THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel, midfielder DeJuan Jones, and goalkeeper Brad Knighton had to say ahead of Saturday's match vs. Minnesota United FC. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionssoccer.net or visit www.revolutionssoccer.net/media.

New England Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel

On the importance of maximizing points with four out of five games at home:

Coach Friedel: "It's important to win every game, to be honest with you. You can't lose too many games. I said it in the press conference after the game -- the good news is we're having this at the beginning of the season and not the end of the season. We have changed approach a little bit hoping that our players will be far more fresh come the midway point and on through the end of the season. We're still hoping that's going to be the case, but that doesn't take away from the fact that we should be working very hard right now in games and getting points. So, yes, the games coming up are very important, and I'd be lying to you if I said they weren't."

New England Revolution Goalkeeper Brad Knighton

On preparing for an attack-minded Minnesota team led by Darwin Quintero:

Knighton: "He [Darwin Quintero] is a fantastic player. We played against him in preseason down in Orlando, and we saw glimpses of what they were looking to do in the season. So, we'll try and pull some things from that game that we had seen and see how they've done throughout their results so far this season. But the game plan, like I said, comes down to us and how we take it to an opponent here at home."

New England Revolution Midfielder DeJuan Jones

On making his professional debut last weekend:

Jones: "It was an awesome opportunity. I've been working for this since I started playing soccer when I was five. To finally get out there on the field in front of all those fans -- to get out there and play was an unreal feeling."

REVOLUTION - MINNESOTA UNITED CONNECTIONS

- Revolution forward Teal Bunbury and goalkeeper Cody Cropper both have Minnesota roots. Bunbury grew up in Prior Lake, and attended Shattuck-St. Mary's High School. Cropper also spent his formative years in Minnesota, and played for the Minnesota Thunder at the youth level.
- Minnesota United goalkeeper Bobby Shuttleworth played for the Revolution from 2009-16. He owns the second most appearances (124), wins (46), saves (344), and shutouts (34) among all New England goalkeepers.
- Revolution forward Teal Bunbury was teammates with Minnesota United's Ike Opara (2011) and Lawrence Olum (2011-13) on Sporting Kansas City.
- Revolution defender Jalil Anibaba and Minnesota United midfielder Oswaldo Alonso were teammates on Seattle Sounders FC in 2014.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR vs. MINNESOTA

- New England claiming a second win out of three games in the all-time series with Minnesota United FC, and improving to 2-0-0 at Gillette Stadium against the Loons.
- The Revs (36), and M Carles Gil (12) as an individual, continuing to pace MLS in possessions gained in the attacking third.
- M Carles Gil maintaining his place tied atop the 2019 MLS scoring list by tallying his fourth goal with the club.
- M Scott Caldwell potentially making his 150th career MLS start, becoming the second Revolution Academy product to reach the milestone after Diego Fagundez did so in 2018.
- F Teal Bunbury scoring once to tie Kelyn Rowe for ninth-most goals scored in Revolution history (29), and scoring three goals to reach 50 for his MLS career.
- M Diego Fagundez scoring once to tie Lee Nguyen for the second most goals scored in Revolution history (51).
- D Jalil Anibaba approaching 200 career regular season appearances in MLS, as he enters Sunday's match with 198 games played.

WHERE TO WATCH/LISTEN

Saturday's 2:00 p.m. ET start is available locally on NBC Sports Boston, where Brad Feldman, Paul Mariner, and Naoko Funayama will be on the call. The match will also be streamed live for authenticated subscribers on NBCSportsBoston.com and the NBC Sports Boston app. The contest airs on the radio locally on 98.5 The Sports Hub HD2 and on 1260 AM "Nossa Radio USA," the primary carrier for Revs radio in Portuguese.

TICKETS ON SALE FOR 'FINAL WHISTLE ON HATE' MATCH

The Revolution and Chelsea FC will play a friendly match, the "Final Whistle on Hate", at Gillette Stadium on Wednesday, May 15. Kicking off at 8:00 p.m. ET, the match will be played against a backdrop of ongoing antisemitism and discrimination around the world with all proceeds from the match dedicated to initiatives to combat antisemitism and hate crimes. The initial idea for the match was developed by club owners Roman Abramovich and Robert Kraft in light of a global rise in antisemitic activity.

Chelsea and the Revolution have teamed up to highlight the ongoing rise of hate crimes around the world and are working together to harness the power of sport in bringing people together to tackle hate and prejudice in all its forms.

The match's primary beneficiaries will include the World Jewish Congress, the Tree of Life synagogue, the Anti-Defamation League, and the Holocaust Educational Trust. Representatives from these and other anti-discrimination organizations will be invited to attend the game, while Abramovich and Kraft will also each donate $1 million in support of the cause, with further initiatives to combat antisemitism to be announced closer to the game.

GILLETTE STADIUM TO HOST AC MILAN - BENFICA ON JULY 28

Italian powerhouse AC Milan will take on Portuguese giants Benfica at Gillette Stadium on Sunday, July 28 as part of the International Champions Cup. The match marks the second year the tournament visits Gillette Stadium including a contest between AS Roma and Juventus in 2017.

The tournament format is consistent with last year's ICC. Each team will play three matches, and the club with the most points at the end of the tournament will win the championship and receive the first trophy of the season. Each win in regulation will result in three points and a tie will go straight to a shootout; the winning team in a shootout will receive two points and the losing team will receive one.

The tournament will host U.S.-based matches in iconic locations in Boston/Foxborough, New York/New Jersey, Los Angeles, Washington D.C., Chicago, Charlotte, Santa Clara, Houston, Arlington, and Kansas City. Cardiff, London, Stockholm, Singapore, and Shanghai will serve as hosts for the Europe and Asia matches.

REVOLUTION TRAINING CENTER SET TO OPEN IN 2019

On Oct. 15, 2018, the New England Revolution broke ground on the Revolution Training Center, a world-class facility that will be the center of the Revolution first team and Academy operations. Integrated into the wetlands surrounding Gillette Stadium, the Revolution Training Center will feature state-of-the-art fitness and medical centers, six professional-grade fields, team dining and lounge spaces, and office space for the club's technical staff and front office, among other amenities.

The privately-financed, $35-million project will give the New England Revolution one of the most advanced and expansive team facilities in Major League Soccer. The center will span 68 acres with 42,000 square feet of buildings and three new full-size fields – two natural grass surfaces and one turf pitch. With the club's existing training field, Gillette Stadium, and the Empower Field House, upon completion the club will boast a total of six professional-grade fields. The existing natural grass field on the site will be dedicated for use by the Revolution Academy.

In addition to cutting-edge amenities for the first team, which also include an on-site barbershop for the first team, the Revolution's training facility will house members of the front office and technical staff. The complex will feature office space, multiple conference rooms, and a state-of-the-art in-house media studio.

Construction began with the groundbreaking ceremony on Monday, Oct. 15, and completion is scheduled for the summer of 2019. The two natural grass surfaces, both dedicated for first team use, are expected to open in the spring.

ON-FIELD NOTES

'GIL YEAH!': CARLES WITH THREE GOALS THROUGH THREE TILTS

Midfielder Carles Gil (pronounced CAR-LESS HEEL) has opened his MLS career in a blistering run of form. The Spaniard has already scored three goals, which is tied for the most among all MLS players through the first four weeks of the 2019 campaign. Gil registered his first career brace in New England's match on March 17 at Toronto, converting a penalty kick in the ninth minute before scoring with his left foot in the second half. Only one other MLS player, Montreal's Ignacio Piatti, equals Gil's total of three away goals this season.

The Valencia, Spain native also tallied in his MLS debut at FC Dallas on March 2, delivering the game-tying goal in the 57th minute. He is only the third Revolution player to score three goals through the first three games of a season:

REVS HISTORY: MOST GOALS THROUGH THREE GAMES TO BEGIN SEASON

Player	Year	G
Carles Gil*	2019	3
Zack Schilawski*	2010	3
Taylor Twellman	2007	3

*Occurred in first season with Revolution and in MLS

Gil's impact has extended well beyond the scoresheet. His work rate has paid immediate dividends for the Revs, especially in the final third, where he has won possession a league-best 12 times:

Gil arrived in New England with more than 180 games experiences across all competitions with top-flight European clubs, including Aston Villa, Valencia CF, Elche FC, and Deportivo de La Coruña. His career highlights include helping Elche earn promotion from La Liga 2 into La Liga in 2013, marking the club's first ascension into Spain's top flight in 25 years. Gil also contributed to Aston Villa's run to the 2015 FA Cup Final.

WORK RATE BEARS RESULTS IN FINAL THIRD

New England's attack has been launching from advantageous positions at a high rate early in the season, as the Revs' press has produced 39 possessions gained in the attacking end, 13 more than any other club, according to Opta:

CALDWELL INKS MULTI-YEAR EXTENSION WITH REVS

On Thursday, March 28, the Revolution signed midfielder Scott Caldwell to a multi-year contract extension. The Braintree, Mass. native and second Homegrown Player signing in club history will remain with the club beyond what is currently his seventh Major League Soccer campaign, all with New England.

Caldwell, 28, has been an integral member of the Revolution first team since the 2013 season, totaling 182 regular season appearances and 149 starts over his seven-year MLS career, with more than 13,000 minutes played. All three of those totals rank Caldwell among the top-five in MLS history for service by a Homegrown Player, as he became the second Homegrown signing ever to reach the 10,000-minute milestone in 2017. The University of Akron graduate has recorded five goals and 17 assists in league play, with an additional eight games played and two assists in the postseason.

A mainstay in the club's lineup since playing in 29 games as a rookie in 2013, Caldwell's consistency has led him to at least 24 appearances in each of his seven professional campaigns, including a career-high 34 games played and 32 starts in 2015. For his efforts that year, which included two goals and five assists, Caldwell earned 2015 Team MVP honors from fans and the Players' Player of the Year award from teammates.

Off the field, Caldwell has long been one of the Revolution's leading ambassadors in the community, volunteering his time to events benefitting more than a dozen of the club's community partners in 2018 alone. Beginning this season, Caldwell will also be partnering with Boston Children's Hospital to host Scott's BCH Dream Team. At six matches this season, beginning on Saturday, April 20, Caldwell will host and meet patients from BCH prior to each game.

EYEING A RETURN: FARRELL ON MEND FROM RETINA INJURY

After suffering an eye injury in a preseason training session that kept him sidelined for several weeks – and briefly blind in his left eye – defender Andrew Farrell is on the mend. He was officially cleared to resume full activity on Friday, March 15, and promptly made an appearance in the 18-man matchday roster for New England's match on March 17 at Toronto.

Although Farrell has not yet seen the field, he could return to the starting lineup as soon as this weekend following two weeks of full training.

Farrell has been a staple at right back for the Revolution since the club selected him with the first-overall pick in the 2013 MLS SuperDraft. He leads all MLS outfield players in games started (188) and minutes played (16,728) since entering the league. Prior to missing New England's first three games of this season, the Louisville, Ky. native had missed only three league games in his entire six-year MLS career.

In Farrell's absence, second-year defender Brandon Bye has stepped in admirably at right back, playing all 360 minutes of the club's first four games. Bye, selected by the Revolution with the eighth-overall pick in the 2018 MLS SuperDraft, owns 28 appearances with 20 starts, one goal, and two assists. He logged the third-most appearances and minutes played among all 2018 SuperDraft picks last season.

TEAM NOTES

On Dec. 18, the Revolution acquired left back Edgar Castillo in a trade with the Colorado Rapids in exchange for midfielder Kelyn Rowe. Castillo, 32, brings over 12 years of experience to the Revolution, including 11 professional seasons and multiple championships in Mexico's Liga MX, as well as one season in MLS with Colorado.

Thus far in 2019, Castillo has played 90 minutes in each of the Revolution's first four matches. An attack-minded outside back, Castillo has registered the second-most touches (297) among Revolution players this season and has exhibited his ability and eagerness to join the attack. He has provided the Revs with a stabilizing option at left back, a position that saw three different players log starts in 2018.

The Las Cruces, New Mexico native began his senior career with Santos Laguna in 2006. After winning a championship with Santos in 2008, Castillo departed for Club América. During subsequent loan stints with Tigres UANL (2009-10), San Luis FC (2010), and Puebla FC (2011), he totaled 49 appearances and four goals. Castillo then joined Club Tijuana, first on loan before a permanent transfer, where he appeared in 94 games across more than 7,800 minutes. He also spent time with Atlas Guadalajara and Monterrey.

Castillo is a dual citizen of Mexico and the United States and is one of only two players ever to earn senior caps from both nations. He began his international career by playing three senior games for Mexico, debuting against Colombia in August 2007, before making the one-time switch permitted by FIFA to represent the United States in 2009. Since joining the American side, Castillo has earned 18 caps, including six in both 2014 and 2018 FIFA World Cup qualification.

JUAN FERNANDO CAICEDO DEBUTS AFTER INJURY

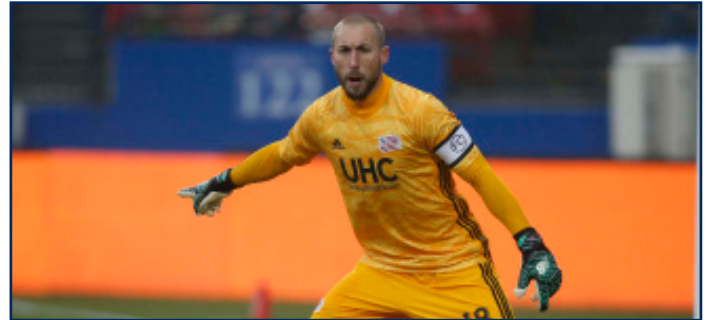

The Revolution added a second Caicedo to the roster this offseason, acquiring Juan Fernando Caicedo on loan from Colombian side Independiente Medellín.

After missing New England's first two matches with a muscular injury he picked in preseason, the imposing forward has made consecutive substitute appearances, including a 24-minute shift in his Gillette Stadium debut on March 24 vs. Cincinnati. Caicedo made the most of his run-out last weekend, contributing one shot, one chance created, and an 85.7 percent passing accuracy clip. He made his MLS debut the week prior, logging six minutes as a substitute on March 17 at Toronto.

The 29-year old brings a season goal-scoring touch to the Revs. Caicedo scored 89 goals in nearly 300 appearances across all competitions through nine professional seasons in the Colombian and Argentine top flights. His career highlights include a trio of Golden Boots, having paced Quindío with 13 goals in 2012, Huila with 14 goals in 2014, and Independiente Medellín with 17 goals in 2015.

KNIGHTON SHINING ARMOR: BRAD GETS THE NOD IN NET

After a competitive preseason battle for the starting goalkeeper shirt, veteran Brad Knighton has gotten the call for each of the club's first four matches. Knighton played 90 minutes in the Revs' 1-1 draw in Dallas on March 2 to open the 2019 campaign, marking the first time in his MLS career that he started a season-opening match. He slotted in between the sticks for each of New England's three matches since.

Knighton, now in his 12th MLS season, has tallied 226 saves, 13 shutouts, and holds a goals-against average of 1.50 for his career. In club history, he ranks sixth in games played in goal, games started in goal, minutes played in goal, and wins. The 34-year-old North Carolina native is in his second stint with the Revs, after previously spending time with both Philadelphia (2010) and Vancouver (2012-13).

DEJUAN JONES MAKES PROFESSIONAL DEBUT WITH REVS

On March 24 vs. Cincinnati, rookie midfielder DeJuan Jones made his MLS and professional debut as a second-half substitute. The 11th-overall selection in the 2019 MLS SuperDraft, Jones played 13 minutes in his first professional appearance and contributed one chance created, 12 touches, and an 83.3 percent passing accuracy rate. The former Michigan State standout recorded 16 goals and 14 assists across 75 career appearances for his collegiate career prior to joining the Revs in January.

New England's ninth-overall selection in January's SuperDraft, Tajon Buchanan, previously made his MLS debut in the home opener on March 9 vs. Columbus. Buchanan recorded two shots in nine minutes of action. The former Syracuse University star scored 12 goals with six assists in 33 appearances for the Orange.

TEAM NOTES

REVS LOAN HERIVAUX, WRIGHT TO BIRMINGHAM LEGION FC

The New England Revolution loaned midfielder Zachary Herivaux and forward Brian Wright to Birmingham Legion FC of the USL Championship on March 14. Both players may be recalled by New England from their open-ended loans at any time. Herivaux started and played 90 minutes in his first appearance with Birmingham, while Wright saw 31 minutes of action.

Herivaux, 23, is in his fifth professional season after signing with the Revolution as the club's third ever Homegrown Player in 2015. The Brookline, Mass. native owns 10 career MLS appearances, including two starts, as well as eight additional appearances and two goals in Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup play. Herivaux, who owns five international caps with the Haiti National Team, also registered four appearances and one goal while on loan with USL side San Antonio FC in 2017.

Wright, 23, is in his third professional season after being selected by New England with the 20th-overall pick in the 2017 MLS SuperDraft. The Ajax, Ontario native has made 12 appearances in MLS play with one goal scored. In U.S. Open Cup competition, Wright has added one goal in four games for the Revs. In 2017, he made three appearances with two starts in USL play while on loan with Tulsa Roughnecks FC.

Revolution connections abound with Birmingham Legion FC, which is in its first season of play in the USL Championship after launching in 2018 under the direction of former Revolution defender (2001-09) and head coach (2012-17) Jay Heaps, who serves as the Legion's president and general manager. Former Revolution assistant coach (2014-17) and interim head coach (2017) Tom Soehn is Birmingham's first ever head coach, while former Revs forward Khano Smith (2005-08, 2010) is an assistant coach with the club. Three other former Revs players are currently on Birmingham's roster including Femi Hollinger-Janzen (2016-18), Daigo Kobayashi (2014-17), and Trevor Spangenberg (2015).

REVOLUTION ACADEMY CONTINUES SPRING SEASON

The New England Revolution Academy continued its spring season last weekend as all five teams resumed their campaigns. The Under-19s, Under-17s, and Under-15s traveled to Stamford, Conn. to battle Beachside SC on March 23, while the Under-14s and Under-13s hosted NEFC at Gillette Stadium on March 24.

Defender Tyler Freitas (North Attleborough, Mass.—2000) scored his second goal of the young season in the U-19s' 2-2 road draw with Beachside SC in the 17th minute of Saturday's contest. Freitas spent the winter in preseason training with the first team and has committed to play for the University of Vermont.

Another notable performance came from midfielder Trevor Burns (Southborough, Mass.—2001), who also scored his second goal of the season in the U-19s' 2-2 road draw with Beachside United. Burns played 90 minutes in Saturday's road test in Stamford, Conn.

All five Academy teams will return to action on Sunday, March 31 when they will travel to Queens, N.Y. to face the Academy teams of New York City FC at Belson Stadium.

RENNICKS, HERIVAUX, AND SOMI FEATURE IN INT'L DUTY

Three New England Revolution players recently featured for their respective national teams during international duty this March, as Revolution Academy products Justin Rennicks (United States U-20 MNT) and Zachary Herivaux (Haiti), and defender Gabriel Sömi (Syria) have joined their respective teams for training camps and matches.

Rennicks, 19, joined the U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team for camp in Spain in preparation for this summer's 2019 FIFA U-20 World Cup in Poland. The Revolution's Homegrown Player earned a spot in Tab Ramos' starting lineup for its opening match vs. France, but he suffered a hamstring injury in the first half that forced him to return to New England. Rennicks also saw international action in November 2018, when he helped the U.S. Under-20 squad win the Concacaf U-20 Championship. He registered four goals and six assists across eight appearances in that tournament, and has appeared in a team-high seven-of-eight U-20 camps during this World Cup cycle.

Herivaux, 23, joined the Haiti National Team on March 17 for its fourth and final 2019/20 Concacaf Nations League qualifying match against Cuba. He played 40 minutes in the 2-1 win, helping Haiti complete its Nations League campaign with a perfect 4-0-0 record and secure a spot in this summer's 2019 Concacaf Gold Cup. The appearance marked Herivaux's fifth senior cap with Haiti.

Sömi, 27, joined the Syria National Team in Basra, Iraq to participate in the 2019 International Friendship Championship between Syria, Iraq, and Jordan. He made his senior international debut for the Qasioun Eagles on March 20 vs. Iraq in a 1-0 loss.

REVS SIGN ACADEMY PRODUCTS FIRMINO, RENNICKS

Prior to the start of the 2019 season, the Revolution signed two Academy products to Homegrown Player contracts, adding midfielder Nicolas Firmino (signed Nov. 27, 2018) and forward Justin Rennicks (signed Jan. 18, 2019) to the first team roster.

Firmino, 18, a resident of Somerville, Mass. and native of Mantena, Brazil, joined the Revolution Academy at the Under-14 level before the 2014 fall season. In more than four seasons with the Academy, the Brazilian attacking midfielder, who has also gone by the name Elio, scored over 35 goals in more than 90 appearances. He contributed at four different age groups during his Academy tenure, debuting with the U-14s before stints at the then-U-16, U-17, and U-19 levels. Firmino has yet to make his MLS debut, but did score in a 90-minute outing with the Revs' U-19s on March 17.

Rennicks, 19, emerged as one of the Revolution Academy's most productive players upon joining the program at the Under-14 level ahead of the 2012-13 U.S. Soccer Development Academy season. The forward graduated from the Academy with 38 goals and 25 assists in more than 100 appearances across the U-14, U-16, and U-18 levels. He was named the UnitedHealthcare Academy Player of the Year in 2015 and 2016, becoming the first and only player to win the award twice. The South Hamilton, Mass. native then spent two years at Indiana University after playing five years in the Revolution Academy, and is a regular fixture in U.S. Youth National Team camps, most recently earning a call-up to the U.S. U-20 camp in Spain this March ahead of this summer's FIFA U-20 World Cup.

New England now rosters six Homegrown Players in total, three of whom have joined the squad during Brad Friedel's tenure as head coach. In addition to Firmino and Rennicks, the club also has local products Diego Fagundez (Leominster, Mass.), Scott Caldwell (Braintree, Mass.), Zachary Herivaux (Brookline, Mass.), and Isaac Angking (Providence, R.I.) on the first team.

REVS OFF THE PITCH

TURNER TO HOST 'MATT'S NEGU CREW' IN 2019

Throughout the 2019 season, goalkeeper Matt Turner will be supporting families impacted by childhood cancer by working with the Jessie Rees Foundation as the Revolution's NEGU Crew representative, carrying the torch passed on by former midfielder Kelyn Rowe.

Turner will host young cancer patients and their families associated with the Jessie Rees Foundation throughout the 2019 MLS season, providing them with a unforgettable game day experiences. Here are the five home games Turner is currently scheduled to host NEGU Crew families:

2019 NEGU CREW DATES

- Saturday, March 30 vs. Minnesota United FC
- Saturday, April 20 vs. New York Red Bulls
- Saturday, May 25 vs. D.C. United
- Saturday, June 29 vs. Houston Dynamo
- Saturday, July 27 vs. Orlando City SC
- Saturday, Sept. 21 vs. Real Salt Lake

The acronym NEGU stands for "Never Ever Give Up", a phrase adopted from the Jessie Rees Foundation – an organization that ensures every child fighting cancer has the support and resources they need to never ever give up. NEGU Crew aims to give each child a memorable experience as they continue their brave fight against cancer.

Each NEGU Crew experience will culminate with a postgame walk around the field with Turner, including a chance to be saluted and serenaded by the Revolution supporters. The experience also includes a private suite for the patient and his or her family, as well as a pregame meet and greet with Revolution players, and much more.

JOHN OLIVEIRA TO REPRESENT REVS IN SECOND eMLS CUP

On Saturday, March 30, Major League Soccer and PAX East will host the second annual eMLS Cup presented by PlayStation at The Castle at Park Plaza in Boston, Mass. This marquee FIFA eSports event showcases the best professional FIFA players in North America. The PAX After Hours event is free and open to the public, where fans will have the opportunity to enjoy food, drink, giveaways, and more as they watch 22 eMLS pros compete to win the eMLS Cup trophy, $15,000, a spot on the inaugural U.S. Soccer eNational Team, and more.

The Revolution will once again be represented in the tournament by Massachusetts' own John Oliveira, known by his gamertag as JK01707. Oliveira is the club's first official eMLS competitor and earned his contract by excelling in the club's open tournament in February 2018. The 25-year-old brings more than 13 years of FIFA experience and has notched several top-10 finishes at major tournaments, including finishing top-six overall at the Miami Regional and Vancouver Regional in 2017.

Twitch and Twitter will be featured distribution platforms for eMLS Cup and a series of other events, including eMLS All-Star Challenge. eMLS Cup will be streamed live on Twitch.tv/eMLS and Twitter.com/MLS and other owned and operated channels. For more information on eMLS Cup, including participating clubs and player signings, visit www.MLSsoccer.com.

REVOLUTION AND SPECIAL OLYMPICS MASS. HOLD CLINIC

The New England Revolution and Special Olympics Massachusetts are once again teaming up to field a Special Olympics Unified soccer team, comprised of local athletes and volunteers with and without intellectual disabilities, to represent the Revs throughout the 2019 season. For what will mark the fourth season of the Revolution's Unified team, this year's activities kick off on Sunday, March 31 with the Special Olympics Unified Clinic at the Empower Field House in Foxborough. From 11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. ET, approximately 60 athletes and partners from throughout Massachusetts will join Revolution players in the Empower Field House to practice soccer skills and drills.

The partnership between the Revs and Special Olympics MA aims to leverage the power of sports to promote an environment of inclusion and friendly competition. Following Sunday's clinic, members of the fourth ever Revolution Unified team will return to Gillette Stadium in April to sign their contracts with the club, participate in training sessions led by Revs players, and compete against another MLS club in New England's fifth-ever Special Olympics Unified match. The partnership culminates in the club's annual Bowl for a Goal charity event on Aug. 21, which last year raised $80,000 for Special Olympics Massachusetts.

THREE FORMER REVS ELIGIBLE FOR NATIONAL SOCCER HOF

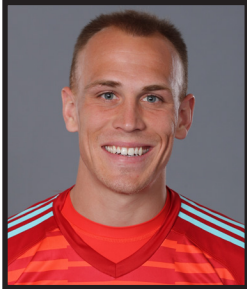

This March, the U.S. Soccer Federation announced that three former New England Revolution players are eligible for 2019 National Soccer Hall of Fame induction. Taylor Twellman and Steve Ralston have been named to the 2019 National Soccer Hall of Fame Player ballot, while current General Manager and former Revs captain Mike Burns is listed on the 2019 National Soccer Hall of Fame Veteran ballot. Voting runs through Monday, April 1 for the Player, Veteran Player, and Builder categories.

Burns, 48, is currently in his 15th season with the Revolution organization and eighth season as the team's General Manager. Burns was born and raised in nearby Marlborough, Mass., and was named Massachusetts High School Player of the Year in 1987. After a standout career at Hartwick College (1988-91), Burns became a regular for the U.S. Men's National Team, earning 75 caps including two starts for the USMNT in the 1998 FIFA World Cup. He was also a member of the 1994 U.S. World Cup squad. He captained the Revs from 1996-2000, scored three goals, and tallied 15 assists in a New England uniform.

Twellman, 39, was born in Minneapolis, Minn., and raised in St. Louis, Mo., and played nine memorable seasons in Major League Soccer, all with the Revolution. The 2005 MLS Most Valuable Player scored 101 career goals in 174 career appearances after joining MLS in 2002, and remains New England's top all-time scorer. He was also a two-time MLS Best XI performer (2002, 2005) and a five-time MLS All-Star.

Ralston, 44, scored 42 goals and recorded a club-record 73 assists over eight seasons with the Revs from 2002-10 and helped lift the team to four MLS Cup finals. Ralston totaled over 33,000 minutes in MLS play and recorded 36 caps with the United States Men's National Team throughout his career, notching four goals.

TECHNICAL STAFF BIOS

BRAD FRIEDEL HEAD COACH

- Named the Revolution's seventh head coach on November 9, 2017 and posted a 10-13-11 record in first season.
- Developed young talent with Tottenham Hotspur's academy, multiple U.S. Youth National Teams, and as head coach of the U.S. Under-19 Men's National Team.
- One of most experienced goalkeepers in English Premier League history with 450 league appearances over 17 seasons with Liverpool, Blackburn Rovers, Aston Villa, and Tottenham Hotspur.
- A decorated U.S. international with 82 career caps and six FIFA World Cup appearances in 13-year senior career.
- First-ballot inductee to the National Soccer Hall of Fame as part of the 2018 class and member of inaugural Blackburn Rovers Hall of Fame class in 2019.

Brad Friedel is in his second season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on November 9, 2017. The seventh head coach in club history, Friedel joins the Revolution following a decorated playing career that spanned more than 20 professional seasons, including 17 in the English Premier League, and a 13-year international career with the United States Men's National Team.

In his first season with the Revolution, Friedel worked with General Manager Michael Burns to overhaul the roster with 12 new players for the 2018 campaign and led the club to a 10-13-11 record. Friedel's approach paid dividends for a number of Revolution players, including Ecuadorian forward Cristian Penilla, the 2018 JetBlue Team MVP and club Golden Boot winner, and midfielder Diego Fagundez, who tallied nine goals and a career-high 10 assists after Friedel positioned him in a central attacking midfield role.

Friedel, 47, joined the Revolution following two seasons at the helm of the U.S. Under-19 squad, during which he assisted with multiple other Youth National Team sides. He helped guide the Under-20 national team to the 2017 CONCACAF U-20 Championship as an assistant under Tab Ramos. Friedel holds a UEFA 'Pro' Coaching License, the highest certification available, and began accruing valuable coaching experience in his final seasons as a player, assisting in player development at all levels of the Tottenham Academy.

The Lakewood, Ohio native established himself as one of the most distinguished players in American soccer history through a 22-year professional career, which earned him a first-ballot selection to the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2018. After brief stints with Turkish powerhouse Galatasaray (1995-96) and Major League Soccer's Columbus Crew (1996-97), he joined Liverpool F.C. of the English Premier League, where he would thrive for the next 18 years as one of the England's pre-eminent goalkeepers. Between 1997 and 2015, Friedel made 450 league appearances in England's top flight with four clubs: Liverpool (1997-2000), Blackburn Rovers (2001-08), Aston Villa (2008-11), and Tottenham Hotspur (2011-15).

Friedel holds the Premier League record for most consecutive appearances with 310 and ranks third among goalkeepers in league history with 450 appearances, which is also the most games played in the league by an American. His 132 clean sheets and 771 saves both rank among the top 10 in Premier League history. As a U.S. international, Friedel collected 82 international caps – the fourth most among American goalkeepers – and was a member of three United States World Cup squads in 1994, 1998, and 2002. He was the USMNT's first-choice goalkeeper for 2002 FIFA World Cup campaign, where he started all five matches and backstopped the team to a Quarterfinal appearance. In addition, Friedel represented the United States at two Olympic Games, having appeared at the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona and the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sydney.

MIKE LAPPER ASSISTANT COACH

Mike Lapper is currently in his second season as assistant coach with the New England Revolution after joining Head Coach Brad Friedel's staff in November 2017. The accomplished United States international is now in his 11th MLS season as a coach and his 17th season in the league overall, having spent 15 campaigns with the Columbus Crew as an assistant coach (2005-13) and a defender (1997-2002).

Lapper brings more than 14 years of coaching experience to the staff in New England, including nine seasons in MLS as an assistant under with the Columbus Crew beginning in 2005. Prior to joining the Revolution, he most recently served as an assistant coach under Friedel with the U.S. Under-19 Men's National Team, and also spent two seasons alongside head coach Marlon LeBlanc as an assistant coach, and later as associate head coach, at West Virginia University from 2013-15.

The Redondo Beach, Calif. native began his coaching career in October 2004 as an assistant coach with the U.S. U-20 Men's National Team under Sigi Schmid. He served as an assistant during the 2005 FIFA World Youth Championship in the Netherlands. In 2005, Lapper joined the Columbus Crew as an assistant coach, where he worked with a number of head coaches, most notably Schmid from 2006-08, until 2013. During his tenure as an assistant coach, Lapper saw the Crew claim an MLS Cup (2008), two Supporters' Shields (2008, 2009), and an appearance in the CONCACAF Champions League Quarterfinals (2009).

In December 2013, Lapper was named as an assistant coach on West Virginia University's staff. Prior to the 2015 season, Lapper was elevated to the role of associate head coach. While Lapper was at West Virginia, the Mountaineers posted a record of 18-19-1 over two years. Following the 2015 season, Lapper joined Friedel as an assistant coach with the U.S. U-19 Men's National Team.

Before pursuing coaching, Lapper enjoyed a 12-year professional playing career as a defender from 1991-2002. Lapper played at both the club and international level, excelling for the U.S. Men's National Team from 1991-95. He earned 43 career caps with the United States, participating the 1991 Pan American games, 1992 Summer Olympics, and 1995 Copa America tournament. Lapper was also on the USMNT roster for the 1994 FIFA World Cup.

MARCELO NEVELEFF ASSISTANT COACH

Marcelo Neveleff is currently in his second season as assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining Head Coach Brad Friedel's staff in November 2017. Neveleff brings extensive coaching experience at both the domestic and international levels to New England. He most recently served as a U.S. Soccer technical advisor for the Southeastern United States as part of the Boys' Development Academy.

A native of Argentina, Neveleff has previously served as head coach for six different clubs over the course of his coaching career. He coached the Fort Lauderdale Strikers of the North American Soccer League (NASL) in 2015 after serving as manager for Bolivian top-flight sides C.D. Jorge Wilstermann (2011-12) and Club Aurora (2012). With Wilstermann, Neveleff led the club in the 2011 Copa Libertadores – the most prestigious club tournament in South America.

Prior to coaching in Colombia, Neveleff worked as an assistant coach with the NASL's Miami FC from 2009-10, and was head coach at Brazilian side Clube Desportivo Sete de Setembro from 2007-08. While with Sete de Setembro, Neveleff led the club to promotion into Brazil's top flight. He was also head coach for United States Inter-regional Soccer League (now USL) clubs Jacksonville Cyclones from 1997-98 and Myrtle Beach Sea Dawgs in 1999.

Before joining U.S. Soccer's Boys Development Academy as a technical advisor, Neveleff also spent time on the U.S. Soccer Federation's instructional staff and on the Under-14 Boy's National Team staff. He was a member of the coaching staff, along with Brad Friedel, for the Under-20 national team that won the 2017 CONCACAF U-20 Championship.

In addition to his coaching experience, Neveleff served as the technical director of Weston FC, a U.S. Soccer Development Academy and one of the preeminent youth clubs in South Florida, from 2009-15. He oversaw the development of both the boys and girls program and was named U.S. Soccer Academy Coach of the Year in 2010-11. In 2015, he helped the club earn an expansion bid to the National Premier Soccer League (NPSL).

Neveleff holds the USSF National 'A' and Youth coaching licenses.

TECHNICAL STAFF BIOS

RUBEN GARCIA

ASSISTANT COACH

Rubén García is currently in his second season as Assistant Coach with the New England Revolution after joining Head Coach Brad Friedel's staff in November 2017. He brings a wealth of playing and coaching experience to the Revolution, most recently serving as the Academy Goalkeeper Director for New York City FC and Goalkeeping Coach for all United States Youth National Teams between the Under-14 and Under-23 age groups.

Prior to joining NYCFC in 2015, García served on the technical staffs at Spanish powerhouse Atlético Madrid, in addition to the TSF Academy – an elite youth development program in New Jersey. From 2012-17, he coached goalkeepers at all levels of the U.S. Youth National Team program, where he worked alongside Friedel.

After concluding his player career in Spain, García earned his UEFA 'B' professional football coaching license from the Spanish Soccer Federation in 2012. He later earned his UEFA 'A' coaching license in 2014, and is currently on course to secure his UEFA PRO license from the Spanish Soccer Federation.

Before entering the coaching ranks and moving to the United States, García enjoyed a 14-year professional career. García, who was also known as Ruben Martín during his playing days, spent time with clubs including Toledo CV, Alaves CF, Albacete, Atlético Madrid, Ciudad de Murcia, Talavera, and Alcalá de Henares.

García graduated from the University of San Pablo CEU in Madrid in 2006 with a Bachelor Degree in Criminology.

GABRIEL MARTINEZ POCH

HEAD FITNESS COACH

Gabriel Martínez Poch is in his first season as Head Fitness Coach for the New England Revolution after joining the technical staff in January 2019. Poch brings extensive experience with top-flight clubs in South America to the Revolution, most recently with Mineros de Guayana of the Venezuelan First Division.

Poch, 53, has worked for two decades as a sports science specialist with several top clubs around the world, including stints at multiple top-division outfits in South America. A native of La Plata, Argentina, he has worked extensively for clubs in South America, Europe, and Asia. Most recently, he helped guide Argentine side Aldosivi de Mar del Plata to promotion into the Argentina SuperLiga as a methodology and technical assistant in 2018. Poch earned his UEFA Level 3 'B' License in Barcelona in 2015.

In addition to his time with Aldosivi, Poch's prior experience is highlighted by stints with 18 different clubs in Argentina, Bolivia, Ecuador, Venezuela, Spain, Romania, the United States, Kuwait, and Qatar. Poch has helped clubs to a number of major accomplishments, including a Bolivian Primera División title with Wilstermann in 2006, and an Ecuadorian Serie A championship with Deportivo Quito in 2009. He also helped guide several clubs to promotion in their respective leagues.

MICHAEL BURNS

GENERAL MANAGER

Michael Burns is currently in his 15th season with the New England Revolution and his eighth season as the team's General Manager. He was promoted to his current role in November 2011 after four seasons as the club's Vice President of Player Personnel. The former Revs defender and team captain returned to the club at the start of the 2005 season as Director of Soccer before being named Vice President of Player Personnel in 2008.

As General Manager, Burns leads all aspects of the club's soccer operations, which includes oversight of the coaching staff, player acquisitions and scouting, the youth development program, and the team's day-to-day operations and management. He has also been instrumental in the development of the new Revolution Training Center in Foxborough, set to open in 2019 as the home of the Revolution first team and Academy. The $35-million project places the Revolution's facilities among the best in all of Major League Soccer and includes a state-of-the-art headquarters and four new professional-grade fields.

A mainstay in New England soccer circles, Burns was born and raised in nearby Marlborough, Mass., and was named Massachusetts High School Player of the Year in 1987. After a standout career at Hartwick College (1988-91), Burns became a regular for the U.S. Men's National Team, earning 75 caps including two starts for the USMNT in the 1998 FIFA World Cup. He was also a member of the 1994 U.S. World Cup squad.

Burns was the first player in U.S. Soccer history to represent the United States at every level of FIFA-sanctioned tournaments: Under-16 World Cup (Canada 1987), Under-20 World Cup (Saudi Arabia 1989), Olympic Games (Barcelona 1992), and World Cup (United States 1994, France 1998).

The Massachusetts native was allocated to the Revolution in 1995 at the inception of MLS and played for – and captained – New England from 1996 to 2000, before finishing his playing career with the San Jose Earthquakes (2000) and the Kansas City Wizards (2001-02). Overall, he made 169 appearances, scored three goals, and totaled 21 assists. Burns also played for Viborg in the Super League in Denmark in 1995 before joining MLS.

In addition to his day-to-day duties with the Revolution, Burns represents New England at the league level as the club's Chief Soccer Officer, and serves on the MLS Combine Committee. Prior to returning to the Revolution in a management capacity, Burns served on the MLS Disciplinary Committee and was also a member of U.S. Soccer's Board of Directors and the U.S. Soccer Athlete Counsel.

Burns holds a USSF "A" coaching license. He also is a member of the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Club of MetroWest that includes Marlborough, Hudson, and Framingham.

REMI ROY

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING & PRO PERSONNEL

Remi Roy is currently in his 10th season with the New England Revolution and his second as the club's Director of Scouting & Player Personnel, having been named to the position in January 2018. Roy has been with the club since 2010, previously serving as an assistant coach with New England for eight seasons.

In his new role, Roy is focused on scouting and talent identification in players at the collegiate, national, and international levels. He works closely with the Revolution technical staff in player evaluation and has a role in all soccer-related aspects of the organization, including communication with agents and facilitating MLS communication and compliance.

Roy was heavily engaged in the Revolution's scouting operations throughout his tenure as an assistant coach, contributing to the club's domestic and international scouting efforts. As an assistant coach, first under Steve Nicol and then for six seasons on Jay Heaps' staff, he worked primarily with the Revs' first-team goalkeepers and also provided additional training for the Revolution Academy goalkeepers.

During his time on the Revs' coaching staff, Roy mentored several talented goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in the professional ranks. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Salty Dogs (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07).

Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region, and All-American honors. He also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the Jackson Chargers (1998-99), Des Moines Menace (2000), and the Spokane Shadow (2001).

Roy holds a USSF "A" License and Level I and II NSCAA Goalkeeping Licenses. A native of Petit-Rocher, New Brunswick, Canada, Roy lives south of Boston with his wife and three kids.
