THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel, forward Juan Agudelo, and defender Andrew Farrell had to say ahead of Saturday's match at Columbus Crew SC. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionsoccer.net or visit www.revolutionsoccer.net/media.

New England Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel

On facing Columbus for the second time in less than a month:

Coach Friedel: "We got to see the little, subtle nuances that Caleb [Porter] is trying to instill. He's getting the best out of [Federico] Higuain, he's getting the best out of [Gyasi] Zardes, and they have some good players. But now that we've seen them once, we'll make a couple of adjustments ourselves and hopefully we can get the three points."

New England Revolution Forward Juan Agudelo

On playing as a second striker alongside Teal Bunbury and in front of Carles Gil:

Agudelo: "I think it's actually really awesome that a player like him [Carles Gil], with his ability, is able to face forward and play some forward balls, which gives me and Teal [Bunbury] the ability to maybe go into the gaps and receive those balls. It just felt like in this way, the whole team had more options – playing forward, playing to the sides, keeping the ball. I just think there were a lot of triangles and options on the field."

New England Revolution Defender Andrew Farrell

On preventing Columbus' service to Gyasi Zardes:

Farrell: "They have a really good team. They've got really good players around, and Gyasi's [Zardes] been on form with USA and with Columbus. Denying him service is important, but just being tight to him is really, really important, because he's been finishing everything. If we can do that, we'll have a really good chance. Obviously, the first game we didn't do well, but we're looking forward to making up for that."

CALDWELL INKS MULTI-YEAR EXTENSION WITH REVS

On Thursday, March 28, the Revolution signed midfielder Scott Caldwell to a multi-year contract extension. The Braintree, Mass. native and second Homegrown Player signing in club history will remain with the club beyond what is currently his seventh Major League Soccer campaign, all with New England.

Caldwell, 28, has been an integral member of the Revolution first team since the 2013 season, totaling 183 regular season appearances and 150 starts over his seven-year MLS career, with more than 13,000 minutes played. All three of those totals rank Caldwell among the top-five in MLS history for service by a Homegrown Player, as he became the second Homegrown signing ever to reach the 10,000-minute milestone in 2017. The University of Akron graduate has recorded five goals and 17 assists in league play, with an additional eight games played and two assists in the postseason.

A mainstay in the club's lineup since playing in 29 games as a rookie in 2013, Caldwell's consistency has led him to at least 24 appearances in each of his seven professional campaigns, including a career-high 34 games played and 32 starts in 2015. For his efforts that year, which included two goals and five assists, Caldwell earned 2015 Team MVP honors from fans and the Players' Player of the Year award from teammates.

Off the field, Caldwell has long been one of the Revolution's leading ambassadors in the community, volunteering his time to events benefitting more than a dozen of the club's community partners in 2018 alone. Beginning this season, Caldwell will also be partnering with Boston Children's Hospital to host Scott's BCH Dream Team. Starting on Saturday, April 20, Caldwell will host and meet groups of patients from BCH prior to six games this season.

"EYE" SPY FARRELL: ANDREW RETURNS FROM RETINA INJURY

After suffering an eye injury in a preseason training session that kept him sidelined for several weeks – and briefly blind in his left eye – defender Andrew Farrell made his return to the field on March 30 vs. Minnesota. He contributed a full, 90-minute shift at right back in the 2-1 win, helping bottle up a potent attacking group.

Farrell was officially cleared to resume full activity on Friday, March 15, and promptly made an appearance in the 18-man matchday roster for New England's match on March 17 at Toronto. With two weeks of training under his belt, he was able to slot back into the Revs' rotation last weekend.

A staple at right back for the Revolution since the club selected him with the first-overall pick in the 2013 MLS SuperDraft, Farrell leads all MLS outfield players in games started (189) and minutes played (16,818) since entering the league. Prior to missing New England's first three games of this season, the Louisville, Ky. native had missed only three league games in his entire six-year MLS career.

TEAM NOTES

FRIEDEL MAKES SIX CHANGES TO REVS' STARTING XI

Head Coach Brad Friedel hit shuffle on the Revolution's starting lineup ahead of its match vs. Minnesota United FC last Saturday, making a total of six changes. The adjustments paid immediate dividends as the Revs claimed a 2-1 win, the club's first victory of the young season.

On March 30, the six changes included Cody Cropper, Jalil Anibaba, Andrew Farrell, Scott Caldwell, DeJuan Jones, and Juan Agudelo stepping in for Brad Knighton, Antonio Delamea, Luis Caicedo, Wilfried Zahibo, Cristian Penilla, and Diego Fagundez.

BYE, BYE, BYE: BRANDON SCORES FIRST CAREER GAME WINNER

Among the lineup changes to last weekend's starting lineup vs. Minnesota United FC was a relocation for Brandon Bye. With Andrew Farrell back in the Starting XI and fully recovered from his eye injury, Bye played moved up to right midfield in the team's 4-4-2 formation, officially logging his first career MLS start as a midfielder.

Bye responded with his first professional game-winning goal in the 62nd minute, when he finished off a ball from Teal Bunbury at the back post. On the day, he registered a team-high two shots on target, two chances created, and eight possessions won in a 90-minute shift.

Selected by New England in the first round of the 2018 MLS SuperDraft, Bye featured primarily as an attacking player at Western Michigan University, but has asserted himself as an MLS-caliber outside back since arriving in the League. He has logged 28 appearances, including 20 starts, as both left and right back for the Revs, including four consecutive starts at right back to open the 2019 regular season.

Defender Edgar Castillo has provided the Revolution with a stabilizing option at left back, a position that saw three different players log starts in 2018. Through five games in 2019, he has started all five contests and has played 437 minutes.

Castillo's contributions extend into the middle and final thirds of the field, as he has exhibited an eagerness to be on the ball, get forward, and join the attack. This season, Castillo has registered the second most touches (363) among Revolution players and the ninth most among all MLS defenders. In addition, his five total shots are tied for fourth most among MLS defenders, according to Opta.

New England acquired Castillo in a trade with the Colorado Rapids in exchange for midfielder Kelyn Rowe. The 32-year old brings more than 12 years of experience to the Revolution, including 11 professional seasons and multiple championships in Mexico's Liga MX, as well as one season in MLS with Colorado.

CREAM OF THE CROPPER: CODY MAKES FIRST START SINCE '17

Goalkeeper Cody Cropper got the call in net for the Revolution in last weekend's match vs. Minnesota United FC, marking his first appearance across all competitions since Sept. 27, 2017. Cropper responded with two saves, including a fingertop stop on a point-blank header from Minnesota's Francisco Calvo, in the 2-1 win.

After signing with the Revolution from English side MK Dons in Aug. 2016, Cropper held the starting goalkeeper shirt in 2017, submitting a 10-14-4 record across 28 league starts. Despite not making an appearance throughout 2018, he showed no signs of rust in last Saturday's winning effort.

For his MLS career, Cropper now owns a 12-14-4 record as a starter with with nine shutouts, 75 saves, and a 1.70 goals against average.

JONES-ING FOR A CHANCE: DE JUAN MAKES FIRST PRO START

One week removed from his MLS debut, rookie DeJuan Jones made his first career start vs. Minnesota United FC on March 30. He contributed a secondary assist on Brandon Bye's game-winning goal, playing Teal Bunbury into the scoring area with a well-weighted through ball.

Across 90 minutes in left midfield, Jones recorded two shots, including one on target, one chance created, and a team-high six open play crosses.

The 11th-overall selection in the 2019 MLS SuperDraft, Jones played 13 minutes in his first professional appearance vs. FC Cincinnati on March 24, contributing one chance created, 12 touches, and an 83.3 percent passing accuracy rate.

The former Michigan State standout recorded 16 goals and 14 assists across 75 career appearances for his collegiate career prior to joining the Revs in January. He officially signed with the Revolution on Feb. 25 after earning a roster spot in preseason.

BRAD FRIEDEL HEAD COACH

- Named the Revolution's seventh head coach on November 9, 2017 and posted a 10-13-11 record in first season.
- Developed young talent with Tottenham Hotspur's academy, multiple U.S. Youth National Teams, and as head coach of the U.S. Under-19 Men's National Team.
- One of most experienced goalkeepers in English Premier League history with 450 league appearances over 17 seasons with Liverpool, Blackburn Rovers, Aston Villa, and Tottenham Hotspur.
- A decorated U.S. international with 82 career caps and six FIFA World Cup appearances in 13-year senior career.
- First-ballot inductee to the National Soccer Hall of Fame as part of the 2018 class and member of inaugural Blackburn Rovers Hall of Fame class in 2019.

Brad Friedel is in his second season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on November 9, 2017. The seventh head coach in club history, Friedel joins the Revolution following a decorated playing career that spanned more than 20 professional seasons, including 17 in the English Premier League, and a 13-year international career with the United States Men's National Team.

In his first season with the Revolution, Friedel worked with General Manager Michael Burns to overhaul the roster with 12 new players for the 2018 campaign and led the club to a 10-13-11 record. Friedel's approach paid dividends for a number of Revolution players, including Ecuadorian forward Cristian Penilla, the 2018 JetBlue Team MVP and club Golden Boot winner, and midfielder Diego Fagundez, who tallied nine goals and a career-high 10 assists after Friedel positioned him in a central attacking midfield role.

Friedel, 47, joined the Revolution following two seasons at the helm of the U.S. Under-19 squad, during which he assisted with multiple other Youth National Team sides. He helped guide the Under-20 national team to the 2017 CONCACAF U-20 Championship as an assistant under Tab Ramos. Friedel holds a UEFA 'Pro' Coaching License, the highest certification available, and began accruing valuable coaching experience in his final seasons as a player, assisting in player development at all levels of the Tottenham Academy.

The Lakewood, Ohio native established himself as one of the most distinguished players in American soccer history through a 22-year professional career, which earned him a first-ballot selection to the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2018. After brief stints with Turkish powerhouse Galatasaray (1995-96) and Major League Soccer's Columbus Crew (1996-97), he joined Liverpool F.C. of the English Premier League, where he would thrive for the next 18 years as one of the England's pre-eminent goalkeepers. Between 1997 and 2015, Friedel made 450 league appearances in England's top flight with four clubs: Liverpool (1997-2000), Blackburn Rovers (2001-08), Aston Villa (2008-11), and Tottenham Hotspur (2011-15).

Friedel holds the Premier League record for most consecutive appearances with 310 and ranks third among goalkeepers in league history with 450 appearances, which is also the most games played in the league by an American. His 132 clean sheets and 771 saves both rank among the top 10 in Premier League history. As a U.S. international, Friedel collected 82 international caps – the fourth most among American goalkeepers – and was a member of three United States World Cup squads in 1994, 1998, and 2002. He was the USMNT's first-choice goalkeeper for 2002 FIFA World Cup campaign, where he started all five matches and backstopped the team to a Quarterfinal appearance. In addition, Friedel represented the United States at two Olympic Games, having appeared at the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona and the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sydney.

MIKE LAPPER ASSISTANT COACH

Mike Lapper is currently in his second season as assistant coach with the New England Revolution after joining Head Coach Brad Friedel's staff in November 2017. The Redondo Beach, Calif. native began his coaching career in October 2004 as an assistant coach with the U.S. U-20 Men's National Team under Sigi Schmid. He served as an assistant during the 2005 FIFA World Youth Championship in the Netherlands. In 2005, Lapper joined the Columbus Crew as an assistant coach, where he worked with a number of head coaches, most notably Schmid from 2006-08, until 2013. During his tenure as an assistant coach, Lapper saw the Crew claim an MLS Cup (2008), two Supporters' Shields (2008, 2009), and an appearance in the CONCACAF Champions League Quarterfinals (2009).

In December 2013, Lapper was named as an assistant coach on West Virginia University's staff. Prior to the 2015 season, Lapper was elevated to the role of associate head coach. While Lapper was at West Virginia, the Mountaineers posted a record of 18-19-1 over two years. Following the 2015 season, Lapper joined Friedel as an assistant coach with the U.S. U-19 Men's National Team.

Before pursuing coaching, Lapper enjoyed a 12-year professional playing career as a defender from 1991-2002.
