POSTGAME NOTES: Revolution Fall to New York City FC, 2-1

New England visits Orlando City SC in critical Eastern Conference clash next Saturday

New York, N.Y. – The New England Revolution (10-10-9, 39 pts.) fell to New York City FC (15-5-8, 53 pts.), 2-1, at Yankee Stadium on Saturday afternoon. Forward Juan Fernando Caicedo put New England on the front foot by scoring the game's opening goal in the second minute – the quickest goal by a Revolution player this season – but a red card to defender Antonio Delamea in the ninth minute left the visitors with 10 men for the remainder of the match. The Revolution, backed by 700 traveling Season Members, couldn't hold on, as New York City's Jesús Medina equalized in the 70th minute and converted the game-winning penalty in the 96th minute of play.

Caicedo's goal is his fifth of the season, tied with Teal Bunbury for third most among Revolution players in 2019. Andrew Farrell recorded his first assist of the season – and his first since July 14, 2018 – when he played Caicedo through for the goal. In net, Matt Turner tied his single-game career high with nine saves.

This afternoon's result snaps New England's club record away unbeaten run of eight games, which dated back to a 1-1 draw on May 18 at Montreal. With five games remaining in the regular season, the Revolution are currently in sixth place in the Eastern Conference – two points back of the New York Red Bulls for fifth place, and three points back of D.C. United for fourth place with a game in hand.

New England returns to action on Saturday, Sept. 14 when the club visits Orlando City SC at Exploria Stadium. The match kicks off at 7:30 p.m. ET on NBC Sports Boston, 98.5 The Sports Hub, and in Portuguese on 1260 AM Nossa Radio.

New England Revolution Head Coach Bruce Arena

On the team's defensive performance...

"We did fine. Obviously, Matt Turner did well. We conceded some good chances and all, but we were put behind the eight ball. We were put in a difficult situation with the red card.

On whether the game was taken away from them or not...

"I don't know if you can say it was taken away, give NYCFC credit they worked really hard... they worked harder to win the game."

New England Revolution Goalkeeper Matt Turner

On having a good personal game today...

"We lost so it doesn't really make anything better. No silver linings. Had the chance to get three, had the chance to get a point, and we gave it all away. No silver linings really."

On the team playing down a man for so long

"We have been building performance after performance, we have been really growing as a group and really holding each other accountable on the field. Andrew Farrell, Jalil (Anibaba), (Michael) Mancienne when he came on, DeJuan (Jones), and Brandon (Bye) they put in an absolute shift, Willie (Zahibo), Carles (Gil), everyone that played just did an excellent job tonight. It's just really unfortunate that we came away with nothing.

On the end of NE unbeaten streak and playoff implications...

“We will see what the results around the league are, I know we were probably the first game this weekend. It is about the next one, we can’t really dwell on this too much. We learned a lot about ourselves, and now we’ll go to Orlando and expect ourselves to get three points.
