the first 15 minutes of each half. At the 15- and 60-minute marks, all video cameras not belonging to broadcast rights holders must be turned off.

SOCIAL MEDIA PERSONNEL

Any media members or club personnel capturing content for social media channels should follow guidelines for videographers and still photographers when applicable. While the club understands social media is a fluid medium, any media member anticipating a need for access beyond what is allowed by a photographer or videographer credential should alert the Revolution communications staff well in advance.

* MLS utilized a two-conference alignment (East and West) from 1996-1999 and 2002-present. In 2000 and 2001, the League used a three-conference alignment (East, Central, and West).

* There were no ties in MLS from 1996-99, as the league employed a shoot-out system. MLS used a sudden-death overtime system from 2000-03.
