Chelsea's Ross Barkley and Olivier Giroud were the goal scorers for the visitors. Barkley registered a brace with goals in the third and 62nd minutes, while Giroud found the back of the net with a headed shot in the 29th minute. All 21 Revolution players available for selection in tonight's friendly logged minutes, including Homegrown Player and Somerville, Mass. native Nicolas Firmino, who recorded 60 minutes at right back in his Gillette Stadium debut with the first team. Scott Caldwell played all 90 minutes in central midfield while Carles Gil wore the captain's armband to start the contest, seeing 45 minutes of action on the night.

At 10:00 a.m. ET tomorrow in the Gillette Stadium media workroom, the club will introduce Bruce Arena as its Sporting Director and Head Coach. Media interested in attending the press conference may RSVP by emailing the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net. The press conference will also be live streamed on RevolutionSoccer.net.

New England returns to Major League Soccer action on Saturday, May 18, when the club visits the Montreal Impact at Stade Saputo. The match kicks off at 1:00 p.m. ET on NBC Sports Boston, 98.5 The Sports Hub, and in Portuguese on 1260 AM Nossa Radio.
