THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel and forward Teal Bunbury had to say ahead of Saturday's match against Sporting Kansas City. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionssoccer.net or visit www.revolutionssoccer.net/media.

New England Revolution Head Coach Brad Friedel

On the team's first three away performances this season:

Coach Friedel: "The effort away from home's been good. I thought the Toronto game we were very unlucky not to come out with at least a point. I thought Dallas, especially the second half performance, we could've gotten the three points. You never know on another day. And Columbus, very unlucky, again, not to come away with one or three points. I think we'll have to take the positive performances that we've had and try to instill a lot of confidence in the players, and we've got to get ourselves in more advanced positions, as well. I mean, to have a home game and have zero shots on target is not very good. Again, I will take the full blame for that and I will make sure that we try to rectify that."

New England Revolution Forward Teal Bunbury

On trying to stay positive in a difficult run of form for the team:

Bunbury: "The positive aspect is that we have another game and another opportunity to showcase what we can do, and we have to stick together as a group, we have to be able to go out on the field and put a good performance in. But that being said, it's at a point where enough's enough. We understand the frustration for the fans. Us, as players, we're out there trying to bust our tails and trying to get points, as well, so for us it's just as frustrating, or more. We understand that it's a difficult time right now, so we're not not noticing that, but all we can do is try to improve. That's it. We can't sit there and be mad at ourselves. We have to stay positive, because as soon as you start getting negative with each other, then things fall apart even more."

REVOLUTION - KANSAS CITY CONNECTIONS

- Forward Teal Bunbury was selected by Kansas City with the fourth pick in the 2010 MLS SuperDraft. He played four seasons for the Wizards/SKC from 2010-2013, registering 19 goals and seven assists across 89 regular season appearances. His father, Alex Bunbury, also played for the Wizards from 1999-2000.
- Defender Jalil Anibaba played one season for Sporting Kansas City in 2015. He logged 1,265 minutes across 16 regular season appearances, tallying one goal and four assists.
- Kansas City midfielder Kelyn Rowe was selected by the Revolution with the fourth-overall pick in the 2012 MLS SuperDraft, and played for the club through 2018. He made 205 appearances with the Revs -- sixth most in team history.
- Kansas City forward Krisztián Németh played for New England from Aug. 2017 to Aug. 2018. In 21 appearances with the Revs, he recorded one goal and three assists.
- Kansas City defender Seth Sinovic was selected by the Revolution in the second round of the 2010 MLS SuperDraft. He made 20 appearances, including 18 starts, in his lone campaign with New England.

TEAM NOTES

WHERE TO WATCH/LISTEN

Saturday's 8:30 p.m. ET start is available locally on NBC Sports Boston, where Brad Feldman, Paul Mariner, and Naoko Funayama will be on the call. The match will also be streamed live for authenticated subscribers on NBCSportsBoston.com and the NBC Sports Boston app. The contest airs on the radio locally on 98.5 The Sports Hub HD2 and on 1260 AM "Nossa Radio USA," the primary carrier for Revs radio in Portuguese.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR vs. KANSAS CITY

- New England improving on its 18-25-11 all-time record against Sporting Kansas City.
- The Revolution gaining three points at Children's Mercy Park for the first time since Sept. 26, 2014.
- The Revs (72), and M Carles Gil (24) as an individual, continuing to pace MLS in possessions gained in the attacking third.
- Gil moving up the league charts for chances created, where he is third in MLS with 24.
- F Teal Bunbury scoring once to tie Kelyn Rowe for ninth-most goals scored in Revolution history (29).
- M Diego Fagundez scoring once to tie Lee Nguyen for the second most goals scored in Revolution history (51).

TICKETS ON SALE FOR 'FINAL WHISTLE ON HATE' MATCH

The Revolution and Chelsea FC will play a charity match, the "Final Whistle on Hate", at Gillette Stadium on Wednesday, May 15. Kicking off at 8:00 p.m. ET, the match will be played against a backdrop of ongoing anti-Semitism and discrimination around the world with all proceeds from the match dedicated to initiatives to combat antisemitism and hate crimes. The initial idea for the match was developed by club owners Roman Abramovich and the Kraft family in light of a global rise in antisemitic activity.

The match's primary beneficiaries will include the World Jewish Congress, the Tree of Life synagogue, the Anti-Defamation League, and the Holocaust Educational Trust. Representatives from these and other anti-discrimination organizations will be invited to attend the game, while Abramovich and the Kraft family will also each donate $1 million in support of the cause.

On Thursday, May 2, delegations from the Revolution and Chelsea will join the "March of the Living" in Poland, held annually in remembrance of the Holocaust. Last year, Chelsea FC was the first Premier League club to ever send a delegation to the March of the Living, and the Revolution's participation this year will represent the first appearance by a U.S. team. Participating from Chelsea will be Director Eugene Tenenbaum, CEO Guy Laurence, former manager Avram Grant, and club ambassador Steve Redgrave. Participants from the Revolution include President Brian Bilello and Club Ambassador Charlie Davies.

REVOLUTION TRAINING CENTER SET TO OPEN IN 2019

On Oct. 15, 2018, the New England Revolution broke ground on the Revolution Training Center, a world-class facility that will be the center of the Revolution first team and Academy operations. Integrated into the wetlands surrounding Gillette Stadium, the Revolution Training Center will feature state-of-the-art fitness and medical centers, six professional-grade fields, team dining and lounge spaces, and office space for the club's technical staff and front office, among other amenities.

The privately-financed, $35-million project will give the New England Revolution one of the most advanced and expansive team facilities in Major League Soccer. The center will span 68 acres with 42,000 square feet of buildings and three new full-size fields – two natural grass surfaces and one turf pitch. With the club's existing training field, Gillette Stadium, and the Empower Field House, upon completion the club will boast a total of six professional-grade fields. The existing natural grass field on the site will be dedicated for use by the Revolution Academy.

Construction began with the groundbreaking ceremony on Monday, Oct. 15, and completion is scheduled for the summer of 2019. The two natural grass surfaces, both dedicated for first team use, are expected to open in the spring.

GILLETTE STADIUM TO HOST AC MILAN - BENFICA ON JULY 28

Italian powerhouse AC Milan will take on Portuguese giants Benfica at Gillette Stadium on Sunday, July 28 as part of the International Champions Cup. The match marks the second year the tournament visits Gillette Stadium including a contest between AS Roma and Juventus in 2017.

The tournament format is consistent with last year's ICC. Each team will play three matches, and the club with the most points at the end of the tournament will win the championship and receive the first trophy of the season. The tournament will host U.S.-based matches in iconic locations in Boston/Foxborough, New York/New Jersey, Los Angeles, Washington D.C., Chicago, Charlotte, Santa Clara, Houston, Arlington, and Kansas City. Cardiff, London, Stockholm, Singapore, and Shanghai will serve as hosts for the Europe and Asia matches.

ON-FIELD NOTES

CARLES, THE CREATOR: GIL AMONG MLS LEADERS IN KEY PASSES

Midfielder Carles Gil (pronounced CAR-LESS HEEL) has emerged as one of Major League Soccer's most prolific creators through the season's early stages. The Spaniard has scored three goals and collected two assists -- including a game-winning helper on April 20 vs. New York.

Gil registered his first career brace in New England's match on March 17 at Toronto, converting a penalty kick in the ninth minute before scoring with his left foot in the second half. The Valencia, Spain native also tallied in his MLS debut at FC Dallas on March 2, delivering the game-tying goal in the 57th minute. His three away goals are tied for fourth most in MLS.

Gil's impact extends well beyond the scoresheet. His vision and work rate have paid immediate dividends for the Revs, especially in the final third, where he has won possession a league-best 24 times and completed more most passes than any other MLS player:

2019 MLS LEADERS: POSSESSIONS WON FINAL 1/3

Rank	Player	Club	PW
1.	Carles Gil	New England	24
2.	Luciano Acosta	D.C. United	12
3.	Mark-Anthony Kaye	LAFC	11

2019 MLS LEADERS: SUCCESSFUL PASSES ENDING IN FINAL 1/3

Rank	Player	Club	SP
1.	Carles Gil	New England	207
2.	Nicolas Lodeiro	Seattle	193
3.	Victor Rodriguez	Seattle	138

Several of Gil's passes have resulted in scoring opportunities for the Revolution. The newcomer's 24 chances created are third most in MLS, according to Opta.

Rank	Player	Club	Chances Created
1.	Carlos Vela	LAFC	30
2.	Diego Valeri	Portland	25
3.	Carles Gil	New England	24

WORK RATE BEARS RESULTS IN FINAL THIRD

New England's attack has been launching from advantageous positions at a high rate early in the season, as the Revs' press has produced 72 possessions gained in the attacking end, 20 more than any other club, according to Opta:

2019 MLS TEAM LEADERS: POSSESSIONS WON IN FINAL 1/3

PENILLA OPENS 2019 ACCOUNT WITH GAME-WINNING GOAL

Forward Cristian Penilla picked an opportune time to open his 2019 account, scoring the game-winning goal on April 20 vs. New York. Two minutes after entering the match as a substitute, Penilla ran onto a through-ball from Juan Fernando Caicedo and beat Red Bulls goalkeeper Luis Robles to the near post with a right-footed shot.

Penilla, the Revolution's reigning JetBlue Team MVP, paced the team with 12 goals last year, which was the most ever by an international signing in his first season with New England. Thus far in 2019, the Ecuadorian has made eight appearances, including four starts.

Tallying the assists on Penilla's goal were a pair of newcomers in Juan Fernando Caicedo and Carles Gil. The assist marked the first of Caicedo's MLS career, while the helper was the second of Gil's debut season with the Revs. Caicedo entered the match as a substitute 13 minutes prior to the goal.

CALDWELL INKED TO MULTI-YEAR EXTENSION

On March 28, the Revolution signed midfielder Scott Caldwell to a multi-year contract extension. The Braintree, Mass. native and second Homegrown Player signing in club history will remain with the club beyond what is currently his seventh Major League Soccer campaign, all with New England.

Caldwell, 28, has been an integral member of the Revolution first team since the 2013 season, totaling 187 regular season appearances and 154 starts across seven seasons, with more than 13,500 minutes played. All three of those totals rank Caldwell among the top-five in MLS history for service by a Homegrown Player, as he became the second Homegrown signing ever to reach the 10,000-minute milestone in 2017. The University of Akron graduate has recorded five goals and 17 assists in league play, with an additional eight games played and two assists in the postseason.

A mainstay in the club's lineup since playing in 29 games as a rookie in 2013, Caldwell's consistency has led him to at least 24 appearances in each of his seven professional campaigns, including a career-high 34 games played and 32 starts in 2015. For his efforts that year, which included two goals and five assists, Caldwell earned 2015 Team MVP honors from fans and the Players' Player of the Year award from teammates.

TEAM NOTES

LUIS CAICEDO LIFTS REVS TO CLEAN SHEET VS. RED BULLS

Midfielder Luis Caicedo was the X-factor in New England keeping a clean sheet on April 20 vs. New York. Caicedo submitted an outstanding defensive performance, registering 16 recoveries, seven tackles, four fouls won, and seven aerials won.

The Colombian's seven tackles are the most in a single game by a Revolution player in 2019, while his recoveries and fouls won totals are tied for the most by a Revs player in a match this season. In addition, his seven aerial duels won are tied for second most in a match.

ANIBABA ECLIPSES 200 CAREER MLS APPEARANCES

Defender Jalil Anibaba reached a major milestone on April 6 at Columbus, where he registered his 200th career MLS appearance. The nine-year veteran owns the second most MLS experience among all Revolution players, trailing only Teal Bunbury, who has made 246 league appearances.

Since joining New England as a free agent ahead of the 2018 season, Anibaba has asserted himself as a pivotal member of the back line, logging 37 appearances, including 35 starts, with one goal and two assists. Dating back to the beginning of last season, Anibaba ranks fifth among all MLS players in blocks with 33, showcasing a positional awareness that gives the Revolution a security blanket from opponents' scoring chances.

2018-19 MLS LEADERS: BLOCKS

Rank	Player	Club	Blocks
1.	Frederic Brillant	D.C. United	40
2.	Matt Hedges	Dallas	39
3.	Steve Birnbaum	D.C. United	36
4.	Chad Marshall	Seattle	35
5.	Jalil Anibaba	New England	33

BYE, BYE, BYE: BRANDON SHOWCASES VERSATILITY FOR REVS

With seven starts at three different positions through the season's first nine games, second-year standout Brandon Bye has proven to be a valuable and versatile asset for Brad Friedel. Among the Revolution's six lineup changes on March 30 vs. Minnesota United FC was a relocation for Bye, who after previously featuring primarily along the back line in his MLS career, logged his first professional start in right midfield in a 4-4-2 formation.

That change saw immediate results, as Bye responded with his first professional game-winning goal in the 62nd minute, when he finished off a ball from Teal Bunbury at the back post. On the day, he registered a team-high two shots on target, two chances created, and eight possessions won in a 90-minute shift.

He continued showcasing his versatility against Columbus Crew SC on April 6 and April 13 vs. Atlanta, when he slotted in at left back and played 90 minutes in each contest in Edgar Castillo's absence. Through seven games this season, Bye has already logged starts at three different positions.

On the season, Bye is ranked among the league leaders in aerials won with 31, tied with teammate Michael Mancienne for sixth in MLS.

CREAM OF THE CROPPER: CODY EARNS STARTING RUN IN NET

Goalkeeper Cody Cropper got the nod in net for the Revolution on March 30 vs. Minnesota United FC, marking his first appearance across all competitions since Sept. 27, 2017. Cropper responded with two saves, including a fingertop stop on a point-blank header from Minnesota's Francisco Calvo, in the 2-1 win.

Including that March 30 victory, Cropper has started each of New England's last five matches, accruing a 2-3-0 record with a 1.40 goals-against average and 18 saves on the season. On April 24 vs. Montreal, Cropper set a single-game career high with six saves. He had recorded five saves in each of the Revolution's prior two matches, including April 20 vs. New York, when he recorded his first shutout since Sept. 9, 2017. That performance earned him a spot on the MLSsoccer.com Team of the Week bench.

Cropper's shot-stopping form has him ranked among the league's most efficient goalkeepers. Among all MLS netminders with at least two appearances this season, he ranks fourth in saves per 90 minutes:

2019 MLS LEADERS: SAVES PER 90 MIN. (MIN. 2 GAMES PLAYED)

Rank	Player	Club	Saves Per 90
1.	Daniel Vega	San Jose	4.12
T-2.	Stefan Frei	Seattle	4.0
T-2.	Jeff Attinella	Portland	4.0
4.	Cody Cropper	New England	3.8

During his run of starts, Cropper has also ascended in the Revolution's record book. On April 24, he made his 35th start with the club, surpassing Juergen Sommer for seventh most appearances (34) and starts (34) by a goalkeeper. By registering his 10th shutout with New England on April 20, he tied Adin Brown for the third most shutouts in Revs history.

CASTILLO IMPACTFUL IN RETURN FROM CALF INJURY

On April 20 vs. New York, defender Edgar Castillo made his return from a calf injury that had kept him sidelined for the Revolution's prior two matches. The 32-year-old left back did not miss a beat, pacing the Revs with 97 touches, recording a team-best 75 percent duel success rate, and tying for the team lead in both tackles (7) and interceptions (6).

In Wednesday's home test against the Montreal Impact and his second game back from injury, the U.S. International led the team in interceptions (6) and touches (95), while finishing second for duels won (76.5 percent).

WRIGHT RETURNS FROM BIRMINGHAM LEGION FC LOAN

The New England Revolution recalled forward Brian Wright from his open-ended loan with Birmingham Legion FC of the USL Championship on Tuesday, April 16.

On April 24, Wright made his first MLS appearance of the season, logging eight minutes as a substitute vs. Montreal. He was also included in New England's 18-man match day roster on April 20 vs. New York, but did not play.

During his stint in Birmingham under former Revolution assistant coach and current Legion Head Coach Tom Soehn, Wright played three games and started two. He contributed the game-winning goal and one assist against Louisville on March 31 to earn a spot on the USL Championship Team of the Week.

OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

THREE ACADEMY TEAMS JOIN FIRST TEAM IN KANSAS CITY

The New England Revolution Academy continued its spring season last weekend, as the Under-17s traveled to Frisco, Texas to take part in the 2019 Generation adidas Cup, while the Under-19s hosted Oakwood Soccer Club at Gillette Stadium.

In Frisco, the U-17s first faced the Academy sides of Columbus Crew SC and Vancouver Whitecaps, falling 3-0 and 1-0, respectively. However, the Revs bounced back with key victories over Fjolnir of Iceland, as well as Sporting KC. The Revs then fell to C.F. Monterrey, 2-0, on April 17, ending the team's journey in the 2019 edition of the GA Cup.

Andrew White (Buxborough, Mass.—2000) scored a 55th-minute goal in the U-19s' 2-2 draw with Oakwood Soccer Club on Saturday, April 20 at Gillette Stadium. Forward Gustavo Casemiro (Framingham, Mass.—2000) provided the assist on White's opening goal.

This weekend, the three older Revolution Academy squads will join the first team on its trip to Kansas City for friendly matches against Sporting's U-15, U-17, and U-19 squad on Saturday, April 27. Last season, New England brought Academy teams on the road to Vancouver for a series of matches in May 2018.

REVOLUTION AND SPECIAL OLYMPICS PARTNER AGAIN IN '19

The New England Revolution and Special Olympics Massachusetts are once again teaming up to leverage the power of sports to promote an environment of inclusion and friendly competition. For the fifth year, the Revolution will field a Special Olympics Unified soccer team, comprised of local athletes and volunteers with and without intellectual disabilities.

This year's activities kicked off on March 31 with the Special Olympics Unified Clinic at the Empower Field House in Foxborough. Next, the Unified team will return to Gillette Stadium to sign their official contracts with the club. The Unified team has two matches scheduled for the 2019 campaign, with a trip to D.C. United on July 12 and a home match against New York City FC on Sept. 29.

The partnership culminates in the club's annual charity event, Bowl for a Goal presented by Arbella Insurance, on Aug. 21. Last year, the event raised a record $80,000 for Special Olympics Massachusetts.

TURNER TO HOST 'MATT'S NEGU CREW' IN 2019

Goalkeeper Matt Turner is dedicating his time to supporting families impacted by childhood cancer by working with the Jessie Rees Foundation as the Revolution's NEGU Crew representative, carrying the torch passed on by former midfielder Kelyn Rowe. All season long, Turner will host young cancer patients and their families associated with the Jessie Rees Foundation throughout the 2019 MLS season, providing them with a unforgettable game day experiences. Here are the remaining home games at which Turner is scheduled to host NEGU Crew families:

2019 NEGU CREW DATES

- Saturday, May 25 vs. D.C. United
- Saturday, June 29 vs. Houston Dynamo
- Saturday, July 27 vs. Orlando City SC
- Saturday, Sept. 21 vs. Real Salt Lake (Kick Childhood Cancer Match)

The acronym NEGU stands for "Never Ever Give Up", a phrase adopted from the Jessie Rees Foundation – an organization that ensures every child fighting cancer has the support and resources they need to never ever give up. NEGU Crew aims to give each child a memorable experience as they continue their brave fight against cancer.

Each NEGU Crew experience will culminate with a postgame walk around the field with Turner, including a chance to be saluted and serenaded by the Revolution supporters. The experience also includes a private suite for the patient and his or her family, as well as a pregame meet and greet with Revolution players, and much more.

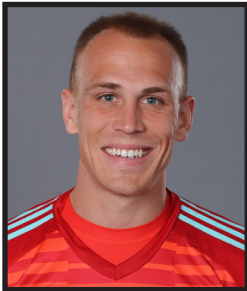

REVS GO GREEN AS PART OF MLS 'GREENER GOALS'

As part of MLS WORKS' Greener Goals Week of Service, the New England Revolution Charitable Foundation is auctioning off game-worn items from the Revolution's home match on April 20. Among the items available are the club's adidas X Parley eco-friendly jerseys, worn by all 24 MLS clubs during Earth Day weekend (April 19-21). These innovative kits, built with Climalite technology, are made from technical yarns comprised of Parley Ocean Plastic™. As part of the global adidas x Parley initiative, plastic waste collected on beaches and in coastal communities is transformed into high-performance sportswear.

The auction on revolutionsoccer.net will be open through Friday, May 3 at 11:00 a.m. ET. All proceeds will benefit the New England Aquarium.

TECHNICAL STAFF BIOS

BRAD FRIEDEL

HEAD COACH

- Named the Revolution's seventh head coach on November 9, 2017 and posted a 10-13-11 record in first season.
- Developed young talent with Tottenham Hotspur's academy, multiple U.S. Youth National Teams, and as head coach of the U.S. Under-19 Men's National Team.
- One of most experienced goalkeepers in English Premier League history with 450 league appearances over 17 seasons with Liverpool, Blackburn Rovers, Aston Villa, and Tottenham Hotspur.
- A decorated U.S. international with 82 career caps and six FIFA World Cup appearances in 13-year senior career.
- First-ballot inductee to the National Soccer Hall of Fame as part of the 2018 class and member of inaugural Blackburn Rovers Hall of Fame class in 2019.

Brad Friedel is in his second season as Head Coach of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on November 9, 2017. The seventh head coach in club history, Friedel joins the Revolution following a decorated playing career that spanned more than 20 professional seasons, including 17 in the English Premier League, and a 13-year international career with the United States Men's National Team.

In his first season with the Revolution, Friedel worked with General Manager Michael Burns to overhaul the roster with 12 new players for the 2018 campaign and led the club to a 10-13-11 record. Friedel's approach paid dividends for a number of Revolution players, including Ecuadorian forward Cristian Penilla, the 2018 JetBlue Team MVP and club Golden Boot winner, and midfielder Diego Fagundez, who tallied nine goals and a career-high 10 assists after Friedel positioned him in a central attacking midfield role.

Friedel, 47, joined the Revolution following two seasons at the helm of the U.S. Under-19 squad, during which he assisted with multiple other Youth National Team sides. He helped guide the Under-20 national team to the 2017 CONCACAF U-20 Championship as an assistant under Tab Ramos. Friedel holds a UEFA 'Pro' Coaching License, the highest certification available, and began accruing valuable coaching experience in his final seasons as a player, assisting in player development at all levels of the Tottenham Academy.

The Lakewood, Ohio native established himself as one of the most distinguished players in American soccer history through a 22-year professional career, which earned him a first-ballot selection to the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2018. After brief stints with Turkish powerhouse Galatasaray (1995-96) and Major League Soccer's Columbus Crew (1996-97), he joined Liverpool F.C. of the English Premier League, where he would thrive for the next 18 years as one of the England's pre-eminent goalkeepers. Between 1997 and 2015, Friedel made 450 league appearances in England's top flight with four clubs: Liverpool (1997-2000), Blackburn Rovers (2001-08), Aston Villa (2008-11), and Tottenham Hotspur (2011-15).

Friedel holds the Premier League record for most consecutive appearances with 310 and ranks third among goalkeepers in league history with 450 appearances, which is also the most games played in the league by an American. His 132 clean sheets and 771 saves both rank among the top 10 in Premier League history. As a U.S. international, Friedel collected 82 international caps – the fourth most among American goalkeepers – and was a member of three United States World Cup squads in 1994, 1998, and 2002. He was the USMNT's first-choice goalkeeper for 2002 FIFA World Cup campaign, where he started all five matches and backstopped the team to a Quarterfinal appearance. In addition, Friedel represented the United States at two Olympic Games, having appeared at the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona and the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sydney.

MIKE LAPPER

ASSISTANT COACH

Mike Lapper is currently in his second season as assistant coach with the New England Revolution after joining Head Coach Brad Friedel's staff in November 2017. The accomplished United States international is now in his 11th MLS season as a coach and his 17th season in the league overall, having spent 15 campaigns with the Columbus Crew as an assistant coach (2005-13) and a defender (1997-2002).

Lapper brings more than 14 years of coaching experience to the staff in New England, including nine seasons in MLS as an assistant under with the Columbus Crew beginning in 2005. Prior to joining the Revolution, he most recently served as an assistant coach under Friedel with the U.S. Under-19 Men's National Team, and also spent two seasons alongside head coach Marlon LeBlanc as an assistant coach, and later as associate head coach, at West Virginia University from 2013-15.

The Redondo Beach, Calif. native began his coaching career in October 2004 as an assistant coach with the U.S. U-20 Men's National Team under Sigi Schmid. He served as an assistant during the 2005 FIFA World Youth Championship in the Netherlands. In 2005, Lapper joined the Columbus Crew as an assistant coach, where he worked with a number of head coaches, most notably Schmid from 2006-08, until 2013. During his tenure as an assistant coach, Lapper saw the Crew claim an MLS Cup (2008), two Supporters' Shields (2008, 2009), and an appearance in the CONCACAF Champions League Quarterfinals (2009).

In December 2013, Lapper was named as an assistant coach on West Virginia University's staff. Prior to the 2015 season, Lapper was elevated to the role of associate head coach. While Lapper was at West Virginia, the Mountaineers posted a record of 18-19-1 over two years. Following the 2015 season, Lapper joined Friedel as an assistant coach with the U.S. U-19 Men's National Team.

Before pursuing coaching, Lapper enjoyed a 12-year professional playing career as a defender from 1991-2002. Lapper played at both the club and international level, excelling for the U.S. Men's National Team from 1991-95. He earned 43 career caps with the United States, participating the 1991 Pan American games, 1992 Summer Olympics, and 1995 Copa America tournament. Lapper was also on the USMNT roster for the 1994 FIFA World Cup.

MARCELO NEVELEFF

ASSISTANT COACH

Marcelo Neveleff is currently in his second season as assistant coach for the New England Revolution after joining Head Coach Brad Friedel's staff in November 2017. Neveleff brings extensive coaching experience at both the domestic and international levels to New England. He most recently served as a U.S. Soccer technical advisor for the Southeastern United States as part of the Boys' Development Academy.

A native of Argentina, Neveleff has previously served as head coach for six different clubs over the course of his coaching career. He coached the Fort Lauderdale Strikers of the North American Soccer League (NASL) in 2015 after serving as manager for Bolivian top-flight sides C.D. Jorge Wilstermann (2011-12) and Club Aurora (2012). With Wilstermann, Neveleff led the club in the 2011 Copa Libertadores – the most prestigious club tournament in South America.

Prior to coaching in Colombia, Neveleff worked as an assistant coach with the NASL's Miami FC from 2009-10, and was head coach at Brazilian side Clube Desportivo Sete de Setembro from 2007-08. While with Sete de Setembro, Neveleff led the club to promotion into Brazil's top flight. He was also head coach for United States Inter-regional Soccer League (now USL) clubs Jacksonville Cyclones from 1997-98 and Myrtle Beach Sea Dawgs in 1999.

Before joining U.S. Soccer's Boys Development Academy as a technical advisor, Neveleff also spent time on the U.S. Soccer Federation's instructional staff and on the Under-14 Boy's National Team staff. He was a member of the coaching staff, along with Brad Friedel, for the Under-20 national team that won the 2017 CONCACAF U-20 Championship.

In addition to his coaching experience, Neveleff served as the technical director of Weston FC, a U.S. Soccer Development Academy and one of the preeminent youth clubs in South Florida, from 2009-15. He oversaw the development of both the boys and girls program and was named U.S. Soccer Academy Coach of the Year in 2010-11. In 2015, he helped the club earn an expansion bid to the National Premier Soccer League (NPSL).

Neveleff holds the USSF National 'A' and Youth coaching licenses.

RUBEN GARCIA
 ASSISTANT COACH

Rubén García is currently in his second season as Assistant Coach with the New England Revolution after joining Head Coach Brad Friedel's staff in November 2017. He brings a wealth of playing and coaching experience to the Revolution, most recently serving as the Academy Goalkeeper Director for New York City FC and Goalkeeping Coach for all United States Youth National Teams between the Under-14 and Under-23 age groups.

Prior to joining NYCFC in 2015, García served on the technical staffs at Spanish powerhouse Atlético Madrid, in addition to the TSF Academy – an elite youth development program in New Jersey. From 2012-17, he coached goalkeepers at all levels of the U.S. Youth National Team program, where he worked alongside Friedel.

After concluding his player career in Spain, García earned his UEFA 'B' professional football coaching license from the Spanish Soccer Federation in 2012. He later earned his UEFA 'A' coaching license in 2014, and is currently on course to secure his UEFA PRO license from the Spanish Soccer Federation.

Before entering the coaching ranks and moving to the United States, García enjoyed a 14-year professional career. García, who was also known as Ruben Martin during his playing days, spent time with clubs including Toledo CV, Alaves CF, Albacete, Atlético Madrid, Ciudad de Murcia, Talavera, and Alcalá de Henares.

García graduated from the University of San Pablo CEU in Madrid in 2006 with a Bachelor Degree in Criminology.

GABRIEL MARTINEZ POCH
 HEAD FITNESS COACH

Gabriel Martínez Poch is in his first season as Head Fitness Coach for the New England Revolution after joining the technical staff in January 2019. Poch brings extensive experience with top-flight clubs in South America to the Revolution, most recently with Mineros de Guayana of the Venezuelan First Division.

Poch, 53, has worked for two decades as a sports science specialist with several top clubs around the world, including stints at multiple top-division outfits in South America. A native of La Plata, Argentina, he has worked extensively for clubs in South America, Europe, and Asia. Most recently, he helped guide Argentine side Aldosivi de Mar del Plata to promotion into the Argentina SuperLiga as a methodology and technical assistant in 2018. Poch earned his UEFA Level 3 'B' License in Barcelona in 2015.

In addition to his time with Aldosivi, Poch's prior experience is highlighted by stints with 18 different clubs in Argentina, Bolivia, Ecuador, Venezuela, Spain, Romania, the United States, Kuwait, and Qatar. Poch has helped clubs to a number of major accomplishments, including a Bolivian Primera División title with Wilstermann in 2006, and an Ecuadorian Serie A championship with Deportivo Quito in 2009. He also helped guide several clubs to promotion in their respective leagues.

MICHAEL BURNS
 GENERAL MANAGER

Michael Burns is currently in his 15th season with the New England Revolution and his eighth season as the team's General Manager. He was promoted to his current role in November 2011 after four seasons as the club's Vice President of Player Personnel. The former Revs defender and team captain returned to the club at the start of the 2005 season as Director of Soccer before being named Vice President of Player Personnel in 2008.

As General Manager, Burns leads all aspects of the club's soccer operations, which includes oversight of the coaching staff, player acquisitions and scouting, the youth development program, and the team's day-to-day operations and management. He has also been instrumental in the development of the new Revolution Training Center in Foxborough, set to open in 2019 as the home of the Revolution first team and Academy. The $35-million project places the Revolution's facilities among the best in all of Major League Soccer and includes a state-of-the-art headquarters and four new professional-grade fields.

A mainstay in New England soccer circles, Burns was born and raised in nearby Marlborough, Mass., and was named Massachusetts High School Player of the Year in 1987. After a standout career at Hartwick College (1988-91), Burns became a regular for the U.S. Men's National Team, earning 75 caps including two starts for the USMNT in the 1998 FIFA World Cup. He was also a member of the 1994 U.S. World Cup squad.

Burns was the first player in U.S. Soccer history to represent the United States at every level of FIFA-sanctioned tournaments: Under-16 World Cup (Canada 1987), Under-20 World Cup (Saudi Arabia 1989), Olympic Games (Barcelona 1992), and World Cup (United States 1994, France 1998).

The Massachusetts native was allocated to the Revolution in 1995 at the inception of MLS and played for – and captained – New England from 1996 to 2000, before finishing his playing career with the San Jose Earthquakes (2000) and the Kansas City Wizards (2001-02). Overall, he made 169 appearances, scored three goals, and totaled 21 assists. Burns also played for Viborg in the Super League in Denmark in 1995 before joining MLS.

In addition to his day-to-day duties with the Revolution, Burns represents New England at the league level as the club's Chief Soccer Officer, and serves on the MLS Combine Committee. Prior to returning to the Revolution in a management capacity, Burns served on the MLS Disciplinary Committee and was also a member of U.S. Soccer's Board of Directors and the U.S. Soccer Athlete Counsel.

Burns holds a USSF "A" coaching license. He also is a member of the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Club of MetroWest that includes Marlborough, Hudson, and Framingham.

REMI ROY
 DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING & PRO PERSONNEL

Remi Roy is currently in his 10th season with the New England Revolution and his second as the club's Director of Scouting & Player Personnel, having been named to the position in January 2018. Roy has been with the club since 2010, previously serving as an assistant coach with New England for eight seasons.

In his new role, Roy is focused on scouting and talent identification in players at the collegiate, national, and international levels. He works closely with the Revolution technical staff in player evaluation and has a role in all soccer-related aspects of the organization, including communication with agents and facilitating MLS communication and compliance.

Roy was heavily engaged in the Revolution's scouting operations throughout his tenure as an assistant coach, contributing to the club's domestic and international scouting efforts. As an assistant coach, first under Steve Nicol and then for six seasons on Jay Heaps' staff, he worked primarily with the Revs' first-team goalkeepers and also provided additional training for the Revolution Academy goalkeepers.

During his time on the Revs' coaching staff, Roy mentored several talented goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in the professional ranks. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Salt Dogs (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07).

Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region, and All-American honors. He also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the Jackson Chargers (1998-99), Des Moines Menace (2000), and the Spokane Shadow (2001).

Roy holds a USSF "A" License and Level I and II NSCAA Goalkeeping Licenses. A native of Petit-Rocher, New Brunswick, Canada, Roy lives south of Boston with his wife and three kids.
