THAT'S WHAT THEY SAID

Here is what Revolution Sporting Director & Head Coach Bruce Arena and forward Teal Bunbury had to say ahead of Saturday's match vs. Houston. For complete video soundbytes and transcripts, please contact the Revolution communications staff at media@revolutionssoccer.net or visit www.revolutionssoccer.net/media.

New England Revolution Sporting Director & Head Coach Bruce Arena

On the team's improvement over its five-game unbeaten run:

Arena: "They have [improved]. Unfortunately, we're a little bit behind the eight ball, but I think...now we're officially in the second half of the season. MLS, the second of the season is the season so often. So, we have 17 games ahead of us. If we perform somewhat like we've performed over the last, I don't know, five games in the league, we have a chance to make the playoffs. ... We're talking about trying to move up the ladder a little bit. The way the team has played over the last month would suggest that there's a chance we can get after it and have an opportunity to move up the ladder."

New England Revolution Forward Teal Bunbury

On the team's development under Bruce Arena:

Bunbury: "I think [we] are progressing really well. I think he knows what he wants from his players. I think he's instilling a lot of confidence in guys that maybe wasn't there in the past few games, so I think we're all pleased and we all want to work hard for him, and he's keeping the spirits up. He knows that getting a couple results here and there isn't going to make or break the team, but we definitely have to continue to get points to try to make the playoffs."

NEW ENGLAND REVOLUTION VS. HOUSTON DYNAMO: SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 2019

TEAM NOTES

WHERE TO WATCH/LISTEN

Saturday's 7:30 p.m. ET start is available NBC Sports Boston, where Brad Feldman, Paul Mariner, and Naoko Funayama will be on the call. The contest airs on the radio locally on 98.5 The Sports Hub in English, as well as on 1260 AM "Nossa Radio USA," the primary carrier for Revs radio in Portuguese.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR vs. HOUSTON DYNAMO

- Sporting Director and Head Coach Bruce Arena remaining unbeaten in MLS play on the Revolution sidelines, with a 1-0-1 mark through his first two games (also 1-1-0 in U.S. Open Cup).
- New England extending its current unbeaten run in MLS play to six games (2-0-3). The Revs have conceded only four goals (0.80 per game) during the five-game run.
- M Carles Gil moving up the league charts for chances created, where he sits tied for sixth with 44.
- Gil recording an assist for a third straight MLS game to improve on his team-high total of five. The Spaniard has recorded four assists in his last three appearances across all competitions.
- M Diego Fagundez scoring once to tie Lee Nguyen for the second most goals scored in Revolution history (51).
- F Juan Agudelo scoring twice to tie Shalrie Joseph and Pat Noonan for the fifth most goals scored in club history (37).

HERIVAUX HELPS HAITI TO HISTORIC START IN '19 GOLD CUP

Revolution Homegrown Player Zachary Herivaux has established himself as a key player for the Haiti National Team at the 2019 Concacaf Gold Cup. The 23-year-old Brookline native started and played 90 minutes in each of Haiti's first two matches of the group stage, both victories.

Les Grenadiers completed a perfect group stage by topping Costa Rica, 2-1, to win Group B with nine points. The finish marked Haiti's first time winning its Gold Cup group in seven tournament appearances. Haiti will begin the knockout stage on Saturday, June 29, with a Quarterfinal matchup vs. Canada at 7:00 p.m. ET.

Herivaux now owns 10 career caps with Haiti's senior squad. This season, he has seen 764 minutes of action across nine appearances in the USL Championship while on loan with Birmingham Legion FC. All of his nine appearances were starts and included time in central defense.

REVOLUTION TRAINING CENTER SET TO OPEN IN 2019

On Oct. 15, 2018, the New England Revolution broke ground on the Revolution Training Center, a world-class facility that will be the center of the Revolution first team and Academy operations. Integrated into the wetlands surrounding Gillette Stadium, the Revolution Training Center will feature state-of-the-art fitness and medical centers, six professional-grade fields, team dining and lounge spaces, and office space for the club's technical staff and front office, among other amenities.

The privately-financed, $35-million project will give the New England Revolution one of the most advanced and expansive team facilities in Major League Soccer. The center will span 68 acres with 42,000 square feet of buildings and three new full-size fields – two natural grass surfaces and one turf pitch. With the club's existing training field, Gillette Stadium, and the Empower Field House, upon completion the club will boast a total of six professional-grade fields. The existing natural grass field on the site will be dedicated for use by the Revolution Academy.

Construction began with the groundbreaking ceremony on Monday, Oct. 15, and completion is scheduled for the summer of 2019. The two natural grass surfaces, both dedicated for first team use, are expected to open in the spring.

NOT BLUE, NOT GREEN: TEAL BUNBURY HEATS UP

Forward Teal Bunbury has rediscovered his scoring touch in the month of June. Bunbury has tallied three times in the team's last four contests across all competitions, including the game-winning goal on June 2 at LA Galaxy and the game winner in extra time of New England's U.S. Open Cup Fourth Round win on June 11 at New York.

For his two-goal effort in the Fourth Round Open Cup victory in New Jersey, which also included an equalizing goal in the 85th minute, Bunbury was voted TheCup.us' Player of the Round. He led the Revs with two shots on target, two chances created, and 29 total duels in a 120-minute shift.

The 10-year MLS veteran is two goals shy of 50 for his MLS career, and ranks ninth on New England's all-time goal scoring chart with 29 tallies. In 2018, Bunbury paced the Revolution with five game-winning goals and set a new single-season career high with 11 goals. For his MLS career, Bunbury owns 254 appearances, 171 starts, 48 goals, and 26 assists in 15,474 minutes played.

TEAM NOTES

BRUCE ARENA NAMED SPORTING DIRECTOR & HEAD COACH

The New England Revolution appointed Bruce Arena as the club's sporting director and head coach on May 14. Arena, the winningest coach in United States Men's National Team history and a five-time MLS Cup champion, brings more than four decades of coaching experience at the international and domestic levels to the Revolution. After immediately assuming his duties as sporting director, Arena made his debut on the Revolution sidelines on June 2 against his former club, the LA Galaxy, a 2-1 win.

"Bruce is one of the most successful coaches in American soccer history, and we feel his commitment to excellence, track record of winning championships in Major League Soccer, as well as his success at the international level, makes him the best person to bring the Revolution back to MLS Cup contention," Revolution Investor/Operator Robert Kraft said. "We have known Bruce dating back to the advent of MLS, and we have full confidence that he will raise the level of our club to the standard we all expect and demand."

The New York native joins the Revolution following one of the most decorated coaching careers in American soccer history. Arena's resume includes a record five MLS Cup titles, three MLS Supporters' Shields, seven MLS conference championships, one U.S. Open Cup title, and one Concacaf Champions' Cup. In his previous 14 seasons as an MLS coach, Arena earned three MLS Coach of the Year selections, first in 1997 with D.C. United before being honored in 2009 and 2011 with the LA Galaxy. At the collegiate level with the University of Virginia (1978-95), he also tallied five NCAA College Cup wins with six ACC Men's Soccer championships.

Arena, who served as head coach of the U.S. Men's National Team from 1998-2006 and 2016-17, holds the record for most wins by a USMNT head coach with 81. He led the United States to a Quarterfinal finish in the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup – the country's best showing since 1930 – as well as an appearance in the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. Arena also coached the U.S. Men's National Team to more Gold Cup titles than any other coach, having captured the continental trophy in 2002, 2005, and 2017.

"It was evident when talking with Bruce that we share a vision for the future of the Revolution and we look forward to having him oversee our soccer organization," Revolution President Brian Bilello said. "We believe that now is the time for a change in leadership and there is no one better suited to usher in a new era of success in New England."

Arena, 67, becomes the winningest active coach in MLS history upon his return to the sideline. He accrued a 202-121-89 record across 14 seasons with D.C. United (1996-98), New York Red Bulls (2006-07), and LA Galaxy (2008-16). His five MLS Cup wins with D.C. United (1996, 1997) and LA Galaxy (2011, 2012, 2014) are the most by a head coach in league history, while his three Supporters Shields are tied with Sigi Schmid for the most all-time.

ARENA JOINS REVS ON BRINK OF MLS HISTORY

Bruce Arena has taken his place on the Revolution bench on the cusp of a major MLS record: most coaching wins. Arena's 203 career regular season wins are second only to Sigi Schmid's 240, as the duo are the only two coaches in MLS history to eclipse the double-century mark. Arena also ranks second all-time in total points earned with 675, behind Schmid's 843.

ALL-TIME MLS COACHING LEADERS: WINS

3.	Dominic Kinnear	SJ, HOU, LA	169
4.	Bob Bradley	CHI, NY, CHV, LAFC	151
5.	Peter Vermes	SKC	137

While Arena has work ahead of him in order to catch Sigi Schmid on the all-time wins list, his five MLS Cup victories are unlikely to rival any time soon, as no other active coach has more than one trophy under their belt. The only other active MLS coaches with MLS Cup wins are Bob Bradley (1998), Caleb Porter (2015), Brian Schmetzer (2016), and Greg Vanney (2017).

TEAM NOTES

CARLES, THE CREATOR: GIL AMONG MLS LEADERS IN KEY PASSES

Carles Gil (pronounced CAR-LESS HEEL) has emerged as one of Major League Soccer's most prolific creators in his debut campaign with New England. The Spaniard has scored four goals -- most recently on May 11 vs. San Jose -- and collected five assists, including three in his last two league games and four in his last three games played across all competitions.

Gil's vision and work rate have paid immediate dividends for the Revs, especially in the final third, where he has won possession a league-best 33 times, 10 more than any other players, and completed the most passes among all MLS players. He has also completed 578 successful passes in the attacking half, fourth most in MLS.

BYE, BYE, BYE: BRANDON SHOWCASES VERSATILITY FOR REVS

With 13 starts at three different positions through the season's first 17 games, second-year standout Brandon Bye has proven to be a valuable and versatile asset for the Revolution. The first-round 2018 MLS SuperDraft selection has made starts at left back, right back, and right midfield.

Among the team's season-high six lineup changes on March 30 vs. Minnesota United FC was a relocation for Bye, who after previously featuring primarily along the back line in his MLS career, logged his first professional start in right midfield in a 4-4-2 formation. That change saw immediate results, as Bye responded with his first professional game-winning goal in the 62nd minute, when he finished off a ball from Teal Bunbury at the back post.

The Kalamazoo, Mich. native continued showcasing his versatility against Columbus Crew SC on April 6 and April 13 vs. Atlanta, when he slotted in at left back and played 90 minutes in each contest. Bye again shifted over to right back on April 27 at Sporting Kansas City before continuing with the position in each of the team's last four games. He added his second goal of the 2019 campaign on June 26 vs. Philadelphia, delivering a half-volley into the net off of a Carles Gil corner kick.

ARENA ADDS FOUR EXPERIENCED COACHES TO HIS STAFF

Sporting Director and Head Coach Bruce Arena has made four hires to the Revolution's technical staff since taking his post, installing Curt Onalfo as Technical Director, Richie Williams as Assistant Coach, Dave van den Bergh as Assistant Coach, and Jarryd Phillips as Director of Sports Performance.

Onalfo joins the Revolution after more than six years in multiple posts with the LA Galaxy from 2011-17, where he won three MLS Cups alongside Arena as an assistant coach from 2011-16, which included duties as the inaugural head coach of the club's USL side, LA Galaxy II, from 2014-16. He was then named the Galaxy's eighth head coach in club history ahead of the 2017 season after Arena's return to the U.S. Men's National Team, and coached the club for the first 20 games of the campaign.

Williams arrives in New England after spending the last 15 years in a variety of coaching roles within MLS and the United States Men's National Team, including two stints as an assistant to Bruce Arena. He served as an assistant coach on Arena's staff with the USMNT from 2017-18, as well as the New York Red Bulls from 2006-07. In addition, Williams served as an assistant coach with Real Salt Lake in 2016, head coach of the United States Under-18 National Team from 2011-12, and head coach of the United States Under-17 National Team from 2012-15. Williams won three MLS Cups as a player, all under Arena with D.C. United in 1996, 1997, and 1999.

Van den Bergh, who will assume his post on July 1, arrives in New England following nine years as a coach with various United States Youth National teams. The Amsterdam, Netherlands native served as assistant coach for the United States Under-20 Men's National Team in 2019 and from 2010-16, head coach of the United States Under-19 Men's National Team in 2018, and head coach of the United States Under-15s from 2016-18.

Phillips joins the Revolution with six years of MLS, NASL, USL, and NCAA experience as a sports science and performance coach. He most recently established and directed all facets of the performance department for Minnesota United FC's first team and academy beginning in July 2016.

FARRELL REACHES 200 STARTS, CLIMBS RECORD BOOKS

Defender Andrew Farrell has been one of Major League Soccer's most reliable and durable players since he joined the Revolution as the first-overall pick in the 2013 MLS SuperDraft. The 2016 MLS All-Star has played at least 30 games and topped 2,600 minutes in each of his first six MLS campaigns, and recently made his 200th regular season appearance on May 18 at Montreal. The 27-year old already ranks fifth in Revolution history in games played and minutes played, and comes in at seventh in games played.

For his regular season career, Farrell owns 203 games played, 201 starts, two goals, and seven assists across 17,898 minutes played. Those totals have the Louisville, Ky. native ranking first among all MLS field players in games started and minutes since 2013, trailing only New York goalkeeper Luis Robles.

TEAM NOTES

THERE CAN BE ONLY JUAN: AGUDELO THRIVES AS NO. 8

Revolution forward Juan Agudelo was instrumental in New England's first away win of the season, a 2-1 victory at LA Galaxy on June 2. Head Coach Bruce Arena deployed Agudelo in central midfield -- rather than his usual role as a striker or attacking midfielder -- where he occupied a box-to-box role that allowed him to showcase his motor and link the back line to the attack. It marked the first career start for Agudelo, a 10-year veteran, in central midfield.

The move paid huge dividends for the Revs, as Agudelo led the team in possessions gained (14), interceptions (4), duels (18), and completed 94 percent of his passes in a full, 90-minute shift.

Agudelo followed up his breakthrough performance in LA with another strong outing in the Fourth Round of the U.S. Open Cup on June 11 at New York. Featuring in an attacking midfield role, Agudelo scored the game's opening goal in the second minute -- New England's quickest goal in U.S. Open Cup history and its quickest in any game this season. He has now scored three goals in the club's last seven games across all competitions.

CALDWELL INKED TO MULTI-YEAR EXTENSION

On March 28, the Revolution signed midfielder Scott Caldwell to a multi-year contract extension. The Braintree, Mass. native and second Homegrown Player signing in club history will remain with the club beyond what is currently his seventh Major League Soccer campaign, all with New England.

Caldwell, 28, has been an integral member of the Revolution first team since the 2013 season, totaling 190 regular season appearances and 156 starts across seven seasons, with more than 13,800 minutes played. All three of those totals rank Caldwell among the top-five in MLS history for service by a Homegrown Player, as he became the second Homegrown signing ever to reach the 10,000-minute milestone in 2017. The University of Akron graduate has recorded five goals and 18 assists in league play, with an additional eight games played and two assists in the postseason.

Since playing in 29 games as a rookie in 2013, Caldwell's consistency has led him to at least 24 appearances in each of his seven professional campaigns, including a career-high 34 games played and 32 starts in 2015. For his efforts that year, which included two goals and five assists, Caldwell earned 2015 Team MVP honors from fans and the Players' Player of the Year award from teammates.

RENNICKS OPENS PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNT IN OPEN CUP

Revolution forward and Homegrown Player Justin Rennicks opened his professional account in the U.S. Open Cup Round of 16 on June 19 at Orlando, tucking a header inside the near post in extra time to cut New England's deficit to one.

Two weeks earlier, Rennicks scored the game-winning goal for the United States Under-20 Men's National Team in its FIFA U-20 World Cup Round of 16 win against France on June 4. Rennicks entered the match as a substitute in the 63rd minute and slotted in a rebound in the 83rd minute, helping lift the Americans into the Quarterfinal, where they ultimately fell to Ecuador, 2-1.

In total, Rennicks appeared in four of the U-20 MNT's five games at the tournament. The South Hamilton, Mass. native played six minutes in the USA's 2-1 loss to Ukraine, three minutes of action in a 2-0 win against Nigeria, 27 minutes in the 3-2 win vs. France, and four minutes in the loss to Ecuador. On the youth international stage, Rennicks has represented the United States at the U-20, U-18, and U-16 levels, totaling more than 15 caps across all levels.

Currently in his first MLS season after signing his Homegrown Player contract on Jan. 18, 2019, Rennicks made his MLS debut on March 9 as a half-time substitute against Columbus Crew SC. Prior to joining the first team, he developed for more than four years in the Revolution Academy, scoring 38 goals and tallying 25 assists in 100-plus appearances across all levels. Rennicks was also the only two-time recipient of the UnitedHealthcare Revolution Academy Player of the Year Award in 2014 and 2015, and also the Revs' U-14 Player of the Year in 2013.

REVS ROOKIES JONES, BUCHANAN MAKING MAJOR IMPACT

New England is seeing early returns on its 2019 MLS SuperDraft selections, as Tajon Buchanan (ninth overall) and DeJuan Jones (11th overall) have factored into the team's rotation on a regular basis.

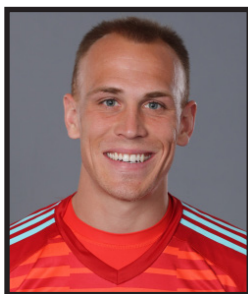

For the season, Buchanan has logged 391 minutes played across nine appearances, starting four, while contributing two assists. Meanwhile, Jones has totaled 635 minutes played across 11 appearances, including seven starts, with one goal and one assist. Jones has recently stepped into a left back role, making his first start at the position on May 25 vs. D.C. United.

The rookies' involvement has them ranked among this year's top-10 most active MLS rookies:

BRUCE ARENA

SPORTING DIRECTOR & HEAD COACH

- Named the Revolution's sporting director and the club's eighth head coach on May 14, 2019.
- Holds a record five MLS Cup titles (1996, 1997, 2011, 2012, 2014) and has amassed three MLS Supporters' Shields (1996, 2010, 2011), tied for the most all time.
- Currently the winningest active head coach in MLS and one of two coaches to reach 200 regular season MLS wins and 675 career points, holding a 203-121-90 record in MLS.
- Managed the U.S. Men's National Team during two separate stints (1998-2006, 2016-17), appearing in both the 2002 and 2006 World Cups, and winning three Gold Cup titles.
- Built a dynasty over 18 seasons as head coach at the University of Virginia, winning five NCAA Division-1 National Championships and six ACC titles.
- Coached the New York Red Bulls from 2006-07, before serving as the LA Galaxy head coach from 2008-16, where he won three MLS Cups in 2011, 2012, and 2014.

Bruce Arena is currently in his first season as Sporting Director and Head Coach of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on May 14, 2019. The five-time MLS Cup winner is the eighth head coach in club history and joins the Revolution following a Hall of Fame coaching career that has spanned more than 40 seasons at the collegiate, professional, and international levels.

The Long Island, N.Y. native joins the Revolution following one of the most decorated coaching careers in American soccer history. Arena's MLS resume includes a record five MLS Cup titles, three Supporters' Shields, seven conference championships, one U.S. Open Cup title, and one Concacaf Champions' Cup. In his previous 14 seasons as an MLS coach, Arena earned three MLS Coach of the Year selections, first in 1997 with D.C. United before being honored in 2009 and 2011 with the LA Galaxy. He returns to the sidelines as the winningest active head coach in MLS history with a record of 203-121-89, and is one of two coaches to have surpassed 200 career regular season wins, along with Sigi Schmid.

On the international stage, Arena, 67, coached the U.S. Men's National Team over two separate stints from 1998-2006 and 2016-17, amassing the most wins in the program's history with a record of 81-35-32. He led the Stars and Stripes to a Quarterfinal finish in the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup – the country's best showing since 1930 – as well an appearance in the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. Arena also guided the U.S. Men's National Team to more Gold Cup titles than any other coach, capturing the continental trophy three times in 2002, 2005, and 2017.

Before his time in the professional ranks, Arena began his head coaching career with one season at the University of Puget Sound (1976), before being named the head coach at the University of Virginia in 1978. During his decorated 18-year tenure at Virginia, he led the Cavaliers to five NCAA Division-1 National Championships, including four in a row from 1991-94, as well as six ACC Men's Soccer titles (1988, 1991-95). While at Virginia, Arena coached a number of American soccer legends, including Claudio Reyna, John Harkes, and current D.C. United Head Coach Ben Olsen.

In 1996, Arena received an offer to lead the United States Under-23 Men's National Team in the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta. Shortly after the Olympics, he assumed the head role with D.C. United, where he led the Black-and-Red to a 61-35 record, including the first two MLS Cup titles in 1996 and 1997, and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title in 1996.

Following the 1998 FIFA Men's World Cup in France, the United States Soccer Federation turned to Arena, who helped the team qualify for the 2002 FIFA Men's World Cup. In the tournament, Arena's team recorded an impressive win over powerhouse Portugal and topped Mexico, 2-0, in the Round of 16 en route to the nation's first appearance in the Quarterfinals in a 72-year span. That same year, Arena led the USMNT to the Concacaf Gold Cup title, one of his three triumphs in the competition.

In 2005, Arena won his second Concacaf Gold Cup ahead of the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup in Germany. In the 2006 tournament, the United States earned a 1-1 draw against Italy, but a 2-1 defeat to Ghana sent the USMNT home early.

The next season, Arena took charge of the New York Red Bulls, where he spent the end of the 2006 season and all of the 2007 campaign. In 2008, Arena joined the LA Galaxy for what would be an incredible nine-year tenure that included three MLS Cups in a four-year span and two Supporters' Shields in 2010 and 2011.

Following his decorated career with the Galaxy, Arena rejoined the U.S. Men's National Team in November 2016. In his second run as head coach, he lost only two out of 18 games at the helm, though the United States fell short of qualification for the 2018 FIFA Men's World Cup.

A 2010 National Soccer Hall of Fame inductee, Arena was named the 2015 Werner Fricker Builder Award recipient, earning U.S. Soccer's highest honor for his more than 40 years of service to the game.

A talented lacrosse player, Arena grew up on Long Island and would go on to attend Nassau Community College, where he played both lacrosse and soccer. Arena then transferred to Cornell University in 1971, where as a goalkeeper, he led his team to the 1972 NCAA College Cup Final Four and earned the tournament's Most Valuable Defensive Player award. During the 1973 season, Arena contributed as an assistant coach with Cornell, before then accepting a head coaching position at the University of Puget Sound.

Off the field, Arena has authored a number of books and is a member of the NJCAA Lacrosse Hall of Fame, after receiving induction in 2008. Arena's son, Kenny, was an assistant coach under his father with the LA Galaxy from 2014-16, before joining the staff of Los Angeles FC in 2018, where he currently serves as an assistant coach.

STAFF BIOS

RICHIE WILLIAMS

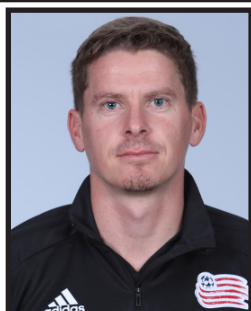

ASSISTANT COACH

Richie Williams will enter his first season as an assistant coach for the New England Revolution when he officially joins Bruce Arena's staff in June. Williams brings 15 years of coaching experience in Major League Soccer, USL Championship, and the United States Men's National Team to New England. He most recently served as the first ever head coach of USL Championship side Loudoun United FC.

A native of Middletown Township, New Jersey, Williams has previously served as either an assistant coach or head coach for seven different teams over the course of his coaching career. Prior to managing Loudoun United in 2019, he served as an assistant coach for the United States Men's National Team from 2017-18. In addition, he has served as an assistant for Real Salt Lake in 2016, the U.S. U-17 MNT from 2012-15, the U.S. U-18 MNT from 2011-12, the New York Red Bulls from 2006-11 -- where he also completed two stints as interim head coach in 2006 and 2009 -- and the University of Virginia from 2005-06.

Williams enjoyed a successful playing career prior to entering the coaching ranks. He played under Bruce Arena at multiple stops during his career, including at the University of Virginia from 1988-91, D.C. United from 1996-98, and the United States Men's National Team from 1998-2002. Together, Arena and Williams won an NCAA Championship at the University of Virginia in 1991, before helping D.C. United to three consecutive MLS Cup appearances, including championships in 1996 and 1997.

The former midfielder also earned 20 international caps with the USMNT under Arena, highlighted by a CONCACAF Gold Cup title in 2002. He also spent time with the Richmond Kickers in 1993 and 2004-05, Scottish side Ayr United FC from 1993-94, and the New York/New Jersey MetroStars in 2001 and 2003.

JARRYD PHILLIPS

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Jarryd Phillips is currently in his first season as Director of Sports Performance for the New England Revolution after joining Bruce Arena's staff in June 2019. He brings six years of experience as a sports science and performance coach to the Revolution, including time in MLS, USL, NASL, and the NCAA.

Phillips arrives in New England after spending nearly three years as Director of Performance & Sports Science for Minnesota United FC. He established and directed all facets of the performance department for Minnesota's first team and academy beginning in July 2016, as the club prepared to ascend from the NASL to MLS in 2017. In his role with the Loons, he oversaw all nutritional aspects of the squad, administered strength and fitness programs, and participated in daily training sessions.

Prior to joining Minnesota, Phillips spent nearly two seasons as a performance coach with Seattle Sounders FC from January 2015 through July 2016. Before entering the professional coaching ranks, he worked as an assistant coach at the University of Mary in North Dakota from 2013-14. Phillips began his coaching career with the Premier Development League's Thunder Bay Chill in 2012.

Phillips earned his undergraduate degree at the University of Maine before attending graduate school at the University of Mary in South Dakota, where he received a master's degree in kinesiology and exercise science. He holds USSF and UEFA coaching licenses and is an NSCA Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

KEVIN HITCHCOCK

ASSISTANT COACH

Kevin Hitchcock enters his first season as Assistant Coach for the New England Revolution after joining the club's staff in April 2019. Hitchcock arrives in New England with nearly two decades of professional coaching experience in the top flights of England, Qatar, and India, as well as a decorated 18-year playing career in England.

Hitchcock, who owns a UEFA 'A' Goalkeeper License and UEFA 'B' License, has spent the last 18 years as a first-team goalkeeper coach with several top-flight clubs. His experience includes stints with Watford FC (2001-04), Blackburn Rovers FC (2004-08), Manchester City FC (2008-10), Fulham FC (2011), Queens Park Rangers (2012-15), Al Arabi Sports Club (2015-16), and Birmingham City FC (2016-18). Most recently, Hitchcock spent one year as the goalkeepers coach for Indian Super League side Chennaiyin FC.

Hitchcock has coached and developed a number of elite professional goalkeepers, including Joe Hart, Kasper Schmeichel, Shay Given, Robert Green, Júlío César, and Mark Schwarzer, among others.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Hitchcock registered nearly 300 appearances across an 18-year playing career in England, highlighted by two FA Cups, one League Cup, one Cup Winners Cup, and one Super Cup with Chelsea FC. In total, he recorded 96 appearances for The Blues from 1988-2001, also completing loan assignments to West Ham United FC (1993) and Northampton Town FC (1990) during his time with the club. Prior to joining Chelsea, Hitchcock began his professional career with Mansfield Town FC, where he made 168 appearances from 1984-88. At the youth level, he played with both Nottingham Forest FC and Barking F.C.

DAVE VAN DEN BERGH

ASSISTANT COACH

Dave van den Bergh enters his first season as Assistant Coach for the New England Revolution after joining the club's staff in June 2019. Van den Bergh, 43, arrives in New England following nine years as a coach with various United States Youth National teams.

The Amsterdam native served as assistant coach for the United States Under-20 Men's National Team in 2019 and from 2010-16, head coach of the United States Under-19 Men's National Team in 2018, and head coach of the United States Under-15s from 2016-18. Van den Bergh recorded a 6-0-4 record as head of the U.S. U-15s, and helped guide the U-20s to consecutive Quarterfinal appearances in the 2015 and 2019 FIFA U-20 World Cups.

Van den Bergh enjoyed a decorated playing career from 1995-2009, featuring extensively in the Dutch Eredivisie, La Liga, and Major League Soccer. He began his career with Dutch powerhouse Ajax in 1995 after spending 10 years in the club's academy. Van den Bergh made 12 appearances across three seasons for Ajax -- highlighted by a league title in the 1995-96 season -- before moving to Spanish side Rayo Vallecano, where he logged 47 appearances from 1997-2000. He returned to the Eredivisie in 2000, joining FC Utrecht. The winger scored 29 goals across 184 games played for Utrecht, and led the club to consecutive Dutch Cup wins in 2003 and 2004, as well as a Dutch Super Cup title in 2004. Van den Bergh signed with the Kansas City Wizards of Major League Soccer in 2006. After one season with Kansas City, he joined the New York Red Bulls, where he played under Bruce Arena in 2007. Following two seasons with New York, Van den Bergh featured for FC Dallas in 2009.

On the international stage, Van den Bergh collected two caps with the Netherlands in 2004.

STAFF BIOS

CURT ONALFO
TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

Curt Onalfo is currently in his first season as Technical Director of the New England Revolution after his appointment to the position on June 2, 2019. In his role, Onalfo will work closely with Sporting Director Bruce Arena managing the club's day-to-day soccer operations, including oversight of the Revolution Academy and the scouting department.

The Sao Paulo, Brazil native and Ridgefield, Conn. product joins the Revolution following an extensive coaching and playing career in Major League Soccer and with the United States Men's National Team. Onalfo has won MLS Cup as both a player and a coach, including one as a member of D.C. United in 1999, and three as an assistant coach with the LA Galaxy in 2011, 2012, and 2014.

Onalfo owns 12 total years of MLS coaching experience, highlighted by stints as head coach of D.C. United (2010), the then-Kansas City Wizards (2007-09), and the LA Galaxy (2017). While continuing as an assistant with the Galaxy, he also served as the inaugural head coach of USL Championship side LA Galaxy II from 2014-16, where he led the club to a Western Conference title in 2015. When he departed "Los Dos" to take over head coaching duties with the Galaxy first team, his overall record with the developmental side finished at 46-29-20.

On the international level, Onalfo spent six years as an assistant coach for the United States Men's National Team under Bruce Arena. He served as an assistant for the USMNT from 2002-07 – including at the 2002 and 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup™ – and also worked as an assistant with the U.S. Under-23 MNT in 2002. Prior to joining the Revolution, he most recently assisted the U.S. Under-20 Men's National Team from 2018 through May 2019, including in Poland at the FIFA U-20 Men's World Cup™, and briefly served as acting head coach of the U-19 side for a training camp in January 2019.

Onalfo, 49, entered the coaching ranks an assistant with D.C. United in 2000 following his retirement. He remained with the Black and Red until September 2002, briefly serving as interim head coach in 2001. After his time in the U.S. Men's National Team setup, Onalfo was appointed head coach of the Kansas City Wizards shortly after the 2006 FIFA Men's World Cup. He led Kansas City for two-and-a-half seasons, compiling a 27-29-22 record, and helped the club reach the postseason twice, including a Western Conference Finals appearance in 2007. In December 2009, Onalfo was named head coach of D.C. United, where he would remain for eight months before departing the club.

After starring for Ridgefield High School, Onalfo played collegiately for Bruce Arena at the University of Virginia from 1987-1990. In four seasons with the Cavaliers, he earned a pair of All-ACC First Team selections and helped the team win the 1988 ACC Championship. He began his professional career with French side La Ciotat in 1991, before featuring for the Connecticut Wolves of the USISL from 1994-95, and Mexican second division side Tampico Madero in 1995.

Onalfo was selected by the LA Galaxy in the inaugural MLS Draft and would make 13 appearances for the club in 1996, helping it reach the first ever MLS Cup. The defender went on to register 23 appearances across four seasons in MLS, spending additional time with San Jose (1997) and D.C. United (1998-99). He recorded one international cap with the U.S. Men's National Team and featured extensively at the youth level, including the 1989 FIFA World Youth Championship, the 1991 Pan American Games, and the 1992 Summer Olympics.

Onalfo's journey took a detour soon after the 1992 Olympics, when a diagnosis of stage three Hodgkin's disease at the age of 24 disrupted his career and nearly ended his life. After surviving his arduous battle with cancer, Onalfo resumed his playing career with Connecticut and then Mexican side Tampico FC, before joining the Galaxy for the inaugural MLS season.

REMI ROY

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING & PRO PERSONNEL

Remi Roy is currently in his 10th season with the New England Revolution and his second as the club's Director of Scouting & Player Personnel, having been named to the position in January 2018. Roy has been with the club since 2010, previously serving as an assistant coach with New England for eight seasons.

In his new role, Roy is focused on scouting and talent identification in players at the collegiate, national, and international levels. He works closely with the Revolution technical staff in player evaluation and has a role in all soccer-related aspects of the organization, including communication with agents and facilitating MLS communication and compliance.

Roy was heavily engaged in the Revolution's scouting operations throughout his tenure as an assistant coach, contributing to the club's domestic and international scouting efforts. As an assistant coach, first under Steve Nicol and then for six seasons on Jay Heaps' staff, he worked primarily with the Revs' first-team goalkeepers and also provided additional training for the Revolution Academy goalkeepers.

During his time on the Revs' coaching staff, Roy mentored several talented goalkeepers and helped them each achieve success in the professional ranks. In addition to coaching former Revs goalkeeper Matt Reis in his pursuit of MLS longevity and success, Roy helped Bobby Shuttleworth establish himself as one of the league's premier goalkeepers since his debut in 2010. In 2016, Roy's guidance helped Brad Knighton start a career-high 13 matches, including six wins.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile in Alabama, his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff. Additionally, he served as the Puerto Rico national team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Saltys (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07).

Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region, and All-American honors. He also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL) with the Jackson Chargers (1998-99), Des Moines Menace (2000), and the Spokane Shadow (2001).

Roy holds a USSF "A" License and Level I and II NSCAA Goalkeeping Licenses. A native of Petit-Rocher, New Brunswick, Canada, Roy lives south of Boston with his wife and three kids.
