THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel and forward Teal Bunbury had to say ahead of Sunday's match at Toronto FC. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionssoccer.net or visit www.revolutionssoccer.net/media.

New England Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel

On the tactical approach he's looking to implement this season:

Coach Friedel: "We worked hard in preseason. It's difficult to switch the light switch on and off when you're talking about where to press on the field. We're going to be an aggressive team no matter where we set our line of confrontation, and we knew even from last season, but we were trying to instill a culture at the club. We're going to have to have some games press high, some games not, and you're going to have to play both systems. One thing that's going to stay true is you're going to have to be very aggressive, but then we're also going to have to be aggressive going forward, and we have the tools to do that in abundance and we have to do that a little bit better."

New England Revolution Forward Teal Bunbury

On his main takeaway from last weekend's home opener vs. Columbus:

Bunbury: "It's just to learn from some mistakes. Columbus was a good team and they finished a couple chances that they had – they didn't have many. I think there are still some positives we can take from the game. I think that's what we kind of have to do. It's disappointing, the home opener in front of our fans and kind of letting them down. We can say that it's a long season and we still have many games, but we kind of have to start correcting some of those things that were lingering from last year, so this week in training, it's going to be important that we're all locked in, we understand the game plan, we're motivated, keeping our spirits up knowing that we're going to go on the road now and face a Toronto team that's really talented – but we're fully capable of getting three points there."

REVOLUTION TRAINING CENTER SET TO OPEN IN 2019

On Oct. 15, 2018, the New England Revolution broke ground on the Revolution Training Center, a world-class facility that will be the center of the Revolution first team and Academy operations. Integrated into the wetlands surrounding Gillette Stadium, the Revolution Training Center will feature state-of-the-art fitness and medical centers, six professional-grade fields, team dining and lounge spaces, and office space for the club's technical staff and front office, among other amenities.

The existing natural grass field on the site will be dedicated for use by the Revolution Academy.

In addition to cutting-edge amenities for the first team, which also include an on-site barbershop for the first team, the Revolution's training facility will house members of the front office and technical staff. The Örebro, Sweden native received his first call-up for the Qasbioun Eagles in October 2017, and will be looking to earn his first cap with Syria.

CASTILLO POISED TO PROVIDE STABILITY AT LEFT BACK

On Dec. 18, the Revolution acquired left back Edgar Castillo in a trade with the Colorado Rapids in exchange for midfielder Kelyn Rowe. Castillo, 32, brings over 12 years of experience to the Revolution, including 11 professional seasons and multiple championships in Mexico's Liga MX, as well as one season in MLS with Colorado. His overall career totals include more than 370 appearances with 13 goals and 16 assists across more than 29,000 minutes played. Thus far in 2019, Castillo has played 90 minutes in each of the Revolution's opening matches.

The Las Cruces, New Mexico native began his senior career with Santos Laguna in 2006. After winning a championship with Santos in 2008, Castillo departed for Club América. During subsequent loan stints with Tigres UANL (2009-10), San Luis FC (2010), and Puebla FC (2011), he totaled 49 appearances and four goals. Castillo then joined Club Tijuana, first on loan before a permanent transfer, where he appeared in 94 games across more than 7,800 minutes. He also spent time with Atlas Guadalajara and Monterrey.

Castillo is a dual citizen of Mexico and the United States and is one of only two players ever to earn senior caps from both nations. He began his international career by playing three senior games for Mexico, debuting against Colombia in August 2007, before making the one-time switch permitted by FIFA to represent the United States in 2009. Since joining the American side, Castillo has earned 18 caps, including six in both 2014 and 2018 FIFA World Cup qualification, and recorded three assists. He also helped the USMNT clinch the Concacaf Gold Cup title in 2013.

RENNICKS, BUCHANAN MAKE PRO DEBUTS IN HOME OPENER

Two Revs rookies, Revolution Academy product Justin Rennicks and first-round SuperDraft selection Tajon Buchanan, made their professional debuts during the Revolution's home opener on March 9 vs. Columbus.

Rennicks, the sixth Homegrown Player signing in club history, entered the match as a halftime substitute and recorded two shots, one chance created, and a foul won in 45 minutes of action. The South Hamilton, Mass. native made more than 100 appearances during his Revolution Academy career before making his MLS debut with the first team last weekend.

Buchanan, selected by New England with the ninth-overall pick in January's SuperDraft, saw nine minutes after replacing Scott Caldwell as a substitute in the 81st minute. The Brampton, Ontario native registered two shots in his nine-minute run out, in addition to two passes and eight total touches.

Both Rennicks and Buchanan were also included in the 18-man matchday roster for the season opener on March 2 at Dallas, as was fellow rookie DeJuan Jones, the club's 11th-overall selection in the 2019 MLS SuperDraft.

REVS EXERCISE PERMANENT TRANSFERS ON PENILLA & CAICEDO

On Nov. 2, 2018, the Revolution exercised permanent MLS transfer options on forward Cristian Penilla and midfielder Luis Caicedo following their year-long loans from Liga MX side Pachuca and Colombian club Cortuluá, respectively.

Penilla, 27, started 33 games for the Revolution in 2018. The Ecuadorian attacker scored a team-best 12 goals for New England, which tied for the third most among all MLS newcomers in 2018. He also added seven assists and paced New England in shot attempts (95) and shots on goal (38). In addition to winning the club's Golden Boot, Penilla's debut season earned him a number of club honors, including the 2018 JetBlue Team MVP Award as voted on by fans. He was also recognized by his teammates as the Players' Player of the Year, and honored by supporters as the Midnight Riders' Man of the Year.

Caicedo, 22, spent the 2018 season on loan with New England from Categoría Primera B side Cortuluá in his native Colombia. He totaled 30 appearances, including 29 starts, with one goal and four assists, while his 2,590 minutes of action ranked fifth on the Revolution. After joining the club in March 2018, the defensive midfielder played all 90 minutes in 27 of his 29 starts, including 16 consecutive starts from March 31 through July 14.

TEAM NOTES

JUAN FERNANDO CAICEDO NEARS RETURN FROM INJURY

On Dec. 20, 2018, the Revs acquired forward Juan Fernando Caicedo on loan from Colombian side Independiente Medellín for the 2019 season with a permanent transfer option. Caicedo, 29, has scored 89 goals in nearly 300 appearances across all competitions through nine professional seasons in the top divisions of Colombia and Argentina. The striker is nearing his return to the field after being sidelined for the Revolution's first two games with a muscular injury.

Caicedo joins the Revolution from Independiente Medellín, a marquee Colombian Categoría Primera A side, where he scored 42 goals across 150 league appearances. The forward paced Independiente with 17 league goals in 2015, his most productive campaign as a professional. He also eclipsed the double-digit scoring mark in 2018 with 11 goals for El Rojo Paisa. He helped Independiente claim a 2016 Apertura title, as well as runner-up finishes in the 2015 Apertura campaign, the 2017 Copa Colombia, and the 2017 Superliga Colombiana.

HOME COOKIN': REVS SIGN ACADEMY ALUMS FIRMINO, RENNICKS

The Revolution signed two Academy products to Homegrown Player contracts this offseason, adding midfielder Nicolas Firmino (signed Nov. 27, 2018) and forward Justin Rennicks (signed Jan. 18, 2019) to the first team roster.

Firmino, 18, a resident of Somerville, Mass. and native of Mantena, Brazil, joined the Revolution Academy at the Under-14 level before the 2014 fall season. In more than four seasons with the Academy, the Brazilian attacking midfielder, who has also gone by the name Elio, scored over 35 goals in more than 90 appearances. He contributed at four different age groups during his Academy tenure, debuting with the U-14s before stints at the then-U-16, U-17, and U-19 levels.

Rennicks, 19, emerged as one of the Revolution Academy's most productive players upon joining the program at the Under-14 level ahead of the 2012-13 U.S. Soccer Development Academy season. The forward graduated from the Academy with 38 goals and 25 assists in more than 100 appearances across the U-14, U-16, and U-18 levels. He was named the UnitedHealthcare Academy Player of the Year in 2015 and 2016, becoming the first and only player to win the award twice. The South Hamilton, Mass. native then spent two years at Indiana University after playing five years in the Revolution Academy, and is a regular fixture in U.S. Youth National Team camps, most recently earning a call-up to the U.S. U-20 camp in Spain ahead of this summer's FIFA U-20 World Cup.

New England now rosters six Homegrown Players in total, three of whom have joined the squad during Brad Friedel's tenure as head coach. In addition to Firmino and Rennicks, the club also has local products Diego Fagundez (Leominster, Mass.), Scott Caldwell (Braintree, Mass.), Zachary Herivaux (Brookline, Mass.), and Isaac Angking (Providence, R.I.) on the first team.

O CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN: MANCIENNE RETURNS TO LINEUP

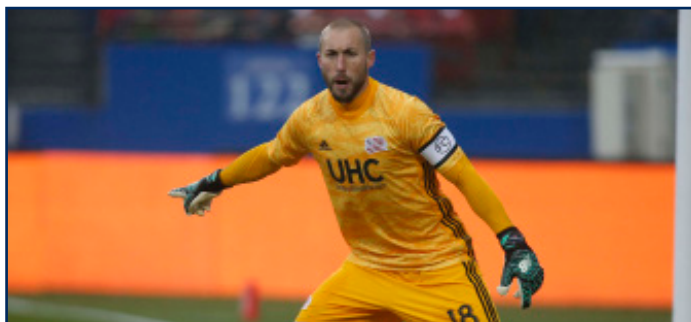

After joining the Revolution during last summer's secondary transfer window, defender Michael Mancienne is settled in and prepared to anchor New England's back line for the 2019 season. The beginning of his 2019 campaign was delayed when he suffered a back injury in warmups on March 2 at FC Dallas, but the London native quickly returned to his quarters in central defense for the Revolution's home opener and played 90 minutes vs. Columbus on March 9.

Mancienne, who arrived in Aug. 2018 via a transfer from EFL Championship side Nottingham Forest F.C., started 10 games after joining the Revolution. Mancienne wore the captain's armband throughout New England's 2019 preseason and in his regular season debut, channeling his experience across Europe's top flight to organize and guide the Revs both on and off the field.

A former England youth international and graduate of Chelsea's youth system with 99 combined career appearances in the English Premier League and German Bundesliga, Mancienne's professional experience includes more than 320 senior appearances and 25,000 minutes played across Europe with Chelsea (2006-11), Queens Park Rangers (2006-08), Wolverhampton (2008-11), Hamburger SV (2011-14), and Forest (2014-18).

KNIGHTON SHINING ARMOR: BRAD GETS NOD IN NET

After a competitive preseason battle for the starting goalkeeper shirt, veteran Brad Knighton has gotten the call for each of the club's first two matches. Knighton played 90 minutes in the Revs' 1-1 draw in Dallas on March 2 to open the 2019 campaign, marking the first time in his MLS career that he started a season-opening match. He slotted in between the sticks again on March 9 vs. Columbus and logged two saves.

Knighton, now in his 12th MLS season, has tallied 224 saves, 13 shutouts, and holds a goals-against average of 1.50 for his career. In club history, he ranks sixth in games played in goal, games started in goal, minutes played in goal, and wins. The 34-year-old North Carolina native is in his second stint with the Revs, after previously spending time with both Philadelphia (2010) and Vancouver (2012-13).

Last January, Knighton was inducted into the UNC-Wilmington Athletic Hall of Fame after spending time with the Seahawks under former Revolution goalkeeper Aidan Healey. Knighton holds the program record of 25 shutouts.

BRAD FRIEDEL HEAD COACH

- Named the Revolution's seventh head coach on November 9, 2017 and posted a 10-13-11 record in first season.
- Developed young talent with Tottenham Hotspur's academy, multiple U.S. Youth National Teams, and as head coach of the U.S. Under-19 Men's National Team.
- One of most experienced goalkeepers in English Premier League history with 450 league appearances over 17 seasons with Liverpool, Blackburn Rovers, Aston Villa, and Tottenham Hotspur.
- A decorated U.S. international with 82 career caps and six FIFA World Cup appearances in 13-year senior career.
- First-ballot inductee to the National Soccer Hall of Fame as part of the 2018 class and member of inaugural Blackburn Rovers Hall of Fame class in 2019.

Brad Friedel is in his second season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on November 9, 2017. The seventh head coach in club history, Friedel joins the Revolution following a decorated playing career that spanned more than 20 professional seasons, including 17 in the English Premier League, and a 13-year international career with the United States Men's National Team.

In his first season with the Revolution, Friedel worked with General Manager Michael Burns to overhaul the roster with 12 new players for the 2018 campaign and led the club to a 10-13-11 record. Friedel's approach paid dividends for a number of Revolution players, including Ecuadorian forward Cristian Penilla, the 2018 JetBlue Team MVP and club Golden Boot winner, and midfielder Diego Fagundez, who tallied nine goals and a career-high 10 assists after Friedel positioned him in a central attacking midfield role.

Friedel, 47, joined the Revolution following two seasons at the helm of the U.S. Under-19 squad, during which he assisted with multiple other Youth National Team sides. He helped guide the Under-20 national team to the 2017 CONCACAF U-20 Championship as an assistant under Tab Ramos. Friedel holds a UEFA 'Pro' Coaching License, the highest certification available, and began accruing valuable coaching experience in his final seasons as a player, assisting in player development at all levels of the Tottenham Academy.

The Lakewood, Ohio native established himself as one of the most distinguished players in American soccer history through a 22-year professional career, which earned him a first-ballot selection to the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2018. After brief stints with Turkish powerhouse Galatasaray (1995-96) and Major League Soccer's Columbus Crew (1996-97), he joined Liverpool F.C. of the English Premier League, where he would thrive for the next 18 years as one of the England's pre-eminent goalkeepers. Between 1997 and 2015, Friedel made 450 league appearances in England's top flight with four clubs: Liverpool (1997-2000), Blackburn Rovers (2001-08), Aston Villa (2008-11), and Tottenham Hotspur (2011-15).

Friedel holds the Premier League record for most consecutive appearances with 310 and ranks third among goalkeepers in league history with 450 appearances, which is also the most games played in the league by an American. His 132 clean sheets and 771 saves both rank among the top 10 in Premier League history. As a U.S. international, Friedel collected 82 international caps – the fourth most among American goalkeepers – and was a member of three United States World Cup squads in 1994, 1998, and 2002. He was the USMNT's first-choice goalkeeper for 2002 FIFA World Cup campaign, where he started all five matches and backstopped the team to a Quarterfinal appearance. In addition, Friedel represented the United States at two Olympic Games, having appeared at the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona and the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sydney.

The Redondo Beach, Calif. native began his coaching career in October 2004 as an assistant coach with the U.S. U-20 Men's National Team under Sigi Schmid. He served as an assistant during the 2005 FIFA World Youth Championship in the Netherlands. In 2005, Lapper joined the Columbus Crew as an assistant coach, where he worked with a number of head coaches, most notably Schmid from 2006-08, until 2013. During his tenure as an assistant coach, Lapper saw the Crew claim an MLS Cup (2008), two Supporters' Shields (2008, 2009), and an appearance in the CONCACAF Champions League Quarterfinals (2009).

In December 2013, Lapper was named as an assistant coach on West Virginia University's staff. Prior to the 2015 season, Lapper was elevated to the role of associate head coach.
